REVOLUTIONARY ASSOCIATION IN PUBLIC DEFENCE, SOUTH CAROLINA, 1775*

The actual commencement of hostilities against this continent by the British troops in the bloody scenes on the 19th of April last, was Boston, the increase of arbitrary impositions from a wicked and despotic ministry, and the dread of instigated insurrections in the colonies are causes sufficient to drive an oppressed people to the use of arms:

We, therefore, the subscribers, inhabitants of South Carolina, holding ourselves bound by that most sacred of all obligations, the duty of good citizens toward an injured country, and thoroughly convinced that under our present distressed circumstances we shall be justified before God and man in resisting force by force, do unite ourselves under every tie of religion, and of honour and associate as a band at her defence, against every foe: Hereby solemnly engaging that, whenever our continental and provincial councils shall decree it necessary we will go forth and be ready to sacrifice our lives and fortunes to secure her freedom and safety. This obligation to continue in full force until a reconciliation shall take place between Great Britain and America, upon constitutional principles, an event which we most ardently desire, and we will hold all those persons inimical to the liberty of the colonies who shall refuse to subscribe this association.

LETTER TO SUMTER WATCHMAN AND SOUTHRON

By McDONALD FURMAN

"Mr. Editor: The above Revolutionary Document was published in the Columbia State, April 8, 1900. It is of so interesting a nature that we ask its republication in your columns. Judging from names, several of those "Signers" must have lived in what is now Sumter County. Wood Furman, one of those Signers, was a member of the famous Jacksonborough Assembly which met in January, 1782, and of which Gen. McCrady in his History of South Carolina in the Revolution says, "A more distinguished body of men had never before and never after met in the state of South Carolina nor perhaps in any state in the Union." This was the first Legislative session after the Revolution and was a most important body. General McCrady gives a full and most interesting account, also a list of the members. Mr. Furman was from the D Camden Election District. Henry Haynsworth who was another Signer of the Revolutionary Document published in the State married Wood Furman's daughter.

(Signed) McDONALD FURMAN

Privateer, Sumter Co. [S. C.] July 20, 1903."
