(Note I had thought these two were the same but the initial A.
in the Deed in Chester would seem to prove otherwise and these would have had to be her grandchildren as they are not listed as heirs)

The following is taken from the McClintock Reunion Papers. This reunion was mostly the family of My grandmother and her two brothers.

James McClintock is the first know ancestor. They have a copy of his naturalization papers which I am sending you so will not copy-

Robert McClintock (son of James) married Elizabeth Fullerton-
They are supposed to be buried Old Hopewell, A.R. P. Cemetery Chester, Co. - There is no gravestone, which seems to be normal with this family. My grandmother said that they died very close together and that their children were scattered.
