

Bill,

I may be able to shed some light on the Jackson-McCreight relationship.

1) Wm McCreight's daughter, Lucinda (Lucy) Rachel McCreight (8/30/1812-4/21/1865) married abt 1839 my g-g-g-grandfather, Samuel Andrew Jackson

(12/29/1804-9/11/1869)

She was his second wife. They had 8 children. Their main home was 4-5 miles south of Winnsboro in the old Oakland community.

2) Their oldest son, Wm Floyd Jackson (3/22/1843-12/1/1910) married on 6/10/1869 Mary Eliz. Milling (1848-5/8/1895). Wm Floyd Jackson's youngest sister was named

Inez McCreight Jackson

3) Their daughter, Florence L. Jackson married John Oscar Durham Allison. These were my father's grandparents.

My father, John E. Allison, Sr. (1930-2004) told me that as a child he would accompany his grandparents several times a year to Winnsboro for large Sunday dinners in the old McCreight house. I don't remember who lived there then, but I do remember that it wasn't a McCreight(?).

I believe this would explain why there are Jackson photos in the McCreight box of photos that Pelham has. There must have been a fairly close relationship between the McCrieghts and Jacksons in Winnsboro.

I have a photo of a portrait of Saml Jackson. The portrait is in a private home in Raleigh, NC. Just let me know if you need a copy of the photo.

I hope this helps. Please let me know if I can answer any questions for you.

Regards,
John

portrait of Saml Jackson. One of my cousins thinks the lady's name that owns the portrait is Victoria Brannon Pickrell