

18

McKemie Pioneers

of his brother Robert, is communicant and co-founder of Abington Presbyterian Church in Abington, Pa. (Son of Robert, according to William Moore's McKemie's genealogical tables.)

1723. Francis McKemie, nephew of the Reverend. Francis, marries Ann, daughter of elder Joseph Breden. Children: Robert, 1724; Joseph, 1726, named for grandfather; Elizabeth, 1730; James, 1732; John, 1734, who is the John who married Jane Elliott in 1766<sup>4</sup> and emigrated to South Carolina, became the father of Johnston and numerous other McKemies.

1748. John McKemey, Augusta Co., Va., land deed from Henry Downs.

1749. John McKeamy, Augusta Co., Va., deed from Jane Downs.

1750. William McAmy, Hanover Township, Lancaster, Pa., land survey, 100 acres, not patented.

1751. William McCamish, Hamilton Township, Cumberland Co., Pa., 200 acres surveyed. 1754. John McCamy, Lurgan Township, Cumberland Co., Pa., 50 acres surveyed.

1758. Francis McKaimy, Orange Co., N.C., born Aug. 15, moved to Guilford Co. about 1780-90.

1761. Jane McKemie Cunningham, nr. Williamsburg, Va., executor of husband's will, Sam Cunningham, along with brother, John McKemie.

---

<sup>4</sup> As recorded by Carlton Cain (2133 Carter Road, Geneva, New York), in McKemie Genealogy of Southwest Georgia, Limited Private Publication, 1986, with Margery Meadows Watts.