Mr. W. T. McKeown Dead.

Mr. William Thompson McKeown died at his home one and a half miles west of Cornwell, about 3 a. m. June 25th, after a lingering illness of more than four years.

He was born near Cornwell Oct. 29th, 1831. He was the oldest child of James and Polly (Thompson) McKeown, his father dying when he was just six years old and leaving the mother with four small children. One of these died in childhood, and the other brother, John Bigham McKeown, was mortally wounded at the "Blow Up" near Petersburg, Va., and died Aug. 10, 1861. The only sister, Mrs. W. O. McKeown, still survives.

He removed to Arkansas in 1857 and at the breaking out of the war, entered the western army from that state. He was an artisan in the army and ate mule meat during the siege of Vicksburg. After the fall of that point, he was transferred eastward. At the close of the war, he stopped off at Cornwell to see relatives, fully intending to go on to his western home. However, he decided to remain here with his aged mother.

Nearly thirty years ago he married Miss Mollie Castles, who survives and has been a faithful wife and true helpmeet indeed in his declining years. They had no children.

For several years after the war, he conducted a wagon making and blacksmith shop in addition to his farm but finally retired to the quiet of farm life.

The burial was to be this morning at 10 o'clock in the family burial ground, at Cornwell.

Samuel Thompson McKeown's Obituary appeared in the Wednesday, November 14, 1934, Edition of "The Chester News," Chester, South Carolina. It read:

HON. SAM'L. T. McKEOWN DIED YESTERDAY P. M.

Hon. Samuel Thompson McKeown, one of the last of Chester county's few remaining Confederate veterans, died yesterday afternoon at is home near Cornwell, following a gradual decline in health over a long period.

Mr. McKeown was a native of the Cornwell neighborhood, and was born August 7, 1846, the son of Samuel and Jennie Thompson McKeown.

Funeral services were conducted at the home this morning by Revs. W. A. Kennedy, S. A. Ewart, and A. M. MacLaughlin. Interment was in the family cemetery on the plantation. A large concourse of friends and neighbors were present to pay their tribute of respect to this good man.

Mr. McKeown was active in politics for a number of years, and was a member of the House of Representatives all told for six terms. He also served for two terms as a member of the Board of Trustees of Clemson College.

In the War between the States Mr. McKeown was a member of the First Regiment, South Carolina Volunteers. Following the war he took an active part in the redemption of the State from radical domination. Mr. McKeown was intensely interested in improving the farmer's condition, and took an active part in the Alliance and similar organizations. He was a man who enjoyed the love and unbounded confidence and esteem of his fellow-citizens, and his long life was a benediction to his community.

Mr. McKeown is survived by three nieces as follows: Mrs. May McFadden, of Clinton, and Mrs. Young Kennedy and Miss Fannie Boyd, both of Cornwell. He is also survived by five grandchildren: Moffatt McKeown, Graniteville, Mrs. M. J. Munley, of New Jersey; James McKeown, Miller McKeown and Elizabeth McKeown, all of Cornwell.

Note: If my records are correct, I think that grandchild Mrs. M. J. Munley should be Mrs. William Munley; Katherine Wylie McKeown and William Munley had a daughter named Mary Jane Munley.

He married Catherine "Katie" Eliva Simpson, b. 12 Mar 1852 in South Carolina, d. 17 Oct 1930, census 8 Jun 1900 in House Number 189, Blackstock, Blackstock Township, Chester County, South Carolina, buried in McKeown Family Cemetery, Chester County, South Carolina, census 18 Apr 1910 in House Number 22, Blackstock Township, Chester County, South Carolina, census 21 Jan 1920 in House Number 126, Farm, Blackstock Township, Chester County, South Carolina, census 8 Apr 1930 in House Number 68, Blackstock Township, Chester County, South Carolina.

D. Plyler on Oakland Avenue with Dr. Joseph Lee Grier, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church of Chester, officiating.
