From The Lantern, Chester SC / 24 Jun 1908

Mr. W. T. McKeown Dead.

Mr. William Thompson McKeown died at his home one and a half miles west of Cornwell, about 3 a. m. June 25th, after a lingering illness of more than four years.

He was born near Cornwell Oct. 29th, 1831. He was the oldest child of James and Polly (Thompson) McKeown, his father dying when he was just six years old and leaving the mother with four small children. One of these died in childhood, and the other brother, John Bigham McKeown, was mortally wounded at the "Blow Up" near Petersburg, Va., and died Aug. 10, 1861. The only sister, Mrs. W. O. McKeown, still survives.

He removed to Arkansas in 1857 and at the breaking out of the war, entered the western army from that state. He was an artisan in the army and ate mule meat during the siege of Vicksburg. After the fall of that point, he was transferred eastward. At the close of the war, he stopped off at Cornwell to see relatives, fully intending to go on to his western home. However, he decided to remain here with his aged mother.

Nearly thirty years ago he married Miss Mollie Castles, who survives and has been a faithful wife and true helpmeet indeed in his declining years. They had no children.

For several years after the war, he conducted a wagon making and blacksmith shop in addition to his farm but finally retired to the quiet of farm life.

The burial was to be this morning at 10 o'clock in the family burial ground, at Cornwell.

Samuel Thompson McKeown's Obituary appeared in the Wednesday, November 14, 1934, Edition of "The Chester News," Chester, South Carolina. It read:

HON. SAM'L. T. McKEOWN DIED YESTERDAY P. M.

Hon. Samuel Thompson McKeown, one of the last of Chester county's few remaining Confederate veterans, died yesterday afternoon at is home near Cornwell, following a gradual decline in health over a long period.

Mr. McKeown was a native of the Cornwell neighborhood, and was born August 7, 1846, the son of Samuel and Jennie Thompson McKeown.

Funeral services were conducted at the home this morning by Revs. W. A. Kennedy, S. A. Ewart, and A. M. MacLaughlin. Interment was in the family cemetery on the plantation. A large concourse of friends and neighbors were present to pay their tribute of respect to this good man.

Mr. McKeown was active in politics for a number of years, and was a member of the House of Representatives all told for six terms. He also served for two terms as a member of the Board of Trustees of Clemson College.

In the War between the States Mr. McKeown was a member of the First Regiment, South Carolina Volunteers. Following the war he took an active part in the redemption of the State from radical domination. Mr. McKeown was intensely interested in improving the farmer's condition, and took an active part in the Alliance and similar organizations. He was a man who enjoyed the love and unbounded confidence and esteem of his fellow-citizens, and his long life was a benediction to his community.

Mr. McKeown is survived by three nieces as follows: Mrs. May McFadden, of Clinton, and Mrs. Young Kennedy and Miss Fannie Boyd, both of Cornwell. He is also survived by five grandchildren: Moffatt McKeown, Graniteville, Mrs. M. J. Munley, of New Jersey; James McKeown, Miller McKeown and Elizabeth McKeown, all of Cornwell.

Note: If my records are correct, I think that grandchild Mrs. M. J. Munley should be Mrs. William Munley; Katherine Wylie McKeown and William Munley had a daughter named Mary Jane Munley.

He married Catherine "Katie" Eliva Simpson, b. 12 Mar 1852 in South Carolina, d. 17 Oct 1930, census 8 Jun 1900 in House Number 189, Blackstock, Blackstock Township, Chester County, South Carolina, buried in McKeown Family Cemetery, Chester County, South Carolina, census 18 Apr 1910 in House Number 22, Blackstock Township, Chester County, South Carolina, census 21 Jan 1920 in House Number 126, Farm, Blackstock Township, Chester County, South Carolina, census 8 Apr 1930 in House Number 68, Blackstock Township, Chester County, South Carolina.

MRS. MARY E. McKEOWN PASSES IN OKLAHOMA

A message was received by relatives yesterday announcing the sudden death of Mrs. Mary Elder McKeown, wife of Mr. T. B. McKeown, at her home in Ada, Oklahoma. A message was received the night before telling of her serious illness, and a short time later another message arrived, telling of her death.

Mrs. McKeown was 62 years of age, a native of the Blackstock section of Chester county and a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Elder.

Relatives have not yet been advised of funeral and burial arrangements, but it is probable that interment will be made in Ada.

She is survived by one daughter, Miss Kate McKeown, of Ada, who was in the county visiting relatives at the time of her mother's death, coming especially to attend the McKeown family reunion last Thursday; four sons, Messrs. Ferris McKeown, Mayo McKeown, Alex McKeown and Leroy McKeown, all of Oklahoma; two step daughters, Mrs. Tom Royster, of Bessemer City, N. C., and Mrs. Bessie McKeown, of Blackstock; and step-son, Congressman Tom D. McKeown, of Ada, Okla., and two sisters, Mrs. A. Mayo McKeown, of Blackstock, and Mrs. Nannie E. Black, of Chester.

Dies at Blackstock

Chester, Oct. 16 - (Special) - Anderson Mayo McKeown, 84, one of Chester county's oldest citizens and prominent planter of the Blackstock community and raiser of blooded Guernsey cattle, died today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Miner Smith, at Spartanburg of a heart attack. His sudden death came as a great chock to his host of friends in Chester and throughout the county where he was well known and popular. Although his health had not been very good for some time, he was able to be up. Funeral services will be conducted from the Bethlehem Methodist church, Chester county, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in the church cemetery. The Rev. S A. Ewart of the Blackstock Presbyterian church and the Rev. W. A. Kennedy of Hopewell ARP church will officiate. Mr. Keown married Miss Annie Norwood Elder of Blackstock, who died about five years ago. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Kirk McKeown of Blackstock and Mrs. Miner Smith of Spartanburg; a brother, Sam O. McKeown of Cornwell, and two granddaughters, Mrs. Samuel Royster McKeown of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Susie Norwood McKeown, teacher a Emory university, Emory, Ga. His son, Addison McKeown, widely known district farm demonstration agent, died two years ago. He is also survived by a granddaughter, Lillian Elizabeth McKeown of Baltimore. Mr. McKeown was a member of the Blackstock Presbyterian church. He took a great interest in Guernsey cattle. He was a leading member of the celebrated "Red Shirts" under Gen. Wade Hampton in 1876. While he never sought public office he was widely interested in politics in an effort to see that good men were elected. He was a familiar figure at the Chester county Democratic conventions, often speaking.

NOTE: In 1876, "gun clubs", whose members began calling themselves Red Shirts, began a systematic campaign to terrorize blacks and Republicans so Hampton could win the governorship.

McDill-McKeown

Centering much interest was the lovely wedding of Miss Eloise McDill of Chester and James Simpson McKeown of Blackstock which took place at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, December 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Plyler on Oakland Avenue with Dr. Joseph Lee Grier, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church of Chester, officiating. The vows were spoken before, an improvised altar of palms, ivy, white carnations and chrysanthemums and white candles in candelabra effectively arranged.

Before the ceremony "Ave Maria" by Shubert was played as a violin solo by Mrs. James Watt Weir, Jr., of Blackstock, accompanied by Mrs. W. M. Cogburn of Chester. Mrs. Sara Plyler of Chester sang "Because" by D'Harbelot, also accompanied by Mrs. Cogburn. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner was used for the processional and the Wedding March from Midsummer Night's Dream by Mendelssohn was used for the recessional. During the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell was softly given.

Candles were lighted by Miss Lillian Weir of Blackstock.

The bride and groom entered together unattended. The impressive double ring ceremony was used.

The bride was lovely in a two-piece suit of mid-night purple with brown accessories. She carried a white satin covered prayer book, showered with purple throated orchid and valley lilies.

Mrs. R. B. McDill, mother of the bride, wore black with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. James S. McKeown, mother of the bridegroom also wore black with a corsage of Talisman-roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's sister, Mrs. C. D. Plyler, entertained at a small reception, for the two families and a few special friends. Serving were Misses Helen and Anne Plyer, Mrs. Herbert Albertson, Miss Sara Plyer, Miss Ethel McKeown and little Misses Charlotte Plyler and Sara Ann Dixon.

Mrs. McKeown is the charming and attractive daughter of Mrs. Robert Brice McDill and the late Mr. McDill of Chester. She is a graduate of the Chester high school and at present is counselor for the United States Rubber Company of Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. McKeown is the second son of Mrs. James Simpson McKeown and the late Major McKeown. He attended the Chester high school and is engaged in farming.

During the afternoon the young couple left on a short wedding trip.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wylie of Rock Hill; Mrs. James McLurkin, Misses Mae and Margaret Maloney of Sharon; Miss Tice and Miss Eloise Stewart of Charlotte, N. C.

McDill-McKeown

Centering much interest was the lovely wedding of Miss Eloise McDill of Chester and James Simpson McKeown of Blackstock which took place at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, December 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Plyler on Oakland Avenue with Dr. Joseph Lee Grier, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church of Chester, officiating. The vows were spoken before, an improvised altar of palms, ivy, white carnations and chrysanthemums and white candles in candelabra effectively arranged.

Before the ceremony "Ave Maria" by Shubert was played as a violin solo by Mrs. James Watt Weir, Jr., of Blackstock, accompanied by Mrs. W. M. Cogburn of Chester. Mrs. Sara Plyler of Chester sang "Because" by D'Harbelot, also accompanied by Mrs. Cogburn. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner was used for the processional and the Wedding March from Midsummer Night's Dream by Mendelssohn was used for the recessional. During the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell was softly given.

Candles were lighted by Miss Lillian Weir of Blackstock.

The bride and groom entered together unattended. The impressive double ring ceremony was used.

The bride was lovely in a two-piece suit of mid-night purple with brown accessories. She carried a white satin covered prayer book, showered with purple throated orchid and valley lilies.

Mrs. R. B. McDill, mother of the bride, wore black with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. James

S. McKeown, mother of the bridegroom also wore black with a corsage of Talisman-roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's sister, Mrs. C. D. Plyler, entertained at a small reception, for the two families and a few special friends. Serving were Misses Helen and Anne Plyler, Mrs. Herbert Albertson, Miss Sara Plyler, Miss Ethel McKeown and little Misses Charlotte Plyler and Sara Ann Dixon.

Mrs. McKeown is the charming and attractive daughter of Mrs. Robert Brice McDill and the late Mr. McDill of Chester. She is a graduate of the Chester high school and at present is counselor for the United States Rubber Company of Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. McKeown is the second son of Mrs. James Simpson McKeown and the late Major McKeown. He attended the Chester high school and is engaged in farming.

During the afternoon the young couple left on a short wedding trip.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wylie of Rock Hill; Mrs. James McLurkin, Misses Mae and Margaret Maloney of Sharon; Miss Tice and Miss Eloise Stewart of Charlotte, N. C.

Aiken Standard - (Nov/17/2003)
Calvin Miller McKeown

Calvin Miller McKeown died Thursday, Nov. 13 at Trinity Lutheran Home following a period of declining health. For more than 50 years he lived with his family at 3503 Summit Drive in Aiken.

Mr. McKeown was first married to the late Martha Wright McKeown, who died in 1962. He is survived by his wife of 36 years, Inoise Kneece McKeown; two daughters, Millie Leaphart of Greenville, and Catherine C. Love of Asheville, N.C.; and one son, Samuel W. McKeown of Blackstock. He is also survived by three stepchildren, Carol Willis Smith of Goose Creek, Rebecca Willis Patch of Asheville, N.C., and Daniel C. Willis of Aiken; and ten grandchildren. A fourth stepchild, Jane Willis Clark, predeceased him.

Born April 19, 1915, Mr. McKeown was a native of Blackstock, the son of Janie Wylie McKeown and James Simpson McKeown. Mr. McKeown has been described by friends as a man whose word was his bond. He held great respect for family and church work, science and conservation. His first connection with the Aiken/Graniteville area was in the summers of 1935-1937 working for the Graniteville Company while a student at Clemson University. After graduation from Clemson in 1938, he took a full-time position with the Graniteville Company in 1940. Mr. McKeown joined the military as an infantry officer. As a graduate engineer he was later transferred to the Army Air Corps. His final posting was with the Allied Forces in Austria. He left the service with the rank of major.

After military service, he was employed by the Monsanto Company in Houston, Texas. Two years later, he returned to the Graniteville Company to start a career that would span 42 years. Starting as a research engineer in 1947, he moved on to be plant manager at Woodhead Division, a position he would hold until 1972 when he became director of environmental engineering. Mr. McKeown also served on the Aiken County Public Service Authority from the time it was established in 1973. In this capacity he helped the Graniteville Company comply with the regulations concerning removal of pollution from Horse Creek.

Mr. McKeown was an active member of St. John United Methodist Church in Graniteville for more than 60 years. At St. John he served the church in various capacities including chairman of the house grounds committee and Sunday school teacher for the men's class. Retirement gave him time for the pursuit of his lifelong passions of gardening and conservation, and he received the "Master Gardener" designation. During these years, he took pride and pleasure in the individual achievements and his ten grandchildren. Memorial services will be held on Sunday, Nov. 16 at 4 p.m. at St. John United Methodist Church in Graniteville. The family will receive friends after the memorial service at the Bessie Pearl Williams Building. These arrangements were made in respect of Mr. McKeown's wishes that his body be donated to the Medical College of Georgia in the interest of science. The family gratefully acknowledges the help of Hitchcock Hospice.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to St. John United Methodist Church, 18 Gregg St., P.O. Box 38, Graniteville.
Napier Funeral Home, 315 Main St., Graniteville.

He married (1) Martha Wright, b. 18 Jul 1922, d. 27 Jan 1963, buried in McKeown Family Cemetery, Chester County, South Carolina.

He married (2) Inoise Kneece, b. ABT 1922 in Aiken, Aiken County, South Carolina, (daughter of Julian Pace Kneece and Lucie Gunter) d. 27 Feb 2008 in Aiken, Aiken County, South Carolina.

Inoise: Inoise "Penny" Kneece Willis McKeown, 86, died Wednesday, February 27, 2008.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at St. John United Methodist Church, Graniteville. Pastor Larry Watson will officiate. The family will receive friends following the service. Mrs. McKeown was born in Aiken County, a daughter of the late Julian Pace and Lucie Gunter Kneece. She was a lifelong resident of Aiken and a teacher in the Aiken County School System. She was a member of various bridge clubs and St. John United Methodist Church in Graniteville.

Survivors include four daughters, Millie Leaphart of Greenville, SC, Carol Smith of Goose Creek, SC, Becky Patch of Asheville, NC, Catherine Love of Weaverville, NC; two sons, Sam McKeown of Chester, SC, Dan Willis of Aiken, SC; 15 grandchildren; a brother, Monroe Kneece of Johnston, SC.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made St. John United Methodist Church, 18 Gregg St., Graniteville, SC 29829, or to Regency Hospice, 105 Summerwood Way, Aiken, SC 29803.

WINNSBORO — Funeral services for Emma Catherine McKeown Leitner, age 100, will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 4, 2007, at Bethel United Methodist Church, conducted by The Reverend Kathy Griffin, with burial to follow in the church cemetery. The family will receive friends from 6:00-8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 3, at Pope Funeral Home. Memorials may be made to Fairfield Memorial Hospital, PO Box 620, Winnsboro, SC 29180, or to Bethel United Methodist Church, 6688 State Highway 269, Winnsboro, SC 29180.

Mrs. Leitner died Monday, April 2, 2007. Daughter of the late Ephraim and Emma Lewis McKeown, "Miss Katie" was born on July 26, 1906, in Red Knob of Fairfield County and graduated from Greenbrier High School. She was the widow of the late John Wesley Leitner, Sr. She was a loving wife and mother and a friend to all she met. In 1956 she opened a little country store on Highway 215 where she sold Phillips 66 gas, dry goods, fresh meats, hoop cheese, and just about anything else one could need on any given day. She retired in 1976 and enjoyed taking care of her great-grandchildren and keeping in touch with all her family and friends. Miss Katie was always available, so her relatives and neighbors would stop by daily, sure to receive some Sanka coffee and something to eat along with the latest news in the family and community. She was the oldest living member of Bethel United Methodist Church. She had been in Fairfield Homes since 2002 before going to Fairfield Memorial Hospital where she went on to meet her Lord.

Mrs. Leitner is survived by one son, Hugh James Leitner, Sr. and his wife Doris Wiles Leitner of Winnsboro; two daughters-in-law, Virginia Storey "Ginny" Leitner if Chapin and Viola Hawkins Leitner of Fargo, ND; one sister-in-law, Esther Leitner Hornsby of Winnsboro; eleven grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren; five great-great-grandchildren; numerous nieces and nephews; and many wonderful friends.

In addition to her parents and husband, Mrs. Leitner was predeceased by two sons, John Wesley Leitner, Jr. and William Daniel "Billy" Leitner.

The family extends special thanks to the entire staff of Fairfield Memorial Hospital. Pope Funeral Home is serving the Leitner family.

She married John Westey Leitner, b. 8 Dec 1901 in South Carolina, (son of William Jefferson Leitner and Mary Sue Lever) d. 21 Nov 1959, census 23 Apr 1910 in House Number 226, Township 9, Fairfield County, South Carolina, census 14 Jan 1920 in House Number 260, Township 9, Fairfield County, South Carolina, census 4 Apr 1930 in House Number 63, Elberton, Elbert County, Georgia.

GREAT FALLS -- Mrs. Frankie Jeanette McKeown, 73, of 6609 Richburg Road died Monday, Sept. 4, 2006, at home.

The funeral will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at Heath's Chapel United Methodist Church, with the Revs. Jason Everson and John O'Holohan officiating. Burial will be at the church cemetery.

A native of Barnwell County, Mrs. McKeown was a daughter of the late William Henry Knopf and Idoma Granger Knopf. She graduated from Great Falls High School and attended the University of South Carolina. She ran the M&M Restaurant and was an accountant with the Lewis Law Firm of Columbia. She was retired from the S.C. Department of Transportation and ran the Big O Farm Produce Stand. She was a member of Heath's Chapel United Methodist Church.

Surviving are her husband, Lee W. "Jack" McKeown Sr.; two sons, Lee W. McKeown Jr. and David B. McKeown, both of Great Falls; her daughter, Janice Robin Thomas of Summerville; her brother, Bill Knopf of Great Falls; four sisters, Ann Jones of Great Falls, Ruby Paul of North Augusta, Jean Reid of Columbia and Patsy Brown of Lakeland, Fla.; seven grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 tonight at the church.

Memorials may be made to Heath's Chapel Cemetery Association, in care of Betty Stroud, 5962 Richburg Road, Richburg, SC 29729.

Dantzler-Baker Funeral Home is in charge.
