John Mc Walker, one of the chiefly settlers of this country, came from Ireland and settled on the waters of Rocky Creek in Chester Co.
He was orderly Reg. in General Sumner's command and participated in all the battles fought by that force.

Among the many daring incidents of his life is related that he penetrated
The British lines near Barranger's ten times in one night and succeeded
