

THE MOBLEYS IN AMERICA

This document is in eight parts:

Part I covers the early period in Maryland, with a discussion of what has been found in early records there, lists of some sources of information, names of some of the associated researchers and an explanation of the numerical coding used to uniquely identify individuals.

Part II lists the immediate family of John Mobberly, our first known ancestor in America. Information directly related to him is contained in this part.

Part III lists the family and descendants of John Mobberly, Jr.

Part IV lists the family and descendants of James Mobberly, second son of John, Sr.

Part V lists the family and descendants of William Mobberly, third son of John, Sr.

Part VI lists the family and descendants of Edward Mobberly, fourth son of John, Sr.

Part VII lists the family and descendants of Thomas Mobberly, fifth son of John, Sr.

Each of these had several children. Where we have information about descendants of these children, it is listed in separate sections of the Part for that parent and those of his/her descendants of whom we have knowledge. Family data is presented in Family Group listings indexed to the family line, generation, and birth order of the head of that family.

There are some family groups that apparently were related to one or another of the grandchildren of John, Sr., but without definite information as to which one was the first in that branch. These are listed as "Tentative Placements". Some others for which there is less information are listed as in "Association".

No information has been discovered as to any descendants of Anne Mobberly, only daughter of John, Sr. Her mother remarried soon after John's death, and we have located no record of Anne after ca 1727.

Part VIII lists some family groups of Mobleys that have not yet been placed in lineage. According to records, some of these are said to be relatives; it may be that all are.

As in Part II, where there is information related to an individual listed in Parts III thru VIII, it is entered near his listing. This includes wills, estate settlements, names of spouse's parents, census data, etc.

There have been many marriages between Mobleys that were related in one degree or another. Where identified, the FGS number of the spouse is indicated by his/her name. Because of these, many of us are our own cousins several times over. In these groups, if the husband has the surname Mobley or variant, the descendants are listed under that name and ID number. If the wife was a Mobley and the husband not a descendant of a Mobley, the descendants are listed under her name and ID number.

Collateral information from available records that applies to certain individuals or groups is added where appropriate.

PART I
COLONIAL MARYLAND

There were three Mobley families among the earliest settlers of the colonies.

Maryland records now show the following:

John Mobberly died ca 1683(will dated 12/30/1683), in St. Mary's Co., MD, leaving a will with his wife, Elizabeth (nee Venns), Elizabeth's brother Richard Venns and his daughter as the only heirs mentioned. The will was signed by mark. There is no indication in found records of his relationship, if any, to the other two early families.

Edward Moberley m. bef. 1717 Rebecca Griffith(dau. Samuel Griffith, d. 1717 and Elizabeth Griffith, d. 1720/"Griffiths of Prince Georges County" book). He was a member of the provincial militia, was licensed to teach in 1717. His will was dated 4/14/1721, but not admitted for probate in P. G. Co. until 8/24/1761. He left MD for VA soon after the will was written, for reasons now unknown. His family remained in MD. His children were:

Edward, m. by 28 July 1720, Rebecca, sister of Samuel Griffith of CV Co. (MWB 3:131; MDAD 3:131).

Rebecca Moberley (under 18 on 4/4/1721) m. James Vermilion
Edward Moberley(" " " ")
Francis Moberley(" " " ")

[from Olivia M. Andem 4/5/98: " Edward Mobberley's will was written before he left for Virginia and it quite clearly states he was leaving to take employment elsewhere."]

He also made a will in Prince Georges Co., VA, 11/15/1727[probated 12/12/1727] [see Hill 249/250], disposing of a mare, a colt, and personal property there, with Rebecca in MD to receive the latter. Presumably he died in 1727.

His sons, Edward and Francis, were in the MD militia during the French/Indian War (1740s). Therefore this Edward, (Jr.) could not have been the one who moved to VA and later to SC.

John Mobberly, b. ca 1657/8 was in MD by 1688, d. 1727. He married three times, and had five sons and one daughter. Three sons moved from MD to VA in the 1740's. One, James, remained there, in Albemarle Co. John. Jr. and Edward were in Lunenburg Co, VA by 1749; John, Jr. moved to NC before 1752 and Edward to SC in the 1760s. William received a land grant in NC in 1743. Thomas Mobberly remained in MD; some of his descendants later moved to what is now Frederick County, MD. The daughter, Anne, has not been traced.

One possibility(not supported by any known evidence) is that the first John Mobberly had sons Edward and John before he came to MD, settled some property on them at their majorities(a common practice of the times) and therefore did not mention them in his will.

In SC family records from the late 1700s, it was said that an Alexander Mobley, whose sons intermarried with daughters of Edward Mobley in SC, was "a first cousin of Edward Mobley". This Alexander now is placed as a grandson of John, Jr. and therefore was a great-nephew of Edward.

No information so far discovered has shown when, how or why any of the three original families came to Maryland. No Mobberly was among the persons coming to Maryland via the "ARK" and "DOVE" in the first voyages of settlement. We think the name originated in Cheshire. It is probable that they came from the Parish of Mobberley in Cheshire, England, but limited searches of English records have so far not given any clues to confirm this. Most early settlers in VA and MD came from southern England.

In addition to the three families above, there is a family tradition, reported both in Hill's book, "Hill and Hill-Moberly Connections of Fairfield County, South Carolina" and Dixon's book, "The Mobleys and Their Connections", that there was a William Mobberley who came over on one of Penn's ships before 1700, married a Phoebe Lovejoy, who was said to be a governess for Penn's children, and came to MD after living for a time with the Indians in PA. An Edward Mobberley was said to have been among his sons, and this Edward said to be the one who came to VA and then to SC. However, this tradition seems to be wrong.

There is no record of either being among the passengers on either of Penn's voyages; only Penn's son came with him on the first voyage and he was an adult at the time(1682), and Penn's minor children remained in England at the time of the second voyage(late 1690's). Further, no mention of either William or Phoebe has been found in PA or MD records. They were supposed to have lived near Port Tobacco, MD. Most records for that area no longer exist, having been destroyed by fire; thus, their existence cannot be completely disproven.

According to Brumbaugh: "MD Records, Colonial,Rev./Co./Church" there were Penns in Charles County before 1775, and a Wm. Mobley at Port Tobacco East Hundred, Charles Co. in the 1775/76 census; perhaps there was an association that led to the tradition. There were Lovejoy families in the area also.

MD records do not show any Lovejoy/Moberly marriages. The first known was that of Jemima Mobley who married Edward Lovejoy in SC during the late 1700s.

There were several Mobleys listed in the 1790 census in both NC and SC that are not yet placed in lineage, and in later censuses for other states, but from the similarity of Christian names and places of residence, there is a probable relationship.

Letter 11/9/1986, Roy T. Mobley:"..Sir Edward Moberley was put to death by Cromwell for loyalty to Charles I.. This may be why his son(s) actually came to America." Unfortunately, Roy is now deceased and we have not been able to find where he obtained this information.

It is known that the McGregor Clan of Scotland (and other clans also)was attainted of treason by Cromwell, those not executed required to change their name, and that Alexander McGregor of that clan was deported to Barbados about 1645/50. From there he came to MD ca 1649. No information has been found that indicated how he got to MD from Barbados. This information re Sir Edward from Roy would indicate that there is some possibility that John Moberly(1683) could have come the same way. Our John and Edward schoolmaster were born after the English Revolution in the 1640's.

[Charles I was executed 1649; Cromwell head of govt.1653-58]

As background information, the usual route for shipping from England to the Colonies in the 1600s & 1700s was from England southward to the vicinity of the Canary Islands, then across the Atlantic to the Windward Islands (incl. Barbados), and then northwesterly to the colonial ports. This took advantage of the prevailing winds and ocean currents to facilitate the voyage.

By 1770, there were trails or roads westwards from Philadelphia(Forbe's Road) and Baltimore(Braddock's Road) to Pittsburgh; down the Shenandoah Valley to Ft. Chiswell in SW VA(Great Valley Road), in 1796 from Wheeling(WV) thru Maysville (KY) to Ft. Gillad(Zane's Trace), and up several routes from SC and NC to the Shenandoah. The activities during the Revolutionary War opened up a route along the Ohio from Pittsburgh to St. Louis and Vincennes.

By the end of the Revolutionary War, there were trails thru the Cumberland Gap from the Watauga Settlements(near the present Bristol, VA/TN) northwesterly to Eastern KY. Clement Mobley and his settlers followed this trail to the Madison Co., KY area after the war. Others went down the Tennessee River and up the Ohio and Cumberland to found Nashville about the same time. Part of this group went overland from Knoxville to Nashville, with horses and cattle.

The following letter, written by John Mobley[1464; 1794-1879], dated 9/8/1875, to Theodore Mobley of Cleburne, TX, relates a history similar in part to that given in Dixon:

"Dear Theodore;

In response to your letter of June the 18th I will write you all I know of my pedigree. My great great grandfather lived and died in Cheshire Parish or County in England. His name was Edward. My great grandfather was William.
He landed in America in Pennsylvania when he was about eighteen years old, then he got him a wife and moved to Maryland. Then he raised eight sons. The youngest was eighteen years old when he went to England in a lonesome condition his wife having died. His father had almost forgotten him, told him that he had a son who went to America but that he was dead and that my great grandfather was an imposter - my great grandfather being quick on thought reminded his father that once when he was helping him set out apple scions that he had received a few stripes from him with one of them and they went and looked and the apple trees were there. He asked his father if he did not recollect and it was through this process in course of time he remembered and recognized him as his son. He remained with him a short time then came back to Maryland and died. My grandfather was Edward. He came from Maryland in time of the Indian War to South Carolina. He was the father of six sons and my father was the youngest of his children, I think he had six or eight daughters and there were six or eight of my cousins that were older than my father. My grandfather on my mother's side was John Wagner. He was a German-My grandfather Mobley came across him on the Yadkin River and he came to this state with my grandfather and brought his family. Now you can guess there was a great caravan of them. My grandfather and his sons and some of his grandsons helped to drive the Indians through into Ga, and at that time they built a fort to defend th4emselves against the Indians. My father's name was Samuel and my mother's name was Mary Wagner and they are buried about a mile from where I live. I am the youngest son of the youngest son of my grandfather. My mother told me all of this after my father's death - Your mother's family have all left the state except Dr. Sam. They were all well when I last heard from them - Three of his daughters and his three sons attended preaching at Fellowship Church about two months ago - They all took dinner here with me -

Remember your aunt and me to your wife.

Your uncle
John Mobley"

{The above letter is an exact copy of one written to Theodore Mobley of Cleburne, Texas - The writer of the letter was the youngest brother of Lucretia Mobley Robinson, my great grandmother. Uncle John lived and died in Fairfield Co., S.C. He was born March 27, 1794 died 1879.

Yours truly
Nancy B. Fisher}

No confirmation of this tale has been found elsewhere. Credible records reported here show that John, Sr. was in MD, and John, Jr., James, William, Edward, and Thomas were born there; James to VA, John, Jr. and William to NC, Edward to SC, while Thomas remained in MD.

FGS Identification:

Example:

FGS DB-142

.....

||| _____ Clement Moberly, second child, third generation
|| _____ Edward Moberly, fourth child in second generation
| _____ John Moberly, first generation ancestor

The prefix{DB, e.g.} identifies a branch of descent from a grandson of John Moberly{Clement}. In the instance above, all known descendants of Clement[142] are listed in a section, with all FGS lists having this prefix in their headers. For John, Jr., James, William and Thomas, the first letters in their prefixes are A, B, C and E, respectively. Prefixes for their children are assigned beginning with A, etc. in the order they are listed. This prefix is a convenience to distinguish the FGS listing of an individual's family, for computer search purposes, from his/her individual listing. Because of cousin marriages and property deals, many are listed in other places in addition to their FGS listing.

For search by the WP program, the Arabic numbers provide identification; thus, all descendants of Clement have 142 followed by additional numbers. Other number groups have been assigned in the same manner for those who have been definitely placed. For these, their FGS numbers are listed in order of birth if known, otherwise in the order given in the record. For the 10th, 11th, 12th child, etc. the letters A, B, C, etc. are used instead of Arabic numbers. The order of listing is not changed if birth information found after the original entry shows a different order of birth. Except where the name of an identified person is given in his/her FGS listing, the name is followed by his ID number between [].

Some unplaced persons and families have been assigned temporary prefixes, to be corrected when further data may be on hand. For these unplaced ones, the FGS entries are grouped together, with the FGS of the earliest entered at the approximate dates for him/her. If evidence shows that it is likely that a group are descendants of one of the 5 sons of John[1], their data is added at the end of the Part for that son; otherwise, it is included in Part VIII.

Notes of interest about certain individuals are entered near their FGS, or in it.

Date entries: Month/day/year

NOTE: In the 1600s & early 1700s, the year was considered to end in March("Old Style" dating; in this document, a date such as 2/17/1711/12, would be 2/17/1712 by the present system of dating.

NOTE: The name DeRuel has not been found in any published record other than Wm. Woodward Dixon's book "The Moberlys and Their Connections"[which was cited in George Hill's book "Hill and Hill/Moberly Connections of Fairfield Co., SC"]. Recent research by Anne Willis indicates that she probably was Susannah DuVall, daughter of Lewis DuVall, whose 1724 will listed daughters Martha, Susannah & Ann. Lewis was a son of Mareen DuVall, Huguenot, immigrant to MD and owner of Cattail Meadows in Prince Georges Co. ca 1692-1702.

+++ MCM's believes this meant that "Elizabeth Robson" was wife of John, Sr. prior to this deed, and this deed was to transfer title to John, Jr. of her dower land, which presumably she had held only as a lifetime estate. She must have d. bef. 1716. Note that Robson's son Matthew also spelled his name Robinson. Rachel Pindell was John, Jr's wife from ca 1711 until his death in 1752. Susannah Skaggs was wife of John, Sr. when this deed was written.

This is the story of my great grandmother's journey with her children from Woodstock in Bibb County, Alabama to Marion County, Alabama. She was born Alice Clementine Lawson and married my great grandfather, Wesley Sylvester Thompson. She lost her husband in 1882 and shortly thereafter determined to move to be near her sister who had married William Cain Armstrong and then moved with him to Marion County.

Wesley Sylvester Thompson was killed early in 1882 in an accident, leaving Alice with seven small children--the oldest of whom was 12-year-old Robert--to raise. Wesley had taken his wagon and oxen along a rough track to get firewood. The "breakbeam" of the wagon struck and broke off a dead pine snag causing it to fall, breaking grandfather's back. He lived for 91 days, a terrible ordeal for Alice. He was buried at the Old Blue Creek Baptist Church, which is several miles due north of Woodstock and close to Johns.

Conditions seemed not to have been well for Alice after her husband's death. People kept taking away Alice's possessions after Wesley's death. In those days widows seemed to have been considered defenseless and therefore fair game.

Evidently Alice decided she did not want to live where she was being treated so shabbily. So she loaded her children and belongings on a wagon and departed for her sister and brother-in-law's, who were now living on a farm they had bought in the Sugar Bend Community on the Buttahatchee River in Marion County, Alabama.

She had some things in her favor for the trip. She had a yoke of oxen and a good milk cow. The weather was warm so the livestock would have plenty to eat along the way. Oxen are slow but, given a little time, they can feed themselves on a trip and spare their owner from having to carry feed. Alice's cow could feed, too, and continue to give much needed milk and butter for Alice and her children.

(Alice lost her cow some time after coming to Marion County. She must have borrowed money from a man and, when she could not pay, he took the cow while she begged him not to.)

Alice forded both the Buttahatchee and the Warrior rivers. Forging the Buttahatchee in those days was a matter-of-fact. It was small enough; it had several fords in the hilly country; and, in those days, men built roads to fords to keep from having to build bridges.

But, fording a river the size of the Warrior River in Tuscaloosa was another matter. Tuscaloosa is located at the Fall Line. This is an extensive line that separates the coastal plains from the highlands. Typically, it is marked by a rapid or fall where a stream leaves the highlands and enters the plain. At Tuscaloosa the Warrior has both a fall and a shoal. So Alice could have easily crossed, especially in summer when times of low water would have been frequent.

But Alice could have crossed on a bridge. The state built a toll bridge at Tuscaloosa in 1822. It was probably still there in 1892. Tuscaloosa in 1892 was important enough to rate such a bridge. If tolls were still being charged, Alice either could not pay the toll or did not care to pay the toll.

The journey was about 150 miles and that took Alice about six weeks to make it. One reason for the slowness was, as said, to allow the animals to feed, also Alice could have stopped along the way to work for anyone who had a job for her. I suspect she may have received some money but she was most likely paid in foodstuffs. They would have been welcome additions to the milk and butter from the cow.

As soon as the family arrived in Marion County, Robert went looking for work. He found it with board, lodging, and $8 a month with a man named Green Shaw Jones who lived at Twin (Yampertown). Mr. Jones was a man of surprising accomplishments for a rustic community. He was educated, he was a school teacher, he owned a lot of land, and he became a rural mail carrier. In 1892, Twin was a star route post office but in 1896 rural free delivery was instituted and star route offices began to slowly be phased out.

Mr. Jones undertook to be a teacher for Robert and he found the boy an apt student. Robert became a great reader--he learned brick masonry, carpentry, tool sharpening, and farming. And he became an expert broadaxe man.

Alice soon moved her family to a farm close to Twin; specifically, to low-lying land under the east side of the high hill just north of Mt. Olive Church.

The land on the farm was fertile. It was low but well drained because it was deep sand. It would not have held its fertility many years but it would have done about as well as most of the land men cultivated in the southern hills in those days. They stayed on the hills, because the low land was "soup" and filled with huge trees.

Alice died in 1903 at the age of 42 when her children were about able to care for themselves. She is buried Old Center Methodist Church, which is now a small church with a huge cemetery. She should have had many years for rest and enjoyment after her heroic efforts to raise her children, but all that can be done now is pay her honor.

Excerpt from a letter written to Lecil Clyde Thompson and his wife, Lexie Idella Huguley Thompson dated January 24, 1982, by his brother Clettus D. Thompson:

On November 3, 1918, my father, Walter Thompson, living in the Pulltight community, an area near the Brilliant Coal Company in Brilliant, Alabama (Marion County) came down with pneumonia. My mother once told me he had walked over two miles from his work to home in a sleet/rain weather arriving home wet and cold. A cold developed. He tried another day of work and then could not go any more. He went to bed with pneumonia.

Doctor McDermott, the Company doctor, already busy caring for patients during a great flu epidemic in the area, came to doctor him. For two days he seemed to rally a bit, then the killer influenza of that 1918 hit him. The doctor tried curing my father, but my father only got worse. His brothers, Robert and Evie (Vester) came to see him. They had tried to get a doctor from Carbon Hill, Alabama, but he was snowed under treating flu cases there and could not come. Dr. McDermott fought hard to save my father's life.

My mother came down with the flu also. My sister, Maggie, took care of the four month old baby and waited on my mother and father. She was all of 9 years old herself. My brother Clyde and I were hustled down to our Grandpa Mullenix's house for Grandmother to keep us. There was a fear we might also catch the flu. Grandpa lived about 200 yards southwest of our house, "down the hill". Mr. & Mrs. Clifton Jones now have their home on the almost exact location that our Grandfather lived.

Our father became extremely worse. His sisters Mrs. Eula Franks and Mrs. Charlie Fowler (Aunt Eula - Aunt Annie) came to help Maggie care for my father and mother. Mama was much too weak to help.

On November 9, Dr. McDermott told them he had done all he could do. There was a new medicine out for this type flu but he was unable to get any of it. In the meantime, my father's twin brother, Malt A. was called. He lived either in Carbon Hill, Townley, or somewhere, some 30 or 40 miles away. He arrived sometime in the afternoon. Uncle Malt was a minister of the Nazarene Church.

The talks were on our father's not getting well. Their younger sister, Aunt Ada Corken (Uncle Bunk Corken's wife) came to help as well as Uncle Robert and Uncle Vester (Evie). Uncle Malt would sit and read scripture to our father. Then when things worsened, grandmother brought me and my brother Clyde up to see him. Uncle Malt was kneeling at the bed in prayer. Then Papa told Uncle Malt that he was ready to go (not exact words - I do not remember - anyway he said he was ready to meet God) Uncle Malt broke completely down and had to be led from room by someone (It could have been Mr. Merdie Webb). The women, some of them, got Mama up and she came to his bed. He was too weak to do much but tell her good-bye. She kissed him and then almost collapsed. The women lead her away.

He reached for me and my brother Clyde. I knew we must have stood wide-eyed and scared to death. I was six years seven months old. Clyde was five years four months old. Anyway, our father reached a limp weak hand out touched us on the head and told us to be good boys. Grandma and Grandpa was standing by us, holding us. Our father told us to live good lives, that he was going away. If we were good then some day, we could come to see him where he was going. Uncle Malt came back into the room. He took my father's hand on the opposite side of bed from where we were. Papa had quit talking. He had told Maggie, our sister, to be a good girl. "Help your Mother". He then drew a few long breaths, turned to Uncle Malt and seemed to say (my memory vague here) "Good-bye". Uncle Malt squeezed his weak hand. His head turned toward me and my brother Clyde. Grandpa was saying something - then he was gone.

Aunt Annie, Aunt Eula and Aunt Ada went out to our stove wood pile beside our house and cried and cried. Uncle Malt must have fainted for the men worked over him a long time. A lot of women worked over Mama.

I cannot remember the burial at all. I know the casket came from Birmingham on a fast train. Was unloaded and rushed up to our house. It cost $85.00. I do remember a lot after our father died, but not about the funeral.

Lecial Clyde Thompson was a coal miner most of his life. In 1962 he began working as a cafe manager in Birmingham, Alabama. He was a veteran of World War II, serving his country in the Navy fighting in the Pacific Theater from 1943 to 1945. The ship he was serving on was sank by a Japanese submarine leaving most of the crew stranded on an island in the Marquesas'. He died of cancer April 24, 1982.

Excerpt from a letter written to Lecil Clyde Thompson and his wife, Lexie Idella Huguley Thompson, dated January 24, 1982, by his brother Clettus D. Thompson:

Comes Spring, Uncle Charlie Mullenix had returned from the War (World War I) also. My father had left an almost new Ford Automobile Model T. So around the first of August 1919, it was decided that we all go see one of Aunt Blanche's (Uncle Charlie's wife) sisters that lived at Pearce's Mill. How they all rode in a Model T, I don't know. There was Uncle Charlie, Aunt Blanche and their baby son Giles, about a year or more old. Mama, our baby Clayton, Clyde, me, my Aunt Purnie and I believe Cashy Webb. Anyway, there was another man along.

The day went fine, but as we started home, Uncle Charlie stopped at a small creek near Pearce's Mill to put water in the car's radiator. Then a fully loaded truck came off a steep hill toward us. The man was hollering "my brakes are gone!". Aunt Blanche (the women were all still in the car) jumped out with Giles, her baby, and ran. So did Purnie. Mama started out with the baby, reached back for me and my brother, started again. Uncle Charlie and Cashy (or the man with us) tried to push our car off the road. Too late. The truck hit us. Mama was about half in, half out. The baby fell on the ground, the car's front wheel ran over it about the stomach-breast area. Clyde and I were thrown between the seat or dashboard. I was knocked out. For I know when I came to, Purnie was holding me. I had a big knot on my forehead. Mama was standing in knee deep water in the creek. Aunt Blanche was bathing her forehead. She had a deep cut and the blood was just gushing out.

My next memory, we were taken to a Mr. Clark's house, then on to Mr. Long's house. Here the baby, our brother, died. Mama was put to bed and Mrs. Long, being a nurse, was waiting on her. Back at the scene, Uncle Charlie was going to kill the man who ran into us, a Mr. Webster. (He had a big fat wife). Men wrestled with Uncle Charlie and took his pistol away from him. In the meantime, Clyde and I were the center of attraction. We were at the old Pearce's Mill Store (It is still standing today) and looked like every customer who came in bought us candy. I only remember Mrs. Long waiting on Mama. She had a breast milker or something with a rubber bulb on it and a glass flared thing that fit over a breast nipple. She was taking breast milk from Mama.

Mrs. Pearl Truitt Bowling Davis, 93, of 257 Howington St., died Friday, Oct. 31, 2003, at home after a brief illness.

She was born Oct. 29, 1910, in Cliffside, to the late Josiah Covington and Lettie Mobley Bowling. She graduated from Kings Business College in 1927 and began work in the Southern Bell telephone office in 1928, staying there for 14 years. In 1950, she began work at the Shelby Public Library driving the bookmobile. She retired from the library in 1980, after 30 years of service. As an avid reader all her life, she inspired many students with the joy of reading.

She was a lifelong member of First Baptist Church of Shelby and a member of Jackie Stone's Sunday School Class. She was an active member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and recently received her 25-year membership award.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, John Jacques Davis; three brothers, J.C., Marvin and Hiram Bowling; two sisters, Beatrice Bridges and Grace Cummings; four half-brothers, John, Homer, Furman and Grover Bowling; two half-sisters, Etta Dixon and Carrie Butler; and two sons-in-law, Joseph F. Woodell and Wayne Daves.

Mrs. Davis is survived by two daughters, Veronica "Roni" Woodell of Morganton and Gail Daves of the home; four grandchildren, Joseph Woodell of Morganton, John Woodell of Alcoa, Tenn.; Elizabeth Daves of Chapel Hill; and John Daves of Boiling Springs, S.C.; a great-granddaughter, Amber Woodell of Morganton; five nephews, Joe Ben, Gene, Tommy and Dr. Richard Bowling, and Jim Cummings; and three nieces, Jo Katherine McPherson, Hazel Shuford and Jane Norman.

A celebration of her life will be held Monday at 11 a.m. in Webb Chapel of First Baptist Church of Shelby, with the Revs. Tony Tench and Rick Bowling officiating. The body will be placed in the chapel while the family receives friends in the Ladies Parlor of the church one hour before the service. The burial will be held at 4 p.m. at Salem Cemetery in Heath Springs, S.C., with the Rev. Rebecca McPherson and Dwight McPherson officiating.

Memorials may be made to the Cleveland County Memorial Library Book Fund, P.O. Box 1120, Shelby, NC 28151, or to Hospice of Cleveland County, 951 Wendover Heights Drive, Shelby, NC 28150.

We have a new turning point here. My cousin Lisa Mobley Vernon, has gotten new information that I wish to share, we have found a grandson of William Franklin Mobley, living in Kershaw, SC. We are excited. But we found him by dialing #'s, as most of us do, he said that he would love to discuss this but his wife had died and he then told her he was the grandson of W.F. Mobley and that he had records. Now take into consideration that we did not know when she had died. Then he said to Lisa she had just died the day before. God we were up set, but she told him that she was sorry and he said that he would love to talk with us, but it would be later. Today I get the Charlotte Observer: Mrs. Frances Eileen "Sal" Reeves Mobley, 74, wife of John M. Mobley, she was a member of the Catawaba Wateree Genealogy Society.

Marriage certificate of William Franklin Mobley and Martha Luellen Carpenter *Mattie", m. 16 Aug 1896, shows his father George Mobley *dead, and Sarah Mobley *alive, resident of Lancaster County, SC. William called Frank after the death of his first wife Mary Elizabeth Barfield on 6 June 1885 came to NC, could have been he had a brother J.E. Mobley that had came before him, J.E. was called Johnnie. A week or so ago, I went to a meeting of the Gaston Genealogical Meeting. I bought a book called the 1902-1908 Gaston County Voters Registration "The Grandfather Clause", by Williene Caskey. Under the name J.E. Mobley he states that his from whom he descended is Caswell Mobley. Upon asking about this was told this registration was to list the grandfathers of the voters. Upon looking under MIA, I see that Caswell Mobley had son George that married a Sarah Lousie Ruthledge, and indeed they had children Frank, and Johnnie.

CASWELL MOBLEY AND DESCENDANTS

As compiled by Mrs. Letty Mobley Bowling

typed and arranged by: Viola C. Floyd (Mrs. H.C.) 1957

The Caswell Mobley home-place was on the southeast corner of the intersection of the Potter Road and the Three Notch Road about three and three tenths miles north of Pleasant Hill community.

Mrs. Bowling says, "The house was standing fifty years ago. I remember passing one time years ago. There was a rambling rose in full bloom which almost covered the porch on one side, making the place very attractive to me. There was a room on one end of the porch. Lillie Porter's father owned it when she and Charley Robertson were married. I am told it is now (1957) owned by Jesse Bowers."

So far there is no record of just when Caswell Mobley came into Lancaster County. In 1846 he owned land near the present town of Heath Springs. (See "Lancaster County Tours", page 102).

According to Wilma Twitty Burch (Mrs. James) of Thomasville, Ga., Caswell Mobley had a sister named Mary who married Hiram Twitty (1780-1856). Their son, Dr. William Washington Twitty, a graduate of the Medical College of South Carolina, was the father of Mrs. Burch, (1957). Mrs. Burch is regent of the Thomasville Chapter D.A.R. Her records state that Caswell Mobley married Mary Twitty, sister to Hiram Twitty which must be an ERROR for local records state that Caswell Mobley married Mary Terry of the Stoneboro section of Lancaster or Kershaw counties. Mrs. Bowling also states that Mary Terry was a sister to the wife of Eli Twitty, a sister to James Bruce's first wife and to the father of the late Starling Terry of same section. Starling Terry had a sister who married John Harris Sr. (The parents of Mr. John Harris of Lancaster).

Could it be that Caswell Mobley married twice, probably first wife died leaving no children?

He was not listed in SC, even in Jeremiah's estate records. James was in Chatham Co., NC, 1810 census with 1 dau. & an older couple, perhaps Nancy(wf)'s parents, & several slaves. TENTATIVE PLACEMENT

RANSOM PROBABLY IS A SON OF EZEKIEL[11211]
[Placement based mainly on Ezekiel's association with Ransome Sutherland]
+++

We are trying to prove or disprove as far as Ezekiel being father of Ransom. I say Ransom not son of Ezekiel & Sukey Mobley in Wake County, N.C. 1800 Wake County census shows "one" son. That should be Edward, who came to Maury County, TN along with his 3 sisters and parents. Two of the girls married there in 1817. Biddy married Peter Johnson and Polly married Abner Johnston. Edward married Jane Bradshaw Maury County. They later moved across county line into Lawrence County, TN where they raised their entire family. The one other sister, old maid "Aunt Liddie" Lydia, always lived with Edward & Jane until both died in 1863 and from then on until the last census I have in 1870 which shows her with Edward's son, also named Ezekiel.
Lldalee S Mobley l.lmobley@juno.com 7/30/00

NOTE: There is only one son shown in 1800 census, which would be Edward 112111. No record of a Ransom found in Maury, Lawrence, Giles or Wayne Co., TN

112112 ? Ransom Mobley, b. 1/1/1798, NC, d. 12/12/1842 Weakley Co., TN
m. 2/13/1820 Priscilla Bailey, b. 1802, NC, d. 10/12/1877 Clay Co., AR

(they bought land in Gibson Co., TN in 1825, were there in 1830 but not in 1840) [his sons were in Greene & Clay Cos. AR in 1860]

(Clay County Democrat, February 1926):
Mr. C.B. Mobley (better known to his friends as Boyd Mobley) died at his home a few miles northwest of Rector, on Monday, February 8th, after a long illness. Mr. Mobley was more than seventy-four years of age, and had lived near Rector for many years. He was born August 12, 1851, was married to Ella Knight, on March 13, 1879. To this union four children were born--two of whom preceded him to the grave; two children, Payton Mobley, and Mrs. Cee Hubble, survive him. Mr. Mobley obeyed the gospel on October 3, 1896, and he lived faithful to the church. He was a devoted father and husband and was respected by the many friends who knew him during the many years he lived in this county. Besides his wife he leaves two children, seven grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his death. Funeral services were conducted at the local church of Christ at two-thirty o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Evangelist J.W. Dollison preaching the funeral sermon. Evangelist J.B. Griffith, a Christian minister of England, this state, led in prayer. A large crowd of relatives and friends attended the funeral. Interment was at Woodland Heights

I am looking for information on Henry & Permelia Mobley who were married in Tennessee circa 1835. Both were born in North Carolina. Henry's mother was Rachel Mobley. He had a brother William Mobley who lived in Washington Co. Va. And a sister Irene Jane who married James Neal. Henry died prior to the 1850 census leaving five children: Rachel, Harriet Annie, James, Thomas and Lucinda. Harriet "Annie" married Wm. H. Goff of Washington Co., VA. In 1868 they moved to Coles County, IL. At least one of her siblings, James, remained in Sullivan County. Any information would be appreciated.

The settlement of the territory composing Clay County began about the year 1832, but increased very slowly for the first twenty years, after which it advanced quite rapidly, until the outbreak of the Civil War, when it came to a standstill. Its most noticeable growth has been within the last five years, immigrants having located here from Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois and other States. Among the first settlers in the western part of the county were John J. Griffin, who located on Black River in 1832, and Abraham Roberts, who settled a few years later near the present site of Corning. Prominent pioneers in the eastern part of the county-mostly on Crowley's Ridge-were William and Elihu Davis, who settled early in the 30's and were soon followed by the Payne, Hollis and other families. Among the settlers of the 40's were William H. Mack, James Watson and others, and during the 50's the families of the Liddells, Millers, J. G. Dudley, Buck Wagster, B. H. Mitchell, William Dean, H. M. Granade, James Campbell, Singleton Copeland, Edward Allen, C. H. Mobley, Dr. Simmons were some of those who became settlers. Nearly all of the earliest comers were from Tennessee. Later immigrants came from other Southern States, and now many are entering from the North.

Addenda, 1/9/93, Beth M. Abney:

Name of Suzannah's husband was Jesse J. Little.

Rachel's estate appraised by: John Mobley, Wm. Little & Thomas Little, 3/14/or 16 1827.

John wrote David Little 2/7/1827 he did not want to act on estate of Rachel & had no objection to David doing so.

On 3/20/1827, Daniel Mobley paid $59.50 for one sorrel mare, $2.50 for 1 meal bag & $280.50 for negro girl Harriet. On same date, John Mobley bought a sow and six pigs for $2.93-3/4 and another sow and shoats for $4.

On 10/27/1828, Daniel Mobley was paid $352.68-3/4 from the estate by David Little, Adminstrator. Inventory listed negroes Betty, $275.00, Harriet, $250.00 & Mary $150.00.

On May 20, 1829, Daniel Mobley was paid $3.93-1/2 from the estate of Rachel. Notice was given David Little on 9/14/1846 to give a final accounting of settlement of the estate. Vouchers filed 9/18/1846 showed that Daniel got half the estate, valued at $718.87; his half was $359.43.

Other correspondence showed that two of the Little heirs had legal action to get their shares.

445. (Iowa Supreme Court)

Appeal from district court, Madison county.

Action to obtain partition of real estate. The relief asked by one of the defendants was granted, and the plaintiff and other defendants appeal.

V. Wainright, for appellant. A. W. C. Weeks, for appellee.

SEKVEKS, J. A finding of facts was made by the court, which we adopt.

In our judgment it is correct, and sustained by the evidence, in every particular.

The issue is clearly stated therein, and the question to be determined clearly indicated. It is as follows: "(1) Andrew J. Mobley, on or about the fifth day of July, A. D. 1886, died intestate, seized in fee-simple of the north-west quarter of the south-west quarter of 35, and south-east quarter of south-east quarter of 34, 74, 29, Madison county, Iowa. (2) That Mary Mobley was the widow, and Hezekiah Mobley, Willis Mobley, and Rebecca L. Hudson were the only surviving children, of said Andrew J. Mobley; and that the minors defendants, John Mobley, Effie May Mobley, and Edna Maud Mubley, were the children of a deceased son of said Andrew J. Mobley, who died before his father (William); and that there are no other heirs at law of said decedent, Andrew J. Mobley. (3) That at the time of his death, and for many years prior thereto, the said Andrew J. Mobley and his wife, Mary Mobley, occupied the said north-west quarter of the south-west quarter of section 35, township 74, range 29, as their homestead; and that, after the death of said Andrew J. Mobley, his widow, Mary Mobley, continued to reside on and occupy said land, up to the time of her death, which occurred on or about December 25, 1886; and that said Mary Mobley did not apply for nor have her distributive share in the lands of said Andrew J. Mobley set apart to her during her life; and that this action was commenced prior to her death. (4) That, prior to her death, said Mary Mobley orally leased the said homestead forty acres to Robert Hudson, the husband of Rebecca L. Hudson, for the term of the life of said Mary Mobley. (5) That, prior to her death, said Mary Mobley made her last will and testament, in and by which she devised unto Rebecca L. Hudson all the interest of said testatrix in and to the estate of A. J. Mobley, deceased. (6) The court finds that W. F. Walker is administrator of the estate of Andrew J. Mobley, deceased; that there is no personal property belonging to said estate; and that it will be necessary to use part of the proceeds of said real estate for the payment of the debts and charges against the said estate. (7) The court finds that said lands cannot be equitably divided into the requisite number of shares, and that a sale thereof is necessary, and that it will be to the interest of all the parties that such sale be at private sale. It is therefore considered, adjudged, and decreed by the court that the several shares of the parties hereto be established and confirmed as follows, to-wit: To the plaintiff, Hezekiah Mobley, one-sixth of said estate; to Rebecca L. Hudson, one-third of said estate, as devisee of Mary Mobley, deceased, and one-sixth of said real estate as heir at law of Andrew J. Mobley; and to Willis Mobley, one-sixth of said estate; to John Mobley, one-eighteenth of said estate; to Effie May Mobley, one-eighteenth of said estate; and to Edna Maud Mobley, one-eighteenth of said estate. That said real estate be sold at public or private sale. That so much of the proceeds of said sale as may be necessary, and as shall hereafter be ordered by the court for that purpose, be turned over to the administrator of Andrew J. Mobley's estate, and that the balance be held by the referees for further orders of this court; and the court appoints J. D. Love, Wesley Cochran, and Cass Pindle referees herein, and fixer their bond at three thousand dollars. The court also appoints W. W. McKnight, Thomas Greer, and John Herr as appraisers.

Business Woman EDGEFIELD, S.C. - Mrs. Grace Rawls Mobley died Saturday at Anne Maria Rehab and Nursing Home. Mrs. Mobley was born March 15, 1916 in Johnston; she was the daughter of the late William Alonzo and Eula Berry Rawls. She was a member of the Edgefield United Methodist Church. Mrs. Mobley holds the distinction of being the only female sheriff of Edgefield County, a position she filled when her first husband Andrew Jackson White died in office in 1949. Her second marriage to Edward Mims Mobley Sr. gave her another presence in the community as wife of the esteemed builder and movie theatre owner. She is predeceased by both of these fine men. Mrs. Mobley was a former member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Garden Club, a member of the Hospital Auxiliary; she was one of the first volunteers to sit at the desk directing visitors. Surviving are one daughter, Helen White Feltham, of Edgefield; one step-son, Dr. Edward Mims Mobley Jr. and his wife, Mary Jane, of Greenwood; eight grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren; and three sisters, Willie Mae Matheny and husband Jack of Johnston, Kathleen (Kitty) Knowles of Edgefield, and Frances Huiet of Bamberg. Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Sunday, September 2, 2007 at Eastview Cemetery in Edgefield, S.C. The family is at the home (Sweetbriar) on Cantelou Rd.

Mobley Returns After Absence of Thirty-Six Years

In the fall of 1888, Mr. John Mobley, a well known and highly respected citizen of the county left these parts unexpectedly and went to Texas. The reason for his departure was unknown and after 36 years of riving over the face of the earth he returned last week to his old home and found his wife and one daughter, and his mother dead on his return. A family gathering took place Sunday at Mrs. Daughtry's and the old man was given a welcome back among those that he left. The story is one of the most interesting of the kind ever heard in this section. The facts read almost like romance and it is a sad story of poverty, heart breaking, sadness, loneliness that only time in its all tenderest mood will wipe away. The daughters living of Mr. Mobley are Mrs. Annie Porter, Mrs. A. E. Belcher, Mrs. Ruby Dollar, Mrs. Henry Hunt, Mrs. T. R. Daughtry, Mrs. Annie Daughtry, Mrs. Newt Nix and Mrs. Marion Harrell deceased. They gathered at the home of their sister, Mrs. Daughtry to give the wanderer a returned welcome. Only those that are of the blood can understand and appreciate just what this gathering meant. Many a broken hope and shattered future, many a longing for the father came out in this meeting that none can understand but those that were there. Mr. Mobley has come home to stay and spend the latter part of his days with his daughters and to do all that he can to make up for the loss of a father's love and protection during all these years. Mrs. M. B. Adams, of Bainbridge, a well known and loved lady is one of the grand daughters besides a number of others. Mrs. Adams is a daughter of Rev. D.T. Ryle, a Baptist preacher that died a number of years ago. Mr. Mobley is a brother of Messrs. Harmon Mobley, of Whigham, and Charles Mobley of Cairo, both well known over this section and splendid farmers. The story will hardly ever be told in full but the facts are most interesting. Mr. Mobley was in business for many years in the state of Texas and in that time he was successful. His return, though not expected, was very happy and the sequel to it will be the uniting of the father with his daughters and grand children. The county has never had a more interesting matter to come up and the friends of all the daughters and grand children wish for them all the most happy of seasons.

The Cairo Messenger, September 14, 1930

Mr. Harmon Mobley, 80, Passes Monday Night

Mr. Harmon Mobley, well-known citizen, passed away suddenly at his home five miles northwest of Whigham, near the Grady-Decatur county line, while he was seated at a table for his evening meal last Monday night. He was 80 years of age and had been in poor health for several months, although there was little warning that the end was so near.

Mr. Mobley was an upright and honorable citizen and had a large family connection throughout Grady and Decatur counties.

Funeral and interment were at the Open Pond Missionary Baptist Church, of which the deceased was a member on Tuesday afternoon, with Rev. Mack Robinson, of Bainbridge, officiating.

Surviving are one brother, Mr. Charles Mobley, of Cairo; one sister, Mrs. J. H. P. Lewis, of Cairo; four sons, A. B., R. H., L. J., and Oscar Mobley; and one daughter, Mrs. Lonnie Daughtry.

Tentative placement by Dean Cress:

NOTE: Placement of William and Michael relies mainly on the fact that there were sons of about the right ages listed in the 1790 census for the family of John[1123]; Banks is presumed to be the surname of William's wife because William was co-executor of the will of Thomas Banks and mentioned in deeds for his property{according to SC records; deeds from Banks to William/Elizabeth not located}. Also William named one son Jacob and another one Thomas; apparently for Jacob Falkner and Thomas Banks; see below.

WILLIAM J. MOBLEY, M. D. The profession of the physician, when properly conducted, is one of the noblest callings to which a man can devote his life, and to say that Dr. Mobley has made a proper use of the powers given him would be a very mild statement of the case. He was born in Bienville Parish in 1843, a son of William and Martha A. (Williams) Mobley, the former born in South Carolina in 1801, and the latter in Illinois, in 1819, their marriage taking place in Bienville Parish in 1841. The father was a farmer, and in all probability erected the first water-mill in that parish. He died in 1884, but his widow still survives him and makes her home with her son, Dr. William J. Mobley. The paternal grandfather, Michael Mobley, was born in South Carolina, and died in Mississippi, but the mother's father was a native of Wales, and died in his native land when Mrs. Mobley was a child. The Doctor is the second of three children-two sons and one daughter-and was reared on his father's plantation in Louisiana, the advantages of the country schools being given him, and also the college at Mount Lebanon. In 1862 he left college and joined Company C, Ninth Louisiana Infantry, the most of his service being confined to the State of Virginia; but he was in thirty-two important engagements and many skirmishes. He was wounded in the fight at Sharpsburg, and was home a short time on furlough, but afterward surrendered with Lee at Appomattox Court House, and returned, where he devoted his time to teaching school and studying medicine, graduating from the medical department of the New Orleans University (now Tulane University), in 1869. He began practicing in Sparta, but in 1870 removed to Bellevue, where he has built up an excellent reputation and a large and paying practice. Since 1879 he has also given his attention to the drug business, and in all the enterprises to which he has devoted his attention he has been successful, and is now the owner of 1,000 acres of fine farming land, all of which has been obtained through persistent and honorable endeavor. He has always taken quite an active interest in the political affairs of his parish, and, in addition to being coroner of Bossier Parish for some years, he was secretary of the school board for four years, and was president of the board of examiners of the schools. He is a member of the A. F. & A. M., Bellevue Lodge No. 95, and was master several times, but is at this time senior warden. He also belongs to the A. L. of H. of Bellevue, No. 1120. He was married in 1870 to Miss Mattie L., daughter of Eldred and Mary Hardy, the former born in South Carolina and the latter in Bienville Parish, the father's death occurring in the latter place. Mrs. Mobley was born in Bienville Parish, and is a worthy member of the Missionary Baptist Church, her husband being deacon and clerk in the same.

Co. sold to Christopher Whitmon for 20 pounds sterling 50 acres, part of 200 acres originally granted to William Waddell 8/14/1772 and leased to Jacob Falkner. Falkner dcd and left by will 100 acres to Thomas Banks & wife Ann,

[This land was on `Claboard's Branch' of Cloud's Creek] %

NOTE: Mrs.Cress believes that the deed and will together indicate that the parents of Elizabeth{ux of William[11231]} were Thomas and Ann Banks, and Jacob Falkner was the father of Ann Banks. The Falkner will was mentioned in the deed, but has not been located.

Will of Thomas Banks, Edgefield Co. SC; recorded 10/22/1801, Book A, pp.500-508:

In the Name of God, Amen

I Thomas Banks Planter of the State of South Carolina, Edgefield County, being in a low state of health but in perfect memory blessed be God for his Mercy, but calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men on earth to die do make and ordain this my last will and testament in form and manner following that is to say principally and first of all I give and recomend my sole to God that gave it me and as for my body I commend it to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my executors nothing doubting at the general Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the Mighty power of God and as touching such as it has pleased God to bless me in this life I give demise? and dispose of the same in the form and manner following.....

First I give and bequeath unto my dear well beloved wife Ann Banks all of my estate of every kind real and personal after my debts are paid and at her decease it to be sold and equally divided amongst my children but to continue hers and at her disposal during her life Whom I constitute with William Mobley and Sarah Gorman Executors to this my last will and testament and I doe hereby utterly disallow, disannull and revoke every other will legacy writing or bequeath ratifying and confirming this and noe other but this to be my last will and testament whereas I the said Thomas Banks have hereunto set my hand and seal in the presents of George Hanson, Joel Etheredge, and Francis Davis this 6th day of January 1800

Thomas Banks (signed)

Proven before John Simpkins Esquire Ordinary by Francis Davis.

Ann Banks qualified as Executrix. Recorded 22 October 1801, Book A, 500-508

NOTE: No indication as to who Sarah Gorman was; she may have been a daughter of Thomas Banks.

[William/Elizabeth apparently began the move to GA ca 1825; Jacob drew land in the 1827 lottery as a resident of Henry Co. Stephen and Wm. Jr. with Elizabeth and other family members were in Edgefield in 1830; Mrs.Cress believes that Wm. Sr. and Reason, perhaps others, had gone to GA to get settled. William was mentioned in records of Coweta Co. 1830/32. Reason married Lucretia Dunkin, daughter of Peter & Margaret Dunkin. John S. Dunkin and Elias Dunkin married Elizabeth and Sarah Mobley{Mrs. Cress did not mention which married which}[see below], and Matthew Dunkin married Frances Mobley{NOTE: These not listed in Mrs. Cress's data as issue of William, Sr., but were listed as such in the formerly unplaced FGS cited below}]

Allie Mobley said her uncle {great-uncle} was Hezekiah Mobley. John[1123] sold land in 1793 to Alexander Wilson; Andrew probably was named for someone in that family. William Mobley is the only male in that family for whom we have no list of children.

March 31, 1882 - Coweta County News section

Death has again visited our community and taken from the fond embrace of his family, our much esteemed and beloved neighbor, Rezen Mobly, who breathed his last at 11 o'clock, Wednesday, March 22nd.

As a church member, his christian walk was unwavering and worth to be imitated; for 35 years he was a consistent member of the Baptist church at Macedonia, filling the office of deacon to the full satisfaction of the brethren. He bore his six years of affliction with christian fortitude and resignation.

A kind husband and loving father is gone to the rest which awaits all the faithful. We part with him in hopes of meeting him beyond that dark river, where the wicked cease to trouble and the weary are at rest. His funeral was preached at Macedonia church on Tuesday, March 23rd, by the Rev. J. B. S. Davis of Newnan, from the 30th Chapter of Mark and from the 34th verse to the close of the 37th, after which his body was consigned to its resting place in the silent grave, by the side of his first wife, at Macedonia cemetery.

ELGIN'S "AUNT MARY"
 By Winnie McCall Burns, Chronicle Correspondent
 --published in the Houston Chronicle Magazine, August 5, 1951

In former years, when people reached the age of three score and 10, the popular belief was that they were supposed to fold their arms and silently fade away. But not so with Mrs. Mary Mobley Christian of Elgin, who now is 91.

She not only has been a member of the Baptist Church for 74 years, but she has gone through the most turbulent period in the history of this section.

Born in Georgia, she moved into Bastrop County in the days when the frontier was being moved rapidly westward and when one lived longest by talking the least.

She was married in 1879 to Micaja Jesse Christian. Four years later, they, and the Mobley family, came to Texas and settled near Oak Hill, south of McDade.

McDade at that time was a thriving little town on the newly-built Houston and Texas Central Railroad. As the M.-K.-T. was not built through Elgin (10 miles to the west), Bastrop, Smithville, La Grange and on into Houston until 1886, McDade was the shipping point for the territory south of Elgin.

It had many stores, saloons, gambling houses and eventually developed a lawless element that ruled the community.

At about the time "Aunt Mary" and her husband had settled in their new home, a dance was given at the home of one Pat Erhard in the Blue Branch community.

During the dance a member of the "committee", as the lawless called themselves, proceeded to go in and call outside each of the men wanted until four men were in their hands. In a short time a man walked onto the dance floor and announced that four men were hanging to a tree a few hundred yards from the house.

On the eve of the second Christmas after Aunt Mary arrived, the "committee" called three more men out of a saloon, took them about a mile from town and hanged them to a tree.

The next morning three brothers of one of the victims came into McDade, seeking the killer of their brother. Two of them were shot down in the streets. Six men lay dead by Christmas morning.

The year 1887 stands out most vividly in Aunt Mary's mind as the year that the greatest tragedy that could befall any human came into her life.

Her husband was invited to attend a meeting of "neighbors", held in the woods. It turned out to be a meeting of the lawless element, which had decided that a certain Negro in the community was to be disposed of. Two of those present were designated as executioners. Word of this meeting was whispered around and Christian was accused of telling what had happened.

Not long afterward Mr. Christian was riding a horse with his wife up behind him when he was overtaken by several men. He stepped to the ground and before he was given a chance to explain his side of the argument he was shot dead in the presence of his wife.

After the death of her husband, Aunt Mary made her home with her brother, Joe Mobley, for 62 years and the two of them reared 13 children of the Mobley lineage. Uncle Joe Mobley died a few years ago.

After the death of Joe she was moved to a local nursing home, where she sits in her wheelchair dispensing cheer to those less fortunate.

In her 68 years in Bastrop County she has seen this area changed from cabins to castles and its roads from cow trails to high speed highways

Rev. J. S. Mobley was born in Coweta County, Georgia, on March 4th, 1839, and died at his home in McDade, Texas, on the 28th day of January, 1914, aged seventy four years, ten months and twenty four days. Brother Mobley spent his childhood and early manhood in his native State and County, living there continuously, except the period spent in the Civil War, until he came to Texas in 1871.

At the age of eighteen Brother Mobley was born again, and soon afterward he joined the Macedonia Baptist Church in his native County. From the time of his conversion to the time of his death he lived a faithful consistent Christian life, walking worthy of the vocation wherewith he was called. His whole life after his conversion, lived as it was by the power of the grace of God, was a living epistle known and read of by all men.

When the Civil War broke out he enlisted in the service of his native State and afterwards in the service of the Confederate States. He was a true, brave and faithful Southern soldier, and gave to his country the best service, he was capable of rendering as long as the struggle lasted. When incapacitated for field service by feeble health, he nursed in a hospital. In 1863 he was honorably discharged on account of a severe illness from typhoid fever; but after his recovery he re-enlisted, and remained at this post of duty till he was surrendered under Gen. R. E. Lee at Appomatox CourtHouse Virginia.

On July 15th, 1866, he was married to Mrs. M. C. Sewell, of Coweta County, Georgia. There were born to them seven children; five sons and two daughters, all of whom live in this county except one son and one daughter, who now live in Burnet County.

Bro. Mobley was a kind and dutiful husband and father, a true and faithful friend, a good and loyal citizen, a valuable member of soceity [sic], and above all a gentle, meek, spirited, intelligent, earnest and faithful christian. The service he rendered the Savior and His cause deserves especial mention in this sketch.

In the year 1868 he was ordained as deacon by the Macedonia Baptist Church, of which he was a member. He served in that relation for three years. In 1871 the same church licensed him to exercise his ministerial gifts. During that same year he removed to Texas, and transferred his church membership to the Mt. Beulah Baptist Church of this county.

In the year 1876 the Mt. Beulah Baptist Church, having had ample opportunity to judge of Bro. Mobley's ministerial gifts and qualifications, called him to ordination, and set him apart publicly by prayer and the laying on of hands to the full work of the gospel ministry.

As a minister of the gospel, Bro. Mobley had a firm conviction that a sacred trusts had been committed to him in the work of preaching the gospel. He believed that he had heard the call of God in his heart, and that he must go and preach the gospel. He believed that he had no right to preach anything else or to fail of declaring all the counsel of God. Therefore, he diligently and prayerfully sought the guidance of the Holy Spirit in the study of the Bible, that he might be able to preach the Word, and show himself approved of God a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth. His ministerial labors were for the most part of the country. His labors were arduous, but his monetary remuneration was small. He worked with his own hands to supply his wants and the wants of those dependent upon him, and preached the gospel of Christ without charge. His labors were not rewarded here as they should have been, but they will be rewarded hereafter. Salvation is of free grace and not of reward, but faithful service, such as he rendered, will surely be rewarded by the Master, Who will render to every man, according to his works. It may be said of Bro. Mobley that he hath fought a good fight, he hath finished his course, he hath kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the Righteous Judge shall give unto him at that day, and not to him only, but unto all them also that love His appearing.

On January 29th, with appropriate religious services, his body was laid to rest in the McDade Cemetery to await the resurrection of the just. May God comfort and sustain by his almighty grace the bereaved and sorrowing family and relatives, and lead them to walk in the steps of the faith of this servant of His, who has finished his labors and entered into that rest that remaineth for the people of God.

His brother and fellow-laborer in the gospel, R. F. GIBSON

McDade, TX Feb. 3. Rev. J. S. Mobley died at his home in McDade Wednesday evening at 3 o'clock of Lagrippe.

Rev. Mobley was one of our oldest and most respected citizens, coming here in 1869. He was married to Mrs. Caroline Sewell in 1867. There were 7 children born to this happy union, 5 boys and 2 girls, all of whom live near here. They are Rev. R. A. Mobley of Marble Falls, G. R. Mobley a farmer near Paige, Mrs. Sallie Farris of Lake Victor; T. R. Mobley a druggist of Red Rock, W. F. Mobley cashier of Red Rock State Bank, and Mrs. Hodge who lived with her parents at the time of her father's death.

It is useless for us to say that Rev. Mobley was a man of noble character as he was widely known. There is no one can ever recall hearing him use profane language, refusing to pay his honest debts or bemeaning his neighbors or friends. He has been a member of the Baptist church since he was 17 years of age and began preaching about three years later. He was always firm in his belief living up to same to the utmost of his ability. We might continue speaking honorable words as to the life and character of the good old man that has been called away by the great Creator and never find nought to say but when a man's character cannot be blemished with a single word of dishonor and that be truthfully spoken that's enough said. The loved ones which are left only to follow later should find consolation by recalling the life and character of the one gone before and they should ever strive to follow his footsteps.

Obituary of CAPT. MOBLEY, Monroe Advertiser, Sept. 11, 1911
 CAPT. MOBLEY PASSES AWAY.
 Was Prominent in Affairs of Monroe County, Where he had Spent Greater Part of His Life.

Our entire community was saddened Saturday night by the announcement that Judge Mobley was dead. Ill for many months, he endured his sufferings with that fortitude that had ever characterized his life. For many weeks he had realized that he must soon pass over the river and rest under the shade of the trees, and that his approaching death.....[sic] friends and and with calm re..... awaited the end. With.....in the promises of.....a number of times.....no terrors for him..... of his son-in-law, Judge George W. Newton, on Monday morning his relatives and friends, among them a number of Confederate Veterans who had known, admired and loved him for many years, gathered and an impressive funeral service was held conducted by Rev. A. Chamblee and Rev. E. A. Ware. After which the body was followed by the bereaved family and sorrowing friends to the family burial ground at Cabaniss where it was peacefully laid to rest.

The mother of Judge Mobley died when he was quite young and he lived with his grandfather, Douglas Watson, one of the sterling pioneers of Monroe County until he was four years old and then went to live with his father in Salem, Ala., where he received his education. While still young he came back to Monroe county and lived with his grandfather until his marriage on Nov. 8, 1860, to Miss Susan B. Shannon, daughter of Dr. John Shannon. Four children were born to them: Mary Susan, Sarah Douglas, Jack and Ann Eliza, all of whom still live except Sarah Douglas.

When the war opened he enlisted in Company H, of the 32nd Georgia Regiment, was elected Captain in May, 1862, served faithfully and valiantly until the close of the war and was in command of his company when it surrendered at Greensboro, N. C., in April 1865. After the war, Captain Mobley went to southwest Georgia, near Albany and lived for a year. Returning to Monroe county, he located in Forsyth and lived here continuously until his death, beloved and honored by the people of his county.

He was farmer, merchant, warehouseman, county treasurer and ordinary, holding the later offices eight years, and in every vocation and calling and in the offices he held he measured up to the standard of a high-toned, honorable and honest gentleman, commanding the confidence and holding the respect of all who knew him.

As a father he was kind and devoted, as a neighbor he was clever and unselfish, as a friend loyal and steadfast, as Captain he was brave, cool, collected, considerate of the feelings and comfort of his men and beloved by all of them, as a citizen he was liberal, public spirited and progressive, and as an office holder he was courteous to all and unswerving in his devotion to right and duty.

A kind hearted, big brained man has gone and will be missed by family, friends and community.

1124583 Ida Mickelberry (Twins) b. 1854/55. One married Milton Hightower, the other married J.B. Wallace

1. "Butts CO Georgia, Marriages 1826-1926" - lists William H. C. Mickelberry marrying "Emily Mobly" on Nov. 19, 1845.
2. 1850 census (Butts CO) - Nancy E. Mickelberry (age 22) is listed in household and assumed to be wife of W. H. C. Mickelberry.
3. 1870 census (Spaulding CO, GA) N. E. Mickelberry (age 43) listed in household of W. H. C. Mickelberry along with their children and several other boarders. Of note was Moses Mobley, a black "domestic servant" (age 19).
4. Also listed in same household in 1860 census (Spaulding CO)
5. A recorded document (Butts CO 1854) assigning W.H.C. Administrator of the deceased Alden Mickelberry's estate included Fleming Mobly as the chief witness. The one page document starts..."Know all men by these presents that we William H.C. Mickelberry & Fleming Mobly security are held and firmly bound into the Ordinary for said county and his successors in office in the just and full sum of five hundred dollars for the payment of which sum to the said Ordinary....."
6. Tombstone of Nancy E. Mickelberry is alongside her husband in Oakhill Cemetery in Griffin GA (Spaulding CO) reads as follows:
Nancy E. Mickelberry 1827 - 1894

Birth date is consistent with known birth year of Nancy Emily Mobley.

7. Obituary of W.H.C. (Atlanta Journal Constitution - 3/11/1891) said "In 1846 he was a merchant at Indian Springs (Butts CO) in partnership with a Mr. Mobley and afterwards removed to Griffin...". I wonder if this Mobley might have been Fleming.
The year was a year following the marriage of W.H.C. and "Emily"
Mobley (item #1 above).
 8. The first child of W.H.C. and Nancy E. was named William MOBLEY Mickelberry. He was my great grandfather.
- W.H.C. and Nancy E. issued 2 daughters and 3 sons:

William Mobley Mickelberry - b. 1852, d. 1920, m. George (given her father's first name in his honor after he died near the end of the Civil War) Lial Martin on 10/22/79 in Griffin, GA. They had 4 sons. The William Mobley Mickelberry family moved from Atlanta to Chicago in the 1890's where William founded the Mickelberry Sausage Company.

Ada and Ida (Twins) b. 1854/55. One married Milton Hightower and the other married J.B. Wallace. I don't know yet who married who. Wallaces lived in Atlanta and the Hightowers lived in Hogansville, GA. James and Charlie (Twins) b. 1860. Charlie died in 1878 Griffin, GA. James lived in Atlanta in late 1800's working for father among other occupations.

W.H.C. and Nancy E. moved from Butts CO to Griffin in Spaulding CO around 1860. They were very active in the First Baptist Church of Griffin where W.H.C. eventually became a deacon.

Dear Madam: Reference is made to your letter in which you request the military records (Revolutionary War) of Biggers Mobley, Samuel Mobley (or Moberly), of South Carolina, the name of the father of William Hill born 1771, wife Amerel, Robert William King, born September 24, 1832, in Virginia, William Buchanan, born about 1800 in North Carolina, also record of the father of John Smith who was born October 3, 1800 in Chester, South Carolina.

Data furnished by this office in regard to soldiers of the various wars are obtained from claims for pension which have been made to the United States based upon military service. There is no claim for pension based upon service in the Revolutionary War of a Biggers or Samuel Mobley or Moberly. As William Hill was born in 1771, he could have served in the War of 1812, but not the Revolutionary War. There is no claim for pension on file based upon service in the War of 1812 of the William Hill described by you.

No record could be found of any Robert King, William Buchanan or of the ancestors of John Smith, noted above.

One record has been found which may aid you in your research. It is that of MICAJAH Mobley. In this pension claim, R.7289, based upon service in the Revolutionary War, the name of one William Hill is shown. The record is given herein as found in said claim.

The date and place of birth and the names of the parents of MICAJAH MOBLEY are not shown in the papers in the pension claim.

[Next part of letter essentially duplicates data in the deposition of Thomas Mobley, supra]

The claim was not allowed as proof of service as required by the pension laws was not furnished. Very truly yours, A. D. Miller, Asst. to Adm

(this letter referred to earlier) Marks, Miss. - May 12, 1934 Bureau of Pensions, - Washington, D.C.

In tracing ancestral line to join the D.A.R. I'm trying to find Revolutionary service record of any of the following:

Biggers Mobley - married Joamia Corbell; his father, Samuel Mobley married to Mary Wagner. The name was formerly Moberly and they settled in Chester Co., S.C.

William Hill, born in 1771, married to Amorel/Armonel__ born 1774 (from old Shaw Graveyard on French Broad River near site of old Wood's Ferry). He was my great-great-grandfather, can you find any record of his father?

Robert William King, born Sept. 24, 1832, Smoky Ordinary, Brunswick Co., VA. was my grandfather. Are there any records of a King from Va.?

William Buchanan, probably born around 1800 in N.C. my Greatgrandfather. Any record of the father or grandfather.

John Smith, born Oct 3, 1800 Chester S.C. married to Harriet Mobley

If it is possible to get any thing on any of these lines, please let me hear from you.

Yours truly, Mrs. P. M. B. Self, Marks, Mississippi

Pension Office - July 11, 1846

Sir: The declaration and accompanying papers in the case of MICAJAH MOBLEY, dec'd. fail to prove such service as will carry a pension - the certificate of the Comptroller General of S. C. credits (?) a service of only 38 days; while the fact that the individual under whose this claim is asserted lived as late as 1840, and failed to ___ a pension while hundreds around him were availing themselves of the benefits of the pension laws, strongly indicates that he did not think himself entitled. Under these circumstances, the alligations(?) must be very clearly sustained before the claim can be allowed.

James H. Mobley married Miss Nora Moore, daughter of William Henry and Emily Ellis Moore 12 Sept 1886.

They were the parents of four children. Prilla (1889-1948) married Noah Lee Abernatha (1888-1968), both are buried in Moores Chapel Cemetery, Waveland; Pascal Adam (1892-1991) married Marvie Roack 28 Aug 1912, both are buried near Marietta, Oklahoma; Jicy Valeria "Velie" (24 Dec 1897-17 April 1975) married Jake James, Sr. 26 July 1914, both are buried in Earl Ladd Cemetery, Danville; and James Harbert married Bertha Clark 15 Jan 1922 at Logan County, Arkansas, both are buried in North Little Rock. James H. died approximately 1900 from pneumonia. After he died Grandpa William Henry Moore gave them a crop to buy groceries on credit and picked cotton to pay the bill. Uncle Bill Ellis gave them a house to live in. They stayed there until Nora remarried John W. Hunt 23 Jan 1907. The family moved to Dutch Creek and lived there for about a year. It was at that time that Nora was wearing a long flannel gown which caught on fire when she got too close to an open blaze. She panicked and ran which just fanned the blaze. Pascal ran after her but could not catch her. She died shortly thereafter and was buried in Moss Creek Cemetery with no marker. After her death the children spread out. Pascal stayed with Willie Grist for awhile, tried to go to school, but mostly ran around all over the country. He finally went to J. B. and Lizzie Coverdill's where his sister, Velie had gone. Pascal worked, cleared land, plowed, and planted at the age of 13. After Pascal and Marvie married they left Arkansas for Oklahoma in the fall of 1915 with two horses, one mule, and a covered wagon loaded with their possessions. Prilla and Velie stayed in Yell County and raised families, and after Harbert grew up he lived in North Little Rock where he and Bertha raised a family.

My Life Story by P A. Mobley

When I was six years old, I decided to become a cowman. We didn't even own a cow. At eight, my father passed away. I had to learn to plow and take care of a family of six. At age twelve my mother married again. We moved to Dutch Creek Valley in Arkansas. Then at thirteen my mother burned to death. She was in front of the fireplace and her dress caught fire. She ran outside. I caught hold of her and tried to put the fire out. I burned my hand and she pulled away and started running. I couldn't catch her. She died within a few minutes.

From that time on I would live with my relatives, staying one place then another. Then at nineteen, I married Marvia Roach. You can't say we weren't well acquainted since we had played on a pallet together when we were babies. We lived in Arkansas for two years and had a child, Treva Joyce Mobley. My mother-in-law was moving to Oklahoma, so we decided to follow her. We left Havana, Arkansas in the fall of 1914. The drive took 14 1/2 days in a covered wagon. Today we can drive it in five hours in our modern automobiles. We had quite a few surprises on the road. We met some people who wanted to sell us some whiskey. We told them we didn't have any money. Then our little girl spoke up and told them that our money was sewed up in the mattress. Needless to say, we took our money and put it in another hiding place, a fruit jar. Then we hid the jar under a tree. The travelers camped close by. So the next morning we got up early and packed our belongings and moved on. We had to detour through Ardmore, Oklahoma because there had been an explosion. There were pieces of bank buildings in the streets and many people were killed.

We arrived in Love County on Christmas Eve. That night Matt Bates killed Mark Mitchell. We thought we had come to a rough country.

We rented a place one mile southwest of the Oswalt community, just one mile from where I live now.

I never forgot my determination at the age of six. So I picked up every crippled cow and yearling that I could buy until I got thirty-five head. Then I got a Duncan Loan for two thousand dollars and bought one hundred head of the best cows that I have ever owned. And I've been in the cattle business ever since.

Through the years of trial and error we raised eight children. Our second child was a boy, Cloy Mobley. The next five children were girls: Irene, Lois, Betty, Joyce, and Wanda. Then we had one more son, James (Sonny).

When we moved to O'Saviour Chaple, no one knew my name. I always wore a cap so my friends and neighbors named me Capp. None of the girls liked that name. My brother came looking for me from Arkansas and asked for Pascal Mobley. They said they only knew of a Capp Mobley. I went by that name for several years.

I owned a green wagon which I put to good use by peddling sausage and pork in Dillard, Oklahoma. So people started calling me the "Green Peddler."

Then I bought a barn in Marrieta and started an auction sale. I had to write so many checks by P. A. Mobley that people finally decided that I had a name. I go mostly by my initials now. I ran the sale for seven years with the help of my daughters and wife. They ran the hamburger stand and kept the books.

I now have 25 grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren and am proud of everyone of them. I retired at age 65 and sold all my cows. Decided I couldn't stand it. I bought some more cows. Then I decided I could retire at age 70. Then changed my mind again to age 75. Then at 80 I was too young to quit. On July 29 I will be 82 and still going strong. I own a 1973 Buick that can take me anywhere I want to go. I am not entirely by myself. My youngest son, James (Sonny) lives with me. I still have my cows and my farm. People wonder how I can still make it. I just tell them, "The good Lord has been on my side."

William S. was one of 2 formerly unplaced Mobleys in NC 1790 census. We now have few issue definitely placed for John's son Hammond or of Thomas[131] or William[132]. He probably was a son of Hammond[113]. Wm. S. was drafted in 1780, served first under Zephiniah Tate, then under Capt. Abraham Philips. He served for 3 months, and recd. discharge from John Paisley[Ref. Pension application File No. R-6586 & Rockingham Co, NC Marriage Bonds & Deed Records]/data submitted by James R. Meador.

Searching for Byrd and Callie Mobley and their descendants. Byrd and Callie were born in Jack County, TX, married in Wise County, TX. They moved to Buckeye before 1949. They had 2 sons and 2 daughters, believe one son was Richard. Callie was still alive in 1949. Have been unable to find anything on them. Margie Etter

Great!!! Another Etter relative found!!! I can help you some on the Mobley side. My email address is MEtter39@aol.com I have Byrd's parents. Also, his Aunt Julia married another relative, Ezekiel Coffey. Another relative, Margaret Ann Armstrong, married D.A. Mobley, who I believe is Byrd's Uncle David. Although I haven't search the line enough to be positive. Let's exchange information, please.

"John Mobley(son of John[11]) probably remained in Edgecombe Co. when his father died in 1753. It is likely that he became a resident of Halifax Co.
when it was formed from Edgecombe Co.He or some of his children lived in part of Martin Co. when it was formed from Halifax and Tyrrell Cos. in 1774.
Nothing further is known about John[114]. It is thought that he had two sons, Edward and William, who were living in Martin Co. at the time of the 1790 census." #

I found this info in the NC State Library, Sampson County 1784-1923.
 I think Ollen married (1) Susanna Hall, widow of Wm Hall, and adopted her child, Calvin, and had the court change the child's surname. Later he married (2) Susan Fleming, who, I think was the mother of Fanny A. Mobley, my g-g-grandmother.

My g-g-grandmother was Fanny A. Mobley (abt 1829 - bef 1856). I think she was Ollen Mobley's daughter. She married Charles C. Carroll (abt 1826 - 1883) sometime around 1843-45 and in 1848 they migrated to Gibson County, TN. Susan had two children, William, 1846, born in Sampson County, and Peter Hunter, 1848, born after they arrived in Gibson County. Susan herself died before 1856.

There is an error in the "Martin County Heritage" book. Uncle Joe Wynne gave the information to the Martin County Historical Society for the book. He got the name of his mother (Mary Elizabeth Bullock) mixed up with the name of John Lawrence's wife (Mary Virginia Braswell). He was in his 80's when he gave the information out and he got confused some. Mary Elizabeth Bullock married Benjamin Franklin Wynne, Jr.

Mary Elizabeth Bullock Wynne (b. 2-12-1872 d. 12-15-1917) was named after her mother, Mary Elizabeth Mobley (b. 1843 d. 1926). Her father was Noah Bullock (d. 1907). After Mary Elizabeth Bullock Wynne died, Benjamin Franklin Wynne, Jr. married Effie Blanch Mobley (b. 12-17-1887 d. 8-1-1959). Effie Blanch Mobley was John Lawrence Mobley's sister. I hope this will clear up some of the confusion.

The Roanoke Beacon and Washington County News: Number 52 Dated Thursday, December 30, 1943.

Body of Sam Mobley Found on Railroad Tracks Near Here
Had Been Run over by Several Trains Monday, Officers States.

The mangled remains of Sam Mobley, 59 year old white farmer who lived on the Owens farm near Plymouth, were discovered on the Norfolk Southern Railroad tracks only a few yards from the Conaby Creek trestle Monday afternoon around 5 o'clock. He was last seen alive in Plymouth about 3:30 and local police who investigated said it was believed he had been run over by two or three freight trains, as his body was badly mangled.

Local officials who made the investigation declined to express an opinion as to just how the man met his death. but they suggest that he might have gone to sleep on the tracks or that he might have suffered a sudden heart attack and fallen on the tracks. It was thought that he was taking a short cut down the tracks on his way home. His body was discovered by a small colored boy, who notified the police. Coroner Jack Horner was called to the scene, but decided that an inquest was not necessary.

Mr. Mobley, was a native of Martin County and came to this section to live about five years ago from the Dardens section. He was a son of the late J.
S. and Louise Clark Mobley, of the Cross Roads section of Martin County.
He had farmed all his life and was an active member of the Cross Roads
Christian church for about 35 years.

He was married to Miss Millie Coburn at Bear Grass on July 16, 1910, and is survived by his widow and twelve children; seven daughters, Mrs. Veatrice Crump of Hampton, Va, Mrs. Thelma Sawyer and Mrs. Annie Sawyer of Plymouth, Misses Euzelia, Grace, Vel Gray and Lovie Brown Mobley all of Plymouth; five sons, Grover, Biscoe and Clee Elvert Mobley of Plymouth; Thurman Mobley of the U.S. Army, stationed at Camp Howze, Tx, and McLean Mobley of Jamesville. He also leaves two brothers, Ed Mobley of Everetts, Claud Mobley of Jamesville; one sister, Mrs. Henry Rawls of Robersonville; and a half-sister, Mrs. Bessie Davis of Williamston.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of his brother, Claud Mobley, near Jamesville, and interment will be made in the family plot near by. The Rev. W. B. Harrington, Baptist minister will conduct the last rites.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD

February 22, 1982

submitted by Glenn M. Moberly 22001 Ocean Ave., Torrance, CA 90503

GG Grandson

George William Moberly genealogy dated November 28, 1962 by Charles Wilson Casteel.

Letter received from my sister Alice C. (Moberly) Jones dated March 20, 1981 detailing family tree from data recorded in family bible by James Raleigh Moberly.

Gravestone, James Anderson Moberly and Richard G. Mobley located in Moberly cemetery off route 30 in Laurel County.

1850 Census, Laurel County, Kentucky, Film T-6, roll 112 pages 36 & 37. 1880 census, Laurel County, Kentucky, dated 7 June 1880, film T-9-427 page 12, Morman genealogy library Santa Monica, Calif. Also film T-288 part 331 on Civil War pensions filed. Richard G. Mobley - Civil War veteran Union Army, company A, 24th Kentucky Infantry.

Nancy Jane McWhorter and Reverend Henry H. McWhorter were brothers and sisters, their parents were Jesse Henry and Lucinda (Benge) McWhorter.

The spelling of Mobley was found on all the documents that I have reviewed on William "Mobley". However all the other decendants have spelled their name as "Moberly".

Alcey B. Mobley made her last will and testament 29 May, 1883 leaving the farm to Richard and Henry Mobley to be divided by them. All the other children received one dollar each except Elizabeth Ann McWhorter who received her quilts and chest. Alcey could not read or write, she signed her will with an "X".

The following obituary of Alcey B. Mobley in the Mountain Echo dated Friday December 17, 1886: Died Wednesday December, 15 at the residence of her son, Richard Mobley, Mrs. Alcey Mobley in the 76th year of her age after an illness of three or four years. The family Bible of Bette (Moberly) Patton lists the death date as December 13, 1886, I believe this to be correct and the Mountain Echo date is when she was buried.

Abstract of file S17208: Rev. War Pension application of Jacob Woodward.
Virginia

Washington county

This day Frances MOBLEY, now about sixty seven years of age personally came before me James W. Paxton, a justice of the peace in and for the county aforesaid and being duly sworn, doth upon her oath say, That she is the sister of Jacob Woodward, a Revolutionary Soldier who is about to make application for a pension. This affiant was a young girl at home with her father when the said Jacob performed two tours of service of which she has a perfect recollection. One was to the south, after that one, the other was a tour which he performed as a substitute for his brother Samuel Woodward and as she has heard him say that on this tour he was statione(d) at Richmond. She cannot now distinctl(y) recollect the length of time he was gone on these tours.

NOTE; The will of John, Sr.[1] left the land mentioned below to "the sons or the eldest male heir of the survivor"; thus there is some possibility that there were other sons of William[13] than the first two listed. This is the basis for the placement of William [133], plus the fact that heirs of John, Jr[11], James[12] and Edward[14] were enumerated in their wills. As of December, 1994, we do not have a will of William[13].

[He and brother Wm. Mercer, for exercise, used to stand on opposite sides of a split rail fence and toss a tied hog from one to the other. He had 15 slaves in 1860 & $10,000 in cash in 1861; refused to serve in Civil War & lived in a cabin in the Savannah River swamp at times. His former slaves stayed with him in Reconstruction, with orders to shoot any strangers on the place, disposing of three carpetbaggers by shooting] #{All issue b. Screven Co.,GA}

It has been said that Charles W had children by an Indian woman & also by a black woman. The ones by the Indian were given the name ANDREWS by a Preacher, William Sherman Andrews after Charles gave him land and built him a Church.

You probably need to drop the 'Mobley' from his name since they were allegedly adopted by Mr. William Andrews. I only list it because of the possibility that they are the children of Charles W. Mobley. But, I am still looking into the possibility that the information is incorrect and their mother was born Mary Jane Mobley and married Mr. Andrews.

He was born in Pavo, Ga., on January 9, 1859, and at the age of seven years came to Dade City with his parents, the late William L. and Nicy Roberts

Mobley from their native home of Georgia. During his long life, the deceased had engaged mainly in farming and also in stock raising. He also dealt in real estate and bought and sold considerable property in and near Dade City. About fifteen years ago, he bought and developed his present farm. ... The deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice C. Mobley; three brothers, J. A. Mobley, Dade City, E. I. Mobley, Zephyrhills, John Mobley, Dade City; and three sisters, Mrs. J. O. Baker, Miss Fannie Mobley, and Miss Mattie Mobley of Dade City.

Her father was one of the best known of the pioneer Baptist ministers and organized many churches in central and southern Florida, and was a brother of Jerry M. Hayman, another Baptist minister. On Oct. 10, 1954, the Tampa Sunday Tribune reported that Alice Mobley would celebrate her 95th birthday next Sunday. [The Florida Genealogist]

Early Residents of Pasco Co:

WILLIAM LEE MOBLEY (1835-1915) was a Confederate veteran and an early tax collector of Pasco County. He was born on April 23, 1835, in Georgia, and died in Dade City on Feb. 15, 1915. He married Nancy Roberts (1838-1923). The following is excerpted from his obituary:

Col. Mobley was one of the early pioneers of this county, coming here soon after the Civil War ended, and was one of a band of settlers who braved the perils of the wilderness, and with ax and plow made a clearing and started the great development work of this county. He was always a leader of every worthy movement, and served the county faithfully for sixteen years in the capacity of tax collector, his last term of office expiring the first of January of this year. During his long and useful life in this county Col. Mobley was always accounted a friend by all who came in contact with him. He was a true Southern gentleman, a man of education refinements and culture, and was always read to lend a helping hand to one less fortunate than he. No stranger was every turned away from his door, but all had a hearty welcome.

William's father was James H. Mobley, who came to Florida in the early 1850s.

Fredericksburg, Virginia: February 1, 1863

Dear Benjamin:

I now seat myself to drop you a few lines to let you know how I am getting along. I am well at present, except a bad cold which I caught playing in the snow. I wrote to you day before yesterday. You know I told you about Toombs's brigade. Well, Kershaw's brigade come in the place of Toombs and such snow balling I never saw before. Cobb's brigade run them about three miles. Well, yesterday, Cobb's brigade formed in line of battle and marched about two miles in the snow to Kershaw's brigade. We were in line of battle on a hill and Kershaw's formed and come out to fight us. All our officers was out, too. The field officers was on their horses and when they come against us, they come with a holler! and, Benjamin, great God, I never saw snow balls fly so in my life. You better believe we give them fits. They charged on us, and we met the charge and every fellow had his haversack full of snowballs, and we run them down to the bottom of the hill, and there they rallied, and both brigades come together and closed in with one another, and then you better believe we had it sure. I tell you it got so tight that some got to throwing rocks and then some to fighting sure enough, and then it got so tight and the snow balls and the rocks flew, so that I got out of it as quick as possible. I tell you some of the officers on their horses would wave their hats and the their heads would get pelted. I tell you it beat anything that I ever saw in my life. There was 4000 men engaged on both sides, and you know it was some! Benjamin, while we were in line of battle there come along two men on horseback and they commenced throwing at them, and they had to let their horses out to keep from being knocked off. The snow is get about twelve inches thick. It was about nine deep where we fought the battle. Benjamin, I have said enough about it now. I will leave you now to judge for your- self. It will be put in the papers, I think.

Benjamin, tell you what I want you to do for me. If you please, go to Waynesboro on the 14th of this month and get me two pretty Valentines and send them to me in a letter. I want them to send to a young lady. Get them before the 14th if you can, but I know you can get them on the 14th. Benjamin, I must come to a close. Your affectionate Brother.

Richmond, Virginia: August 25, 1861

Dear Father:

I now take my pen in hand to inform you I and James are in good health and hope these few lines will find you the same. Now, Father, I must write a few words to you. I want to know how you are getting along with the crop. I want you to superintend it right. Are you done sowing fodder? Is the cotton ripening fast? Is the com full out nice? Is there many watermelons in the new ground? I want you to write to me about all this. I want you to repair the house. I never intend to get a furlough to go home 'till you write to me you have finished the house. I want to bring some of my friends home with me when I come. Now I must speak of something else. The Volunteers are the finest company in the legion. We have the best violiners and the best dancers, the best jumpers, the fastest runners, the best wrestlers. We had the best wrestling last night you ever saw or heard tell of. Charley Madison and the Bryan boy got together last night, and Charley threwed him the hardest fall he ever had in his life. Our street is full every night. We strike a ring and clean them out. I thought to find hard, hearty-looking men, but they are no better looking than they are in Georgia. But old Virginia can better her for horses and cattle. I have saw since I have been here two buzzards, two honey bees, six pigeons, one crane. Here is plenty of fruit and watermelons and ground peas for sale. Here corn is fine and just in roasten ears. You think people in Georgia loves money, but they don't care anything for it. But if you will come here, you will see people that loves money!

Dear Mother, do you think hard of me not telling you goodbye? I ask you to pardon me for doing so. You said I had not wrote, yet I have wrote to Sue and I will write to you. I did not wish to bid you and Sue farewell weeping. If I could have bid you farewell smiling, it would have been joy to me. I get along fine, all but cooking. We have hired us a cook. Twelve of us pays him $11 a month. I saw sky rockets shooting up in the city last night. It is reported today Washington is in our possession!

An exact match has been found between you (131378121 Carl Wendell Mobley) and another person(s) in the Family Tree DNA database. (13132C173 Marvin Lee Mobley) You and the other person(s) have matched in all 25 loci, which means that there is a 99.9% likelihood that you have a common ancestor. There is a 50% likelihood that the common ancestor is within the last 14.5 generations and 90% within the last 48 generations. If you and your match share a "prior" item of knowledge, such as a common surname, then a recent (within 14.5 generations) common ancestor is fairly likely. If not, then the common ancestor is probably closer to the 48 generations.

Afghan bomb kills Sioux Falls man
TERRY COLLINS, Star Tribune

A third-generation soldier from Sioux Falls, S.D., died Wednesday from injuries suffered last week while on duty in Afghanistan.

Specialist Estell L. Turner, 43, a U.S. Army motor transport operator was severely wounded after his vehicle was blown up by a roadside bomb on June 28, the Department of Defense announced Thursday.

He was taken to a hospital in Germany and then to the National Naval Medical Center in Bethesda, Md., where he died.

He had a "go get it" attitude and loved being in the military, his mother, Gloria Turner, of Jackson, Ky., said Thursday.

"He had a great personality," she said. "He was always looking out for the next guy."

Turner followed in the footsteps of his late father, Clarence Turner, who served in the Navy for 18 years, and his late grandfather, also named Estell Turner, an Army soldier who served in World War II, Gloria Turner said.
Turner's younger brother, Johnny, is in the Army stationed in Fort Bragg, N.C., she said.

"My husband insisted they serve in the military," Turner said. "Our family has always believed that you put your country first." Estell L. Turner was assigned to the 1st Battalion, 506th Infantry Regiment, 4th Brigade Combat Team, 101st Airborne Division in Fort Campbell, Ky. He joined the Army in 2004. He received numerous awards including the Purple Heart and a National Defense Service Medal, according to a release from South Dakota Gov. Mike Rounds' office.

A memorial service for Turner will be held in Afghanistan. His body is scheduled to be flown to Kentucky for services next week, his mother said. Turner also is survived by his wife, Leah Turner of Sioux Falls and their daughter, Lyda, of Broadway, N.C.

Willie Joe Mobley passed away November 6, 2010 after a short illness. He was born February 27, 1926 in Ware County, Georgia. He is one of four sons and two daughters born to Henry Eli Mobley and Mollie Abbygill Spivey. He is second to the youngest child and the last living sibling of the Mobley family. His parents and brothers and sisters were Dave, Willis Columbus (W.C.), Durant Mobley, Pauline Lewis and Ora Mobley has all gone before him.

Willie Joe lived in numerous places as a child because his dad was a share cropper. Someone once said they moved so much the chickens would lay down and cross their legs so they could be tied together and the cow would just walk into the truck. They had to go where Henry could find work, needless to say he attended many schools. Willie Joe would farm along with his dad and brothers.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at 11 am at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Burial will follow in Greenlawn Cemetery.

ONCE UPON A LIFETIME IN BAKER COUNTY FLORIDA by LaVice Smallwood

He walked the city streets and country roads of Baker County before there was one paved road. He was grown before he got a taste of ice cream. But he considered himself rich beyond comparison.

He as Andrew Jackson Mobley, but called fondly by friends, neighbors and family as A.J. or "Uncle Ander" Mobley.

In 1958 he had just celebrated his 82nd birthday when I went to interview him as a young mother and housewife with an intense interest in the pioneers of Baker County. He was born in 1876 about 12 miles northwest of Darbyville (later named McClenny) on the old Wingate place. He was the oldest of four children born to Jesse Daniel. and Tabitha (Taylor) Mobley. When he became of age, he walked the three miles to Crews School each day with his father who was the teacher.

In 1886 he moved to Darbyville/McClenny with his parents who settled in the Garrett community on Bay Branch Place and enrolled in the Garrett School which was an old log house. And that is where he finished his education in the eighth grade except for one term he spent at a school called the Old McClenny House owned by the town's namesake C.B. McClenny. He still has some of the school books he used such as his third-grade reader, Webster's Blue Back Spelling book, Globe Geography and U.S. History Book. He recalls some of his teachers were: John R. Barnes, S.M. Lyons, Lillian Proctor and Willie Brant.

Some of his classmates were George and Sarah Garrett, Sara Starling, Lizzie Thomas, Rose Mae Stevenson and Josey Hodges. He said he only got one spanking at school, but he said it wasn't the only time he needed one. He recalls that the teachers were very strict and kept a bundle of switches over the door that they didn't mind using. He and his classmates wrote on slates instead of paper as we do today.

When he had gone as far as he could in school, he sought employment and started to work sawing logs. He worked for the Cummer Lumber Company surveying logs, and in his spare time he built a log home on 10 acres of land where he farmed.

As time passed he visited some friends in nearby Nassau County and attended Brandy Branch Church with them. After church, while visiting his friends, he was smitten by a lovely young girl named Lucy, daughter of Burton and Georgia (Bennett) Crews and granddaughter of Calvin McDonald 'Mac' and Sarah Jane (Stokes) Crews. He had to walk about eight miles to visit her and get better acquainted. It took only seven weeks before the two knew they wanted to get married. His uncle, J.E. (John Edward) Mobley was the Justice of Peace who performed the ceremony.

Uncle Andrew lived on his farm for six years and worked in McClenny in a Blacksmith shop owned by Press Mac Stevenson. Then he built a two story home and opened his own wood shop. He made wagons, buggies, log carts, plow stocks, blades, caskets and did general repairs. His shop was the first in McClenny to be equipped with shop machinery. He bought the first washing machine that was used in McClenny and owned the third automobile which was a 1909 Olds that ran about 10 miles per hour.

His next enterprise was to open a grist mill and said he has ground as much as 105 bushels of corn in one day. He suffered an eye injury and sold his business to return to farming. He purchased 35 acres of woodland and cleared the oak thickets to build their home. His sons worked on the farm while he was eventually employed as a carpenter.

In 1926 he bought a grocery and fruit store that he ran during most of the Hoover Depression days. His store was located on McClenny Avenue. Uncle Andrew sold his store and went to work as an inspector for the county school board. He made one more move, and that was to his present home on SR 228. He built a small shop and still has some of his original blacksmith tools that are 51 years old (in 1958) which includes a band, circle and cut-off-saw.

His memories of pioneering McClenny are vivid. He remembers some of the first homesteads that still exist such as the Jesse Frank Morris Home, and those of John Herndon, Annie Carroll, Duncan Rhoden, Judge Brown and Ed Turner.

He attended church in the renown Poythress home when it was a chapel. McClenny had no paved streets and few stores. He was grown before he got a taste of ice cream which was sent out from Jacksonville by train and sold at the general store owned by Irvin Rhoden.

He remembers once when he had to move his workshop. It was set on logs, pulled by mules and friends helped him move it just across the street from Vernon Walker's grocery which was then a cotton patch.

He became a skilled carpenter and built about 25 homes in the area, including the Ray Dinkins home, Ollie Davis, Verdie Reynolds, George Raulerson, Arthur Thompson, Dee Rowe. He built the very first rural school in Baker County which is presently the Primitive Baptist Church.

He said his future plans are to 'live just as long as I can, go fishing and enjoy life.' He claims to be the champion trout (Bass) 'catcher' in Baker County and to prove it he has his picture with one that weighed in at 14 pounds and 14 ounces and measured 27 ½ long, 10 inches broad, 7 ½ inches fan tail and 6 ½ inches in the mouth.

Five of the couple's seven children living in 1958 were: Lacy of Starke, Claude of Jacksonville Beach who runs a cabinet shop, Jesse D. of Salt Springs who runs a grocery and restaurant business, Annie Mae Thrift of McClenny and Donald who still lives at home. They have 21 grandchildren and 38 great grandchildren. (Annie Mae is still living in 2008 in Wells Nursing Home).

While visiting in his home, he began to sing a few notes of music and he told me that my great grandfather, Brantly Harrison Fraser of Sanderson, had taught the song to him when he attended singing school at Macedonia.

He related many stories about pioneering Baker County and it was obvious he enjoyed the time he spent here Once Upon a Lifetime in Baker County Florida.

From book "LONGLEAF PINE"
An incident involving my father's great-great-grandmother, Rebecca Pridgen Swain, exemplifies frontier rigors. Her father, Mark Pridgen, had been captured and killed by Indians in 1815. Rebecca was living in Jacksonville, Georgia, with her husband, Thomas S. Swain, a Telfair County office holder and prominent citizen. Their tract was at the big bend of the Ocmulgee River. At that time, whites occupied the eastern or "county" side of the Ocmulgee while the western side was considered Indian territory. Rebecca's sister had married Ludd Mobley, who owned a store on the western side of the river. He traded with the Indians and was considered an honest merchant. When the Indian trouble started, Rebecca crossed the river traveling in a one-horse cart to urge her sister to come to Jacksonville for safety. Several white families had been massacred, and Nancy had just had a baby. Nancy, however, would not leave her husband and was afraid that the journey would endanger her newborn. Early the next morning, Indians in war paint appeared at the Mobley home. Ludd thought the best thing to do was to play along, so he warmly greeted them and invited them to sit down for breakfast. The Indians immediately accepted and went to Ludd's well and washed off the war Paint. After eating, the Indians asked to see Ludd's new baby. They entered the room and confronted a terrified Nancy holding the child. The Indians said, "Me not hurt Mobley baby, me not hurt Mobley wife." They then repainted themselves, went about a mile down the road, and massacred an entire family (Morrison, p. 117).

New York Times, dated 19 Feb 1884:

"How a Widow Was Captured

"Pearson, Ga., Feb. 18.- For some months past a rivalry has existed between Dud Mobley and Bird Mobley, brothers, for the affections of Mrs. Judy McCook, a sprightly widow. To each she pledged her troth, the arrangement in each case being that the nuptials should be quietly celebrated, so as to be a surprise to the community when it happened. In this manner each imagined himself to be the sole possessor of the widow's heart. It was arranged with Bird Mobley that Widow McCook should meet him at a certain point on Ocmulgee River. On the night in question Dud Mobley learned of the intended move and went to the widow's house, and besought her to come out and marry him. This she refused to do, and locked the front door. The disappointed lover sat on the door-step, and resolved to hold the fort until she should appear. When daylight came he gained admittance, but found that the lady was missing. She had escaped through the back window and, seeking the place appointed with Bird Mobley, the two were married, and returning home later in the day received the blessing of the Watcher on the door-step."

Fran Kelley (grand daughter of Mitylene) provided much of the information to me on 5/23/2001 email. "My grandmother was born first and lived the longest of all the siblings (of Willard Mobley and w/ Missouri Amazon Hinson). She died of old age, just shy of 104 years. She had amazing energy all her life, with her faculties in tact right to the end." "Mitylene married Simeon Albert Etheridge in 1897. He was born in Georgetown, SC in 1857. Apparently his family moved into Georgia when he was a child. I remember a story about how he sat on a fence and watched Sherman's army march south to the sea." "Their children were: (1) Marvin Dale, born June 26, 1899: died April 1963. (2) Edna Beatrice, born October 23, 1900: died in 1980. (3)

William Walter, born September 20, 1902: died May 8, 1934. (4) Vernon Randall, born July 16, 1904: died December 19, 1982 (5) Nina Mae (Fran Kelley's mother) born June 12, 1908: died January 23, 1973." Fran Kelley has a photograph of the entire family taken when her mother was an infant. "They moved to Cincinnati in 1926 after my (Fran's) grandfather lost everything in a fire. They ran a grocery store here for many years. My (Fran's) mother helped out in the store and went to night school. At one time my (Fran's) mother played the piano for the silent movies. I (Fran) believe that was during the time they lived in Samson, Alabama. Fran's grandfather died April 17, 1932 and is buried somewhere in Hazelhurst, as are many other relatives

Granddaddy Otis had a brother W. Herbert Mobley. He lived most of his life in Greensboro, N.C. I am trying to get in touch with his wife and see what she can tell me. He had another brother that died and is buried in Zoar Cemetary in Appling County. Matt Carlos Mobley b: July 30,1873 d: February 2, 1905.

At Zoar Cemetary we found the following graves but I do not know how they connect:

Notes Thomas Jefferson Mobley

He watched Sherman's army burn down his father house. He was apprenticed to Dr. Lattimore his step-father, but ran away from home when he was 16. He went out West and became a cowboy. He returned, met and married " FASH " Mary Frances McEachin. He worked for the Southern Railroad as a yardman in the Inman Yards.

Thomas Jefferson Mobley retired after many years with the Southern Railroad. He received a pension and a Perpetual Pass and roamed the country, perhaps a little dis-oriented . This letter in his own hand at age 77 gives good insight to his casual agrarian make-up.

Sanantonia, Texas 11-1929

Dear Old Constitution:
Atlanta, Ga.

As the Constution is and has been comming to my home (1034 SE Capitol Ave.) for several years and I enjoy reading it, and enjoy seeing the accounts of my old friends I will give a few lines of myself, including a few things of the past and present. I am a Georgian by birth. My father was the first railroad agent in Baxley Georgia and I left there a slicked face boy and drifted west and took up my abode with (what was then know as the wild and wooly west Cow boys the Cow boys of the wonderful praries of Texas, and living almost the life of heathens, as we seldom ever slept in a house, the boys I was with worked cattle on the open plains, our work was collecting beef cattle and marking and branding stock cattle we all had our own ponnies, and we had orders all day, and all was subject to our hours on duty at night as herders all the time, we had no Sundays, holly days or noon hours and as far as eating, that amounted to little with us, as we would eat fresh meat roasted- when necessary without salt, and slept the best we could on our saddle blankets, and we had three important things to keep our minds on lst our fire arms, which was necessary for us to keep in good condition, and we very freely used them when required, 2nd look after our stock in our care 3rd Keep our horses in good condition as all depended on them as this country about 60 to 65 years ago was wild infested with out laws of every discription, and we was liable to need our fire arms at any tune, and when we did need them we needed the best we could get and always used them very freely, that was in the days of the long horn Texas Cattle, that was about 60 years ago. I finally returned East and went to work for the Macon & Brunswick Railroad. Served it until the E. TZ & Ga. took it. Served it until the Southern took it over, and am now one of the Southern's old vets. I am glad to say for I love the old Southern and many of its managers and employees, of which I have many dear friends yet, But Texas has gone through a radical change Since I was a wild Cow boy here about 60 years ago. And thank our God for the changes, for it is for the better, I have been out here now going on 4 weeks, has visited many places, when I onced roved, and have not seen a cow boy as of old, not a long horn cow, have not heard a pack of woolves howl, nor seen a gun on a saddle or buckled around a man's body and 60 years ago I could of rode from the riogrand river in Mexico to the Mississippi in La. without opening a gate and now all this country is under fence, for pastures or cultivation and when I was a cowboy on the praries, we would often not see nay sign of mankind and now on the same plains you can see wind mills, oil wells and houses of some kind doffed all over the plains, great many cattle still raised out here yet all herfords. (white faced) cattle out here now is worth more than horses, by 1/3, I have not seen no horses, cows or hogs running at large. not one. When I was a cow boy, there was many wild deer, wild cows wild hogs, wild turkeys prairie chickens, But now like the wild cowboy, they two has vanished for ever gone. I guess. Prarie dogs and prarie racers (snake) is also gone. I have been traveling in a different way from Houston to San Antonia for 3 weeks and have stopped most of the nights with farmers, who appears to be well supplied with finance, and still hold to hospitality. Seldon ever charging a traveler for a nights fair or meals which is usually mighty beautiful and well prepared. Corn is very good, Sweet potatoes is above the average, (which is usually sorry out here). and cotton is a complete failure here this year I saw a field of 22 acres last week fine stalks and not a bale saved, a man told me yesterday he had 26 acres and did not get a good bale. Another large farmer has about 300 acres in cotton and has less then 5 bales, and it is scattering he cant get pickers to gather it but in Dewitt County some 60 or 80 miles East of Sanantonia all crops very good, cotton above or average, It is so hilly, and I see a geat many sheep, and some goats in pastures here, and me who has and is trying them says it do not cost much to raise them and they rid the pastures of weed which more than pays them for the grass that they consume. and they ___ a nice ___ for this trouble. And the Georgia farmer raises potatoes and tobacco for his money crops in South Georgia, the farmers out here raises tomatoes and turkey. I heard a man say last week, that in a radius of 1 1/2 miles there was over 1000 head of turkeys raised this year, and he thought that within 5 miles of his house there was over 3 thousand head then for sale, where I was last week, turkey at Joakum and Cuero and Haleusville they said 22 1/2cents gross and so many came in that prices fell to 17 cents gross, I am still on my western trip where I once roamed and sowed wild oats, in a wild land which I hope and believe has all been gathered long ago. I have only met 4 of my cowboy friends, and 3 women, we all 8 was young then, but old and feeble now, You may print any or as much of this as you wish. I may write you again in a few days.

Your old reader

T. J. Mobley Atlanta, Ga.

I was in Joakum last week and again this week. Joakum is in Dewitt County, I am again in Sanantonia again now. This is my 4th western trip.

"Biographical Souvenir of the States of GA & FL".

"Bird H. Mobley, merchant, Graham, GA, was born in Appling Co., Mar 5, 1856.
His parents are Bird D. and Mary A. (Hall) Mobley, both natives of Appling County. The father was a farmer, later he was elected captain of a company and went as far as Savannah in time to meet Sherman. Those in authority ordered him to return with the company, which he did. When the war opened he had opened an office and served as surgeon until near the close of the war, when he raised a company as given above. He died Oct 17, 1884, aged 57. Both these parents were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church,, with all their children. Their children were, namely:

 Nancy, wife of Dr. J.H. Latimer, who died in 1869, aged 26;
 Willard, who married Missouri Hinson, living in Appling Co.;
 Thomas J., who married Hattie Eachin [sic!], living in Telfair Co.;
 Caroline, wife of John F. Hutto, living on a farm in Appling Co.;
 Bird D.;
 Mary A., wife of James E. Johnson, living in Sedan, AL.

Our subject began for himself by opening a store in Baxley, in 1876, where he continued 3 years. He has been merchandising in Graham since 18[7]9, and has done well..

He was married Aug 18, 1882, to Miss Dora B., daughter of Thomas and Bertha E. Darling, of Blackshear, GA. Her father, Thomas Darling, was a practicing physician and merchant of Blackshear, and did a successful business in both callings for many years. Our subjects home has been blessed in the birth of 3 children, namely: Wallace, Roswell Pearce, and Thomas B.

Mr. Mobley is a member of the Masonic order, also the K. of H. Both parents are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He had just received an appointment in the U.S. mail service between FL and Wilmington, NC. This is a substantial evidence of confidence in his ability and integrity, and a deserving compliment to an eminently worthy man."

 "No Family for support" - Patience physically unable to perform any manual labor at this time, 78 years old.
 M. Branch certified that he attended wedding of Biggers & Patience in March

 Per George Buchan, as told to Sheila Mobley McNeill 3/21/1982...Patience lived and died in Baxley. George's daddy drove the wagon that took Patience's body to the cemetery. Patience had a brother, Mike whose wife was Susan ? and they had three children Aaron, Willis and James. Patience smoked a corn cob pipe and her pastor would scold her for it.

Per Cudge Mobley, as told to Sheila Mobley McNeill Spring of 1977...Rachel never married and stayed at home with her parents. Biggers died 14 years before Patience so Cudge, Rachel and Patience were all together until the two women died. Rachel died early of cancer. Patience was called "Aunt Patience" because as a midwife for so many years she had delivered countless babies.
 See Patience's comments on civil war pension application dated 1908.
 Per Myrtle: Patience died in Raymond's arms.

Looking for information on Winfield Scott Mobley who was married to Rachel Branch, both of whom were born in Baxley, Ga in the 1850's. The parents of Winfield are Solomon Biggers Hagins Mobley and Patience Branch. I can't find anything on Rachel's parents. I have heard some strange stories about the possibility of them being related (brother and sister, or cousins). They had a son, Delsavoy, which is my line, he was married to Emma Rosealetha Brown in Utah. Mike Kilburn Mike.Kilburn@West.Boeing.com 02/22/01

I can't seem to find any documentation that Delsavoy Mobley is Winfield Scott Mobley's son. From what I've been able to gather by talking to family members is that there was an "affair" between Winfield and Rachel. I have also heard rumor that Winfield and Rachel are Brother and Sister, and I've heard that Rachel and Patience are Sisters. I think I need some help clearing this up. I have copies of Delsavoy's death certificate, Georgia Census records for 1860, 1870, and 1880, and other family records that should have him listed somewhere but, there is very little. As a matter of fact, Delsavoy's death certificate lists his father as David with no last name. HELP

Dear Carl & Terri:

I think I may have figured out a part of our puzzle of Jack Mobley.

1. We begin with Winfield Scott Mobley (1331933), the father of James Mobley, per the 1880 census for Appling Co., GA.

2. James Mobley, b. 1878, for some reason. changed his name to Delsavoy Mobley, served in the Sp. Am. war, was stationed in Utah. where he married Emma Brown.

3. Winfield Scott Mobley remarried, and per the 1910 census, was the father of 7 additional sons, half-brothers of Delsavoy. See list.

4. Delsavoy Mobley appears in the 1920 census for Utah. He is the only Mobley in Utah, other than his own family at the time. He and his family were in the junk business.

5. Jack Mobley, our hero, whose exploits were so numerous that it was easier to list, the things that he had not done than to recite the things he had done. told that he was bailed out of trouble by a brother in Salt Lake City.

6. One of the half brothers had changed his name to Jack. We need to check the 1920 censuses for Arkansas and Georgia for Jack and for his five older half brothers. It would seem that Willis and Wilson would have been too young to qualify.

I have ordered the Soundex M140 for the 1920 Arkansas Census. If we find either Jack or one of the half brothers. we should have our man. Carl may already have the answer in his records.

NOTES ON CONVERSATION WITH MRS. EDNA PHELPS MOBLEY, PHONE 801-3925498, ADDRESS 1660 GIBSON AVENUE, OGDEN, UT 84404.

I called Clarence Mobley, at the above address. Clarence is in the hospital, however I was able to talk with his wife, Edna Phelps Mobley. She is a member of the LDS church. She married Clarence in 1937. She said that Clarence's father was Delsavoy Mobley, not James, and that Delsavoy Mobley died ca. 1945 in Utah. She also said that she had never heard of James. She also said Jack Mobley, a brother of Clarence died ca. 1990 and that she had never heard of Jack's having been in Arkansas. She also said that she had never heard of the New Orleans story or any of the other stories.

She stated that Delsavoy Mobley was in the Sp. Am. war and that he did marry Emma Brown in 1902 at Vernal Utah. Emma is supposed to have been an Indian from the nearby reservation. Jack's reason for being in Utah was the Spanish Am. War.

Mrs. Clarence Mobley is to talk to MIKE FERRIN, of Ogden, who is supposed to know about the family. She is to send me a letter and I am to send her any information we may have.

 Portevent's Mill.
 What: Skirmish, 16 May 1781, Col. Kenan vs. Col. Mobley
 Portevent's Mill, North Carolina
 16 May 1781
 After the skirmish at Myhand's Bridge Colonel Kenan and Captain Williams did not know where Mobley's Loyalists were. They also did not know what happened to Williams's infantry, which moved to Boykins Plantation. They decided to split their forces and try to find the missing infantry unit. Kenan's men rode down the Elizabethtown Road.

Captain Williams led his cavalry along the Little Coharie River, following the route that their dismounted infantry took earlier. The traveling was slow for the mounted men and it took them two days to reach Boykins Plantation. That night they slept on the road that ran between the Coharie River and a mosquito infested swamp.

When they approached the Plantation one of Williams' men was very nearly killed by friendly fire as he galloped across a field trying to outrun the swarms of biting flies and mosquitoes.

Kenan had his problems too. Many of his men were drunk and felt that they had done enough for the cause and wanted to go home. Loyalist stragglers told Kenan that Mobley had been reinforced with 150 Loyalists that was moving to Myhand's Bridge.

Mobley did not fare well either. Groups of his hungry men fell out of his force to forage for food. Some became lost, some just decided to go home. When the Patriot force confronted these stragglers, they would surrender. Unfortunately many times they would fire upon the cavalry and disappear into the swamps. The Patriot cavalry became nervous, unsure of whether the Loyalists would surrender or fire upon them. Many men fired first and asked questions later. When a messenger from Captain Williams came riding up to Kenan's force, his own brother wounded him.

Kenan led his men back through Clinton's Crossroads and rendezvoused with Captain Williams near Boykins' Plantation. Williams mounted his infantry double on the horses and they marched down both sides of the Coharie River. His men came across the flats and dugouts used by Mobley's men to escape down the Coharie. The boats had become bottled up at a point where a tree had fallen and blocked the river. Two bodies were found tangled in the tree limbs.

Williams' dismounted detachment followed an unnamed creek and came upon a camp of tired, hungry Loyalists. It is unsure whether the Loyalists tried to surrender or not, but a dozen Loyalists were killed and left lying in the swamp. At the sound of the shooting Kenan and Williams' men encountered each other at the river. They fired shots at each other, suspecting that there was a possible ambush, but none of the Patriots were injured.

The Duplin County Militia sent out scouts to determine where Mobley's Loyalists might be camped. The most likely place was where the Big Coharie and Six Runs come together to become the Black River. Kenan and Williams' force moved towards that point, but Mobley's men were actually ten miles closer at Portevent's Mill, where the Six Runs and the Tarkill Branch come together.

One of Kenan's troopers found the Loyalists at the mill grinding corn and informed Williams of their location. He sent some of the dismounted detachment up the Tarkill Branch and the rest of his men mounted up double with his cavalry. Some of his cavalry opened fire from horseback upon the Loyalists across the river. The rest of the cavalry rode down road from Moore's Bridge, firing their pistols and slashing the Loyalists with their swords made from saws. The Loyalists in the millhouse returned fire. As the cavalry rode into the millhouse yard obstacles slowed their charge.

One of the Loyalists had been wounded trying to rally his men and his horse fell on top of him, pinning him to a tree and crushing his rifle. The Loyalists slowly pushed the cavalry back until Captain Williams led a charge into the tightly packed defenders. Mobley's men scattered, trying to flee the fighting. Some were pushed into the stream and either drowned, or swam away. They fled in every direction, leaving their dead and wounded where they lay. The dismounted infantry on the Tarkill Branch were overwhelmed when a group of Loyalists ran panicking up the stream. The Patriots fired on the mob, staggering them with a well-timed volley. The Loyalist quickly returned a ragged volley, forcing the infantry back into the creek with several men wounded. Amazingly the casualties were light. Some accounts list Colonel Kenan's brother being killed here, instead of at the ambush several days earlier. Three of the Patriots were killed and several more wounded. Kenan's slave was also wounded. Three horses were killed and two more wounded. The Loyalists had four men wounded, and several drowned in the river. All of the Tory Baggage and baggage horses were captured.

After the desperate fighting around Portevent's Mill Kenan and Williams reorganized and continued to pursue Mobley's Loyalists up the Six Runs River. A final chaotic skirmish was fought when Captain Williams dismounted his cavalry and set up a hasty ambush. Mobley's brother, Biggars Mobley, discovered the ambush and attacked the Patriots on the flank, while another element kept their attention diverted to the front. Some of Williams' men rushed the Loyalists and engaged the enemy in hand-to-hand fighting, using their musket butts, swords and long knives and fighting chest to chest. The fighting was fierce in the hot afternoon, with men desperately trying to stab each other to death.

The Loyalists had decided they had enough and fled back into the swamp, leaving a few of their men behind as prisoners. A few of the Loyalists deserted and joined their relentless pursuers. Biggars and his men made their way to Wilmington and protection under the Crown. Middleton Mobley stayed in Duplin County and continued to gather small bands of Loyalists to operate in East and West Duplin County. Kenan and Williams had three men killed in that day's action and several more wounded. The Loyalists suffered twelve men killed, four wounded, and twelve captured. In 1782 Mobley and Captain Williams encountered each other again. Mobley was wounded by a sword stroke and escaped the county. He was later captured in Martin County trying to raise Loyalist sympathy. He was brought back to Wilmington, tried, and condemned for a variety of crimes and hanged. After that Biggars gave his parole and lived in Sampson until at least 1790.

One story states that when Middleton was hung his wife cut him down & he revived, only to be found and re-hung (this one took)

My mother's maiden name is Mobley. I've documented data back to Joseph Mobley, born 1834.

He married Elizabeth Lawrence in 1856 in Independence Co., AR. I think he is the son of Middleton Mobley, born 1800 in NC. I'm now waiting on the 1850 Sampson Co., North Carolina Census to verify the connection. My lineage is as follows:

Joseph Mobley(1834-?) m. Elizabeth Lawrence in 1856
James Thomas Mobley(1858-1884/1885) m. Lucinda Danner 1879
Jacob A. Mobley(1880-1948) m. Mattie Annie Ross in 1900
Opal E. Mobley(1912-alive) m. Morris H. Mitchell in 1935

Dwight G. Mitchell(1936-alive) m. Maryann DeTemple Thanks... Dwight G. Mitchell, 1717 Lynoak Dr.,Claremont, CA. 91711. (909) 626-0512.

Chronicles of Pitt Co., NC

Nancy was enumerated twice in the 1860 Independence Co., AR census, once in the household of her father, Middleton (Thomas) Mobley and the other one with her sister-in-law Elizabeth Jane (Lawrence) Mobley, widow of Joseph S. Mobley.

I (Nettie Mobley Gorman) do not believe Nancy Mobley married Thomas Strickland. So far as I know he was never in AR. Besides I found Thomas and his wife buried in Spring Branch Cemetery, Sampson Co., NC and Nancy Mobley was buried in Bethesda Friends Cem, in Sampson Co., NC and not far from Spring Branch Cem. This is Thomas B. and Nancy Strickland in the 1870 census of Sampson Co., NC

Strickland, Thomas B. age 28 b. NC, Nancy E. 31 NC, Francis M. 5 (f) NC, James M. 4 NC, Delphia L. B. 1 (f) NC

Then in 1870 in Harnett Co., NC in the HH of Joe Warren and his family; Nancy Mobley age 31 b. NC, Hugh Mobley 1 NC (other census say b. AR)

we have fairly well determined that the Thomas Strickland in 1332417 is not correct. How do we get it removed from the archive? We don't know who repalces him.

the daughter of the widowed Caroline by a previous marriage to Jim Smith. h Caroline was 16-17 years older than her second husband, Wiley.) Evalyne' married Van McGee. She died when her son Elmer was an infant and he was adopted & raised under the Mobley name by Wiley and Caroline. There are no living Mobley male descendents of Wiley, Jr., but Elmer mar. Ruthel Pinkston and they raised a large family who still go by the Mobley name. Wiley, Sr.
and his 3rd wife, Martha Brick?, may have Mobley descendents living, possibly in NW MO.

Wiley Jr was raised by his half-brother, Calvin Mobley and wife Amanda McGee, because Jack married a third young wife after the death of Wiley, Jr.'s mother Elizabeth, moved to NW MO, and raised another family. Geneva Emerson

Yes, I am sure about Greatgrandpa Wiley Mobley being the son of John Wiley, Sr. I knew my greatgrandparents personally, as well as a small child could, visited them many Sundays, ate with the tribe, and played in their yard and the dogtrot with many other young descendants. My grandmother Bertie, their daughter, and my dad, her son Ellis King, told me different times about Greatgrandpa Wiley's parents. Geneva Emerson 4/3/04

There is an error in the "Martin County Heritage" book. Uncle Joe Wynne gave the information to the Martin County Historical Society for the book. He got the name of his mother (Mary Elizabeth Bullock) mixed up with the name of John Lawrence's wife (Mary Virginia Braswell). He was in his 80's when he gave the information out and he got confused some. Mary Elizabeth Bullock married Benjamin Franklin Wynne, Jr.

Mary Elizabeth Bullock Wynne (b. 2-12-1872 d. 12-15-1917) was named after her mother, Mary Elizabeth Mobley (b. 1843 d. 1926). Her father was Noah Bullock (d. 1907). After Mary Elizabeth Bullock Wynne died, Benjamin Franklin Wynne, Jr. married Effie Blanch Mobley (b. 12-17-1887 d. 8-1-1959). Effie Blanch Mobley was John Lawrence Mobley's sister. I hope this will clear up some of the confusion.

DESCENDANTS OF SETTLERS HOLD REUNION

It was a day of sharing old memories and old photographs for members of the family clans of Mobley, Spivery, Moody and Smith on Saturday at Keystone United Methodist Church in Keystone.

Four generations of descendats of the area's oldest families met for a family reunion with a covered-dish luncheon in the church social hall. Many of the family members had lived just down the road from each other, not realizing they were related to the same ancestor, WILLIAM L. MOBLEY (1801-89), one of the original settlers of the area.

Mobley moved to the Keystone-Odessa-Citrus Park area in 1859 with his first wife, Sofronia, working in the cattle and timber industries. He originally came to Florida from North Carolina, bringing many slaves with him to a plantation in the Pinellas County area around 1819. Later, when his slaves were freed, he gave them land near Gunn Highway and North Mobley Road, which bears his name.

A great-great grandson, Lee Smith, lives in the original two-story home on North Mobley Road.

South Mobley Road was named after a son, L.E. MOBLEY, and his white frame two-story home still stands there today.

William Mobley founded Keystone Methodist Church in a log cabin at the present church location. His obelisk tombstone is just one of many family markers in the church cemetery.

Many interesting stories of Florida's earliest history passed on from generation to generation were shared at the reunion. One story involved Mobley's second wife, CORNELIA, who had moved to the area with her family in 1837 at age 2. At that time the area's roads were sandy trails through thick woods, and families usually traveled by cart and oxen.

A year later, during the Second Seminole War, the family was returning home from visiting a neighbor when a band of Seminole Indians attacked, scalping both parents and all three children. All were left for dead, but Cornelia was found alive, nursed back to health, and cared for by her uncle, E. Byrd Sparkman. As a young woman, she married Mobley and had four children. Son JOHN MOBLEY became the contractor who built the Tampa Bay Hotel (now the University of Tampa).

Some of the older generation attending the reunion were Isabel Jane Hackney Schleman, Ada Mae Mobley Manning, Christine Moody Williams, and Clara Jiretz, great-granddaughters of Mobley and Myrtle Mobley Stack, a granddaughter of Mobley.

They all were students at the one-room "Little Red School House" built in 1911 and now restored and located on Gunn Highway on the grounds of the present Citrus Park Elementary School.

Kindred Konnections info. who obtained from United Genealogists [unverified]

Lydia	b 1830
Charity	b 1832
Zilpha	b 1835
John	b abt 1837	(no son under 5 on 1840 census)

Edward	b abt 1839	(no son under 5 on 1840 census)
Patience	b abt 1841

Tinnie b abt 1843 (If this were accurate she would have only been 11 when she married John Collins in 1854!)

The info in MIA seems to indicate that there is a separate Zilpha (1313) who married James M. Wall and a separate Trinity (1316) who married John Collins. Zilpha was listed on the 1850 census but not Trinity. The information I sent you a couple of years ago from the Sumter Co court house seemed to me to indicate that they were actually the same person as there was a Z.I.Trinity who was married to a Collins and then a Varnes. (I have copies of both marriage certificates). It supports theory as it gives her name as Zilphia Isabella Trinity Mobley Varnes born Feb 12, 1836 in Hamilton County, FL and died in Seville, Volusia County, FL on Oct 30, 1906. It lists her dad as John Mobley from GA and her mom as Z.I.T. Mobley (I was hoping for a maiden name but no luck unless it was Mobley also and I tend to doubt that) also from GA. It gives her place of burial as Cone Cemetery. It also gives her husband's middle name as Vincent (John Vincent Varnes). This is the first time I have come across the Isabella for the "I" initial and also the middle name for her husband.
 There is a Zilla/Zilpha Wells, daughter of Wm J. Wells in Marion Co 1850 census and J. W. Wells in Sumter Co. 1860 who appears to be the extra Zilpha. In the 1860 census, she is listed as housekeeping in the 2nd entry which is where the wife usually is listed.
 This could be where the mistake comes in regarding her possibly being married to James Wall. At any rate, I believe that there is enough evidence to support that the Zilpha listed with John Riley Mobley is not the same as the Wells/Wall Zilpha.

Data from Gregory C. Mobley, 2/14/94:

This family group began in Pitt Co., NC; Joel probably was a grandson(or maybe son) of one of the following{ Azariah[1334], Eleazer[1335], Middleton[13352], or Thomas[1336]. Note that Surrell[13324] sold land in 1806 to Joel Lee, and that there were children named Joel in that branch. No Joel issue in any other to my recollection. Surrell was in Johnston Co., in 1800; in Sampson Co., in 1816; Joel not likely his child.
[In the 1870 Pitt Co. census, there was a Cary? Laughinghouse, age 14, living with Joel's family as farmhand. Ida Ruth Ray m. 1922 Donald Laughinghouse in GA. Ida was a descendant of Edward Mobley[1313]. Since Edward had moved to GA with his parents before the Rev. War, it is not likely that Edward was father of Joel, although he was of about the right age to have been.]
