1758/60, [d.4/11/1765/Lawson] or 11/?/1782? {Edward Mobley Estate Appraisement

m. (1?) ca. 1719 Anne ___, wf. in 1747, d. aft. 1747 and bef. 1751
(2?) ca. 1748/9 Susannah/DuVall[she was wife in 1751 per deed], b. 1702, MD?, d. 6/14/1769, Camden District, SC[Her name formerly thought to have been DeRuel]

[he was in Frederick Co., MD in 1741; when he sold his land in MD, there was no release of dower{which indicates that there was a first wife who was dead at that time}; by 1749/52 he was in Lunenberg Co., VA, sold land there 9/4/1762 and 9/28/1762{Hill p.239} at which time he lived in Craven Co., SC; seems to have taken up SC land ca 1750s but not titled to him until 1760]

NOTE: The name DeRuel has not been found in any record other than Wm. Woodward Dixon's book "The Moberlys and Their Connections"[which was cited in George Hill's book "Hill and Hill/Moberly Connections of Fairfield Co., SC"]. Recent research by Anne Willis indicates that she probably was Susannah DuVall, daughter of Lewis DuVall, whose 1724 will listed daughters Martha, Susannah & Ann. Lewis was a descendant of Mareen DuVall, Huguenot, immigrant to MD and owner of Cattail Meadows in Prince Georges Co. ca 1692-1702.

Land deals in MD by Edward[14]{Data from Anne Willis, 9/15/92} [Edward Mobberly "of Anne Arundel Co." acquired "Powells Purchase" in 1715, sold it a year later as "Edward Mobberly of P. G. Co."]

["By virtue of a warrant granted to Edward Mobberly of A. A. Co., dated 9th day of July 1715 to survey about 100 a., escheated by the death of Joseph Tilley who purchased of a certain Richard Chaney(part of "Chaney's Resolution)".] ["Knoe all men...that I Edward Mobberly of Prince Georges County doe ..sell to John Powell of A. A. Co., 15th Aug. 1716

[In 1740 "Edward Mobberly of P. G. Co. patented 40 acres "Freed Land" in what is now Montgomery Co, then P. G. Co."Beginning at a bounded red oak standing at the head of a small branch. on East side thereof that runs Hawling's River"....]

[In 1744, he and others petitioned August Court for better location of a road from Monocacy to Antietam, "part to go from Mr. John Bel's Gap on Kitocin Mtn. by Edward Mobberly's into the Wagon Road by John Pyburn's".]

[In 1747 Edward Mobberly of P. G. Co. patented 100 acres in P. G. Co., now Frederick Co. "I looked many Places None I Liked" `for which he was beholden to the manor of Calverton', granted 6/19/1746, on "Oriach's Branch".]

[Susannah was his wife in 1752 when dau. Elizabeth inherited plantation in VA]
[Edward[14], William[141](with Ralph Wilson), and Benjamin[143] were in the 1749

Lunenburg Co., VA Poll list, 1 tithe each; Edward[14], William[141], Benjamin [143], Edward, Jr.[144], John[145], Mordecai[111] and Hammond[113] all were there in 1750]

[On 9/4/1762, Edward, then in Craven Co., SC, sold 400 acres on Island Creek, near Womack, in Bedford Co., VA to Philip Preston(Deed Book 2, p. 89); also in 1762 he sold 330 acres on N. side of Otter River near Oak Mtn. Branch to Samuel Drake (Deed Book 2, p. 94) $]

Will of William Brown of Lunenburg Co, VA, names god-daughter Elizabeth Mobley, daughter of Edward & Susannah Mobley. Also leaves a legacy to Jiles Williams (no stated relationship). Executors are Edward Mobley & Jiles Williams. Witnessed by Clement Mobley, Joseph Williams & John Williams. Dated 15 Feb 1750, probated Oct 2, 1751 (W.B. 1, p.47). Reviewing the other Brown wills doesn't shed any light on the situation of how William Brown & Edward Mobley Sr came into contact. The estate inventory was taken on 17 Dec 1751 by Thomas Pitman, John Mobley and Glidewell Orrill. Giles Williams executor. The current account was returned on 8 Apr 1752 by Williams.

Received a land grant on 7 Feb 1769, Edward Mobley, 50 acres on Broad River. At the same session, Clement Mobley received 150 acres on the Broad River. In the estate records of son Samuel Mobley is a small report on a piece of paper that states:

Edward Mobley Estate

Appraisement made November 10th 1782 amount 574.12.6 (British pounds).

Sale 20th November 1782 amount 702.9

viz to William Mobley 154.1

Edward Mobley Junior 191.10

Susannah Mobley 111.10

Henry Rogers 325.8

(totalled) 782.9

due to the estate 1106.0

(totalled) 1888.9.0

Debts & Expenses 94.3.9

Remains 1794.5.3

There is no other indication of why this item is in the estate package, but presumably it records a legacy that is due to Samuel as an heir to his father Edward Mobley SR's estate. Why that estate is not settled by this time (1803) may indicate that Susannah Mobley is still alive. It is not thought that she is, nor is it thought that any of the heirs are still under age 21 at this late a date.

7-5, 50-52: Lease and release. 1 & 2 Dec 1782, Edward Moberly of Camden District, SC, planter, to Richard Hampton of Orangeburgh District, SC, Esquire, by grant dated 20 Oct 1772 to John Waggoner, 100 acres in Craven County on Beaver Creek, a branch of Broad River, recorded in Book MMM, fol 395, conveyed by John Waggoner & Margaret his wife & 4 May 1773 to Edward Moberly, and also by granted dated 21 Apr 1774 to Joseph Rogers, tract of 150 acres in Craven County on waters of Beaver Creek of Broad River adj. and of Israel Seamons, Francis Coleman, recorded in Book PPP, folio 249, conveyed by Joseph Rogers and Mary his wife, 10 & 11 March 1775 to Edward Moberly, also by grant dated 26 Aug 1774 to Edward Moberly, 100 acres on waters of Beaver Creek of Broad River, adj. land of Edward Moberly Senr, William Collman, Edward Moberly Junr, recorded in Book SSS, page 246, now for £1500 SC money, to Richard Hampton, total of 50 acres. A second deed was also proved at this session, Benjamin Mobley to John Mobley, 150 acres granted to William Mobley on 4 Mar 1760 and sold to Benjamin who in turn sold it to William. Both deeds were witnessed by Moses Hill and Thomas Holsey (Halsey).

As for Edward's date of death:

His estate is contained in Apartment 45, Package 1593 of the Old Camden District estate records of the Court of the Ordinary. His was one of a few that ended up in Sumter Co SC instead of Fairfield Co for some undetermined reason.

Citation: Camden District order by Wood Furman Esq, Ordinary of the said district, Whereas William Mobberly applied to me for administration of all the singular, the goods & chattels, rights and credits of Edward Mobberly late of the said district deceased.....Fourteenth day of August anno dom 1782. (follows with order to any Minister of the Gospel to advertise this)

Next are two signed returns, one from Thomas Duke that it was posted at his house and a second by James Fowler, VDM, that it was publicly read to "a considerable congregation" on Sandy River, 25 Aug 1782.

Next is the original signed administrator's bond to William Mobberley (signed as such) with his bondsmen John Moberley (signed as such) and Henry Rogers (signed as such). Josiah Furman witness. Dated 7 Sept 1782.

Next is the original ordinary court order to Benjamin Mobbly, Francis Coleman, Moses Hill, Robert Coleman and David Richardson to take the inventory of the estate. Dated 10 Sept 1782.

Next is the original inventory report returned by Benjamin his BM mark Mobberley (sic), Francis Coalman (sic signed) and Robert Coleman (sic signed).

Next are the original estate sale report sheets indicating sales to William Moberley (sic), Edward Moberley Junr, Susanna (sic) Moberley, and Henry Rogers. Last page is a list of the notes due to the estate and a list of the notes held against the estate.

In the whole, this strongly indicates that Edward Mobberley Sr died in 1782 in old Camden District, SC which later became Fairfield Co, SC.

The last person in our line to bear the Mobley name was Harold who died as a child in a fire. I don't have any other dates as all of James Thomas' children were sent to orphanages or relatives when their mother died. My Colvin relatives have extensive records, and if you should need any information on Crosbys, Feasters, Petries, Hardwicks, or Mayfields I may be able to help you out. I know that members of all these families came together by wagon train to northern Louisiana beginning in 1835.

I'm doing research for a descendant of James Thomas Mobley b. 7 June 1847 in Fairfield SC.

This is the info I have found, I would love to get more on his parents Isham and Mary

1850 he was living in Fairfield, South Carolina with his Father and Mother Isham and Mary Mobley

1860 he was living in Union, Louisiana with his Father and Mother, Isham and Mary Mobley

1870 he was living In Ward 6, Claiborne, Louisiana with his Mother Mary and older brother Alex

1880 he is living with the Gill family, he is listed as single 33 yrs old and Uncle to the head of the house.

They lived in Arkansas and Louisiana, first Louisiana then Arkansas and back to Louisiana.

Sometime between 1880 and 1900 he married and had 5 children.

1880 Union Par: James 33 SC, Uncle w/ Wm L & Molly Gill

1900 Crawford, Yell Co., AR: James 50 Jun 1849 SC Wd, Zora 9 Aug 1890 LA, Sallie 8 Dec 1891 LA, John H 6 Oct 1893 LA, Mattie 5 Oct 1894 LA, Beatrice 3 May 1897 AR

1910 James T 63 (uncle) & Beatrice 12(niece) lvg w/ Leide J. Wade (f) family

1920 lvg w/ Zora & Willie

On your site there was a picture posted of these children and it stated the parents as James T Mobley and Margaret Cagle.

This is the first Ive seen of the mothers name

Could you please help me with the Mothers info if you have any and the Parents of James T Mobley. Thank you so very much.

A few weeks ago a family member sent me a copy of Robert L.Y. Mobley's (141412) Family Bible. It clears up the question that I had earlier about his parentage. (I had questioned Dixon's (1915) account vs. Hill's (1961) account.)
The Bible page states, "Robert L.Y. [torn]ey son of icham [sic] mobley and [torn]opy his wife, the s=d son was [torn] may the 18th in the year of our [torn] and savior Jesus chrift [sic] 1825" The page also lists Robert's wife, Martha, and children, Thomas A.Y., Rebecca J., and William D. Mobley. The birthdates on the page are consistent with those that you've already listed except William D.'s which confirmed the date on his tombstone, 8/26/1857. It doesn't mention T.A.J.
Mobley (1414124), but there is a tiny tombstone in Concord Cemetery with this name next to Robert's and Martha's. The child (male?) must have died as an infant.

Date August 24th, 1997

I would like to share a bit of Family History, that was shared with Me by Mr. W. Dewey Melton of Harbins District, Dacula, Gwinnett County, Georgia.
Mr. Melton is a G.G.Grandson of Chapman Mobley, the eldest son of Daniel A. and Temperance Chapman Mobley. The author appears to have been someone named Ms.

Gladys Cook, as this is the signature, that appears at the bottom of the typed page. Many thanks to Ms. Cook for this contribution to the Mobley Family. Cordially, Fredrick W. Bradley, 930 S. 41st. St., Wilmington, N.C. 28403, Tele (910) 791-1449.

Mobley Homesite, Walton County, Georgia, 1883

The fine old Mobley homestead was built in 1802 of hand-hewn logs and handmade bricks. Weather-boarded over, the sturdy old home weathered the ravages of time and the Civil War, only to be torn down in 1934 to supply an anxious buyer with the priceless hand-hewn logs. Today, only a few mounds of brick remain to mark the place where in 1833 Daniel and Temperance Mobley resettled in Centerville (now called Jersey, Georgia) after their long journey by covered wagon from Fairfield County, South Carolina.

Until after the Civil War there were only a few houses located in the area two forks where the three roads ran south. The Mobley homeplace was one of these, located about ¼ mile from the forks at Centerville near the Mobley homeplace.

The Mobley Cemetery remains across the road (formerly the old Covington road) from the homeplace site. This is the final resting place of Daniel and Temperance Mobley and nineteen other family members. Although the cemetery is now neglected and overgrown, loving care of bygone years is reflected in the serene and once handsome monuments enclosed by a time-worn but still beautiful wrought-iron fence.

A second visit to the homesite became an urgency when I learned that it was directly across from the cemetery, and that it could be identified by the mounds of brick. On my previous visit to the cemetery, I was so concerned with finding the cemetery, and getting safely out of the pasture that I did not look around. At that time, I did not know the exact location of the homesite. Mock Oranges and other trees and bushes made it difficult to find, even so, and Melissa and I were almost standing at the spot when I realized that there were several slight mounds of brick directly underfoot. It was an exciting moment for me. The bricks were so moss covered and combined with the soil that it was difficult to distinguish them.

When Steve, Barbara, Melissa and I arrived at the pasture gate, two men were in a truck directly inside. They were as surprised to see Steve open the gate as he was to see them in the truck. I quickly got out with Melissa and explained our mission to them. They were not too friendly, but they did allow us to continue to our destination.

The old cemetery and old homesite no longer remain on Mobley soil, I'm sorry to say. Owned for well over a century by Mobleys, the land has now passed out of their hands. I expect I have made my last trip to this place; therefore, treasure this brick. It is part of your past heritage. It was removed, not to pilfer, but to pay homage and respect to our ancestors-those strong pioneers, the first Mobleys in Georgia - who cleared the forests, tilled the soil, and made a home for themselves and their descendants, for many years, in Walton County, Georgia.
Signed: Gladys Cook

  1900 Census, Walton Co.

I received this info from a woman who is researching the Browning line. These are all the details she had. I do not have access to the listed census, so I could not verify any of it. It is possible someone in our group does, and can. MIA list nothing for Sarah, so we could be adding an entire new family. I wonder if John Henry might be the child of the second wife after looking at the dates?
 Could be last child of first wife. Mrs. Browning also unsure if Lizzie and female J. L. are same.

The Georgia Enterprise, Jan. 1905

The marriage of Miss Serleta Smith and Mr. Homer Mobley was quietly solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, at Academy Spring, Wednesday afternoon, December 28. Rev. R. C. Cleckler, pastor of Methodist church, officiating.

Mrs. Mobley is one of Covington's fairest daughters. Her disposition is one of the sweetest and sunniest, and her unselfishness and nobility of character have made for her many true friends who wish her much happiness.

Mr. Mobley has been in the employ of C. E. Cook for several years, and is a young man of excellent qualities and is steady and reliable.

I copied the information contained herein by hand on 18 June 1977, and take full responsibility for any errors in copying I may have made. (Most of the handwriting was pretty clear, as well as I remember.) I have not seen the Bible since that time, but I'm almost sure that I copied the entries exactly as they appeared, assuming nothing that wasn't spelled out. Any parenthetical comments made by me shall appear in [brackets].

I wish I could remember how many different hands appear --- it will be obvious that some of the entries were made considerably after the dates given. If anyone sees an incomplete entry, and has reason to believe that he/she can provide completion, I would love to hear from you!

 TREADWELL *** MOBLEY FAMILY.
 Two of Murray's earliest families.

Smith Treadwell was born on March 4th 1818, and died Feb. 20th 1893. He was reared in Carol County Ga. and is buried in the Treadwell Cemetery near Spring Place in Murray County. The lovely Georgia marble shaft at his grave has received a lot of publicity because of a face that has been formed in the marble by discoloration.

It is said to be an image of Smith Treadwell but as a member of the family, who have portraits, I discount the claim.

He came to Murray County in 1833 and became a property owner in 1837. Before his death he had become one of Murray's largest landowners, and best-known citizen. He was a large slave owner and besides operating his plantation, he built several mills in the county; one being over the Connasauga river where it divides the present county of Whitfield from Murray. The bridge was torn away a few years ago when the new Dalton to Soaring. Place highway was planned to run north, of the Old Treadwell Bridge and Mill. The land there belongs to one of his grandsons now.

He was married at Dalton in 1840 to Mary (Polly) Mobley and they lived in Tunnel Hill. At that time he served the County as Justice of the Inferior Court, and had to ride horse back to Spring Place to hold Court. His wife Mary died about 1851 and he returned to the Mobley home on Mobley Hill near Dalton, with his five children.

18 November 1854, he married Nancy Ann Elizabeth Mobley, sister of Mary. They were the daughters of Peyton Mobley and Susannah Hill Mobley formerly of Fairfield County South Carolina. Elizabeth Mobley Treadwell was born in Monroe, Walton County on Aug. 17th 1826. She died May 30th 1905

In 1858 Smith Treadwell was elected to the State Senate from the 43d District. He was a childhood friend and playmate of Joe E. Brown who was Governor of the state at that time.

He volunteered in the War between the States and being too old for regular service, he served in the Georgia Militia, and was assigned to guard prisoners at Andersonville Ga. He served in 1864 and 65 until the surrender. During his service his family lived near Dawson in Terrell County. After the war, he freed his slaves and returned to Spring Place and lived in the big two storied house on the hill east of the Indian House, at the corner of the present paved highway and the old dirt road to Eton. His property at this time extended from this home in Spring Place north to, and including, the property of Mr. Jack Keith near Eton. A large portion of this land still belongs to his descendants.

The children of Smith Treadwell and his wife Elizabeth Mobley were;
Sarah Jane br. July 29th 1855 mar. 1st Dr. Anderson; 2d a Stiles.
Mahalie Eveline May 27th 1857 mar. W.H. Steed she died 3-10-1889

Stephen Lee Feb. 13, 1867 mar. Emogene Harris. he d. Nov-14-1914

The children of Smith and Mary Mobley Treadwell were Mary Ann; Susan; Rachel; John; Martha; Smith Jr.

Peyton Mobley was born Oct 13, 1787, died Jun. 21, 1869. he was born in Fairfield county S.C. and died in Murray Co. He married Susannah Hill in Fairfield about 1811 and moved to Walton Co. Ga. in 1826. and to Murray near "Cross Plains, now Dalton. He was a great Grand son of William Moberley who came with William Penn to Pennsylvania and later moved to Maryland. His great-great grand father was Sir Edward Moberly of England.

Peyton Mobley moved to Murray about 1837, near Dalton and lived first in a large Log house on the Spring Place highway which was converted into a lovely brick bungalow a few years ago by Miss Wrench, at that time there was a large spring in the woods near the present old Bishop home. The Indians were often at the spring when the children went there. Later Peyton moved to land on the Coahulla Creek on Mobley Hill, down the Tibbs Bridge road. He is buried on a hillside in what was the Mobley Cemetery. His wife Susannah died May 25, 1853 and is also buried there.

They were the parents of the following children;

These are just some facts I have gathered, thought you'd like to keep them as a record. Grandpa's land was 2 1/2 miles through from the "King" place through to your Uncle Jacks. Amos' land was the home place of Mary Ann Treadwell who married first a Keith who was killed in the war, then a McNeil.

Pioneers and Makers of Arkansas"

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS AS SHOWN BY THE PENSION ROLLS.

the pension roll of the revolutionary soldiers alive in Arkansas in the counties named in 1833 and 1834

Crawford County: Isaiah Mobley, aged seventy-nine years; Clement Mobley, sixty-seven, both of the South Carolina militia.

Besides the grave of James Phillips, in Crawford County, there also rest within its bosom the two brothers, Isaiah Mobley and Clement Mobley, who were on the pension rolls in 1835 from Crawford County, as surviving soldiers of the South Carolina militia in the Revolutionary war. In addition to John and James Robinson, Pioneers of Jackson and old Lawrence, there was a William Robinson in Lawrence County as early as 1815, who was appointed one of the commissioners to select a location for a court house, his associates being the oldest pioneers of the region, Lewis De Mun, William Hix, Sr., owner of Hix's Ferry; Solomon Hewett, Andrew Criswell, who married a daughter of John Lafferty; Isaac Kelley and Morris Moore. The sheriff at that time was James Campbell.

Date: March 12, 1912

Alexander MOBLEY was born in Gallatin County, October 21, 1838, and departed this life at his home in Opdyke, Ill., March 7, 1912, at the age of 73 years, 4 months, and 16 days. He was united in marriage to Virginia PERKINS, May 25th, 1861. To this union six children were born, three boys and three girls, four of whom have preceded him to their home beyond. Eliza, James W., Ross and Benjamin, the four having died in early childhood. Two children of this union survive him, Mrs. Ollie J. HUBER, of Kansas City, and W. T., of Opdyke, Ill.

His first wife departed this life February 19, 1881. He was married to Maggie BOYD, of Gallatin County, August 19, 1884. To this union one child was born, John Hector of Camp Jossman, Phillipine Islands. His second wife died January 27, 1887. He was married to Catherine WILKERSON, with whom, as a faithful and loving companion, the latter part of his life was spent in contentment.

He was a member of the Methodist Church at Asbury, Gallatin County, Ill., having united with this church more than forty years ago. He was an ardent christian, a faithful husband and a kind and indulgent father, possessed of a quiet and peaceful spirit and lived his life without having any known enemies. He bore his sufferings with patience and fortitude.

He leaves a companion, two sons, one daughter, two step-daughters, and one step-son, one brother and three sisters, many relatives and friends to mourn their loss, but they sorrow not as those who have no hope, for the blessed are the dead who died in their Savior.

Dear father and friend, we shall never more be permitted to behold they kindly countenance nor be the recipients of they generous counsel, but blessed be God, death will lift the veil and permit us to look beyond this veil of tears and behold thy countenance glorified. Funeral was conducted by Rev. S. O. SHERIDAN.

MEMOIRS OF THE LOWER OHIO VALLEY, 1905

"JOHN G. MOBLEY, a farmer living two and a half miles south of New Haven, Gallatin county, Ill., was born in that neighborhood, Nov. 11, 1855. He is a son of William Mobley, who was born in White county in 1818, his father being one of the pioneers of that part of Southern Illinois. William Mobley married Cynthia Hughes, a native of Hamilton county, and lived in the Wabash bottoms for several years, after which he went to Iowa for two years, but at the end of that time returned to Gallatin county and settled on what is known as "The Knoll," where he died in 1866. Of the children born to William and Cynthia Mobley, Francis, James E., Sarah J., and two who died unnamed are deceased. Those living are Alexander, who resides in Jefferson county, Ill. Mary, married and living near New Haven; Martha, wife of William A. Smith, of New Haven; John G., the subject of this sketch; and Rebecca, wife of James D. Radsner, living in Missouri. John G. Mobley attended the common schools in his boyhood and while still in his teens commenced working out by the month, which he continued for three years. He then went back home and took charge of the farm for his mother, and has lived on the old home place ever since. His mother died in 1892, at the age of seventy years and he has bought the interests of the other heirs now being the sole owner of the old homestead of 300 acres, 100 of which are in the Wabash bottoms, and 250 under cultivation. Mr. Mobley has a fine residence, good barns and out-buildings, and is one of the live farmers of his part of the county. Politically he is a Republican, has served one term as township commissioner and three years as director. In 1882 he was married to Miss Eliza Moye, and to this union have been born the following children: Essie, Raymond, Mattie, Willie, Horace, Lemuel, and two who died in infancy unnamed. Lemuel is also deceased, Essie is the wife of Lawrence Givens, and the others are at home."

Article Title: John Mobley Killed

Information reached this city last Saturday night of the murder of John Mobley by Jack Brown in Concord at about 5 0'clock in the afternoon.

The news was brought by Jack Brown himself, by coming to town and giving himself up to the sheriff. He was commonly known as Brown but his real name is John C. Clark.

The fracas had originated at New Haven during the day when both men were indulging freely in drinks. The cause we have been unable to ascertain, but it is rumored that it was a difference over a horse trade.

After their trouble at New Haven, Brown started across country for Concord, pursued by Mobley. Brown arrived in the village first and purchased a pistol which he said he intended using in a horse trade. When Mobley came up he first undertook to drag Brown from his vehicle, threatening to whip him.

Brown then drew the pistol on him, saying he would hurt him if he didn't leave him alone. Mobley then retreated and again advanced with a club and struck Brown across the arm. Brown fired at him and the discharge had a fatal effect killing Mobley instantly.

The Coroner's inquest was held Saturday, which resulted in a verdict in accordance with the above statement. Brown was placed in jail, and through his attorneys, Pariah, White, and Pariah, waived a preliminary examination and was committed to await the action of the grand jury.

It is rather hard to get at the full circumstances of this case. The Courier has endeavored to do so and trust our efforts will do no injury to anyone.

The John Mobley that was written about in the Courier was the brother of our Abraham Francis and son of James. Rumor had it that Jack Brown (nee John Clark) was acquitted and that one of the Mobley brothers shot him and another of the brothers put him in a hay wagon and fled with him to Arkansas. No record or mention of this was ever found. BYM

Three Brothers Meet In Germany After Two Year Separation

The following article appeared in the "Muzzle Blast," weekly paper for the men of the 91st CML Mortar BN, Eging, Germany

"Two years ago when three Searcy, Ark., brothers last met they did not think that their next meeting would be in picturesque Bavaria, virtually in the shadow of Hitler's famed "Southern Redoubt." But strange things happen and this week SSGt. Fred Mobley met his brothers, Pfc, Ernest Mobley and Pfc. Vergis Mobley.

What was said at the meeting may not all be quoted, it being in the curious language used by US soldiers to denote affection.

"Ernest, who is 22, has been overseas 14 months and Vergis, who is 20, has served in Italy and Germany."

The three boys are sons of Mrs. B.A. Mobley, of Searcy, Rt. 4. Fred has been in the service five years, Ernest, two years, and Virges two years.

Searcy, Arkansas. 1945

This is my great-grandfather and he was never married to anyone other than Mattie Lee Hulsey. Another Monroe Mobley perhaps??? (I double checked this information with other family members and they have agreed with me that he was not married twice.) Per his birth certificate (original in my possession) Francis Monroe Mobley was born July 9, 1894 in Cadron Twp, Cleburne Co, AR. Per Monroe & Mattie's marriage record, which I also have, they were married February 3, 1917 in Pope Co, AR. Per Mattie's obituary, she was born December 1, 1900 in Atkins, Conway Co, AR. Mattie died in Searcy, AR. It says that she was the daughter of William Hulsey and Victoria Fellers Hulsey. According to my family, Mattie's birthday was listed wrong in the obit and is actually December 10, 1900.

2d marriage listed m. ? Pearl Clark, b. quitman, AR (listed by Tom Mobley)

Does anyone know what evidence or reasoning was used to place this Salley as daughter of Benjamin [1422]? Based on the above I'd say it is more likely that she was the daughter of Clement [1423]. The Isaiah mentioned above must have been Clement's son, as his brother did not move from SC to KY until late in 1807. An E. W. Covington, surveyor, who may be the same person as Edmond, is frequently mentioned in the Court Order Books, beginning in 1797.

As far as I can tell NONE of the children listed for Benjamin [1422] are his!!! They all seem to be duplicates.

The above marriage took place in Warren Co. in 1802. I have found only 2 records of a Benjamin Mobley in Warren Co. A Benjamin Mobley paid the poll tax there in 1809.

And he was on the 1810 census:

Benjamin Mobley over 45, Wife over 45, Male 26-44, Male 16-25, Male 10-15, Female 10-15

And if the other male (or males) over 21 listed in his household was living there when he paid his poll tax in 1809, he should have paid poll taxes on him (or them) as well as himself. The 1810 Warren Co., KY tax list no longer exists, and, although the tax lists for 1811 and 1812 are intact, for some strange reason, not a single Mobley paid taxes either year! Unfortunately Warren Co. KY Court Order Book C, covering the period 1806-1811 has been missing for fifty years, so I don't know if they were mentioned as delinquent.

If Benjamin did not arrive in Warren Co. until 1809, why would his daughter have been there in 1802?

The longest period this mysterious Benjamin [1422] could have been in Warren Co. is 1809-1813, and he may have been there a year or less. Perhaps he came from SC and returned there. Perhaps the tombstone of Benjamin at Feasterville, believed to have be that of Benjamin [143], and believed to have been placed there after Benjamin [143] died in Madison Co., KY, is actually that of this Benjamin [1422]. Does anyone know exactly how the inscription reads? Anyway Benjamin [1422] and, as far as I can determine, his children, whatever their names may have been, disappeared from Warren Co., and apparently from KY.

Harvey and Martha had 5 sons: Jeff, James, Andrew, Monroe and George and 2 daughters: Mary (Jane Mobley GORDON) and Laura.

Jeff, son of Harvey and Martha, was in the Civil War and registered in a TN regiment.

Following the death of her husband Harvey Mobley in 1856, Martha sold their farm near Corinth on the Pearl River in Mississippi, freighted their household goods by wagons to Natchez, traveled down the Mississippi River by flatboat to New Orleans, then by boat to Galveston, traveled up the Trinity River by steamboat to Hall's Bluff Landing and located in Houston County, Texas between Grapeland and Crockett where she bought land and, with her children's help, made a home. The children went to the Linwood School walking or riding horseback a distance of about 3 miles. Martha Ann told of having to climb a tree to get out of the way of large herds of cattle being driven down the road from southeastern Texas to the Sedalia or Chisholm Trail." [from family manuscript]. Martha's son, Thomas Jefferson Mobley, age 16, was a Confederate soldier and was killed near Franklin, Tennessee, in one of the last and bloodiest battles of the Civil War in 1864. In only five hours, Federal casualties numbered 2,500; Confederate casualties: 7,000.

After having lived a widow for 14 years, she married Davidson Gordon, who was an uncle to George Washington Gordon. Mr. Gordon's farm and that of Mrs. Mobley's joined.

There are no periods after the initials in EJ's name, nor do the initials stand for anything. According to his mother, Myrtle Miller Williams, she was sure that the baby was going to be a girl and had planned to name the baby Ellen Jane, after her husband's mother. Lo and behold, a baby boy was born and no boy names had been selected. Thus the name EJ. When EJ was in the U.S. Navy and went to pick up his first paycheck, and after much explanation, the payroll master made him sign for his check as "E(none) J(none) Williams".

William C.Mobley

On his attractive little farm, one mile distant from the village of Columbia, Marion, Ms, resided this honored and sterling citizen of his native state, and he is one of those loyal sons of the southland who followed the destinies of the Confederacy on many a sanguinary battlefield. He was always found at the post of duty and in the "piping times of peace", the same integrity and loyalty have characterized him in all relations of life. Mr MOBLEY was born on the old homestead plantation in Lawrence Co., Ms., 18 Feb 1838, and is the son of ISAIAH MOBLEY and MARTHA (LONGINO) MOBLEY. His father was born near Duck River, Tn(?), in 1906 and was an infant at the time of his parent's removal to Lawrence Co., Ms. He (Isaiah) was the son of REASON and CAROLINE (O'NEILL) MOBLEY, both of who were natives of South Carolina. REASON MOBLEY removed with his brother (not named) from the old South State to Tennessee in an early day, and several years later came to Lawrence Co., Ms, becoming one of its pioneer settlers and attaining to prominence and success as a planter and stock raiser. He remained on his plantation until his death and his wife survived him by about a decade.

ISAIAH MOBLEY likewise gained prestige as one of the successful planters and influential citizens of Lawrence Co., Ms where he remained until his death in 1848. He and his wife were devout and consistent members of the Baptist Church.

The mother of the subject of this sketch was a daughter of THOMAS and SALLIE LONGINO, and one of her brothers was the father of ex governor, LONGINO, of Ms. She was born in North Carolina, where her father was an extensive planter and slave owner and whence he finally removed to Lawrence Co., Ms, where he passed the remainder of his life.

WILLIAM C.MOBLEY, the immediate subject of this sketch, was reared to manhood on the home plantation and was afforded the advantages of the schools of the locality. He continued to be actively identified with agricultural pursuits until there came the call of higher duty, when the War between the States was precipitated. Just prior to the outbreak of the war, he was engaged in the drug and grocery business, but he discontinued this at the expiration of four months to enter the Confederate service. On 11 Sep 1861, he enlisted in Co "I", Seventh Ms Infantry, with which he proceeded to the city of New Orleans, and shortly afterward to Pass Christian, Ms where the company-comprising about ninety young men was mustered into the Mississippi State service, in readiness to engage the enemy in this and adjoining states. Six months were devoted to training and drilling and the command was then ordered to Jackson, Tenn, and thence to Corinth (Ms). While on the train en route from New Orleans to Jackson, Tenn, a collision occurred and resulted in the death of about forty men, including several officers and about 300 others were injured, including the subject of this review. His injuries were so severe that he was granted leave of absence and he remained at home until a few days before the Battle of Shiloh. He was with his command in that memorable conflict and retreated with his regiment to Corinth, where they encamped about one month. He was there taken ill, and after remaining at home for one month, he again rejoined his regiment at Tupelo (Ms). The regiment thence proceeded by a somewhat circuitous route to Tyner Station, Tenn., and two weeks later, marched through to Kentucky. At Cave City, that state, the regiment was divided and the portion in which Mr. Mobley's company was included, was ordered to Munfordsville, Ky, where an attack was made on the breastworks of the enemy. The command was repulsed and returned to Cave City, where it became part of the Army of Tennessee. On the second day, the regiment was ordered with the rest of the army, back to Munfordsville, where they captured the position, taking about 5,000 prisoners. The regiment was in a number of engagements including one at Perryville, Ky, and finally went into winter quarters near Murfreesboro, Tenn, where they remained about six weeks. They took part in the spirited battling of five days at Stone's River, and the command thereafter was stationed at Shelbyville, Tenn, until the spring of 1863. Mr Mobley was in gallant service with his regiment in the Battles of Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain, and Missionary Ridge and at Dalton, Ga, when Gen. Joseph E. Johnston assumed command of the Army. He participated in the actions at Resaca, Union Church, Lost Mountain, Peach Tree Creek and Jonesboro, where his regiment became part of the forces commanded by General Hood. Thereafter, he was in the Battles of Franklin and Nashville, Tenn, after the latter, of which his regiment was sent into Alabama and finally to Columbus, Ms, where he was granted a furlough of thirty days 22 Jan 1865. He returned home and remained there until the close of the war. Just prior to the final surrender he, having been unable to rejoin his regiment, became a member of the Ms Reserve cavalry, but this command was not called into service. After the war closed, Mr Mobley bravely faced the responsibilities devolving upon him in connection with reviving the prostrate industries of his loved Southland, and resumed his farming operations in Lawrence Co; where success attended his efforts in the long years that followed and that witnessed the rejuvenation of the South and the softening of the animosities entailed by the war. In 1880 he was elected justice of the peace for beat No.1, of which office he remained incumbent one term, at the expiration of which he removed with his family to Marion Co and purchased his present fine little farm of forty acres, one mile east of Columbia. In 1889 he was elected mayor of Columbia and justice of the peace of beat No 1, being permitted at that time to hold the two offices simultaneously. He was the first mayor of Columbia after its incorporation as a village, and he served two terms, declining a third term on account of the exigencies of his private business affairs. He also served two terms as justice of the peace. Mr Mobley is (was) a staunch adherent of the Democratic Party; is affiliated with the United Confederate Veterans; and he and his family are members of the Baptist Church, in which he has been a deacon for thirty years. He is a man of impregnable integrity of character and his life has been such as to gain and retain to him, the unqualified esteem of his fellow men.

On 24 May 1865, Mr. Mobley was united in marriage to MISS MARY L. STERLING, who was born in Lawrence Co., Ms on 11 Mar 1847, a daughter of BENNETT and SUSAN STERLING, both of whom died in Lawrence Co, where Mr Sterling was a prosperous planter and honored citizen. In conclusion is entered a brief record concerning the children of MR and MRS MOBLEY: John J - died in infancy, and the second child died at birth; Josie Anna, who was born 14 Feb 1871 is the wife of JOHN H.WALTMAN; William C was born 5 Dec 1873; Benjamin F born 23 Nov 1876; Emily A born 4 Feb 1882 is the wife of ALFRED W. MCCOLLOUGH; Mattie O, born 20 Oct 1884; and Houston A, was born 7 Jun 1888.

This Clement Moberly is actually the son of Clement Mobley 1423. The surname is spelled Moberly in the Warren Co., KY records at least as often as it is spelled Mobley. Clement Mobley [1423] is on the Warren Co., KY Tax List in 1797. He paid the poll tax on himself, as a white male over 21, and he also paid taxes on two males between the age of 16 and 21. The 1789 Tax List is missing. In 1801, John appears on the list with Clement, which means he had reached the age of 21. In 1802, both Clement [1423] and Clement Jr. appear on the Tax List, and both paid the poll tax for males over 21. Thereafter they are recorded as Clement Sr. and Clement Jr. on the lists up until at least 1825, which is as far as I have gone.

Marcellus Mobley or better known as "Bully" Mobley to family members is my husbands great grandfather. The first time Marcellus appears on U.S. census is in 1870 in Hinds County, MS at which time he is 18 years old. He supposedly was born in AL. His father appears on the 1860 Census in Kemper County living alone but if you pull up his slave schedule he has a mulatto female, age 30, a mulatto male, age 8, a mulatto female, age 6, a mulatto male, age 4 and a mulatto male age 2.
These all match up to the age of Marcellus, his mother and 3 of his siblings on the 1870 Hinds County, MS Census.

My question being...Was Marcellus Malachi Mobley, along with his mother and 3 siblings born into slavery?

My mother-in-law is Alice Katherine Mobley, daughter of Bryant Mobley and Eliza Sanders of Utica, Mississippi. The information she has given me on the Mobley side has been very sketchy, at best. At this point, I am relying on my sister-in-law to contact a distant relative, the daughter of Camille Mobley Breeden.

You won't find Ryan on the 1880 LDS Census because he is already deceased. But you will find his wife Rhoda (on some censuses she is listed as Rosa) and all seven of her children by Ryan Coleman in Utica, Hinds County, MS. On this particular census, the census taker put Marcellus down as a female and the Ancestry Indexer listed his name as "Marilin" when it plainly shows "Marcelius". (spelled wrong, but still Marcellus.)

Marcellus Malachi, his mother (Rosa or Rhoda), and 3 of his siblings

(Mary, Dewitt, and El Vaton) are the enigmas before 1870. They seem to come out of the woodwork living with Ryan in Township 3, Hinds, MS; Image 74 of 104 You will not find them on any other census before 1870 living with Ryan. Ryan seems to migrate from Greene County, Alabama between 1850 and 1860 to Kemper County, MS. In 1850 he is living on his father's plantation (Larkin Mobley in Greene County, Alabama) in a separate house, alone and working as a laborer while his younger brother is the overseer. Right there, that tells me there is something going on in their family dynamics.

He next appears in 1860 in Kemper, MS still living alone but if you pull up his slave schedule you'll see what could possibly be his family, Rosa, Marcellus, Mary, Dewitt, and El Vaton. Also in the 1910 Census you will find Marcellus married to Alice listed as a black man. (3-Beat, Hinds, MS; Image 58 of 68; Ancestry) This census page shows him listed as M. Mobley and is very faint. You have to super impose it and then you can see the whole family including Bryant. I must tell you, I have been diligently trying to find the answer to this to no avail. It seems no family member has any information on Marcellus and my husband's great niece has a health problem that effects only children of color. Before me tracing the family tree my husband's relatives basically explained it away by saying it came from the other side of the tree. It seems to be something that no one wants to acknowledge or possibly it is something that know one knows. Since that time in history was so so difficult for African Americans, it makes sense to me to keep it under wraps, if possible.

Wiley Washington Mobley

"Of our Mobley family in northern Alabama, only two came west to Texas, Jane Mobley Barefoot and her brother, James Washington Mobley. Little is known of the family who remained in Alabama.

Our earliest ancestor we know was Wiley Washington Mobley, originally from South Carolina, who moved to northern Alabama near Florence. We know of one sister, Nancy Mobley, who married a Twitty.

Wiley Washington Mobley was married twice. The first wife is unknown, but they had two children, Jack and Charlotte. The second wife was Catherine Hood. Wiley Mobley died in Alabama. Catherine Hood Mobley moved with her son, James Washington Mobley, into northeastern Mississippi where he became a sheriff of Tishomingo county. She died there. Later, James Washington "Wash" Mobley moved his family to Texas and settled near the Barefoots. The Mobley family were related to and intermarried with the Gracey family and the Harvey family."

George Washington Mobley went to Texas in a covered wagon with his parents (names currently unknown) from "back east" we think. He had two brothers Wendell and Wiltie. Wiltie died in a drowning accident on Taken together with the listing of an Isaiah Mobley on the 1800 census of Fairfield Co.SC, this confirms that Isaiah Mobley[1425] remained in SC until late 1807(as stated in his pension application for Rev. service) before moving to Warren Co., KY. The Isaiah who was on the 1790 census of KY probably was 14232, son of Clement, who later went to Bedford Co., TN.

[Isaiah was listed in Warren Co. KY tax records 1808, 1809, 1813, 1815, 1817-1821, 1823-1825, 1828, 1829]

Several months ago, when I was searching for the sources of the information contained in the MIA about the children of Isaiah Mobley [1425], you informed me that most of it had been submitted by Mrs. Stinson, and that you no longer had any contact with her.

As I continued to research 14259 Robert Mobley, b. 1762, d. 1848, AR, supposed son of Isaiah, I was convinced that Robert Mobley did not die in AR as stated, but in IN, and that his birth date was entirely wrong. However, I could find no evidence of his relationship to Isaiah, even after I hired a researcher in Warren Co., KY. I did find out that Robert Mobley married Delilah W. Drake, whose father's property was a few miles from that of the Mobley family, and that Robert's children were among Drake's heirs. My researcher knew who Mrs. Stinson was though. He gave me her address and suggested I contact her. I received a letter and several family group sheets from her yesterday. She stated that she really knew nothing about where or when Robert was born, or where or when he died. But the most amazing thing was her note about Isaiah's children-"Children are guesses"

It appears that Frances, Vashti, Rebecca, and Sicily are Isaiah's daughters, since this has been confirmed by other researchers, but I don't know if there's a scrap of evidence about the rest of Isaiah's children. If there is not, many Mobley cousins may be copying into their family trees data that has no foundation whatsoever, and publishing those trees on the Internet.

I am compiling the little data I have about the Moberlys who lived in Warren Co., KY at that period, but what I have allows me to make very few assumptions about relationships. The researcher I hired has gone through the indexes to the various court records and extracted all Mobley names, in case I want him to obtain copies of any of them, but, unfortunately, I cannot afford to pay his fee for the number of hours it would take him to copy every one of them. Most of the work I have had him do to date has been on the line of Delilah W. Drake, wife of Robert Mobley. Carol Lucian clkonfetti@email.msn.com 10/12/02

It isn't in the MIA, but Stephen M. Lawson, on his website <http://kinnexions.com/smlawson/moberly.htm#CMoberly> <<http://kinnexions.com/smlawson/moberly.htm>>, says that Guilford Pylant (surname is misspelled Plyant on the website) was the second husband of Sicily Mobley [14258], daughter of Isaiah Mobley [1425]. Does anyone have any proof of this?

It makes sense, as on the 1850 Cane Hill Twp. Washington Co., AR (<<http://ftp.rootsweb.com/pub/usgenweb/ar/washington/census/1850/pg0410a.txt>>) census, Guilford Pylant, 47 years old, and his wife, "Cicily", 45 years old, have 2 Mobley girls living with them -- Sarah A. E. Mobley, 19 years old, and Emily Mobley, 17 years old. The household next to Guilford Pylant's is that of Burwell Cox and his wife, Rebecca Mobley, daughter of Isaiah [1245], and about 8 households away are Isaac Spencer and his wife Pinkey, another daughter of Isaiah [1425].

If this is the case the two girls might possibly be the daughters of Isaiah Mobley's son David. The two girls are also in Guilford Pylant's household on the 1840 census.

At least one Pylant researcher has assumed that the wife of Guilford Pylant was the widow of a man named Mobley and that the two girls were her daughters by her first husband. Possibly. But I think the theory that she was the daughter of Isaiah and the widow of William Johnson is more likely. Any thoughts on this?

This Clement Moberly is actually the son of Clement Mobley 1423. The surname is spelled Moberly in the Warren Co., KY records at least as often as it is spelled Mobley. Clement Mobley [1423] is on the Warren Co., KY Tax List in 1797. He paid the poll tax on himself, as a white male over 21, and he also paid taxes on two males between the age of 16 and 21. The 1789 Tax List is missing. In 1801, John appears on the list with Clement, which means he had reached the age of 21. In 1802, both Clement [1423] and Clement Jr. appear on the Tax List, and both paid the poll tax for males over 21. Thereafter they are recorded as Clement Sr. and Clement Jr. on the lists up until at least 1825, which is as far as I have gone.

Males between the ages of 16 and 21 were not taxed in all years, but in 1806 Clement Moberly Sr. [1423] is again paying taxes on a male between the age of 16 and 21, and in the following year (1807), Sihon Moberly appears on the tax list, paying the pole tax for a white male over 21. From this it would appear that Sihon (Sion) might be the son of Clement [1423]. In the MIA, he is listed as the son of Isaiah Mobley [1425]. Isaiah did not arrive in Warren Co. until late in 1807, according to his own statement in his Revolutionary War pension application, and he did not pay the poll tax until 1808, in which year Robert Moberly, my g-g-g-grandfather, also appears on the list. If Isaiah is his father, Sihon left SC and went to live with his uncle Clement in Warren Co., KY, at least a year or more before Isaiah. Not impossible, I suppose, but less likely.

At present my line is listed as unplaced in the MIA, but as soon as I can get everything updated, I'll send you a revised tree. I have quite a bit of new information, but unfortunately I still lack definite proof that Robert was the son of Isaiah, though it seems likely.

In his Revolutionary War pension application, Isaiah Mobley [1425] stated that his house in Fairfield District, SC burned in 1806 and that he "Removed from there to the State of Kentucky in the year 1807 & Settled in Warren County in said State from there I removed to Crawford County Arkansas Territory where I now live in the year 1830." And he does first appear on the Warren Co., KY tax list in 1808.

But why did he spend his last weeks in SC buying land? Read the summary of his land transactions pasted below. (I'll have more to say about the 8 Oct 1807 transaction in another email.) Why would he want more land in SC if he was leaving for good? He seems to have taken his family and his slaves to KY with him when he went, but he didn't buy land there for years. In 1814, he went back to SC, sold the land there, returned to KY and finally purchased land. I wonder who was farming his SC land and paying taxes on it while he was living in KY? And whose land was he living on in KY?

31 Oct 1807. But Isaiah's house in SC burned in 1806. In 1807 Sion, or Sihon, Isaiah's son (does anyone have proof of this relationship?) appears on the 1807 Warren Co., KY tax list. Perhaps he went to KY to inform Isaiah's brother, Clement, of Isaiah's intention to go there and to make arrangements. Anyway, Sihon is back in SC witnessing a deed for Isaiah on notice that a Clement Mobley witnessed Isaiah's deed of 8 Oct 1807 (transcript pasted below). It looks like Clement returned to SC with Sihon to help Isaiah move, unless there was another Clement Mobley living in SC.

This is also the first document I have found that mentions Robert Mobley.

As to the terms of the deed (called a mortgage), it appears to be an old form of a loan with land as security, but I'm not sure. It looks like Isaiah gave Thomas Carter $1000 for a $500 piece of land, and that Thomas Carter had to pay Isaiah $500 within 3 years or Isaiah would get to keep the land. On the only other deed I've seen that was somewhat similar to this, the loan was repaid and there was another deed drawn up when it was repaid. In this case there is no indication that Thomas Carter ever repaid Isaiah, and if you add up the acreage Isaiah bought and sold in SC, he seems to have retained possession of Carter's land and sold it when he returned to SC in 1814. So, who was Thomas Carter? Does anyone know? Could he have been a son-in-law of Isaiah Mobley? If my identification of Isaiah on the 1790 census is correct, Isaiah probably had more children than are attributed to him in the MIA.

Judge Richard Mobley

Throughout a distinguished career that spanned six decades, first as an advocate and later as judge, Richard Mobley devoted his life to respect for the rule of law, the impartial administration of justice, and a career in public service marked by honesty, integrity, and tireless effort. On July 4, 2008, Judge Mobley passed away peacefully in his home. He was 91.

Although Judge Mobley retired more than 18 years ago, attorneys who practiced in his courtroom still vividly recall his time on the bench. One lawyer remarked that before Judge Mobley began his tenure, decisions in equity and probate matters had been unpredictable in that jurisdiction. Judge Mobley's court soon became recognized as a forum where the litigants would receive swift, impartial, and consistent justice.

He expected attorneys to be well prepared before coming into the courtroom. Those who arrived with law books in arm, perhaps hoping to learn the law while they pled their cases, sometimes received a reprimand and a stern lesson concerning their duty to their clients and their responsibility to the court. Judge Mobley worked to get ready for each trial, he had reviewed the pleadings and the applicable law, and he expected as much from those who tried their cases before his court.

When he first came to the bench, he found an accumulation of continued cases waiting for him. To eliminate this backlog, and to stay ahead of the growing volume of domestic relations matters, he routinely listened to the testimony in a case, allowed brief arguments, posed a few questions from the bench, and then made a decision the same day.

Throughout his career, Judge Mobley was known for a dry sense of humor and a healthy skepticism toward the perspectives of witnesses who testified in his court. More than once he remarked that each time a witness happened to tell the whole truth in court, the concrete eagle outside at the top of the courthouse would flap its wings!

Richard Mobley was born on a farm in Grenada County, Mississippi. His father, Sion Fielding Mobley, worked in a factory while his mother, the former Margaret Clifford, raised her boys and worked in the fields. When he was ten, Judge Mobley's family moved to Helena, Arkansas where he entered the fourth grade on the eve of the Great Depression. After finishing high school, he worked for two years at a flower shop in Helena to help support his mother and younger brothers and to save enough so that one day he could go to college.

He enrolled at the University of Arkansas in 1937. Judge Mobley was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity and Omicron Delta Kappa, a national collegiate honor society. He served as editor of the 1940 University of Arkansas yearbook, The Razorback. At the University of Arkansas Law School, he was a member of the Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity, and in his second year there, he married Louise Caudle of Russellville.

After the attack on Pearl Harbor in December of 1941, a number of law students took the bar examination early so that they could enlist upon graduation. Judge Mobley was among them. Upon completing the Army's Officers Candidate School, he received a commission as a 2nd Lt. in the Field Artillery. He then went to Ft. Sill for artillery training, to Ft. Campbell where he was assigned to the 98th Infantry Division, and then to the Pacific theater. Major Mobley completed his military obligation serving with the occupation forces in Japan.

After the war was over, Judge Mobley came to Russellville and joined his father-in-law Reece Caudle in his private law practice with Bob White. During the early 1950's, he completed an unexpired term as chancery and probate judge, and then in 1962, he ran for a full term as chancellor of what was then the Ninth Judicial Circuit (Pope, Johnson, Conway and Faulkner Counties). After state-wide redistricting in 1979, Judge Mobley became chancellor for the Fifth Judicial Circuit (Pope, Johnson, and Franklin Counties) where he served until his retirement in 1990.

Judge Mobley's contributions to Arkansas law were significant. He was a pioneer in Arkansas domestic relations law, introducing a uniform schedule of child support payments, the basis for the family support formulas used by judges today. His court took an active interest in the welfare of the children of divorce. Parents who ignored or fell behind in their support obligations soon learned the error of their ways and either promptly paid or were sent to jail for contempt. Again, justice in his court was swift, impartial, and consistent.

Judge Mobley also presided over a number of high profile cases involving oil and gas law as it evolved in Northwest Arkansas. One ruling, affirmed on appeal to the Arkansas Supreme Court, marked a departure from existing practice by allowing a class action lawsuit on behalf of mineral interest owners. In another case, Judge Mobley established a precedent by using current market value to set the amount of royalty payments. Because of his reputation and acknowledged expertise in this specialized area of law, he was invited to speak at the Natural Resources Law Institute in 1984 and again in 1987.

Over the course of his career, Judge Mobley received numerous awards in recognition of his significant contributions to the Arkansas legal system and to the community. In 1971, he was honored as the first chairman of the Family Law Section of the Arkansas Bar Association. In 1974 and 1975, he served as the chairman of the editorial review committee for the first Arkansas Domestic Relations Manual. For this leadership, he received the Golden Gavel Award from the Arkansas Bar Association. In 1975 and 1976, he served as president of the Arkansas Judicial Council, and he also served as a faculty advisor to the National College of State Trial Judges. In October, 1990, the Pope County Bar Association honored Judge Mobley for more than 28 years of continuous service as chancery and probate judge. Upon his retirement, he donated a large part of his legal research materials to the Pope County Law Library. Over the next three years, he went on to serve as a special master over protracted sales tax reimbursement proceedings in Washington and Saline Counties.

His memberships in local civic and fraternal organizations spanned more than fifty years. He belonged to the Shriners, Masonic Lodge No. 274, American Legion Post 20, and the Rotary Club in Russellville. In 1986, the Arkansas Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks recognized him as "Citizen of the Year" for his service to youth and families.

Outside of the courtroom and the practice of law, Judge Mobley's passions included horticulture, genealogy, and teaching Sunday School, all of which he pursued for many years. His love and appreciation of flowers dated back to his employment in flower shops in Helena and Fayetteville. He cultivated and gave away numerous hibiscus, bromeliads, hydrangeas, and orchids. His interest in his family's roots led him into many hundreds of hours of research as he traced his ancestry all the way back to a small village in 14th century Cheshire, England. Judge Mobley and his wife visited Mobberley, England in 1986.

Throughout his adult life, his chief recreational interest was fishing. He spent many hours on Lakes Nimrod, Atkins, and later, Dardanelle. He made his own fishing lures and gave hundreds to friends and associates. Each lure was guaranteed to catch fish.

Judge Mobley and his wife, Louise, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary several months before her death in 2002. He is also predeceased by his four brothers, Ralph, Prentis, Samuel, and Hammons Mobley. He is survived by his daughter, Margaret Mobley Burgess, of Loveland, Colorado, his son, Richard Reece Mobley and daughter-in-law Nancy R. Mobley, of Westwood, Massachusetts, grandsons Benjamin C. Dorries and Ryan E. Mobley, granddaughters Sarah and Elizabeth Clabby, and several nieces and nephews. He also leaves behind his dear and close friends for many years, Representative George Overbey, Jr. and his wife Betty, of Lamar.

Friends and family are invited to attend a memorial service at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, July 9, at All Saints Episcopal Church, 501 South Phoenix, Russellville. Throughout his life, Judge Mobley lived his core belief that with education and hard work, one would find opportunity and success. In keeping with his wishes, and in lieu of flowers, the family invites a contribution in Judge Mobley's memory to the Division of Advancement, University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, AR 72701 or to an educational institution or charitable organization of the donor's choice.

HISTORY OF WAYNE AND CLAY COUNTIES (Illinois)

p 58

about 1815 Anthony B. Turney in company with his wife and brother-in-law, went to Natchez, Mississippi in a flat-boat, and in the fall of the following year returned on horseback to Kentucky...After reaching home, the father of our subject, (Anthony B) in 1816 made an extended tour through the Illinois territory, and located what was afterward called Turney's Prairie, to which place he and his father came in the spring of 1818.

....Anthony B Turney and his father came in the spring of 1818 to Turney's Prairie in Wayne County, Illinois, and after raising a corn crop they returned to Kentucky and moved their families that fall to their new homes.

1819 Anthony B Turney purchased land in Wayne Co Illinois along with John Turney.
(Michale Turney who begins buying land in 1818 Illinois is the father of Anthony B.)

At present my line is listed as unplaced in the MIA, but as soon as I can get everything updated, I'll send you a revised tree. I have quite a bit of new information, but unfortunately I still lack definite proof that Robert was the son of Isaiah, though it seems likely.

I just received my DNA results and I match no Moberlys whatever at any level from 12 markers to 37!!! I have an equal number of Hampton and Hollingsworth matches. It appears that there was a non-paternity event somewhere. On the 1870 census I notice a James Hampton, farm laborer with no land of his own, enumerated right after my ancestor, Erwin J. Moberly. He may have been working and living either on Erwin's land or on the next farm. Carol Anne clkonfetti@gmail.com 7/5/2011

I still don't know for certain if Robert C. Moberly was Isaiah's son, or if he was the same person as the Robert who lived in Warren Co., KY. The age given on his bounty land records, if correct, means that he was not. I'm almost certain that he was connected in some way to the Moberlys who were living in the Lawrence and Monroe Co., IN area in the 1840s. One of my theories is that Robert C., Edward C., Nancy (married John Talbot), Mary (married David Borland), and perhaps William (married Elizabeth Galbreth) were siblings. William seems a little old, but I'm sure he had connections of some sort with both Edward C. and Robert C. I'm fairly certain that all 5 were connected in some way. Apparently younger than Newton. Charles Joseph Moberly was admitted to St. Vincent's Orphanage, Vincennes, IN on 12/11/1877, (a little over a year after the death of his mother) at the age of 5, according to the orphanage records. He left St. Vincent's on August 16, 1886 with John Judge of St. Croix, Perry Co, IN. He was probably "bound out" to work on the farm. The spelling of his surname was changed to "Mobley" during this period

About a year ago, I wrote to you about my cousin's Y-DNA test results coming back not matching Mobley but matching Hampton instead. I thought there was a possibility that my 2nd great-grandmother had an affair with her neighbor, James W. Hampton. A descendant of James W. Hampton's brother, Zachariah, has taken the Family Finder test and results indicate that he is my mother's 3rd cousin and my 4th cousin.

I would say that my 2nd great-grandmother did have an affair with either James W. Hampton (or his brother) and that my great-grandfather, Charles Joseph Mobley/Moberly was not the son of Erwin J. Moberly (MIA 142593). I don't know if you want to delete his descendants from the MIA. I suppose Charles's siblings WERE Erwin's children.

In 1865 his property was sold, his debts paid, and the remainder of the proceeds was divided among his siblings. He joined the Union Army at Fort Crook, Sacramento, CA in 2/9/1865 and deserted a few months later. Apparently he had gone to CA to look for gold, as his occupation is "miner" on his army records, on which he signed his name "Fanning P. Mobley"

When Isaiah Mobley purchased 200 acres on Beaver Creek in Fairfield District, SC, on 10/8/1807 Robert Mobley was a witness.

Robert and Delilah were married by the time her father wrote his will on 4/18/1826, as her name appears as Delilah W. Mobley in the will. Tarlton Drake gave his daughter, Delilah, a female slave, probably at the time of her marriage, or shortly thereafter. It appears (from 1830 Census) that Robert and Delilah Moberly lived in Lincoln Co., TN for several years before moving first to Lawrence Co., IN, (where they appear on the 1840 Census), then to Martin County, IN.

[Warren Co., KY Circuit Court Equity Suit # 2805, J. B. Martin, Adm. of Tarlton Drake -vs- Drake Heirs-proves Delilah W. Drake's marriage to Robert C. Moberly, lists their surviving children, and mentions the gift of the slave.]

History of Orange County, California: By Samuel Armor
Historic Record Company, Los Angeles, CA (1921)

Hanigan C. Moberly. A veteran of the Spanish-American War with an interesting record for manly service in the Philippines, who has seen great improvements effected in and around Orange, is Hanigan C. Moberly, who was born in Loogootee, Martin County, Ind., on August 7, 1874, the son of Irvin Moberly, a native of Kentucky and a member of a well-known Southern family. He settled in Indiana, and there led a prosperous farmer's life, and there he died. Mrs. Moberly was Sarah Calvin before her marriage, and she also was a native of Kentucky. There were two girls and three boys in the family, and of these Hanigan was next to the youngest.

When only five or six years old he was left an orphan, and until he was old enough to hustle for himself he lived with relatives and did a boy's chores about the farm. He first came to Hamilton County, Nebr., in 1891, and there, until January, 1892, he continued working at farm labor. Then he came to California and stopped at Los Banos, in Merced County, where he worked on the canal survey for four months.

In May, 1892, Mr. Moberly removed to Orange, and for four years was employed on a fruit farm. Then he engaged in the confectionery business, and later was with Ben Davis & Company in the bicycle trade. When the Spanish-American War broke out, however, he could not refrain from offering his services to his country; and on August 14, 1899, he enlisted. He joined Company D of the Thirty-fifth U. S. Volunteer Infantry, which was mobilized at Vancouver, Wash., and sent to Manila, P. I., and he served throughout the Philippine insurrection, or until May 2, 1901, when he was mustered out at San Francisco. He was in the following engagements: a skirmish at Arayat, P. I., on Nov. 10-11, 1899, and another at San Miguel de Mayumo on December 11, 1899; a battle at Balubid, P. I., on June 11, 1900; a skirmish at Sibul, P. I., on June 12, 1900, and one at Santa Lucia, P. I., on October 29, 1900. He was commissioned corporal on March 25, 1901, or shortly before his return to Orange.

Having retained his interest in the bicycle concern, Mr. Moberly and his partner started at Orange the first auto repair shop, in 1904, at the same time taking the agency of the Tourist automobile; and there, on North Glassell Street, near the Plaza, Ben Davis & Company continued until the spring of 1908, when the firm was dissolved. This move afforded Mr. Moberly an opportunity for foreign travel, and he made the most of it. Sailing for Costa Rica, Central America, from there he went to Panama. Then he crossed the ocean to London, and after an extended trip of eighteen months, during which he saw and learned more on account of what he had seen and experienced in his previous travel to and from the Philippines, he returned to America and California. Coming west he stopped for a while at Indiana, and in due time, glad to be home again, he arrived in the Golden State.

Taking up work again, Mr. Moberly started in the laundry business with the Orange branch for the Santa Ana Steam Laundry, and since the fall of 1910 he has been established at the corner of Lemon and La Veta streets. He began with a horse and wagon; but it was not long before the business grew to such dimensions that he required an auto delivery, and he still serves customers obtained in the beginning. The Orange plant is at the address already mentioned, and there he has his office. Personal attention, promptness and an earnest effort to give every patron the maximum of good service for the least cost have wrought the usual wonders popularly termed "prosperity".

Since coming to Orange Mr. Moberly was married to Miss Elizabeth Williams, a native daughter born at Riverside; and with his good wife he resides at 536 East Palmyra Street. He also owns an orange grove of seven and one-third acres, half a mile north of El Modena. In national politics a "black Republican," Mr. Moberly is a very "white" nonpartisan when it comes to supporting local issues likely to make for the development of Orange and Orange County, in which great civic work he is second to none in both good will and practical activity.

Your name was given to me as having a collection of information on the Moberly/Moberly line. My g-g-grandmother was Mary Frances Moberly from Martin County, IN.

My line goes thus:

Mary Louise Walton m. Robert Edward Trego
James Talford Walton m. Helen Louise Walton

Robert Otis Walton m. Della Wildman
James Albin Wildman m. Adaline Sanders
Armstead Wildman m. Mary Frances Moberly
I believe, but have no proof, that Mary Frances was the daughter of Robert C. and Delilah W. (Drake) Moberly. I am having a little bit of trouble understanding how Robert C. and Delilah W. were able to move to so many states during their lifetime. I have them in SC, Ky, Tenn, IN, IL and AR. When did they ever have time to raise a family and earn a living?

Mary Frances died young but had several children.
Maria Clementine m. Cyrus Walton
Emmersley S. m. Evalne Peyton
James Albin m. Adaline Sanders (my g-g-grandparents)
William Hanigan d. at 9 years old
Mary Ellen m. Josephus Sanders
George Edward m. Mary Alice Bruner
Frances m. Horace S. Baker

Armstead married three other times: 2nd Elizabeth Reynolds 3rd Prudence
Sanders 4th

Martha R. Williams. People used to laugh because it was said that he died of a broken heart because his kids would not let him marry a 5th time.

Thank you,

(note cwm: phone disconnected and unable to question him on his statement "proven record" of William & Phoebe

William Moberly is the earliest Moberly that we have any proven record of, but his parents could be Samuel Moberly who married Mary Mabry. This Samuel Moberly was a civil engineer, who came from Sheffield, Yorkshire Co., England in 1683. He surveyed land in Maryland and Virginia and settled in South Carolina.

William Moberly was born around 1670 and married Phoebe Lovejoy in 1693 in Frederick Co., Maryland. Phoebe Lovejoy had been married to William Penn in Fairfield Co., S.C. where they all lived. Will of Edward Moberly, dated September 8, 1840, Madison Co, KY:

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN I Edward Moberly of the County of Madison & State of Kentucky being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but being of advanced age, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make this my last will & testament; hereby revoking disannulling and setting all wills, or writings purporting to be such, heretofore by me made, and do now dispose & order a distribution of my property as follows, to wit:

ITEM FIRST: It is my will and desire that out of the proceeds of my property all my just debts be first paid.

ITEM SECOND: It is my will and desire that my son ELIAS MOBERLY have all my land, he having written contract stipulated to pay me the sum of two thousand four hundred dollars for it; which sum is to be divided between my other three sons WILLIAM, JAMES and GIDEON -- the said Elias having heretofore received his portion of my land estate, viz: To William Moberly the sum of nine hundred dollars which sum has been paid as per his receipt. To James Moberly the sum of nine hundred dollars, which has been paid as per his receipt. To Gideon Moberly the sum of nine hundred dollars, he having heretofore received a negro boy named Henderson at three hundred dollars. The balance ($100) to be paid when collected under the contract with Elias Moberly before mentioned.

ITEM THIRD: It is my will and desire that my son-in-law THOMAS J. PATTON and Edith his wife have at my death my negro woman Fanny, and her two youngest children Milly and Mary Ann, which negroes are not to be sold by them under any pretext whatever, but are to descent to the legal heirs of the said Edith Patton. The said negroes I estimate to be worth five hundred dollars, and I have recently given them, the said Thos. J. Patton & Edith Patton, $100 in cash as a part of their legacy which together with a negro boy heretofore given them and rated at $300, makes an aggregate sum of nine hundred dollars - equal an amount to the sum that I devise to each of my children by special bequest. And further, whereas, my son Milton Moberly dec'd. died indebted to said Thos J. Patton by note the sum of $13, it is my will and desire that said Patton have the bureau left by said Milton, and at my death to have a set of silver teaspoons now in use in my family.

ITEM FOURTH: It is my will and desire, that a marriage contract made and indeted into between myself and my wife previous to our marriage - which contract is of record in the office of the County Court of Estill - be faithfully and punctually complied with by my executors and that she have of my property at my death, extra and separate from said contract, the following articles, to wit: One good cow and calf, five sheep, the loom now in our possession with all its furniture, one flax wheel, two table cloths of her own manufacture, one half of the coverlids she may make while we live together, as much of the crop and necessaries of family consumption as may amply sufficient for the use of herself & negro boy for one year after my death together with what stock she may have on hand at the time the event occurs - to be allotted by my executors. Also, to have her _oing mare & increase, with one round top cherry bedstead, one good large pot, one skillet & lid, one frying pan all the cupboard furniture as required, except one pitcher. And my executors are hereby directed to pay off the contract alluded to above in this item, out of any monies on hand at my death or due me at the time, by note or otherwise, or, in lieu of a deficiency of such funds or debts out of which the proceeds of a sale herein after directed.

ITEM FIFTH: It is my will and desire that all the remainder of my property of every species whatsoever not heretofore disposed of in the foregoing will, at my death be sold at public sale at a reasonable credit, to the highest bidder and that my executors pay out of the proceeds thereof, to my daughter Nancy Dollins the sum of five hundred dollars ___ ___ ___ the remainder arising from such sale be after paying ___ bequests to my daughters - divided equally between my children or their legal representatives.

And I nominate and appoint my son Elias Moberly and Thomas Patton, my son-in-law, my executors, and direct them to procure the assistance of my friend Robt. N. Moran in the execution of the foregoing will.
Signed and acknowledged the 8th of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty.

Jerre B. MOBERLY: Jerre B. MOBERLY, one of the officers and directors of the Mercantile Trust Company of St. Louis, having charge of the real estate loan department, was born in Saline County, Missouri, December 3, 1874, and is a son of James B. and Rebecca (BARLING) MOBERLY. He attended the public schools of St. Louis and on the 1st of January 1890, was graduated from the Stoddard school. He started upon his business career at office work with the firm of HAMMETT & MORRISON, tie and timber contractors, in April 1890.

Through the intervening period he has made steady advancement, the steps in his orderly progression being easily discernible. Today he is at the head of the real estate loan department of the Mercantile Trust Company with offices at Eighth and Locust streets. He is regarded as an expert valuator of property, possessing detailed knowledge of city real estate, and in building up the department has surrounded himself with a corps of competent men who for many years have specialized in real estate matters. They handled only first mortgage loans and thus render the investor absolutely secure. Mr. MOBERLY has been a most important factor in the development of the large business now controlled by this department.

Mr. MOBERLY was married to Miss Alice Muriel BABCOCK, a daughter of W. H. BABCOCK. Mrs. MOBERLY, who is now deceased, became the mother of one child, a son, Milton Dwight. Mr. MOBERLY has never allied himself with either political party, but casts his ballot according to the dictates of his judgment. He belongs to the Algonquin Golf Club, which indicates much concerning the nature of his recreation.

Higbee News 22 January 1931, page 1: ANOTHER GOOD MAN CALLED HOME S. T. Moberly Dies From Stroke of Paralysis--Funeral and Internment Tuesday. S. T. Moberly, known far and wide as "Uncle Tip," died at his home near Myers at 7 o'clock Saturday morning following a stroke of paralysis suffered about 11 o'clock Thursday. He was feeling as well as usual when he got up that morning and went to the field to do some work, and when he did not return when he should the family, not much alarmed, went out to see about him, and were shocked beyond measure to find him lying unconscious, and chilled through, he having been stricken, it is thought, at least an hour or so before he was found. He was taken home and a doctor summoned at once, who expressed the fear that there was no hope. Growing gradually weaker from hour to hour, and never regaining consciousness, he passed away at the hour stated. Stephen Tilford Moberly was born in Howard county, on February 27, 1855, near his present farm and had resided there all of his life with the exception of a year spent in Moberly. He was married to Miss Mary Dougherty on February 1, 1877, and who survives him as does a daughter, Mrs. Omer Andrews. He also leaves two brothers, Thomas of Moberly and Walter of New London, and two sisters, Mrs. B.M. Avery of Higbee and Mrs. Mollie Bogie of Preston, Okla., besides many more distant relatives and a legion of friends. Jolly and whole souled, a good neighbor and a real friend, Uncle Tip had the love and respect of all who knew him. Funeral services were held at New Hope Monday by the Rev. Edgar Richmond of Moberly, the crowd, the largest seen at the church in years, speaking of the esteem in which he was held and the sympathy felt for his loved ones. Internment was made in the New Hope cemetery. In the passing of Mr. Moberly a good man has been called from among us, and one who will be missed, not only by his family, but the community for many days to come. The News joins the community in sympathy to the bereft family.

Transcript from Montgomery County Wills Liber Z, folio 335

In the name of God Amen I, Hazel Burdict (sic) of Montgomery County and state of Maryland, being weak in body but of sound mind, memory and understanding and disposed to settle my worldly affairs when it may please Almighty God to call me from this world, Item first, that my body be decently buried at the discretion of my Executor and all my just debts are to be paid. Second - I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth and my worthy stepson Washington Mobly all my personal and real estate whatsoever to sell and dispose of it at their discretion for the use and benefit of my said wife and all my children, and any contract sale or deed of conveyance by them made for said property shall be binding as if myself had done it in fee simple. My will and request is that the said Washington Mobly shall settle up the estate now unsettled of my late deceased father Benjamin Burdett. Lastly, I do appoint the aforesaid Washington Mobly to be my sole Executor of this my last will and testament, finally doth declare this to be my last will and testament revoking all heretofore by me made.
In testimony hath hereunto affixed by hand and seal this 21st day of May in the year of our Lord 1839.

Witnessed by William Willson of John, James H. Miles, and Henry Winson.

attorney ... The condition of the above obligation is such that the above George W. Mobley shall well and truly perform the office of Executor of Hazel Burdett's estate.

<clip>

Benjamin Moberly, another well-known "old settler," was born in Madison county, Kentucky in the year 1799. His father, Isaac Moberly, moved to the southern part of Illinois in 1812, where they lived a number of years in a Fort in what is now Franklin county. He was quite a noted Indian hunter, and was also an adept in procuring all kinds of game. It is said that with his rifle he could strike the eye of a deer at the distance of a hundred and fifty yards. He was one of the best rifle shots in all that section of country, and was a man noted for his bravery and agility. In the early part of the year 1827 Benjamin Moberly moved north and made a settlement on Sand Creek, in Shelby county, where he afterwards improved a large farm. He now lives in Windsor, and is a hale and hearty old gentleman, and delights to talk about the early times.

County's 'founding fathers' wanted to name it 'Jackson'

Library Director Janet Armstrong is tenacious when doing research. When Dale Jones of Harrisburg wrote that his ancestor signed the petition to form White County, I remarked that I'd never heard of such an instrument. There was no such record in anything we could find. Janet, however, wrote to the Illinois State Historical Library and inquired about a series of books, "The Laws of Illinois Territory 1809-1818," to see if such a petition existed. Her letter was turned over to John Daly, director of the Illinois State Archives. He sent a copy of the petition, saying it originated from the records series, Legislative Records, from the record group, Records of the Illinois Territory.

Apparently the group sought to name the county "Jackson." Anyway, here's a transcript with the original spelling:

Petition from the Inhabitants of Gallatin Co. about Nov. 1815. This petition resulted in Council Bill #1 which became an act in Laws 1815-1816, p. 5. This was the organic act for White Co. and not the present-day Jackson Co.

To the Honorable house of representatives and Legislative Council of the Illinois Territory at Kaskasia assembled. We the inhabitants of Gallatin Co. beg leave to present to your honorable body a petition, praying that owing to the extensiveness of our county and the great advantages derived from Shawney Town being and remaining a seat of Justice for Gallatin Co. Therefore we beg leave to represent to give the inconvenience of those at the furthest part of the county aforesaid to the seat of Justice - We pray that Shawney Town may remain and be the seat of Justice for Gallatin Co. and that a new County may be granted and one made.
Beginning at the mouth of the little Waubash on the big Waubash running Due West until the Farthermost north West boundary of Galliton Co. From thence to the farthermost south West boundary of Edwards Co. Thence with Edwards Co. Line to the mouth of Bumpau and so down Big Waubash to Beginning, and the County of such boundary be named and called by the name of Jackson Co. And that the seat of Justice for said county be Sinterable as the population of the county will admit of, and that it be on the little Waubash, therefore we beg your honourable body that it be established at Elizabeth Councils, it being the best situation on the river convenient to the Center of the County which it is immediately on Section 19 and Centerable on a North and South line, Situated on the east side of the river on a beautiful second Bank which affords several springs, and is artended with no inconvenience by high water and has every appearance of a good healthy situation, the proprietor of said land making a donation right of a square land for public buildings, etc. In duty bound we shall ever pray."

These were the signers as the state determined from the signatures: Walter Garner, James Hanna, Benjamin Mobley, Lewis Alen, John Hanna, Edward Mobley, Griffin S. Tyler, John Connelly, Daniel Lynch?, Aron Williams, G. Greathouse, Cornelius Laffarty, John Lucas, Archibald Roberts, John Ormsby, John Ormsby Junr., Jacob Secton, James Drake, Balaam May, James Faris, Jesse Cannon, Benjamin Cornelas, Robert McClelland, Wm. Cannon, James Martin, William Rileary?, Wm. Morrell, Samuel Morrell, John Applegate, Robt. Land, William Hobes, James Staton, James Hix, John Hutchcralt, Antoney Aldrich?, James Adrich, John Camel, John Rejastis?, John Underwood, Wm. Davis, Wm. Smith, John Crane, Francis Leech, Thomas Robinson, Geo. Leech, William McGhehee, James Findley, James Dickenson, Michael Dickerson, Jesse Cannon, Ben Cannon, Isaac Morris.

Perhaps some of our readers may be able to correct the interpretation of some of the signatures. We have no word as to why the county was not named Jackson as was requested.

[In 1859 Shelton petitioned the Circuit Court in Todd Co., KY for the sale of 40 acres of land owned by William Addison, to pay William's debts with remainder to be shared among heirs named above; at that time, an affidavit was made that Thomas, Richard and Johnathan Addison were believed to be living in MO.]

1 Apr 1833, William filed for a Revolutionary War Pension. Providing affidavits are:

- 1) Benjamin Mobley Sr., age 72 (b. 1761) of Madison Co, KY, states he served with William in Capt Andrew Gray's Co. and lived in the same neighborhood as William (in SC).
- 2) Edward Mobley, age 69 (b. 1764) of Madison Co, KY, states he lived in same neighborhood as William (in SC).

In the widow's pension file for Nancy, providing affidavits are Shelton Addison, Martin Addison, A.M. Starks, Fanny Addison, William Phelps, M.F. Starks (female), Nathan F. Sherrod, Samuel Morgan, Wylie Logan, H.D. Starks and James A. Starks. Also in the widow's pension is a series of letters between the War Department and Nancy's attorney disputing the marriage date. In her filing, Nancy stated she married William in 1797 in Sumpter Co / District, SC. (the evidence points to a 1787 marriage vice 1797)

Williams's estate was entered in the July Term 1853 and the inventory and sale bill were produced. Executors were Nancy Mobley, A.M. Starks and Shelton Addison. The estate was appraised by Warren Greer and A.M. Starks.

HAZEL G. PETRIE, (some of the family spell the name Petree, others as above, which is the original and correct orthography), is a descendant of Peter Petrie, who was born in Scotland, of Scotch-Presbyterian parents.

When in his seventh year, Peter attended a school taught by a Presbyterian minister, somewhat distinguished for his rigid enforcement of the rules. For some real or fancied infringement [sic] of the rules of the school, the Scotch schoolmaster chastised Peter, who fled for refuge to his mother, who, unfortunately for Peter, was of the same stern stock as the school-master. She accordingly administered a second whipping and started him back to school. This happened near a shipping port, and Peter, failing to find refuge in his native land, took passage on a sailing vessel which landed him in Charleston, S. C. He never again heard of his tutor, mother and any of his Scotch kin. In South Carolina Peter grew to manhood, having spent part of his youth as a soldier in the Revolutionary war.

About 1783 or 1784, he married a Miss Hardwick, in Chester District, S.C.

By this marriage he had two children: Hazel and Jemima. After the death of his first wife he moved to east Tennessee, where he married a Miss Wilson. He subsequently moved to Todd County, Ky., where he died in the fall of 1841, at an age between eighty and eighty-five years. His second wife died, and a few years before his own death, Peter married an old lady by the name of Franklin, who survived him several years. Jemima Petrie married Andrew Colvin. They resided in Chester District, S. C., and reared a large family of children. Hazel Petrie was born in Chester District, S. C., July 8, 1785, where he lived until grown. August 20, 1805, he was married to Sallie Mobley. In 1807, he removed with his wife and one child to Tennessee, and in 1809, he came with his wife and two children to what was then Christian County--now Todd. He lived one year near the present site of Taylor Chapel, and the next (1810), he purchased from John Gray a tract of land three miles southwest of where the town of Elkton was subsequently located. Here he lived continuously until his death, January 29, 1869. By his first wife, Hazel Petrie had borne to him twelve children: John, William, Peter Cartwright, Edward M., Mary S., Eliza J., Lucy A., Hazel G., Garland A., Richard T., Sarah A., and Henry L., all of whom lived to be grown. March 25, 1830, he was married to Paulina Kennedy. Of this marriage there were four children: James C., John Summerfield, Newton C., and Harriet N., all of whom lived to maturity. Of his sixteen children only four preceded him to the grave.

He left fifty-four grandchildren, and forty great-grandchildren. He was widely known in the county; for many years was a member of the County Court, and once represented Todd County in the General Assembly of the State. H. G. Petrie was born in Todd County, July 5, 1820. He spent his early years on the farm, in the meantime gaining such education as the school at Elkton afforded. Later he borrowed law books and studied them at home after the work of the day. In 1844 he entered the office of Hon. F. M. Bristow, at Elkton. In 1847 he became a partner of his preceptor, a relation which continued until the death of Mr. Bristow in 1864. May 16, 1854, Mr. Petrie married Miss Mary M. Bristow, daughter of Francis and Emily E. Bristow. His children by this marriage are: Emma, now wife of John F. Bell; Frank (deceased 1861); Mattie, now wife of T. B. Morton, of Louisville, Ky., Sally and Benjamin B. Petrie Petree Hardwick Wilson Franklin Colvin Mobley Gray Kennedy Bristow Bell Morton

History of Todd County, Kentucky, ed. J. H. Battle, 1884, F. A. Battey Publishing Co., 1884, pp. 280-81. [Fairview Precinct]

JOHN W. PETREE, a leading and enterprising citizen and farmer, was born November 27, 1830, about four miles east of Fairview, and is the third of five children--three boys and two girls--three now living, born to John and Sythie (Mobley) Petree, natives respectively of South Carolina and Johnson County, Ga.; the father of Scotch-Irish descent and the mother, on her father's side, of Irish origin. Subject's father was born in May, 1806; emigrated to Todd County, Ky., in an early day and settled near Elkton, where he lived till [sic] about 1871, when he moved to Kansas, where he still lives. Subject's grandfather, Hazel Petrie, died about 1870. Our subject attended the common schools and received a fair education. He was reared on a farm and lived with his parents till [sic] the age of twenty-two, when he went to the Iron Works of T. G. Welch & Co., on the Cumberland River, where he was engaged as general manager, contracting for wood and furnishing coal, etc. There he remained two years. In December, 1854, he returned to Fairview, Christian County, where he engaged in blacksmithing and wool-carding, in which business he was engaged, with good success, till [sic] 1863, when he sold his business to T. H. Harned, and engaged in farming 260 acres of land on A. J. Brown's farm. He has speculated considerably in cattle, and at farming has met with good success. He now owns 450 acres, one-fourth mile east of Fairview; his farm is embellished with one of the finest brick residences in the county. Starting with about $30 in money, he has by good management and industry established one of the best homes in the county of Todd. On February 19, 1856, he married Miss Mary Ann Harned, a native of Christian County, and daughter of John and Mary (Carroll) Harned, natives of Virginia and Christian County, Ky., respectively, both of Irish descent. This union was blessed with ten children, all living: William S., Mary E. (now the wife of J. C. Terry), Joseph E., Charles B., Thomas L., Abilene, John W., Hazel, Paul and Harry. Mr. Petree takes special interest in giving his children a good education. He and wife are both members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was formerly a member of I.O.O.F.; as also a member of the Grange. Possessing a strong constitution and an iron will, Mr. Petree bids fair to spend many years of usefulness in the community where he is an honored and upright citizen.

History of Todd County, Kentucky, ed. J. H. Battle, 1884, F. A. Battey Publishing
Co., 1884, pp. 278-79. [Fairview Precinct]

ELDER WILLIAM E. MOBLEY. Few among the deserving citizens of Todd County are more worthy, genial and intelligent than the gentlemen whose name appears at the head of this brief sketch. He was born in Todd County, Ky., March 2, 1824, and has always retained his residence here.

His father, Claburn Mobley, was born near Columbia, S. C., in 1787; removed to middle Tennessee in childhood, thence to Todd County, Ky., about 1807, where he died in 1867. He was the son of William Mobley. Claburn's wife, Elizabeth (Ellison), was born in Georgia, 1795, and died in 1862. Their children are:
subject, Nancy (Harris), Reuben J., John F. and Claburn, Jr. In youth, subject was favored with good educational advantages, and is a man of general and extensive reading, especially in the department of theology. He was married in 1849 to Miss Mary E., daughter of Henry T. and Nancy (Daniel) Burrus, of Todd County. She was born in 1825. The result of this union is Mary S. (Kenner), Ella J. (Smith), Luther, Bettie H. and James B. Subject is an honored member of the Masonic fraternity. He has never taken an active part in politics, but was an unequivocal Union man during the late struggle. In 1851 he became a member of the Christian Church, and has been active and useful factor in that energetic denomination. In 1852 he commenced preaching, and has been pastor of Roaring Springs Church in Trigg County nearly twenty-six years; of Elkton Church about thirty years, and of Berea Church, in Logan County, twenty-four years. These churches have occupied three Sabbaths in each month, and the remainder of the time has been applied to missionary work, somewhat extensive in nature. Parson Mobley has received many disciples into the church, has married many people, and has once only been hindered from work by sickness.

Almarinda married Peter W. Fore (b. April 1, 1826 TN) around 1855, and they had 2 children: Mary (b. 1856) and Peter J. (b. 1857) both of whom died in infancy. Peter Fore died on July 28, 1857 and she then apparently married an F. M. Morgan on Dec. 1, 1859

The Graves Co., KY tax lists show entries for Richard Mobley in 1851 & 1852 which read: "Agent for Hazlewood heirs", which appears to refer to another daughter, who married a man named Hazlewood, and died around 1850 Why else would Richard have been named as an agent for these heirs?

If this was another daughter, it would account for 4 -- Nancy, Elizabeth T. (who married Kemble or Kimble), Almarinda, and this unknown one.

HISTORY OF VERNON COUNTY
 GEORGE H. MOBLEY

(Farmer, Stock Raiser and Bee-keeper, Post-Office, Goodrick)
 If personal popularity is an indication of present success and future prosperity, then Mr. Mobley has no reason to be alarmed at his situation, for one would have to go a long distance before finding a man more deserving of such esteem as is given him. He was born in Hickman County, Ky., September 5, 1845, and was the son of H. P.
 Mobley a native of Chariton County, Mo., born in 1811. His Wife was formerly Miss Mary Jackson, a Kentuckian by birth, born in 1815, and their marriage occurred in Hickman county, that state, where also their children were all born save the youngest daughter. The father gave his attention to agricultural pursuits in the Blue Grass State up to 1856 when he moved to Vernon County, and upon arriving he settled on the place now occupied by his son, George H., purchasing and entering at that time some 1,400 acres of land. The children in his family were Lucy E., Sarah F., Mary N., Amanda J., George H., Annie L., Julia S., Nancy A. and Ida J. George, the only son, was principally brought up in this county and his long residence here has contributed largely to his extensive acquaintance. October 29, 1867, he was married to Miss Susan Logan, daughter of Israel Logan and Susan, nee Belcher, the former of Montgomery and the latter of Bates county, Mo. Mrs. M. was born in this county September 23, 1848. After this event Mr. Mobley resided in Nevada for several years, serving part of the time most acceptably as deputy sherrif under L. J. Shaw, and following that he was engaged in the grocery business for 12 years, during the greater part of which period he resided on a farm north of town, now a part of the asylum tract. After disposing of the place he returned to the old homestead in Clear Creek township, where he has since been occupied in conducting a most excellent farm of 775 acres, especially adapted for the raising of stock and bees, having superior water facilities, etc. His success in life has been varied. Though all will admit that he deserves his good fortune. Mr. and Mrs. M. have six children: Petrie L., born February 10, 1869; Kilpatrick D., born April 5, 1871; Respino, born February 18, 1873; Jenoa V., born August 12, 1875; Ida A, born April 22, 1877; and Eight-One (sic) who was born during the first hour of the New Year, 1881, and so named. Though now a People's Party man, Mr. Mobley was formerly a Democrat. He belongs to Advanced Lodge No. 95, A.O.U.W. and Nevada Legion No. 41, S.K., both at Nevada, and also to the relief associations of these Orders and is also member of the K. and P. at the same place. Mr. M. was raised a Methodist, his parents all being of that faith, but he never united with that Church, having his own views regarding religious matters; some of which are entirely different from those of the Methodist and other Churches. He does not believe that water baptism of any kind was commenced by the Savior, and does not esteem one day any better than another, except so far as the laws of the land make it so, neither does he believe that Christ ever respected or commanded any one to keep the Sabbath. Though differing from the belief and practice of the Churches, he is a strong believe in Christianity, and works hard for the elevation and enlightenment of mankind. He is a strong friend of education and improvement.

HISTORY OF VERNON COUNTY

(Nevada)

Judge Mobley is a familiar factor in the interests of Nevada and Vernon County. One of her early settlers and a man who by reason of official prominence has come to be widely known, he is none the less respected and esteemed by all who are favored with his acquaintance. Like other representative citizens of this vicinity, he is a Kentuckian by birth, born in Todd County, August 8, 1814. Richard Mobley, his father, was born in Chester District, South Carolina, and by occupation was a farmer; when young he moved to Kentucky, but in after years on account of ill health he went to Texas, where he spent his latter days. His (Richard's) wife was before her marriage Miss Mary Riggs. Hazel P. was the eldest of his patents' 11 children. Brought up in Kentucky, he there became imbued with certain traits of character which have never forsaken him. In 1857 he moved to Vernon county and settled on a farm in Clear Creek township (he had been taught when young the rudiments of farming), where he devoted himself to agricultural pursuits for many years, or until his removal into Nevada in 1871. He was one of the members of the grand jury that in May, 1859, indicted John Brown and his companions for their raid into this county the previous December. For four years he held the office of justice of the peace and he was also judge of the county court for one term, a position which he filled with honor and distinction, proving himself well qualified to discharge his <sup>official</sup> duties. Since settling at Nevada Judge Mobley has carried on a grocery business and has met with substantial success in this direction. he was first married in 1836 to Miss Mary Jackson of Tennessee, who died in January, 1884. They had reared a family of nine children: Lucy Emily, deceased; Sarah E., now Mrs. Simon L. Morgan, of Clear Creek township; Mary N., widow of John Morrison; Amanda J., deceased; George W., in Clear Creek township; Ann L., deceased; Julia S., wife of John T. Lancaster, of Clear Creek township; Nancy A., deceased; and Ida J., at home. On September 10, 1881, Judge M. was again married, Mrs. Joanna Britton becoming his wife. She was born in Kentucky. The Judge is a member of the Masonic fraternity.

"F. M. Hanley, attorney, Melbourne, Ark. Prominent among the comparatively young men of Izard County, Ark., whose career thus far has been both honorable and successful, is the subject of this present sketch. He was born in Graves County, Ky., in 1845, and his parents, F. M. and Elizabeth (Mobley) Hanley, were also natives of the Blue Grass state. The parents were married about 1828, and the father was a successful agriculturist in his native state. He died in 1845, and the mother in 1854. Both were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and he was a Democrat in his views. Their children consisted of five children, three now living; James E. (resides in Kentucky, and follows farming), Mary E. (wife of Joseph G. Henry, and resides in Kentucky), and F. M. The paternal grandfather was born in Tipperary, Ireland, and came to America when quite a young man. The paternal grandmother was also a native of the Emerald Isle. The maternal grandparents were natives of Ireland, and were married there before coming to America. F. M. Hanley was left an orphan when quite young, and, at the age of nine years, he was taken to Todd County, Ky., and bound out to Johnston Carr. He was reared on a farm, attending the subscription schools of his county until his fifteenth year, after which he entered the St. Joseph College, at Bardstown, and there remained two years. When seventeen years of age he enlisted in the Confederate army, Company D, Second Kentucky Infantry Regiment, and served until the 7th of May, 1865, participating in the following battles: Fort Donelson, Hartsville, Murfreesboro, Jackson, Chickamauga and Missionary Ridge, and was in all battles from from Resaca to Jonesboro, where he was captured, on the 1st of September, 1864, but was retained only a short time. Previous to this he was captured at Fort Donelson, and was retained by the United States forces from February to September, 1862. After being exchanged the last time his command was mounted. Upon coming home he attended school at Spring Grove Academy, Todd County, Ky., and subsequently spent three years "teaching the young idea" and in studying law, under William, Turner & Williams. He was admitted to the bar, at Mayfield, Ky., in 1869, and engaged in the practice of his profession at that place. in 1873 he came to Phillips County, Ark., [p. 947] but, on account of poor health, only remained a short time there, and came to Izard County in 1874. He located in La Crosse, and there remained until the county seat was located in Melbourne, in 1875, when he moved here. He has since practiced his profession at this place, and has met with flattering success. He was married, in Kentucky, in 1866, to Mrs. Willie Dallam, nee Overley, and they are the parents of three children: Lena (wife of T. P. Powett, of Melbourne), Moss (wife of E. C. Parsons), and Gussie (at home). In his political views Mr. Hanley affiliates with the Democratic party, and he is a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge. Mrs. Hanley is a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church."

When I joined the list, we were unable to place my Grandmother, Margaret Agnes Mobley Jolly. I now have some new information. Her father is Nathaniel (Nat) Mobley who married a widow, Margaret Chandler. Chandler was her first husband's name and we believe her maiden name was Calhoun.

She and Nathaniel had two children, Finis and Margaret Agnes. This took place in Todd county KY in 1842. Maybe this new info can place my family.

Thanks

My research has been very difficult. My mother of St Louis, Mo. adopted name Ruth Lucille Tiekemeier born Feb.26,1911 Phelps County, Saint

James area, birth name Lillie Bessie Ferguson. She was put up for adoption August 1912. Her father is listed as Henry Ferguson of Phelps

County, Mother Ida Jane Mobley Ferguson. Phelps County records show them married Sept. 1911. I have been unable to find any trace of Henry

Ferguson just that he was listed as living in Craddock at the time of their marriage. I have been able to identify my mothers parents through a cousin who knew my mother. Her father was Ozias, Ida Janes brother.

In case my widow should mary (marry) then a division shall be made after the following manner. There shall be made after given to the widow and to those children to whom no division has at that time been made on amount of property equal to that which has been given to each of those who have received a part at

"Reminiscences of Days That Are Past", by Miss Lula Mobley

I do not know that I am able to relate anything of interest to the readers of the anniversary edition of the Journal, although I have witnessed a very considerable portion of what has gone on in Harris County during my lifetime.

Our family was certainly among the very first residents of the county, in fact were here as residents of either Troup or Muscogee County before Harris was created out of a portion of those first two original counties. My grandfather, Reuben R. Mobley, was one of the first settlers of the Whitesville section and was active in different community enterprises. He had moved to the new county immediately after the treaty with the Creek Indians from Jones County. James

Monroe Mobley was about three or four years of age when they arrived. My grandfather started the first cotton gin in the county, helped organize the first Methodist church in the county and was a member of the first grand jury.

My father, the late Col. J. M. Mobley, opened a law office in Hamilton after being admitted to the bar and continued the practice until his death in 1903. He served in the legislature before the Civil War and during the war was a member of Governor Brown's staff with the rank of colonel. He saw active service in the field when the Yankees invaded the states.

My earliest recollection was the day the soldiers burned Hamilton and came to our home, which was on the road at the south edge of town, and asked for a dipper so they could drink at the well. My mother had the doors locked and the windows down and was afraid to open. The officer called through the window saying if she would send the dipper by the little girl no one in the household would be hurt. I took them the dipper and the man was kind to me, so I was not afraid. After the soldier left town, my father headed the citizens who put out the fire which had been set in the courthouse, going on the roof to put out the flames.

I attended the Hamilton Female College until I was about fifteen years old, then going to Wesleyan at Macon for two years and graduating with an A. B. degree. I took special work in art and dramatics and always enjoyed the entertainments in which I participated.

When our old house at the south edge of town burned while I was still a small child, my father bought the house in which I am still living from the estate of General Beall and it has been the family home ever since. The small farm building opposite the Journal office was built for my father's law office and there was another frame building just south of our home which was used as a school house. Our family have always been Methodists and among my earliest recollections was going to the Sunday School at the old church on the hill north of the depot. Then when the congregation decided on another building nearer town, we were all pleased with the new church, erected where the present brick church now stands. We were all desolate when the church burned in 1926, but did not feel as badly as we did when the bank in which the insurance money, with which we planned to build a new church, closed its doors and left us without funds. But we soon learned that the Lord will provide and in course of time we were again worshipping in a new church building of which we are all proud. Another thing of which I have always been proud is that the Methodists and Baptists of Hamilton have always worked together in Christian unity. That's the way God's children should work, That is the reason I am delighted that the north and south branches of the Methodist church have finally decided to unite.

MRS. JOHN BEVERLEY MOBLEY CELEBRATES CENTENNIAL YEAR IN HARRIS COUNTY, GA. (From History of Harris County, Ga.)

"Since 1881, when Loaine Harper Ivey of Perote, Alabama, adopted Harris County through her marriage to J.B. Mobley, she had been keeping one step ahead of most of the liveliest citizens of Hamilton. At age 100 (born February 2, 1860), she is the marvel of many of the young residents.

"Mrs. Mobley lives in her own home. Often she works among a hundred or so roses, camellias, an dahlias with a hoe made to her specifications. She has been a recognized artist. Up before the sun, she sweeps her own porch early in the morning. She reads Jesus. She corresponds regularly with Clyde Clark, ex-ambassador to Spain. She shares part of each day with retired sons of John Ivey, Lewfay Beverly, and James Albert Mobley; that is, with the exception of one week of each of each month that she spends with her daughter, Mrs. C.F. McLaughlin, of Columbus.

Mrs. Mobley's memory is phenomenal. One of the most picturesque descriptions from her store of recollections is the carriage that her Ivey family owned and drove from Magnolia Cottage Plantation in Perote, Ala., to Harris County. It was 'trimmed with sterling silver and quadruple silver buckles on the harness and driven by a uniformed footman and driver. The carriage, made inside with heavy tan brocade, is said to have cost its owner $4,600'."

"All who know Mrs. Mobley are looking forward to the time she will 'get to be 101', for then she will start all over."

Note: Mrs. Mobley was 101 years old February 2, 1961.

"Following is a letter she received from President Eisenhower on the occasion of her 100th birthday:

'My Dear Mrs. Mobley,

Please accept my sincere congratulations upon your birthday. May good health be yours through many more happy years. (Signed) Dwight D. Eisenhower".

Note: The relationship between Mrs. Mobley and the President's physician, Howard M. Snyder, is as follows: The general's son, Brig. Gen. Howard Snyder Jr. is married to Mrs. Mobley's granddaughter, Loaine McLaughlin. They and their two sons, Howard II and Thomas Stephens Snyder are intimate friends of the President and are frequent White House guests."

I just found in the History of Harris County, William L. A. Mobley born 12/29/1848 and after it, it has Reuben Robert born on 2/27/1851. This is from the Bible of John W. Gamble. John W. Gamble married Mary Matilda Mobley Nov. 8, 1877. She was the daughter of James. M. Mobley-the brother of Washington P.

I talked to a former Mayor of Harris County last week. He says our Chipley Mobleys are no kin to his Mobleys, but He was kin to Toombs and Henry Mobley of Hamilton. I think he is incorrect. I believe these are the same. Course the curse of Henry shamed most of the family.

Carl, I have come to believe that Daniel D. Mobley who married his first cousin Sarah Mobley (daughter of Levi T.) is the son of Edward Mobley [1443] (Levi's brother) and Amy Hill. I have no proof, but through process of elimination this seems to be the case. Daniel and Sarah's son Elbert Hill Jackson Mobley is my husband's GG grandfather and their daughter Mary Stuart Mobley Meriwether is Walt's Great Grandmother. The Hill in Elbert's middle name gave me the clue plus the fact that none of Levi's other brothers fit. Carole Imes

The following is an excerpt from the diary of Mary Stuart Mobley dated July 22, 1927: "My father fought in the Seminole Indian War and was granted a tract of land in Kansas. He deeded it to my oldest brother, Frank Wardroper Mobley, but it was never claimed by him so his son, Elbert Mobley who now lives in Louisiana (near Ponchatoula) received it. My father and my two brothers, Frank W. and John William, fought in the Civil War between the northern and southern States. Frank W. Mobley fired the last shot at Port Hudson which sunk Dewey's ship. He was sergeant and as the gunner was killed near him, he fired the gun. His neighbor and friend, John Stanford of Wilcox County, Ala. saw and related this to me. Frank W. was wounded at the battle of Franklin, Tenn. and was prisoner 'till the war was over. John W. was killed near Dalton, Ga. and was 17 years old at the time. My father belonged to the "Home Guards" and was made prisoner after Lee surrendered. Frank W. belonged to the Wilcox Blues Company of 1st Alabama Regiment. I lived in Alabama during and after the Civil War. We suffered no privation; there was food in plenty from the plantation near Oak Hill. But my mother saw the boys leaving, once more come back, wounded and lamed for life. The men who make the wars should be the first to go into battle."

Listed as James B. on census: Per Carole Imes: Have not been able to locate James after the 1870 census. It was once thought he married Rebecca Nancy Ann Mayer and moved to Prentiss, Mississippi and then Arkansas, however on the Mississippi and Arkansas censuses it shows James H. or Jas. H. and indicated he born in Alabama and his mother born in South Carolina. James' father was born in Georgia and his mother in Alabama with no previous connections at all to S.C.

DEATH BY HIS OWN HAND COMES TO ROBERT E. MOBLEY, A WELL-KNOWN RAILROAD MAN.

He Drank Three Ounces of Nitric Acid, His Act Being Due to Despondency Over Continued Ill Health.

Mr. Robert E. Mobley, for many years a passenger conductor on the New Orleans and Mobile division of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, died last night about 9 o'clock from taking three ounces of pure nitric acid.

Mr. Mobley went to the drug store of Mr. E. W. Johnstone, at the intersection of Conception and Jackson streets, and asked him for some nitric acid. Mr. Johnstone wrapped up 25 cents' worth, three ounces. Mr Johnstone casually asked Mobley what he was going to do with the acid, and Mr. Mobley replied that he was going to wash some glasses with with it. Mr. Johnstone, having known Mr. Mobley for many years, did not question him further, but wrapped up the bottle and handed it to him.

As Mobley walked out of the store, he turned and said to the druggist: "Doctor, this would kill a man, wouldn't it?" Mr. Johnstone replied: "Yes, it would kill a man in fifteen minutes." Mr. Mobley then went to his home, No 255 South Lawrence street. This was according to the police's story, between 1 and 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Mobley had been in failing health for about two years or more. The reason for committing the act is thought to have been on account of worry over his health. After severing connection with the railroad some weeks ago, he engaged in the retail grocery business and only remained two weeks, as his physician advised him to find something to do where he could be in the open air.

After getting the nitric acid Mr. Mobley went to his home and went into his room. The smell of acid attracted the attention of his wife, who seeing his condition, at once telephoned for Drs. W. R. Jackson and H. T. Inge, the latter surgeon for the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company. They were soon at the house and saw that, while their patient was unconscious, his condition was critical, he being severely burned internally. They did all possible for him, but death relieved him at the hour stated. Mr. Mobley was able to tell the physicians that he took three ounces of the acid, but he was unable to swallow and was suffering terrible agony. He gave no cause of the act.

"Bob" Mobley, as he was known by his friends, came to Mobile fifteen years ago from Suggsville. He leaves a father, J. B. Mobley, and two brothers, William and Percy Mobley, at Jackson, Ala, who were informed of their relative's condition. He leaves here a wife and three daughters.

He was well known from Montgomery to New Orleans on the Louisville & Nashville road and throughout a large portion of the South. He was a member of Howard Lodge, No. 69, F. & A. M. Scottish Rite Masons, Division No. 310, Order of Railway Conductors, and Percival Lodge, No 102, Knights of Pythias. The interment will take place Friday at an hour to be announced later.

From the Mobile Register, Jan. 21, 1909.

MOBLEY, Died, January 20, 1909 at 8:35 p.m. ROBERT E. MOBLEY, aged 44 years.

The friends of the family are requested to attend his funeral from the family residence, 266 South Lawrence street, THIS (Friday) MORNING at 10:30 o'clock and from Government street Presbyterian Church at 11:00 o'clock. Interment in Pine Crest Cemetery.

TROUP COUNTY

Eleazer Mobley, one of the prominent farmers of Troup county, is a grandson of Jethro and Sarah Mobley. The former was a native of South Carolina and a man of somewhat adventuresome nature; he served in the war of 1812, at an early day he came to Georgia, but after a short time moved to Alabama, where he remained until 1847, when he returned to Georgia. His son, Eldridge H., was born in Georgia in 1809 and served in the Indian war of 1836. He was a teacher in the common schools in those early days and was especially noted as a penman, being regarded as one of the best in this section of the county. His wife was Miss Eliza Finney, and their son Eleazer was born in Chambers county, Ala., in 1845, and reared upon the farm, attending school in the comfotless old log schoolhouse of the period. Though scarcely out of boyhood he enlisted in 1861, joining the Newnan guards, First Georgia regiment, under Capt. James M. Harvey. Among the hard battles in which he was engaged was Carrick Ford, Laurel Hill, Greenbrier river, Perryville, Ky., Richmond, Ky., and numerous skirmishes. He served throughout the war, being captured at Fort Steadman in 1864, and held a prisoner until the surrender. He was present at the battle of Monocacy Junction, Md., at the time when Gen. Evans was shot from his horse, being within ten feet of the general at that moment. It was in this battle that young Mobley was made captain of his company and served until his capture. He had served as corporal for a long time previous. During his imprisonment the Yankees made him captain of a company. After his return to his Georgia home at the close of the war Mr. Mobley began life by cutting cord-wood and railroad ties, and has been able by his own industry and care to accumulate quite a property and stands high in the estimation of the community. For two years he served as a mayor of Hogansville, but though often solicited to run for other official positions would never consent. He has always been a democrat. He is a prominent member of the order of Masons, having been for many years worshipful master. Mr. Mobley in 1872 married Miss Aldora Moreland, daughter of Benjamin T. and Mary (Buttrill) Moreland, born in Heard county, Ga., in May 1852. Both Mr. Mobley and his wife are members of the M.E. church. Their union has been blessed with ten children, nine of whom are living: William P., Benjamin E., Judson Gordon, Roy M., Eleazer C., Robert T., Reda S., Minnie M., and an infant.

"Col. E. C. Mobley - We were glad to meet last Saturday our old friend and former townsman, Col. E. C. Mobley, now of Coleman, Texas. At the breaking out of the war, Col. Mobley was practicing law in Greenville. He left for Virginia with the Echols Guards [Company D, 8th Georgia Volunteer Infantry] May the 18th, 1861. During the war he was captured and spent a long time in northern prisons. After the war he retired to Fairborn and practiced law there until 1877 when he moved to Texas. He is now teaching school and practicing law at Coleman, in western Texas. I believe that Jemima is most likely the daughter of William B and Drucilla Meadors Mobley however I have no proof. William died between 1832 & 1840 in Henry Co GA. He left no will. Drucilla died after 1860.

Below is what I have. Let me know if you find a connection to William B.

Modified Register for Jemma MOBLEY

First Generation

1. Jemma MOBLEY was born about 1800 in ,,,SC. She died about 1857 in Henry Co,GA.

Living in HH of her husband 1850 Henry Co GA at age 50.

Also mentioned as "G" in DUNSON FAMILY OF THE SOUTH.

FIRST FAMILIES OF HENRY CO GA, p 651. Gives her name as Jemma Mobley dau of Burwell and gives her marriage date. Jemma IS NOT the dau of Burwell who appears in the 1830 Henry Co Census although she COULD be his sister. Is there another Burwell who is her father or was this just a mistake?? I would think that she is most likely the dau of William B & Drucilla but need more references.

Jemma married John DUNSON son of Charles DUNSTON and Elizabeth on 4 Sep 1828 in Henry Co,GA. John was born about 1798 in NC. He died after 1860. He is mentioned in DUNSON FAMILY IN SOUTH. Marriage records of Henry Co GA.

A.F Mobley was in Co "D" 14th Battalion Ga Light Artillery (Cap't King's Battalion).

This is all the documented information I have to my Mobley lineage. The family oral history tells that Frank's father (Wiley Shelby? fought in the Civil War in GA and that his mother (Mary Ann nee Bell?) was native American (Cherokee).

A little about me:

education: BA in Sociology with some masters work in Education.

occupation: early retirement due to disability

interests: learning the Cherokee language, genealogy, arts and crafts

Samuel owned land on Little River, Craven (Camden) District, SC as early as 14
June 1775. On that date, William Sanders sold to John Winn, 500 acres on Little River & Lick Creek, adjacent to Thomas Parrott, Edward Mannon, Robert Neel, Richard Spencer and Samuel Mobley. On 2 Nov 1773, John Winn sold to Thomas Parrott, 300 acres on Little River. It notes bounds of another tract laid out to John Young & Thomas Parrott, Thomas Nelson, William Powell, Patrick Smith, and to an unknown individual. A witness to this deed was Thomas Addison.
Estate records are contained in package 23, folio 331. Will dated 21 Dec 1802 and probated 24 Jan 1803. Names wife Mary & son Samuel as executors.

Of particular interest in the estate records is a small report on a piece of paper
that states:

Edward Mobley Estate

Appraisement made November 10th 1782 amount 574.12.6 (British pounds).

Sale 20th November 1782 amount 702.9

viz to William Mobley 154.1

Edward Mobley Junior 191.10

Susannah Mobley 111.10

Henry Rogers 325.8

(totalled) 782.9

due to the estate 1106.0

(totalled) 1888.9.0

Debts & Expenses 94.3.9

Remains 1794.5.3

There is no other indication of why this item is in the estate package, but presumably it records a legacy that is due to Samuel as an heir to his father Edward Mobley SR's estate. Why that estate is not settled by this time (1803) may indicate that Susannah Mobley is still alive. It is not thought that she is, nor is it thought that any of the heirs are still under age 21 at this late a date. A notation on the estate lists the "Deaths & Losses" to the estate, namely 2 slaves & some livestock. It notes that Mary Mobley as executor, paid unto Thomas Colvin, David Shannon, Moses McKewn and John Robinson one share each of the estate. John Mobley received a share "for John Feaster", Moses McKean(?) / McKowse(?) and John Robinson received a share each, John Mobley a share, Darcy Price late Darcy Mobley a share. The payments were in two groups -- the first on 7 Sept 1816 and the second on 19 June 1817.

This indicates that daughters married John Feaster, Moses McKowse / McKean(?), and John Robinson as well as Darcus "Darcy" married to an unnamed Price. It is not clear if dau Elizabeth Mobley Mansell might not be married as a second marriage to one of the 5 men named as receiving shares, but the fact also is that Biggers Mobley was not named in this document and the will did make the provision that it was up to the widow to divide out the estate. The legacy to Elizabeth Mansell was a slave that was to then pass to her daughter Sukey after her death, and since this slave is not listed in the property division, it is also possible that she did not receive anything in these divisions. This is the only report that comes close to a final settlement.

Samuel Mobley Sr could not write at the time he made his will (made his mark). Son Samuel Mobley Jr's signature on one of the original documents filed in the court is very ornate & stylish. Those of Henry J. Coleman (on an accounting receipt), Thomas & David Shannon (on an appraisor's appointment), George Halsell (on the same appointment), are rather sloppy & appear to have been slowly written, which is typical of the other signatures on many other contemporary documents.

Wife Mary Mobley's estate record is package 26, file 373. Capt. Henry J. Coleman, Samuel Mobley and Wiley Coleman entered administrator's bond with Coleman as the administrator. Samuel Mobley, John Mobley & Samuel Banks acted as appraisors. As part of the executor's instructions, the court made the direction to settle "especially of your settlement with Thomas Colvin his account pretended to be due him by said estate". The accounting notes that Moses McKeown, David Shannon, Thomas Colvin and John Robinson had actions on the settlement along with the administrators of George Wagoner deceased "given(?) by Mary Mobley".

Deed, 17 July 1808, Edward Moberly Sr of Fairfield District to John Robinson of Chester District, 200 acres on Rower's Mill Branch of Little River, 100 acres of which was originally granted to William Hill Sr on 19 Oct 1763, the other 100 acres granted to William Hill JR on 25 June 1771, bounded by John Halsey, the 100 acre William Hill Sr grant, and other sides by vacant land. Both tracts were sold to Samuel Mobley on 10 May 1792, and by Samuel Mobley to Edward Mobley Sr on 10 Jan 1795. Witnessed by Alexander Robinson and Susannah Robinson.

Most likely his deed, 17 July 1808, Edward Moberly Sr of Fairfield District to John Robinson of Chester District, 200 acres on Rower's Mill Branch of Little River, 100 acres of which was originally granted to William Hill SR on 19 Oct 1763, the other 100 acres granted to William Hill Jr on 25 June 1771, bounded by John Halsey, the 100 acre William Hill SR grant, and other sides by vacant land. Both tracts were sold to Samuel Mobley on 10 May 1792, and by Samuel Mobley to Edward Mobley Sr on 10 Jan 1795. Witnessed by Alexander Robinson and Susannah Robinson.

Chester, Oct. 24- DEATH OF COL. MOBLEY

COL. SAMUEL W. MOBLEY, one of the oldest and best citizens of the county died last Tuesday. Prior to the war he was engaged in the merchantile business here with MR. W.H. HARDIN as a partner, but since the war he has been engaged in farming. COL. MOBLEY was a fine business man and leaves a large estate. He was married twice, first to a MISS BOYD, and then to a sister of MAJ. J.W. WILKS, who still survives him.

Several years ago his eyesight began to fail from cataract and he became totally blind. DR. CHISOLM of Baltimore, performed an operation successfully about a year ago, notwithstanding COL. MOBLEY'S great age.

Last week he had a chill and failed to rally from it. Last Saturday he sent for an undertaker and gave explicit directions concerning his burial.

COL. MOBLEY was a member of the Baptist church and was a consistent Christian.- 'Chester Bulletin'.

Georgia Supreme Court decisions

(missing) ley, deceased, the children of Edward B. Mobley, the children of George Mobley, deceased, the children of Edward D. Mobley, the children of Samuel W. Mobley. the children of William D. Mobley, the children of Minnie Dixon, daughter of David Mobley, deceased, the children of Amelia Dixon, deceased, the children of Mary Dixon, (wife of Tillman Dixon) the children of Catharine Mockbee, Susan Cunningham, Lilly Douglas, the children of Minnie Durham, the children of Eliza Kittridge, deceased, the children of Cicely Ward, deceased, the children of Mary Robinson Mobley, deceased, and the children of Edward H. Talliaferro, each one of the children of my nephews and nieces above named, who have children or who being deceased left children to take au equal share with my nieces, Susan Cunningham and Lilly Douglas, who have no children, and with each other." Susan Cunningham and Lilly Douglas are nieces of the testator, Fred Mobley is the only son of a predeceased niece, 13 of the classes designated "children" are children of nephews and nieces, and the remaining class "the children of Minnie Dixon, daughter of David Mobley, deceased," are children of a grandniece.

Judge Memmlinger construed the will as giving one share each to Fred

Mobley, Susan Cunningham, and Lilly Douglas, one share to the children of the grandniece, Minnie Dixon, as a class, and one share to each of the children of the nephews and nieces. We approve this construction. The will expressly forbids a construction which would give to Fred Mobley one-seventeenth of the estate, because he is the child of a niece, and the will declares: "Each one of the children of my nephews and nieces to take an equal share with my nieces, Susan Cunningham and Lilly Douglass with each other." There are many more than 17 children of nephews and nieces; hence the share of Fred Mobley must be precisely the same as that of Susan Cunningham and Lilly Douglass and each of the children of nephews and nieces.

The real difficulty arises in determining whether the testator intended to give to each of the children of Minnie Dixon, a grandniece, a share equal to that given to the nieces, Susan Cunningham and Lilly Douglass. We know that he meant to give each grandnephew and grandniece the same share as each of the nieces, Susan and Lilly, because he expressly said so ; but there is nothing to show that he intended to give each great-grandnephew, and each great-grandniece a share equal to each of the nieces. As correctly held by the circuit court, the same rule of construction which, except under compelling circumstances, will not allow "children" to mean "grandchildren," will not permit children of a nephew or niece to mean children of a grandnephew or grandniece. Izard v. Executors, 2 Desaus. 312; Matthis v. Hammond, 8 Eich. Eg. 402; 2 Jarman on Wills, 697, 698 ; Gray v. Woodward, 117 N. Y. 522, 23 N. E. 120, 7 L. R. A. 307; Willard v. Dürrah, 168 Mo. 660, 68 S. W. 1023, 90 Am. St. Rep. 408; Downing v. Nicholson, 115 Iowa, 403, 88 N. W. 1004, 91 Am. St. Rep. 175. It appears that testator did not make a mistake in supposing for the moment that Minnie Dixon was niece, instead of a grand-niece, because he refers to her as the daughter of David Mobley, who was a nephew. Hence we are shut in to the construction that the devise was to the children of Minnie Dixon as a class to take among them one share equal to the share going to each of the nieces and children of nephews and nieces. The Judgment of the circuit court is affirmed. GARY, A. J. (dissenting). The plaintiffs herein seek the aid of the court in construing the will of Samuel W. Mobley, who departed this life on the 15th day of October, 1889. After making certain specific bequests, the testator thus disposes of his property by the eighth and ninth clauses of his will, which are as follows: "Eighth. All the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, I will, bequeath, and devise to my beloved wife, Martha T. Mobley, (should she survive me) for her to hold, enjoy, use and receive the benefit of the same for and during the term of her natural life. "Ninth. At the death of my said wife, or at my death if she does not survive me, I will, bequeath, and devise the property described in the eighth (8th) clause to the following designated persons, to-wit: Fred Mobley, son of Mary Mobley, deceased, the children of Edward B. Mobley, the children of George Mobley, deceased, the children of Edward D. Mobley, the children of Samuel W. Mobley, the children of William D. Mobley, the children of Minnie Dixon (daughter of David Mobley, deceased), the children of Amelia Dixon. deceased, the children of Mary Dixon, (wife of Tillman Dixon) the children of Catharine Mockbee, Susan Cunningham, Lilly Douglas, the children of Minnie Durham, the children of Eliza Kittridge, deceased, the children of Cicely Ward, deceased. the children of Mary Robinson Mobley, deceased, and the children of Edward H. Talliaferro, each one of the children, of my nephews and nieces above named who have children or who being deceased have left children to take an equal share with my nieces Susan Cunningham and

Lilly Douglas, who have no children and with each other." Fred Mobley, specifically mentioned in the ninth clause, was the only son of a predeceased niece. Susan Cunningham and Lilly Douglas were nieces who had no children. 13 of the 14 classes are the children of nephews and nieces ; and the children of Minnie Dixon a grandniece compose the remaining class. Five of her children were in esse when the testator died, and seven others were born before the death of Martha T. Mobley, the life tenant, who died on the 27th day of November, 1908. In his decree his honor, the circuit judge, thus disposes of the main question presented by the exceptions "It is quite apparent here that the serious question falling out for the decision is as to what rule of division is fixed by the will for the children of Minnie Dixon, the grandniece. The law favors the early vesting of estates, and will hold a remainder to be vested, unless clearly contingent beyond a reasonable doubt. Under the terms of this will, I am satisfied that the remainders were all vested, and consequently transmissible, and that the children living at the death of the testator of the nephews and nieces named and of the grandniece took vested remainders. See Tiudal v. Neal, 59 S. C. 11, 36 S. E. 1004; Boykin v. Boykin, 21 S. C. 529; Durant v. Nash, 30 S. C. 192, 9 S. E. 19. Were it not for the rule of division in the last paragraph of clause 9, the estate would have been divisible into 17 parts, to wit, 1 part to each of the three persons named, Fred Mobley, Susan Cunningham, and Lilly Douglas, and 1 part to the children of each of the nephews and nieces and grandniece named, 14 in all. Under the said last paragraph, however, each child of a nephew or niece is to take a share equal to the share of the named persons, Susan Cunningham and Lilly Douglas ; and, if we hold that he meant the same rule to apply to the children of the grandniece, the division would be one share to each of said three, and as many other shares as there were children of nephews and nieces and of the grandniece living at the death of testator. If, however, we hold that the rule of division for children of nephews and nieces in said paragraphs does not apply to the children of the grand- niece, the word 'grandniece' not being used thereto, the division would be one share to each of said three, one share to the children of the grandniece, as a class, and as many other shares as there were children of nephews and nieces, each of such children taking the same share as the said three; but the children of the grandniece taking only one share divisible equally among them. I am positive for deciding upon this latter construction. To hold otherwise would be to write into the said paragraph of the will words not appearing there, nor warranted by a fair construction of all of the terms of the will, to wit, 'children of my grandniece. After quoting the last portion of the ninth clause of the will, he says: "Mrs. Dixon herself comes within the description of the testator in the above statement for she is named above in the will, and she is the child of a deceased nephew, and the statement shows it was the testator's intention to give each of the children of his nephews and nieces who had children an equal share with Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Douglas, who had no children; and he made no exceptions. Now, the children of Minnie Dixon are given a share instead of herself, without any express provision as to what share or proportion they are to take, or what number there were of them; and, with the above express declaration as to the method of distribution by testator, the clear inference follows that his intention was for the children of Minnie Dixon, to take her one share alone by substitution. The decision being that Minnie Dixon's children take one share, and were not referred to in the rule of distribution for children or nephews and nieces, and it appearing that she had five children at the death of testator, and has since had during the life estate seven others, all now living, the question is: Do the five take all of the one share, to the exclusion of the afterborn children, or do the afterborn seven take an equal share with the five? My decision upon this point, under the authorities, that the remainder vested in the five children as a class at testator's death, but opened up to let in each of the afterborn children; so that the share of the children of Minnie Dixon is now divisible among the said 12. See particularly upon this point of the remainder vesting in the children living at the death of testator and opening to let in others born thereafter, and before the falling in of the particular estate, to wit, the period of distribution fixed by the will, the following cases: Wesseuger v. Hunt, 9 Rich. Eq. 459 ; Brown v. McCall, 44 S. C. 519 [22 S. E. 823] ; Gourdin v. Deas, 27 S. C. 484 [4 S. E. 64]." The circuit Judge also ruled that all the remainders were vested and transmissible; and from this ruling there was no appeal, nor did the respondents give notice- that they would ask that the decree be sustained upon additional grounds. We may say, however, that the ruling is sustained by the authorities. When the ninth clause is analyzed, it will be seen that it is divisible into two parts: (1) That which devises the property to the beneficiaries therein named: and (2) that which provides for the manner of distribution. The circuit judge correctly ruled that "were it not for the rule of division in the last paragraph of clause nine, the estate would have been divided into 17 parts, to wit: 1 part to each of the 3 persons named, Fred Mobley, Susan Cunningham, and Lilly Douglas, and 1 part to the children of each of the nephews and nieces and the grand- niece named, 14 in all." But we do not take the same view as the circuit judge when he says: "If, however, we hold that the rule of division for children of nephews and nieces in said paragraph does not apply to the children of the grandniece, the word 'grandniece' not being used therein, the division would be one share to each of said three, one share to the children of the grandniece as a class, and as many other shares as there were children. Article from CONFEDERATE VETERAN mag., dated 1899, page 302.

MRS. MARY ISAIAH MOBLEY was born Nov. 20, 1820, near Winnsboro, S.C. Of pious parents, she early testified to her own piety by choosing these words to embroider on her sampler: "Children in years and knowledge young, Your parent's hope, your parent's joy, Attend the counsel of my tongue, Let pious thoughts your mind employ." This counsel she followed herself and elevated those around her by her example.

In early life she was married to her cousin, Dr. ISAIAH MOBLEY, a highly accomplished gentleman who graduated at Chapel Hill, N.C. at the SC College and at the Medical College at Charleston. He died in 1859, leaving his wife the mistress of several extensive plantations and many slaves.

Accustomed to wealth, she ruled wisely and mercifully, endearing herself to her many slaves. She was a beautiful and richly endowed by culture. Such a woman as Mrs. MOBLEY was were as naturally a product of the South as are the flowers that spring from her soil. She gave her only son to the cause of the South. He was but 16 years old and served under Capt. O. Barber until his death. After his death the mother, still with undaunted courage, faced the darkening future. She did much noble work among the sick, wounded and dying soldiers who came her way, and letters came to the day of her death from those whom she had befriended; and from the same sources letters came to the bereaved family after her death, which occurred in May, 1892 at the age of 72 years.

"The Oaks", her beautiful home, was burned Nov. 27, 1891.

W. W. Dixon

CHESTER COUNTY
SAMUEL D. MOBLEY
74 YEARS OLD

Samuel D. Mobley is a retired business man. He lives with his sister-in-law and his nephew, John D. Mobley, in the town of Blackstock, South Carolina. He has been a close observer of the panorama of life unfolded to his vision in the last half century and is a reasoner and philosopher of no mean ability.

"I am of English descent. My father was Edward D. Mobley; my mother, Roxana Dixon Mobley. There was a large family of children, five girls and eight boys. I was the second son.

"I began school in 1870, in a log house about three miles from home. At that time, I was living about six miles east of Blackstock, South Carolina. I commenced on my sixth birthday, March 22nd, 1870, to Miss Janie Mills. It is needless to say that the beginner's book was Noah Webster's blue-backed speller. It was a very small pay school, supported by a few families in the neighborhood. The pupils could not arrange any large games and had to be content with mumbly peg, knucks, and Holey Rolly. We all loved our teacher, and I don't remember of her ever having to use the birch on any pupil. She was a good disciplinarian and had the gift of imparting lessons to children.

"My next teacher was Mr. John Bingham. Professor Banks Thompson of Blackstock, South Carolina, came next. The last school I went to was at Fort Mill, South Carolina. It was in charge of Professors A. R. Banks and L. W. Deck. Both were able educators, and I got all the general principles of a business education from them.

"I began clerking in the firm of L. S. Douglas & Company, a general merchandise country business, in the fall of 1886. On the retirement of the senior member of the firm, Doctor L. S. Douglas, I became a member of the firm of George L. Kennedy and Company. Mr. Kennedy was my brother-in-law, having married my sister, Lyda.

"We made money rapidly under the operation of the lien law, a statutory enactment of the Legislature of South Carolina. The main provisions were, a tenant of a farm, or person engaged in farming, who had little money and no credit could go to a merchant and mortgage his growing crop to him for as much as he estimated he would need for food, clothing, and plantation supplies to cultivate and produce the crop. The phraseology was about as follows. 'I hereby mortgage all cotton, corn, oats, peas, and provender growing or to be grown on a certain plantation, the property of - John Jones, in the county of Fairfield or Chester, as the case might be - and I do hereby further mortgage to secure said debt one black mule, named Ben, one spotted cow, named Bloss, six shoats and all household goods, over all which described property I do herein represent there is no prior existing lien or incumbrance whatsoever and which property above described I possess an absolute title to.'

"Articles in our store had a cash and a lien price. The lien price was 20 percent higher than the cash price.

"We bought and sold cotton as a firm, and this was a source of profit. My partner handled the cotton. He classified, graded, and set a price on it. I handled the checking and pay end of the line, taking out the store account on payment for the cotton.

"I married Louise Allen of Spartanburg, South Carolina, in 1890. She died in 1901, without having given birth to any children.

"I established the Bank of Blackstock in 1916, but went into liquidation and wound up its affairs on my retirement from business in 1933. No one lost a penny by the operation of the bank.

"When the Mobleys came over from Sheffield, England, to America, they came in the Dove, an immigrant ship of Lord Baltimore. They were Catholics. Shortly after they arrived, they joined the Episcopal Church. After coming to South Carolina and settling in the Up Country, where there were none of that profession of faith, they built a meeting house in which all denominations might worship. This was called the Mobley Meeting House."

Dearest Tressie,

Now it can be told - Well, Here I sit as an aid man in G. Co. in a little town six miles from Seesen Germany. I think the old man sent me out just for spite but its the best deal I've had in a long time.....

Perhaps you would like to hear of my past - ha - Well, I was at Camp Shanks N.Y. after Reynolds. Then on March 21st, '44 I left New York aboard the Queen Mary. The first day of spring you see but the snow was plenty deep. Well, we left at about 4 p.m. that evening and as they wouldn't allow you on deck my only glimpse of the Statue of Liberty is the one from atop the Empire State Bldg.

Arrived at Greenoch Scotland on March 27th and on the 28th took train to Oulton Park England. It was near Chester. Remember the long hill letter? On May 8th, '44 I went to Camp Chard at Chard England and stayed until June 15th or 16th. Had some air raids there. Then to a camp somewhere - the place I don't know. Then I had my best eating in the army. At noon on June 18th we started across the Channel from Weymouth aboard the S. S. Victoria. Arrived off the coast of France the next day about noon and as the channel was so rough we didn't get off the boat until June 22nd at 10 p.m. Waded ashore on Omaha beach in knee deep water and marched about 8 miles in that night. Then on about July 9th I went to the 83rd. Stayed back at one of the kitchens until the 12th when I joined the aid station and that was my first day in combat.

I don't have to tell you that plenty more came later. The 83rd had just left a little town called Saint Emmy or something like that. Then there were all of those hellish days and nights in those damn hedgerows. We fought like hell there against Germany's best but as to secrecy no one ever heard of us there.

Then came the break through - I know I'll never see again the air armada I saw that day. Then came St. Malo, Parami, and St. Briac. Then down to Rennes and Blaine, Notre Dame and Nantes. The girl I wrote you about once lived at Nantes. I've often wondered why there was no comment from you - ha - Well one day we took out across France and ended up at Montargues. Went through Sens, Traves and Verdure when I left Montargues. We were on our way to Luxembourg then and the Moselle river. Lived for a while in the city of Luxembourg. That's where I bought your gloves.

Then back to the Moselle for a while and from there to the Hurtgen forest. Those were cold nights and days and again they were more than hot. Gey Germany was a hot spot. From there we were snatched up to the bulge. I wouldn't relive those days again for anything in this world. Through part of that campaign I was really sick. I couldn't begin to go into detail about that place cause I'd be writing all night. It was plain hell.

Then the next jump was for the Rhine. Your husband came within an inch of being a prisoner of war there. You remember what I told you about an ambulance. That was the place. That shell missed me by seconds and just after that I thought I was gone as a prisoner. Well, I got by of course. We were the first to reach the Rhine. We ended up at Neuss just across the river from Dusseldorf. They blew the bridges out just as we got to them.

Next that dash to the Elbe. Didn't sleep for two days and one night. We crossed at Barby right behind the 329th. Was across before the bridge was built via ferry. Some of the boys have received pictures of our bridge from home. Did you see it in your papers? Well the most eastern point we reached was Zerbst. We didn't meet the Russians first because we were held back for them to meet us.

Well, its all over and you know I'm happy. As to the future, I'm in the dark - My score is 62 - 21 mo. in the army, 14 mo. over seas, 3 campaign stars and Teenie counts 12. We expected a star for the bulge but none is to be given. I might say in a modest way that I was put in for a bronze star medal but to date nothing has been heard of it. I made Pfc. on Dec. 16,1944. Well, this is a letter of a different type but it does let you know a little.

I'm sure I have mail at Seesen but getting there is something else. Well Darling Sweetheart, it's late now so I must get to bed. Always remember how much you are missed and how I'm longing and itching to see and get hold of you. Be my own Darling Tressie and love that doll of ours real good for me. Take care of all and write often.

Lovingly,
your Charlie

KING CHARGED WITH FIRING FATAL SHOT

Verdict of Coroner's Jury After Long Inquest

MRS. MOBLEY KILLED

Testimony Shows She Received Bullet Intended for Medlin, Columbia Barber

Chester, May 7 - Special. "That the said Mrs. Bessie Hicklin Mobley came to her death from a gunshot wound at the hands of Sam King" was the verdict of the jury of inquest this afternoon at the Chester County court house in the most sensational killing occurring in this county in many years.

Last Sunday afternoon while Mrs. Mobley was quietly preparing dinner an altercation was suddenly precipitated in her yard by Sam King, of R.hburg?, R.F.D. and Rufus Medlin a barber of Columbia, and she went into the yard to act as a peacemaker, and received the bullet in her head which was intended for Medlin, causing instant death.

Standing room was at a premium today in the court house. In fact elderly citizens stated that it was the largest crowd ever seen at an inquest in Chester county. It was an interested crowd, too, following all the testimony very closely.

Rufus Medlin was the first witness and he was followed by J.B. Hicklin, of Smiths section, who was followed by County Physician George A. Hennies, S.E. Lowrance, Mrs. C.W. Teague and Clarence D. Hicklin, of the Smiths section.

The inquest brought out the first accurate and complete information of the sensational murder. Clarence D. Hicklin told of meeting up with King at a filling station at Smiths and getting J.B. Hicklin, how they took a ride to Chester and how when they reached here King suggested that they take a ride down the Columbia highway and when David Mobley's residence was reached, King saw Medlin's automobile in the yard, with Medlin sitting in his automobile talking to Miss Sudie Mobley.

They drove into the yard and King went over to Medlin's automobile and struck him with his fist. Medlin got out of his car and met King in front of his car where they grappled with each other, and King forcked? loose and whipped out his 32 calibre Colt and aimed it at Medlin, and just at this moment Mrs. Mobley rushed out and received the fatal shot intended for Medlin. After the killing King and Clarence D. Hicklin went to the Teague home, and came on back through Chester, and King surrendered Monday afternoon. Thomas H. McDowel of York, and Angus H. Macaulay of Chester, represent King and Sulleltor J. Lyles Glenn, Jr. is assisted by Senator David Hamilton? and Hemphill and Hemphill.

There was considerable cross examination by both sideds. It was brought out that King was shooting at Medlin, both Kind and Medlin are married men. King, in addition to being held here on the charge of murder is also held on an old warrant. It is said, charging him with violation of the prohibition law.

"When my younges' mistress, name Marion Rebecca, married her second cousin, Marster Edward P. Mobley, I was give to her and went wid them to de June place. It was called dat because old Doctor June built it and sold it to Marster Ed. I nussed her first chillun: Edward, Moses Hill, John and Katie. It was a large, two story frame house, with chimneys at each gable end. Marster Edward got to be as rich as old marster; he owned de June place, de Rochelle plantation, de Peay place and de Reebuck place. Yes sir, course us had overseers for so many slaves and plantations. I 'member Mr. Oze Brown, Mr. Nesly and Mr. Tim Gladney. In course of time I was took off de nussin' and put to de field. I drapped cotton seed, hoed some, and picked cotton.

NOTE: Due to misunderstanding of Dixon's book{p. #}, Kasandra and Harriett formerly were believed to be daughters of Edw. P. M. Robinson. New data from Keith Rabb (From "Biographical sketches of Kincaid, McMorries, Watts, Glazier & Rabb families" by Rev. Horace Rabb, 1936) show that Kasandra was b. ca 1839. Review of Dixon shows that he intended to list Kasandra and Harriett as sisters of Edw. P. M., but the lack of dates in his text formerly led to the belief that they were his children.

Neosho, Mo., 1-21-1908

Dear Cousin

Yours of the 8th inst. came duly to hand and would have been answered sooner if I had not have been sick for the first time in a number of years. And when the Dr gave permission to me to come to my office I found a great deal of business had accumulated. I am truly sorry I can not give you any information that I do not think you already know for what I know I learned from my father's uncle John, he wrote a letter to my brother Theodore, you said my brother gave it to Cousin Lilly Doubllass. You spoke of him (Uncle John) as your Grand Father. He must have been your Great-Grand-Father. At one time the Scarlet Fever was raging on my mother's plantation, and my mother took her young daughters, and their governess to my eldest brother's. My brother Theodore and myself staid at her home, Uncle John came and said to us "Boys, I heard you were living here by yourselves, And as I want (indecipherable) want you to do just as you please, And I will do as I please" He staid with us about two weeks, and I do not think I ever enjoyed hearing a man talk more than I did him during that time. And as he may not have written in that letter (that my brother gave to cousin Lilly in Tex) all he said to us I will write as near as I can remember what he said. So you can destroy this whenever you please. He said: "Our original name was Moberley our forefather came from England, there is a parish in England named after the family. My grandfather's father, my great grand-father went back to England to visit the old home, when he got there he found that his brother who would inherit the land according to the English law was off travelling, and he could not get his aged father to recognize him, after being at the old home about a week he said to his father, you do not recognize me, but I remember when I was a small boy you were planting out that orchard, I provoked you some how, and you picked up one of the apple scions and switched me with it, And then the old man said "Come to my arms my son" And fully recognized him and enjoyed his company And did not want him to return to America, but he told him he had a family of his own in A - that he had to take care of. He said my grand-father went to Maryland to buy slaves to clear up the forests, And our relatives there took a notion that he was wanting to buy them to sell and gave him the cold shoulder. So when he got back he called a meeting of all the Moberley's and told them about his trip and said to them "Our relatives did not treat me as any of us would have treated one of them if he had have visited us. Our neighbors will write our names Mobley. I move we change our names and sign them Mobley, And they agreed to it. He said "I was a little lad and felt very badly about it." "My grand-father had two brothers, he was the richest man in Fairfield, one brother was the richest man in Chester, And one the richest in Edgefield" "It might seem strange that men of such wealth were not prominent in the Revolutionary war. The reason was they were of a Religious sect called Dunkards, And did not believe in shedding human blood. During the Revolution Gen Hampton (Our Wade's Grandfather) tried to force them into the army (top line missing) and let them alone. Afterwards when the British over ran S. C. they tried to force them into their army, so they went to the Americans and were of much service as couriers and scouts." The land where the Mean's family lived was part given by our Forefathers to Gen Hampton. The place my brother-in-law was reared on was named Hampton.

Capt Edward Means said the ruins of the old Fort that our Forefathers built to protect themselves from the Indians when they got on the War Path long before the Revolution was still visible.

"Burke's Heraldry Of the English Gentry" says there appeared to be two families one spelled the name Mobberley and the other Moberley, but they were chips off of the same old stock.

The Statistics of Fairfield (I expect you could get a copy in Winnsboro) says The Mobleys were the first white people that settled in Fairfield, And the Lyles' the second.

My brother-in-law Mr Schreven was laboring under a mistake when he said I had met some Moberleys in Maryland. I mentioned meeting a gentleman in Baltimore that told me that I lived at Frederic Maryland, Said I walked, talked, and acted like them, And asked me whether I knew any-thing about them. I told him only by tradition, he said they are a splendid people, but rather proud they have their servants in livery, their Court of Arms on their Carriages etc etc. Stark Means, the son of Ex Gov. Means, was terribly wounded at the 2nd battle of Manasas. The same battle his noble father was killed. He, Stark M., was taken prisoner and carried to a hospital in Baltimore, the ladies were taking care of him and others, and some Misses Moberley came in, Stark said they were as grand people as he ever saw, when they learned that he was from Fairfield S.C. they asked him whether he knew the Mobleys. He told them that they were among his most intimate friends. They told him to tell us that all their families that were able to bear arms were in Lee's army fighting for the South. They gave him a number of splendid silk dresses to carry to his wife.

Now, my cousin I expect you will say "if I had have known cousin Zeb was in his dotage I never would have written to him." but you can console yourself by knowing you have given an old man pleasure by writing to him I will be seventy years of age on the 6th of Apr.

Read the 10th Verse of the 90th Psalm.

Does it make me feel sad? No

Why does it not?

Because I believe this body will be resurrected, not an old crippled Gray-headed man but in full vigor of young manhood. That is a glorious religion. Read the 20th Chapter of Revelations I believe it very probable that all of us who love and serve Christ will meet again and live a Thousand years with Christ, in and around Fairfield S.C. Love to cousin Lilly

Your Cousin Zeb. Mobley

JAMES BIGGERS MOBLEY AND DESCENDANTS. (author not named)

James Biggers Mobley was born on the 5th day of March, 1801, and died on the 11th day of August, 1852. He was a son of Samuel Mobley by his wife Elizabeth Pickett. He was a man of great natural ability. He acquired his education at Mt. Zion College. He was a farmer and rapidly accumulated lands and slaves. He became one of the wealthiest men in Fairfield before his death. He married, first, Elizabeth Hall--no children. After her demise, he married, Elizabeth Glover, a daughter of Dr. John Glover of Fairfield.

James B. Mobley always had a tutor and governess in his family. The education of this era possessed some distinguishing features. There were no free schools. The system, while faulty, produced many accomplished men and women. The boys were found to be good classical scholars, and the girls accomplished in French, music, botany, astronomy, embroidery and painting. His daughters were well educated in the sense that they possessed nearly every accomplishment of the ante bellum times.

The first paying job John B. Mackorell received when he came to this country, from Ireland was from James B. Mobley. He overhauled and varnished the wainscoting of his rooms, all his magnificent furniture, and painted and varnished his carriages and buggies. James B. Mobley's home was called Shady Grove. The old house is still standing. Built out of superior lumber, it may last another century. The approaches to it are marked on either side by a row of cedar trees, set out in his young manhood and from which avenues, the place is now called "Cedar Shades. "

In addition to his fine residence and broad acres of land, he left a personal estate of $76,000. On his vault in Fellowship Cemetery is recorded the fact of his joining the church in 1832, and these words that fell from the lips of the Saviour: "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." When he married Elizabeth Glover she was fourteen. It has been remarked that she looked like a girl with her first children. She was but fifteen years older than Dr. Samuel F. Mobley, her eldest son. The following are the descendants of James B. Mobley: Dr. Samuel F. Mobley graduated from the South Carolina College in the class with Dr. James H. Carlisle. Their friendship was life-long. Three years after leaving college, he was graduated from the Medical College of Charleston. He was a man of very advanced ideas from the following: My mother was predisposed to consumption. In her frail condition, Dr. Mobley urged and advised an out door life as her only chance. In that day most people thought him a crank on the subject; the family doctor advised an opposite course--hot-house treatment. She rapidly succumbed, dying when the writer was five months old. The physicians said that her child had developed tuberculosis. Dr. Mobley decided that the infant should be mothered by a strong negro woman and kept in the air, night and day. His advice was taken and is now appreciated. On the death of his father, he was the active administrator of the estate, which required a bond of $100,000. This he gave. In addition, he was made guardian of his minor brothers and sisters. Under the strain, his health gave way, and then the innumerable calamities of war struck him, hard. Facing new conditions with impaired health, he succumbed to nervous as well as bodily troubles, and then came the final blow, the destruction of his beautiful home, "Cedar Valley. He moved to Texas shortly afterward, died, and is buried in Hood county. He was a gentleman, always striving for the right, always ready to do for others. His home was an open house to everybody connected with him. Wm. B. Woodward and Edward P. Mobley said he was the purest man they had ever known. They were his neighbors. They ought to have known. He married Elizabeth Rice of Barnwell. His children now follow. Marion Glover eldest child, grew to womanhood in that eventful time of war. She realized, as none of the others could, the vast difference in the old and new conditions of their family. She was, in a refined sense. a beautiful woman and the persistent brown curls of her Pickett blood, was a nice setting to her lovely face. Prof. Henning was one of her tutors, and her musical instruction was presided over by Albertine Hansen, who for years was a teacher in St. Mary's School, Raleigh. She was ever the confidante and guide to the younger children. All looked up to "Sister." What is more affecting than to read on one of the little tomb stones in Fellowship to a younger child of Dr. Mobley: "Her last words were, 'Sing to me sister.'" And as she sang, the little spirit joined the Choir Invisible. Marion Mobley md Maj. John W. Wilks, a wealthy man of Wilksburg, S.C. he was a great Baptist. The marriage ceremony was much talked about. Preacher Erwin, a Presbyterian, it was said, was not good enough for her, because he traded horses on Sunday. She liked Mr. Erwin, however, and he, it was, who officiated. She was the mother of eight children, five of whom lived to maturity. They all went to school to the writer at the York Baptist High School. She is buried at Calvary church, and is still remembered by the many poor people who found in her a friend.

" A Memorial and Biographical History of Johnson and Hill County Texas" pages 688-689, published in 1892 in Chicago, by The Lewis Publishing Company.

"S. D. MOBLEY, of Cleburn, Johnson county, was born in Fairfield County, South Carolina, the third of twelve children born to Dr. Samuel S. [F.] and Mary E.
(RICE) MOBLEY, also natives of South Carolina, and of English descent. The family settled in South Carolina long before the Revolutionary war, and the grant of land from George III. of England to this family has been seen by our subject, but was destroyed by fire when the old homestead was burned by negroes in 1878.

Dr. Samuel F. MOBLEY was a prominent physician of thirty years' practice in South Carolina, and died in Hood county, Texas, in June, 1890, at the age of seventy years; the mother died at the same place in 1883. Eight of their children reached years of maturity; Marian G., deceased, was the wife of Major WILKS, of Chester, South Carolina; James B., a stock-raiser of Lubbock county; S.D., our subject; Sallie M., wife of John C. COLEMAN; Rebecca, wife of Dolphos ROBINSON; John J., a locomotive fireman on the G., C. & S.F. railroad; Theodore; and Bettie, wife of Rev. C. T. SCAIFE, of Woodruff, South Carolina.

Our subject spent his school-days at King's Mountain Military Institute, South Carolina. He was married in Cleburn, in 1885, to Miss Mattie GEORGE, a daughter of D.C. and Mary (SCOTT) GEORGE, natives of South Carolina. Mr. MOBLEY has always taken an active part in politics and for five years was in the Collector and Assessor's office. He joined the K. of P. in 1888, and has filled the chairs of M.A., V.C., C.C. and P.C., and was a representative to the Grand Lodge of Texas in March, 1891. He is also a member of the I.O.O.F., and was Secretary one term of this lodge. Both he and his wife are members of the Baptist Church. Mr. MOBLEY is special agent of the Fidelity Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, and is also business manager for F.A. Scurlock, who owns about $75,000 worth of real estate in Johnson and Somervell counties."

Moved to McMinn Co., TN as a small child. Went to SC where he was an overseer of slaves on the plantation of Mr. Mobley. Sarah was his daughter. Served in CSA from SC. Moved to Wood Co., TX about 1873-75, lived near his brother John B. Mansell.
 POW during the war. Wife, Sarah Mobley, died during the War, probably in 1863.
 Richard Jackson returned home from the War due to her death - he was either given
 'emergency leave' or was given parole by the Yankees to do so, and married Sally Addison soon thereafter.

Sarah Margaret Addison was a cousin of Sarah Mobley.

Who's who:

writer, Charles M. Feaster, son of Harriet Elizabeth ("Hattie") Porter Coleman Feaster.

Hattie was originally from Ridgeway, Fairfield County, SC; b. 1846, she died in 1920 in Arkansas. Her son Charles McCants Feaster (the writer of the letter) was the son of her 2nd husband, Capt. David Roe/Row Feaster. (Her first husband was Henry Jonathan "Foot" Coleman.)

The letter was written to Hattie's sister (Chs.' aunt) Avaline Amanda Porter Robinson (wife of William Samuel Robinson); all of Fairfield County, SC.

According to my records, the writer was married twice: Mary Sue Lea and Mary Lou Nutt.

My dear Auntie,

You probably think that I have forgotten you, or at least that I have forgotten to write. I assure you that I have done neither, as you will see from this. I would be in sad condition could I forget those of my nearest kindred, though they be some distance from me.

You have heard from home, before now, that I am in the picture business, that is, I am taking orders for enlarging photographs. I am working for the Chicago Portrait Company of Chicago. We canvass the country, get the small pictures, and send them to the company to make into portraits.

We get 50 cents for every print, which consists of $1.98, that is for every $1.98 worth of work to be done, we get 50 cents. We have headquarters at a certain place, go out from there into the country Monday morning and get back by Saturday night, thus staying out the week. I like the business better as I become better acquainted with it. All kinds of people are to be met with, so you see, we have a pretty good opportunity to study human nature, both in its cultivated and uncultivated states. The country also is quite interesting to me. I have crossed hills, valleys, running brooks and rivers in great numbers since I have been out. The water running over the rocks and boulders looks clear as crystal - beautiful, really. I am a great lover of nature, and anything unusual calls my special attention. I have not made a fortune since I came, but I have enjoyed myself hugely. There are some disadvantages connected with this business for instance, the lack of a settled home. I am very fond of music, and I scarcely ever hear any through the country. The music at the churches is fervent and devotional, and very good of the kind.

My friend Holmes and I went to the Opera at Meridian, Miss. about two weeks ago, and heard some very fine music by the orchestra. Music runs all over me, filling my soul with higher and better thoughts.

I hear from home every week. The hearing from the "old folks at home" and the knowing that they are well keeps me from being as homesick as I would otherwise be. I received four letters from home last week. They are always full of encouragement and love. No one has a greater devotion for the home and its accompanying pleasures than I have. I only came here with the hope that I could make some money by which I might better my condition educationally.

I have three boon companions here engaged in the same business. They are full of life and enjoy it in the fullest.

I visited all my kinfolks before I left home and found them well.

Please write soon and tell me everything. Letters from my folks are always very welcome.

Your loving nephew,

Chas. M. Feaster

Please address me at Jackson, Miss., Care of H. A. Panabaker.

Here is a 1923 letter from Jennie Coleman which I received a few years ago. I added some numbers to it to track the numbering system Milton Mobley used.
 Sam Boyd 1506 Tierra Alto Leander, TX 78641

Here is a copy of a 1923 letter from Laura M. CASTLE KREGGER, b. 1868, of Albia, IA (1469292) to Mrs. Jennie I. COLEMAN, Shelton, SC (Fairfield Co.) (1466632) and her husband was Edward Wilson COLEMAN and they had son, Johnathan Albert FEASTER COLEMAN). A copy of this letter was sent to me by a DEAN relative. John DEAN, Jr.
 married in Choctaw Co., MS Lucinda BOYD, b. 1833, Fairfield Co., SC d. 1-5-1871, Montgomery Co., TX (146942). The letter was apparently passed from the COLEMAN family or CASTLE / KREGGER family back down to the DEAN family.

Albia, Iowa
 Jan. 6, 1923

Mrs. Jennie I. Coleman
 Shelton, S.C.

Dear Cousins - For you surely are my cousins, in more lives than one. Both your good letters came. I intended answering your first letter before this but our younger son, Merle, was home for holiday vacation and the days went before I realized it. He is a student at Cornell College Mt. Vernon, Iowa. You don't know how much I appreciate your writing to Columbia for records for me. Was Mr. Salley a bit peeved, or is that his usual way of doing ?

I have dates in years accurately, and some dates of month back to Samuel MOBLEY and Mary WAGNER (146). That is where I begin to figure, and as you suggest the years can be figured out almost to an accuracy by Mr. Dixon's book. I think he has compiled a wonderful genealogy and I am so proud of it and of my ancestry. You asked me how come we away up in Iowa. Many years ago when my grandfather and my grandmother (14692 John CASTLES, Jr. and Mary Wagner ROBINSON) had one child living (that was their first son, John) they left South Carolina and came to Bloomington, Indiana.

The little daughter, had died there. All the rest of their children- Samuel, Henry, James, William (my father), Lucretia, Thomas, Newton, and Nancy Elizabeth were born in Indiana. The family came on to Iowa and to this country in 1851. So you see, they were pioneers out here on the prairie. Many stories I have heard of their hardships, and how they lived in those days.

The Indians were around here, and a great company of them camped for a week on Grandfather Castles farm as they were journeying from Keokuk farther north. Some of the land, viz: The old homestead that Grandfather pre-empted from the government, has never been out of family hands. Great grand children live on it today. Children of Uncle John's daughter, Minerva(1469222) who married James BAIN. After Grandfather's death, Uncle John bought the old homestead for her, and her unmarried son and two daughters live there still since the death of their parents. Uncle John went back to South Carolina on horseback when he was 14 years old. Went from Bloomington, Indiana, alone, I've heard them say, to visit his relatives. Father (William CASTLE, 146929) was fourteen years younger than Uncle John and father was almost fifteen when they left Indiana. There must have been a caravan of people come from South Carolina to Indiana for there's still WILSONS and HEMPHILLS at Bloomington and BONNER, STRONGS, WILSONS, MOFFATS, and WESTBROOKS -- South Carolina people who came by the way Bloomington, Ind. to Paxton, Ill. and also LATHAMES, McKISSICKS. and the CASTLES, original S.C people here who came via Indiana. The CASTLES are very scarce. There's none of the name except my brother, Dr. T.R. CASTLES (Thomas Ralph CASTLE, 1469293), a practicing physician here when there used to be so many. The older generations are gone and the younger are scattered from the Mississippi to the Pacific. I have one cousin in the country here, Uncle John's (John CASTLE, 146922) oldest daughter, Mary J. Gray (1469221) who must be about 75 years of age. Her only brother lives in Lawrence, Kansas. Uncle James family are next also Uncle Henry's. Aunt Lucretia left no children. Aunt Nancy and her baby both died. Uncle Thomas died in the civil war. Uncle Newton during the war. Uncle Samuel was dead before the war, I think, so you see although there was a large family, there's not many descendants. Father and Uncle John were two devoted, and both died in March 1903. Our older boy Don Castles Kreger (14692921), was almost eight when father died, and had spent most of his young life with him on the farm. The love of family and kindred was strong in father and he often lamented that he knew so little of his relatives. After he was past middle age, he and Uncle John visited their Uncle Thomas Castles near Memphis, Tenn. That family of relatives were the only ones he had ever seen.

At the beginning of the World War, Don was just finishing Cornell College. He went to the officers training camp at Fort Snelling, Minn. and was commissioned as a second Lieutenant in 17th Field Artillery Regular Army, and sent to Camp Robinson, Wisconsin. Here he met Francis Shephard, son of the ex-governor of S.C. Their troops were some of the first to go over after Pershing's men. They were in the thickest of the war, and on the Rhine after the Armistice and came home together, all of the time in Europe or not. I mean with the same troops. They came home in the summer and were discharged at Camp Jackson. Don was ten days in Columbia. In Europe he met so many South Carolina boys, soldiers, and he knew Francis SHEPARD, and he knew Maylon CRAIG so well. Said he felt all the time he was meeting relatives, and didn't know it, so wrote me from Europe, saying, "Mother, why don't you do as Grandpa asked you so many times to do-- hunt up our relatives." I want to be a "son of the Revolution" for you know family tradition says we date back to the Revolution." So that is how I started tracing, and then Mary Jane urged me on, and I think she has been as interested as myself in my searching. Don is delighted and must say we have found the nicest cousins in the world anyone ever had. Grandmother died when I was a year old, in 1869 and grandfather two years later. When I began my search I did not know my Grandmother's given name was Mary WAGNER. If father or Aunt Lu ever had known, they neglected to tell me. Will said at first, "if you want to be a D.A.R., get a genealogist to look up your record" I told him, "No, that wasn't all I wanted." I wanted to come in touch with our people and get acquainted with them." Now he says, "where there's a will there's a way". Mrs. Cretia BOYD CROW of Yoakum, Texas (1469413), Granddaughter of Eliza ROBINSON BOYD (04694), sent me copies of old letters containing a great deal of family history aside from what she has written me herself.

My Grandmother Mary Wagner ROBINSON CASTLES (14693), was the oldest daughter and possibly the oldest child of Lucretia MOBLEY ROBINSON (1469), John A. ROBINSON (14691), who married the widow WOODWARD, may have been older. Grandmother was born in 1803. Lucretia MOBLEY (1469) and John ROBINSON were married in 18???. She died April 27, 1863 at Lebanon, Miss. aged 83 years. So she was born in 1780. John Robinson died in 1853 before Grandmother Lucretia went to Miss. with her two youngest sons, Samuel (14697) and Alexander (14699) ROBINSON, which was in 1855. Samuel married a CORNWELL, of S.C. Alexander married Pamella ESTES, of S.C. first, and Frances I. LOVE after her death. His widow and their youngest child, Mrs. Effie DRANE, are living at Starksville, Miss. Mrs. DRANE wrote me a very interesting letter, with dates of marriage, my grandparents, and all. Nancy ROBINSON married a David HUFFMAN (14695). Eliza (14694) married David BOYD.

Savilla (04696) married James CAMERON and Margaret (14693) married (1st) Edward SHANNON, (2nd) John CROW. These all left S.C. and came to Miss. and Texas. Mrs. CROW (1469413) sent me an old letter to copy that was written by Samuel Robinson's (14697), daughter, Fannie DAVIS, while living, to Mrs. CROW's father Dr. John BOYD (146941). It gave quite a bit of ROBINSON history. Some interesting Revolutionary History of John A. ROBINSON and Margaret CAMERON (see 1469). I'm quite sure your mother's grandmother, Juliana CAMERON was Margaret's sister for she called her oldest daughter Julia. Margaret CAMERON ROBINSON'S children were: Joseph, Simeon, John, Archer, and Alexander ROBINSON, Julia (KENEDY), Margaret (MILLER), and Elizabeth (BANKS). It must have been this Alexander Robinson who is spoken of in Mr. DIXON'S book as first husband of Edward MOBLEY II's daughter, Susan and after his death she married Richard TALLIFERRO. It partly tallys with Fannie DAVIS'S letter. She said his daughter married a TALLIFERRO. Was your mother Juliana STEVENSON ? Who was her mother in turn ? Are you the cousin who visited Hans WAGNER'S grave with Mr. DIXON? I have studied and tried to link the relationship together but not being acquainted with the ones spoken of or not having seen them, it's hard to do. I am very sure there are CAMERON'S Revolutionary records, too. There are very interesting events of ROBINSON and CAMERY history in Scotland, some of it connected with the Battle of Marston Moor, 1644. Mrs. DRANE alluded to it, but have not been able to find out just what it was. Some time again I'll write you a story handed down in regard to John ROBINSON'S and Margaret CAMERON'S intense patriotism. They were all Scotch Hilanders, came to America, settled in Pennsylvania, undoubtedly Lancaster Co., before the French and Indian War. John A. ROBINSON lost three fingers shot off by an Indian at Braddock's Defeat. They came South, to S.C. with the exodus that Mr. DIXON speaks of along about 1758.

In figuring back on the Mobley line the death of Susannah DE RUEL seems in obscurity but she must have been living when the family came to S.C. between the dates of 1758 & 1761. Where I get the years studied out as accurately as I can with the proof from Mr. DIXON'S book to the D.A.R. request here and see what she says about it. She is an old family friend, and two of her children who are D.A.R.'s, went to school with me when they were young and the unmarried one supplied for the nurse in Dr.'s office for some time. His nurse is not a graduate, but has had quite a lot of hospital training. He is a very busy man --- [rest omitted]

 Mary Elizabeth Meador was born at Gibtown, Texas, October 16, 1851. Was married to Benjamin F. Dudney, September 5, 1872, at Corsicana, Texas, died at her home west of town Sunday, May 19, 1912.

"Smooth the locks of silver hair,

On our mother's brow with tendest care.

Gather the robe in final fold

Around the form so still and cold;

Lay on her bosom, pure as snow.

The fairest, sweetest flowers that grow.

Kiss her and leave her our hearts delight;

Her pain is over she sleeps tonight."

After a long, busy and useful life she died as she had lived-honored, Trusted and loved. She reared her own monument while she lived in the hearts

Of all who knew her. Her life was completed if work all done and well Done constitutes completion.

She was a member of the Christian Church, and her life was beautiful
From its beginning to its close, and though all the vicissitudes and Sorrows that she met in the way, her faith in God never wavered.

She was the mother of two children, Joe and Lee. The former was laid To rest in the Cheyenne Cemetery, Cheyenne, Roger Mills County, Oklahoma.

Her husband also was called home during the same year. Lee her Youngest son the only survivor of the family lives on his farm in the vicinity.

The Star with his many friends wafts to him and his, condolences in this sad hour.

The funeral ceremony was conducted by Rev. W.C. Morris Monday, at the Cheyenne Cemetery where the remains were laid in the silent tomb.

Jacob Worth Meadors was born February 21, 1848 in Whitley Co., KY, probably near the Williamsburg community somewhere along the Cumberland River. He was the thirteenth child of Jacob Mobley Meadors and Jane W. Harmon. Prior to 1850 Jacob's brother William James Meadors moved his family to Crawford Co., AR where we find him already living in Lafayette Township during the taking of the 1850 Federal Census.

Allow me to make a worthy notation. While researching my great-great grandfather's surname it became obvious to me that due to pronunciation, spelling and penmanship the name has varied appearances. We see the surname spelled Meadors or Meadows often within some of the same families and, too, we see it change from one spelling to the other and then back when tracking census records. Back to the story .

The following year, the Jacob M. Meadors family traveled from Whitley Co., KY to Crawford Co., AR, in a riverboat via the Ohio, Mississippi and Arkansas Rivers. Joining, or shortly following, the exodus were many other family surnames which the Meadors researchers find in their files - Moore's, Creekmore's, Daily's, Campbell's, Richardson's to name a few. Their departure was certainly met with mixed emotions and heavy hearts. It's not hard to imagine the sadness of leaving the embrace of family and old friends, knowing this may be a final farewell, and yet feeling the joy of anticipation as they joined together in this venture, looking forward to the west in search of new beginnings and a better life. They truly must have had the real pioneer spirit that has made our country so great.

This is how my great, great grandfather, Jacob Worth Meadors, came to be reared in the old-time settlement of Belmont in the Crawford County area. Jacob's older siblings, with families of their own, joined the family migration west, where they settled sown and became prominent land owners and businessmen - brother John R. became a judge, brother George W. B. after 1868 served as a deputy sheriff for 10 years.

On 13 November 1863, eighteen year old Jacob W. Meadors enlisted to serve his country in 'The War of the Rebellion' serving as Private in Co G, 2nd Ark Calvary with many of his Meadors brothers. During the Civil War the Meadors were Union sympathizers and thus subject to the harassment of Confederate adherents. Van Buren was occupied by the Federal Army but outside that city the countryside was alive with Confederate soldiers and guerillas. They hung John M. Meadows, a son of Thomas J. and Rebecca Meadows and Jacob's cousin, threatened to hang Elisha B., also a brother of Jacob Worth and bushwhacked and killed Gideon Meadows, another brother of Jacob Worth. George W. B., yet another brother of Jacob's, stated in a claim that his home had been looted and his family "rudely treated".

When the war ended it was pay back time. The 'Van Buren Press' reported numerous acts of violence by which they described as "the boundless family of Meadows". Assaults and assaults with intent to kill (my Jacob among the accused) were reported but the victims were not identified. I suspect that the targets were their war time opponents. It should be noted that this paper was favorable to the Southern Cause.

Fresh into his 72nd year, the matriarch of the Meadors family, Jacob Mobley, died in the spring of 1871. The post war turmoil, that many Meadors relatives were involved in, had been on-going for nearly 6 years by the time of his passing. During this period, Jacob worth Meadors married Jane Hannah Begley, daughter of Benjamin Van Pelt Begley and Emetine Webb of neighboring Pope Co., AR and the couple had two daughters, Mattie Emetine and Belle Melvin. By June of that year the 'Van Buren Press' reported 'State vs. Jacob Meadows - Assault with intent to kill - Forfeited Bond'. I have not discovered evidence of Jacob Worth serving time in the state penitentiary or if he fled the county to escape conviction. However, Family Bible records provides us with information that Jacob W. and Jane's only son, Thomas Mobley Meadors, was born in Little Rock, AR in July 1871.

Five years pass before I find my Jacob Worth. In the 1876 Butler Co., Missouri State Census he, Jane and their family of now five children Mattie, Belle, Thomas, Delphia and Dora are residing in the rolling hills of the Hamtown community located northeast of Poplar Bluff, MO. I have yet to understand why Jacob and his family settled in this particular area, as no other members of the Meadors clan lived here. However, Butler County, Missouri is where this 'branch' of the Meadors family has remained for over 127 years.

Jacob Worth Meadors died March 1st, 1880. His wife, Jane, stated in her 1912 pension application that he "died of disability due to the service in war of 1861-65, of pneumonia & diarrhea, the diarrhea taken and caused during the war". Jacob was only 38 years old.
