OBITUARY

To her family, her many friends, and to her church, Alma Benson Mobley gave unstintingly of her extraordinary vitality and personal loyalty. Born in Fairfield County December 10, 1904, Alma, the second child of William M. Benson and Hattie Kinloche, departed this life September 21 at home.

Alma attended Fairfield County Public Schools and participated in several summer school teacher-training programs to become an elementary teacher. Later she earned a Bachelor's Degree from Allen University. She served as a teacher in the Fairfield County Schools for twenty-nine years. In February, 1924, she married Rowland H. Mobley who preceded her in death.

At an early age, Alma became a member of Greater Mount Zion Baptist Church where she remained faithful and loyal until her death. She was a member of and held various offices in several organizations: Superintendent of the Sunday School, secretary of the Christian Aid Society, member of the Senior Choir, Mother Leader, and a member of Mount Zion Chapter No. 143 Order of Eastern Star. She was also active in many professional organizations related to her teaching career.

She leaves to cherish her memory four sons, John G. (Barbara) Mobley, Winnsboro, South Carolina; William C. (Lecora) Mobley, Charlotte, North Carolina; Otis B. (Mary) Mobley, Los Angeles, California; and Heyward R. Mobley, Jr., Winnsboro, South Carolina; one daughter, Mrs. Maude M. (Joseph) Williams, Montgomery, Alabama; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Pearl M. Mobley, Winnsboro, South Carolina. In addition she leaves twenty-two grandchildren, thirty-two great grandchildren, three great-great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews, and a host of other relative and friends.

God saw I was getting weary
 So He did what He thought best
 He came and stood beside me
 And whispered, "Come and rest."
 I bid no one a last farewell
 Nor even a goodbye
 I was gone before they knew it
 And only God knows why.
