SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1989

REV. J. G. JONES - - - - - Officiating

Mrs. Millie Manigault Mobley, daughter of the late William and Mrs. Millie Gladney Manigault, and the widow of the late Moses H. Mobley, was born May 30, 1914 in Jacksonville, Florida. She entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, September 13, 1989 at Fairfield Memorial Hospital in Winnsboro, South Carolina.

On December 25, 1935, she was united in holy matrimony to the late Moses H. Mobley.

Mrs. Mobley was an active member of Weeping Mary Baptist Church. She remained a faithful member of the church and of the Choir until her health failed. She was also a member of the Progressive Chapter No. 253 Order of the Eastern Star.

She leaves to cherish fond memories three daughters: Mrs. Carolyn Dixon of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Ruth Douglas of Baltimore, Maryland, and Mrs. Carrie Robinson of Winnsboro, South Carolina; three sons, Moses Mobley, Jr. of Charlotte, North Carolina, Aaron Mobley of Detroit, Michigan, and Amos Mobley of Winnsboro, South Carolina; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Wolfe and Ms. Margaret Manigault of New York, Mrs. Roberta Williams and Ms. Annie Mae Manigault of Washington, D. C.; one brother, Rudolph Manigault of Washington, D. C.; one aunt, Mrs. Margaret Brown of Detroit, Michigan; two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Betty Mobley and Mrs. Bernice Mobley; two sons-in-law, Danny Dixon and Tony Douglas; twelve grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Amanda Mobley and Mrs. Susie Mobley; one brother-in-law, Andrew Mobley; one foster brother, Clarence Davis of Baltimore, Maryland, and many other relatives and friends.

There's an open gate
At the end of the road
Through which each must go alone
And there is a light we cannot see
Our Father claims His Own;
Beyond the gate your loved one
Finds happiness and rest
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.
