DEATHS

Mobley began his career as an insurance salesman for Life of Georgia Insurance Company. He began to work for Kershaw Mercantile Funeral Home which later became Mahaffey Funeral Home of Kershaw. Mr. Mobley attained his funeral director's license in 1965. Mr. Mobley remained active, working for Bill Clyburn Chevrolet, and later Max Hinson Ford. He also worked for Kershaw Builder's Supply and Kershaw Hardware. In 2003, Mr. Mobley began working for Baker Funeral Home as a funeral assistant. He served as a former fire chief and volunteered for 37 years with Kershaw Fire Department. Mr. Mobley was a lifetime member of Abney Masonic Lodge #211. As a member of First Baptist Church, he had served as deacon and assistant Sunday School teacher. He served as Mayor Pro-Tem and former councilman for the Town of Kershaw for numerous terms. Mr. Mobley was very proud of his military service, serving in the U.S. Coast Guard for over three years. He served during World War II with six invasions, including Normandy. He enjoyed sharing about his military service with others, especially giving talks for Veterans' Day programs throughout Lancaster County.
