Note: Henry Harvey Jeffares

1786-1863

*Wexford, Ireland Origins through the American Civil War
by Michael S. Parks*

Henry Harvey Jeffares story begins with the oral history provided by his great granddaughter. From Martha Brown Jeffares comes the following remembrance:

"Henry Jeffares was born in Ireland or Scotland. He was called Scotch-Irish. He and his brother are nailed up in a box and smuggled into the country. Holes were bored in the box for air. He was 12 years old and his brother Robert was eight. They landed in Smartenburg, SC. His brother Robert died. Henry married (1819) Martha Tharpe, daughter of John and Mary (Durham) Tharp born 1757-died 1864 at age 107. Their children: Annie Durham Jeffares, born Nov 30, 1820, John Edwin, born July 6th, 1822; Robert born, Dec. 3rd, 1824; Isaac born, Oct 5th, 1827, died Feb. 13th, 1829"

.....Going now back to America, there is the following information on the immigrant Henry Harvey Jeffares taken from Elon's Bible (Elon is Henry Harvey's great grandson, grandson of son of John Edwin, son of John Allen Tharpe Jeffares)

"Henry Jeffares moved to Doraville, in 1828, Gwinnett County. He taught school at Dunwoody, was a politician, teacher and farmer. He kept the Nancy Creek Primitive Baptist Church record from 1830 to 1856. He married Elizabeth Rainey Oct 6th, 1831. Henry Jeffares died March 8th, 1863. Elizabeth died Feb. 25th, 1864. Both are buried in Nancy Creek churchyard, near Atlanta, Georgia."

Henry J and Bennett Rainey Jeffares census is likely wrong because the family was clearly established in Gwinnett County, Georgia by 1828. Elizabeth and her brothers Charles, Bennett and John all arrived in DeKalb County, Georgia from Chester County, South Carolina in the 1830's. (need to verify this note).

Gleaton Family Cemetery
Neeses, Orangeburg County, South Carolina
Lat: 33° 32' 07"N, Lon: 81° 11' 28"W

Contributed by Rella Gleaton, Sep 11, 2005 [rella@ultraplix.com]. Total records = 37.

From Neeses go north on US 321 about 1/10 miles to Highway 389, then northwest on Highway 389 1.6 miles to S-38-132 (Firetower Road), west on this road about 2.8 miles. Going from Springfield on Highway 4 go 8/10ths miles to Highway 3 going north 3.9 miles to S-38-132 (Firetower Road) going east on this road 3.5 miles. The cemetery is on the north side of the road.

This cemetery was part of the Henry Gleaton farm. Henry was a local banker. When we visited, this cemetery was in the middle of a cotton field. At one time it had a fence around it, but it was broken down or partially removed.

Many of the headstones were deteriorated and it was almost impossible to read some of the dates. Information in parenthesis is mine and not on the headstones. All of the Corbett, Wooley, Phillips and Bean families in this cemetery were related to the Gleaton family. This is not a complete listing of all the stones in the cemetery, but almost. We took movie pictures at the time and have a few still photos.

This reading is dedicated to the memory of Paul Jay Gleaton, our "Dad", who was born at Neeses, South Carolina and took us on a reminiscent tour of South Carolina and Georgia and the Gleaton family in 1993. He lived most of his life in Washington State. His father, Edgar Thomas, and his brother Johnnie J, are buried in this cemetery, as well as his grandparents John Wesley Gleaton and Rebecca Tindall Gleaton.

Jim and Paul Jay Gleaton and I walked and read all existing and legible headstones on Sep 11, 1993.

Feb 6, 2007 email from Kathleen Chavis;

James (Chavis) Gleaton is James Patrick Gleaton. He is the son of Thomas Issac

Gleaton and Mariah Chavis. She was the second wife to Thomas. His first wife was Keziah Bolin.

The Gleaton books written by Mrs Branch does not deal with the marriage of Mariah and Thomas for Mariah was Indian. This is why some documents list James Patrick as a Gleaton and some list him as a Chavis

In the Civil War he was know as JP Gleaton.

In 1839, Thomas sold to his son Thomas, Jr. 150 acres of land.

Fogle book..Thomas and Kiziah buried between Neexes school house and Neese, SC

From Gleaton Records:

among those of the Company paroled at Appamatox, April 10, 1865.

Place of residence Orangeburg District. War Dept. Records. Adjutant General's office, Washington, DC

In August 1850, Thomas and his family (Maria Mariah Chavers), age, 40; William, age 10; James, age 9; George, age 7; Rebecca, age 5; and Emily, age 2) were living in the Orangeburg District in Dwelling 97. The census shows that he was born in North Carolina and was classified as a planter with 850 acres of land. He was 76 years old. He nor Mariah could read or write.

1851 Tax documents show him farming 1,103 acres with 15 slaves.

In 1855, Thomas sold 100 acres more or less, part of the original track of land granted to Benjamin Busbee and Henry Mills to Edward's wife and children for $100.00. The land was situated in Orangeburg District on the forks of Edisto on the waters of Robert Swamp, waters of South Edisto River, bounded on the west by lands of Amos Gleaton, east by lands of Martin Livingston, south by lands of Manual Livingston, and North by lands of Robert Pou. This land was sold in 1872 to Matilda Gleaton Argoe by her siblings (Deed Book 2, pp. 199-200.) Thomas could not sign his name but made his mark. The transaction was witnessed by E. Argoe and D. T. Gleaton. Also, see notes for Matilda Gleaton.

In 1863, Thomas purchased 241 acres from H. B. Argoe for $2,200.00. It was part of a 660-acre tract which was originally granted to Witttenhjall Warner October 2, 1786. The 241 acres were situated in Orangeburg District, in the fork of the Edisto River on hollows of Goodland Swamp waters of South Edisto River. D. T. Gleaton and Edward Argoe witnessed the transaction.

From Margaret in a message dated 29 Sep 1998: In researching the Corbetts/Corbitts in SC, it looks like there may have been at least three families from different origins living in the state during the 1700s: the Thomas Corbett group in Charleston from England; the Edward Corbett group in Charleston, emigrating from Scotland in 1774, and the Corbitts in Orangeburg and maybe Barnwell migrating from NC.

10. FAMILY TREES

The following family trees each show the reported children, parents, grandparents and great-grandparents of a family group. In order to reduce redundancy, any family group which is wholly included within another family tree may not be reported separately.

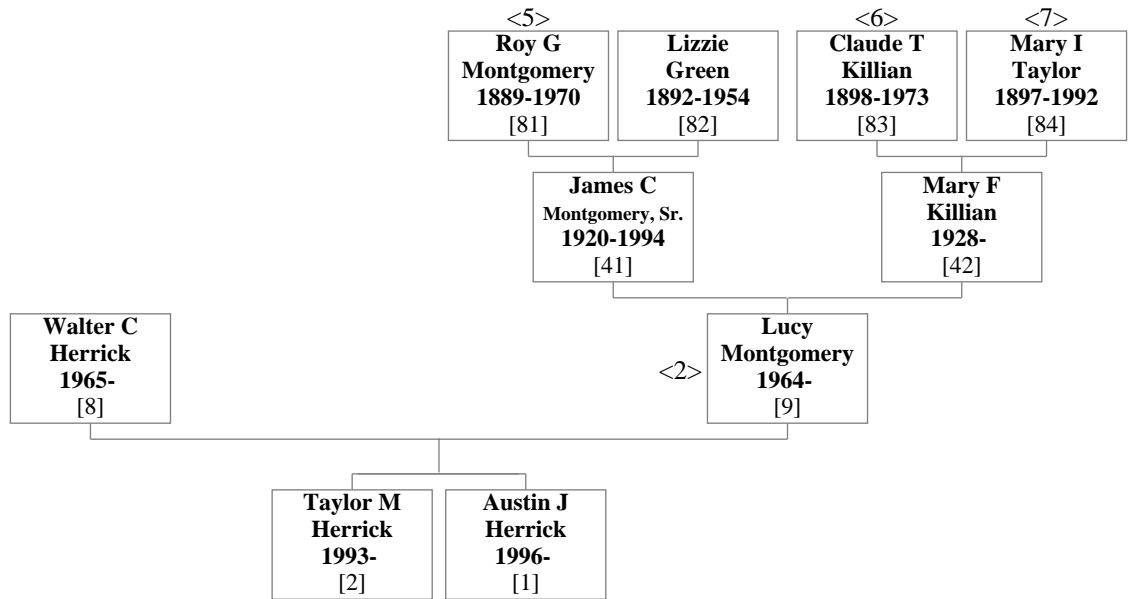

Above each of the great-grandparent boxes (top row), a continuation family tree reference number in angle brackets is shown if the great-grandparent is recorded as a child in the continuation tree. A continuation reference number is also shown to the left of a grandparent or parent box if that individual has siblings reported in the continuation tree; and beneath a child box (bottom row) if that individual has children reported in the continuation tree.

In cases of multiple marriages, a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown to the right of a parent box. This number references the previous and/or next tree in which that individual is shown with another partner.

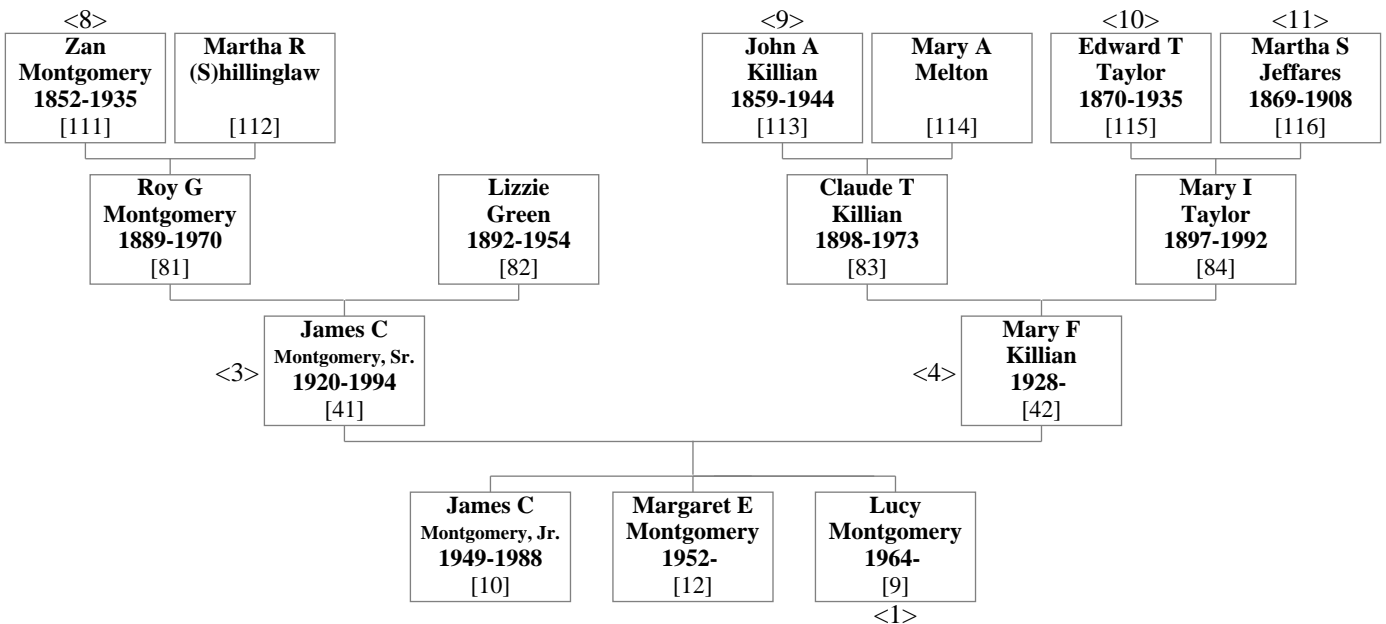

In cases of adopted (or fostered) children, the parental connection is shown with a dashed line and a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown within the individual's box. This number references the tree in which that individual is shown with his or her natural parents.
