

Georgeanna G. Moore

CHESTER - Funeral services for Mrs. Georgeanna Louise Graves Moore will be held 2 p.m. Monday, with viewing at 12 noon, at Love Presbyterian Church in Chester, with burial to follow in Evergreen Cemetery. Viewing will be from 2 to 9 p.m. Sunday at Leevy's Funeral Home, Winnsboro Chapel. Mrs. Moore was born on May 25, 1912, in Fairfield County. She attended the public schools of Richland County and was a 1930 graduate of Booker T. Washington High School. She went on to matriculate at Allen University and receive her Bachelor of Arts Degree. Mrs. Moore then attended graduate school at South Carolina State University and completed coursework at the University of South Carolina and Winthrop University. She was an active teacher and retired from Southside Elementary. She was a member of the National Association of Minister's Wives and Widow's Hall of Fame and a member of Josephus Chapter Order of Eastern Star. She was also active in her community serving the Girl Scout Troops of Chester County. Mrs. Moore was co-founder of Love Presbyterian Church, along with her husband, the late Rev. Samuel Mitchell Moore Jr.

Surviving are her sons, George Lynn (Pamela) Moore, Samuel William (Daisy) Moore, and James Earl (Ruby) Moore; daughter, Albertina Gwendolyn (Ben) Whitten; 11 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Condolences may be sent to www.leevy.com.

Published in The Herald from January 2 to January 4, 2010