

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little but not too long
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
go to the friends we know
and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me but let me go.*

A Time to Go

*GOD saw the road was getting rough
and the hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed your precious eyes,
and whispered "It's time to go".
The weary hours, the days of pain,
the sleepless nights have passed
and the ever patient worn-out frame
has finally found a sweet resting place*

The Rose

The Red Rose Tribute is a unique feature of the services provided by Glover's Memorial Chapel as a special courtesy to the family.

As the immediate family members are escorted to the casket for final viewing, each is given a live long-stemmed rose to be placed in the casket as a token of remembrance.

OBITUARY

On Sunday, March 4, 2007 at 5:10 P.M., the angels of heaven came to take her away. Her soul winged its flight from this world of sorrow and pain to a place of eternal rest.

Margaree, daughter of the late Henry and Martha B. Weldon, was born on February 7, 1929 in Ridgeway, South Carolina. At an early age she accepted Christ and joined Antioch Baptist Church, after marriage to the late Thomas J. Murphy, Sr., she joined White Oak Baptist Church #2 and later joined Shiloh First Independent Church where she served on the Missionary Board and on the Pulpit Aide Board. She attended the public schools of Fairfield County. She was a housewife and retiree of the Food Service and Nurses Assistant of South Carolina Department of Mental Health.

She leaves to cherish her memory six children, Carnell (Elizabeth) Murphy and John F. Murphy of Ridgeway, South Carolina; Thomas J. (Joan) Murphy, Jr. of San Antonio, Texas; Stanley (Brenda) Murphy and W. Gerald Murphy (Joyce) of Columbia, South Carolina; and Rhonda (James) Kitchens of Winnsboro, South Carolina; adopted children, Ernest "Track Man" (Judy) Barnes, Tina Middleton and James "Catfish" Cassidy; a very special daughter-in-law, Carolyn Murphy of Dallas Texas and niece Ella Mae Young of Ridgeway, South Carolina; one grandchild reared in the home, Latasha Allen of Opelika, Alabama; twenty-three grandchildren; fourteen great-grandchildren; one sister Carrie Davis and one brother J.D. (Jessie) Weldon both of Ridgeway, South Carolina; two sister-in-laws, Katherine Weldon of Ridgeway, South Carolina, Amanda Hudnell of Winnsboro, South Carolina; and one brother-in-law, Mondell Davis Ridgeway, South Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Margaree W. Murphy would like to take this time to say "THANK YOU" for all your comforting acts of kindness and support. Perhaps you sent a lovely floral arrangement or sat quietly in a chair and if we failed to see you, our hearts knew you were there. We hope and pray that our LORD AND SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST will bless you to the highest.
