

P O E M

*I had to go, I could not stay
So during the night I slipped away.
I loved you then, I love you now
But I must leave you for a little while.
Please do not grieve nor shed a tear;
And I, in turn, will always be near.
Think of me when the bright sun shines;
Speak of me with a gallant smile.
Praise the Lord and always be good Remember the things I taught you during our live.
Again, I say I love you, so do not fret.
Jesus loves us all, this never forget.
I've gone to meet Him in the sky
I'll be waiting for you in the sweet bye and bye.*

Sally M. Murphy

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. PSALM 23

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We the family of the late Sallie M. Murphy wish to express our deepest appreciation for the many forms of love and every act of kindness or any services you may have rendered during the sickness and death of our loved one. May God bless every one of you

THE FAMILY

O B I T U A R Y

So in the stillness of the night, July 20, 1987, Mrs. Sallie M. Murphy left this life to join her Heavenly Father and the loved ones who had gone on before.

She was born in Fairfield County, the daughter of the late Lizzie Edrington and Louis Mayo.

She joined Gethsemane Baptist Church at an early age. In later years, she moved to Union, South Carolina and joined Corinth Baptist Church and was a member of the Missionary Society # 1.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, a Son, Nathan Mayo, Philadelphia, Pa.; seven grandchildren; 6 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces and nephews; a daughter-in-law; and other relatives and friends.
