Give or take, to leave or to stay

To do it my way

As days go by

Tomorrows becomes yesterdays

Promises and dream

All end up down stream

The hunger for money wears out

Like old shoes

You throw them about

Words are inadequate to express the deep appreciation the family of SARAH R. MURPHY feels toward our friends who have consoled us during our bereavement with prayers, love, presence, telegrams, and calls.

A special thanks to Wilodene Hutto for all of her love and support through this and many other occasions.

MAY GOD CONTINUE TO BLESS YOU ALL!

Reflections Of Life

Like a mighty star, MRS. SARAH R. MURPHY, 77, has brightened the path of many lives. She lived, she loved, she guided, she taught, and she saw the good in all who passed her way.

If a family is blessed, there is at least one individual who serves as a magnet, who has a pull which draws all together in love and laughter, debate and consensus, celebration and consolation, tradition and hope and excitement about the future. She was that kind of person—one who spreaded her net wide and drew in not only her children, grand's, and great grand, but her nieces, nephews, friends and neighbors. SARAH will be greatly missed.

On June 14, 1929 in Fairfield County, SARAH was the second oldest of twelve siblings born to Wylie and Elizabeth M. Robertson. She entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, January 16, 2007 at the Providence Northeast Hospital, in Columbia, SC.

SARAH was united in Holy Matrimony to Samuel M. Murphy Sr., on October 12, 1950. To this union was blessed, one daughter and four sons.

At an early age, SARAH accepted Jesus Christ in her life, and she later became a faithful member of Bible Light Holiness Church. She retired from the Richland County School District.

As we bids our good-byes in sorrow are her children, Betty Murphy Jones of Donalds, SC, Melvin Murphy of Columbia, SC, Ronnie and Richard Murphy both of Ridgeway, SC; siblings, Ermene Canzater and Johnnie M. Lawhorn of Blythewood, SC, Rebecca Reed and Patsy Davis of Ridgeway, SC, and Martin Robertson of California; a grandson, Eric Murphy of Columbia, SC, a granddaughter, Crystal Jones of Donalds, SC, a great grandson, Christian Tucker Cunningham of Georgia; nieces, nephews, and a host of other loving family members and friends.

SARAH is preceded in death by her husband, Samuel Sr., a son, Samuel Jr., parents, Wylie and Elizabeth Robertson.
