

JOHN WITHERS PHILATELIC CHRONICLES
HISTORIC FAMILY COVERS

Nancy Barkley Neil was the youngest daughter of John Jackson Neil and Mary Thompson Neil. After graduating from high school at Mt Zion School she received her degree in education from Columbia College in Columbia, South Carolina. Nancy taught at a number of schools in Columbia before returning to Winnsboro to teach at the new Everett Elementary School. Across Fairfield County, South Carolina she was known as an accomplished bird watcher who documented many of birds of the Piedmont Region of South Carolina.

Nancy Barkley Neil
Winnsboro, South Carolina
Born August 21, 1890
Died August 22, 1964