

Martha Frances Spears Neely

Robert Earl Neal,

George Alexander Neely, 1882 - 1970.

Mr. Milam M. Neely

GREAT FALLS — Mr. Milam M. Neely, 76, of Route 1, Great Falls, died Christmas day while a patient in Elliott White Springs Hospital in Lancaster.

Born in Hancock County, Tennessee, he was a son of the late George and Martha Spears Neely. He was a member of Trinity Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted 3 p.m. Sunday at Trinity Baptist Church with Rev. Tommy McManus and Rev. Billy Anderson officiating. Burial followed in Greenlawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Zedie Ellisor Neely; one daughter, Mrs. David A. Blankley of St. Petersburg, Fla.; one brother, Mr. Hugh Neely of Great Falls; four sisters, Mrs. Edna Harrison and Mrs. Daisy Davis of Great Falls and Mrs. Ruth Rabon and Mrs. Lydia Russell, both of Lugoff; three grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Acting pallbearers were Charles Moss, Hazel Jones, Guy Franklin, Gene Ellis, Joe Smith, Chalmers Grant, Thies Morgan, and Jack Looper.

Dantzler-Baker was in charge.

GREAT FALLS — Mr. Carroll Edmond Davis, 80, textile retiree, died July 22, 1990, at Richland Memorial Hospital in Columbia. Funeral is 4 p.m. today at Evangel Temple Assembly of God.

Surviving are his wife, Daisy; son, Wayne Davis of Fort Mill; daughter, Mrs. Frances Taylor of Columbia; brothers, Allen Davis, Elijah Davis, both of Wadesboro, N.C. Dantzler-Baker is in charge.

Memorials may be made to the Evangel Temple Assembly of God, 200 Old Winesboro Rd., Great Falls, S.C. 29055.

Hugh Neely Former police chief

GREAT FALLS — Mr. Hugh Carson Neely, 79, of Rt. 1, Bakerstown Rd. died Nov. 17, 1992, at Commander Nursing Center in Florence. Funeral is 11 a.m. Thursday at Trinity Baptist Church with

Rev. David Taylor and Mike Sellers officiating. Burial will be in Greenlawn Cemetery. Visitation is 6 to 8 tonight at Dantzler-Baker Funeral Home.

Mr. Neely was retired from the S.C. Commission of Forestry and was a former police chief of Great Falls. A World War II Army/Air Force veteran, he was a member of Great Falls Masonic Lodge No. 277.

Survivors are his daughter, Mrs. Rachel Crump; sisters, Mrs. Ruth Rabon, Mrs. Lydia Russell, both of Lugoff, Mrs. Edna Harrison of Rock Hill, Mrs. Daisy Davis, one grandson.

Memorials may be made to Trinity Baptist Church, 122 Chester Ave., Great Falls, S.C. 29055.