

RECORD OF
 Revolutionary Soldiers and Patriots
 IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Soldier or Patriot James Nelson, Sr.

Birth _____ Death After May 15, 1835

Wife's Name Margaret Woodward, daughter of Thomas Woodward, the Regulator and his wife Jemima Collins.

Birth _____ Death _____

Date of Marriage _____ Place of Residence _____

Father of Rev. Soldier _____ Birth _____ Death _____

Mother of Rev. Soldier _____ Birth _____ Death _____

Their Marriage _____ Name of Children of Rev. Soldier _____

Children of James Nelson's Second Marriage to Margaret Daniel Turner (Widow Turner)
 Sons: Jesse, Daniel, Thomas, John. Daughters: Mary Kennedy.

Catherine Delenby, and Harriet Shedd.

* *Children of James Nelson's first marriage to Margaret Woodward: Thomas + Samuel.
 Sources: 1) State of SC, Fairfield County, Affidavit of Miss Eliza C. Nelson, Dec 30, 1898;
 2) Nelson Report, Sep 15, 1992, by Brent H. Holcomb, Certified Genealogist.*

Service Record of Rev. Soldier Stub Entries to Indents, No. 541, Book M, page 220. Sumter's Brigade.

Location of Grave On plantation, the present site of old Furman
 (This information absolutely necessary)

Institute, Fairfield County, South Carolina.

Monument Unmarked.

Bronze Tablet or Marker _____

Placed By Jo Ann Cooper Hilliers

Other Descendants _____

Historian _____ Address _____

Chapter Mrs. A. H. Maybin Address Whitmire, S. C.

Chapter Richard Winn -- Jenkinsville, South Carolina