

Eric Pannell <epannell@drury.edu>
To: "vansantd@truvista.net" <vansantd@truvista.net>
Cc: "vansantd@truvista.net" <vansantd@truvista.net>
Pannell Family

September 12, 2013 3:04 PM

16 Attachments 8.9 MB

New Liberty Cemetery - King's Prairie Cemetery

ZINN, Elizabeth (PANNELL)
May 14, 1832 Effingham Co., IL
May 20, 1918

Barry Co., MO

Research Note: According to the Callaway Funeral Home records Elizabeth died at age 86 years 6 ds old and was married. Her father was Victor Pannell born in Tennessee and her mother was a Browning. On her death certificate, Victor Pannell is listed as her father, born TN. Her mother's maiden name was Browning. She was married. Burial - King's Prairie. Henry Zinn of Monett gave the information. Newspaper Account: Pleasant Ridge - Aunt Betty Zinn died Monday afternoon after a short illness. She was very old and leaves an aged husband. The remains were buried in the King's Prairie cemetery, Tuesday, May 30, 1918, Cassville Republican - State Historical Society of MO
Funeral Home

Online Obit

Death Certificate

Donna Cooper

Batsheba Bl...ll.doc (26 KB)

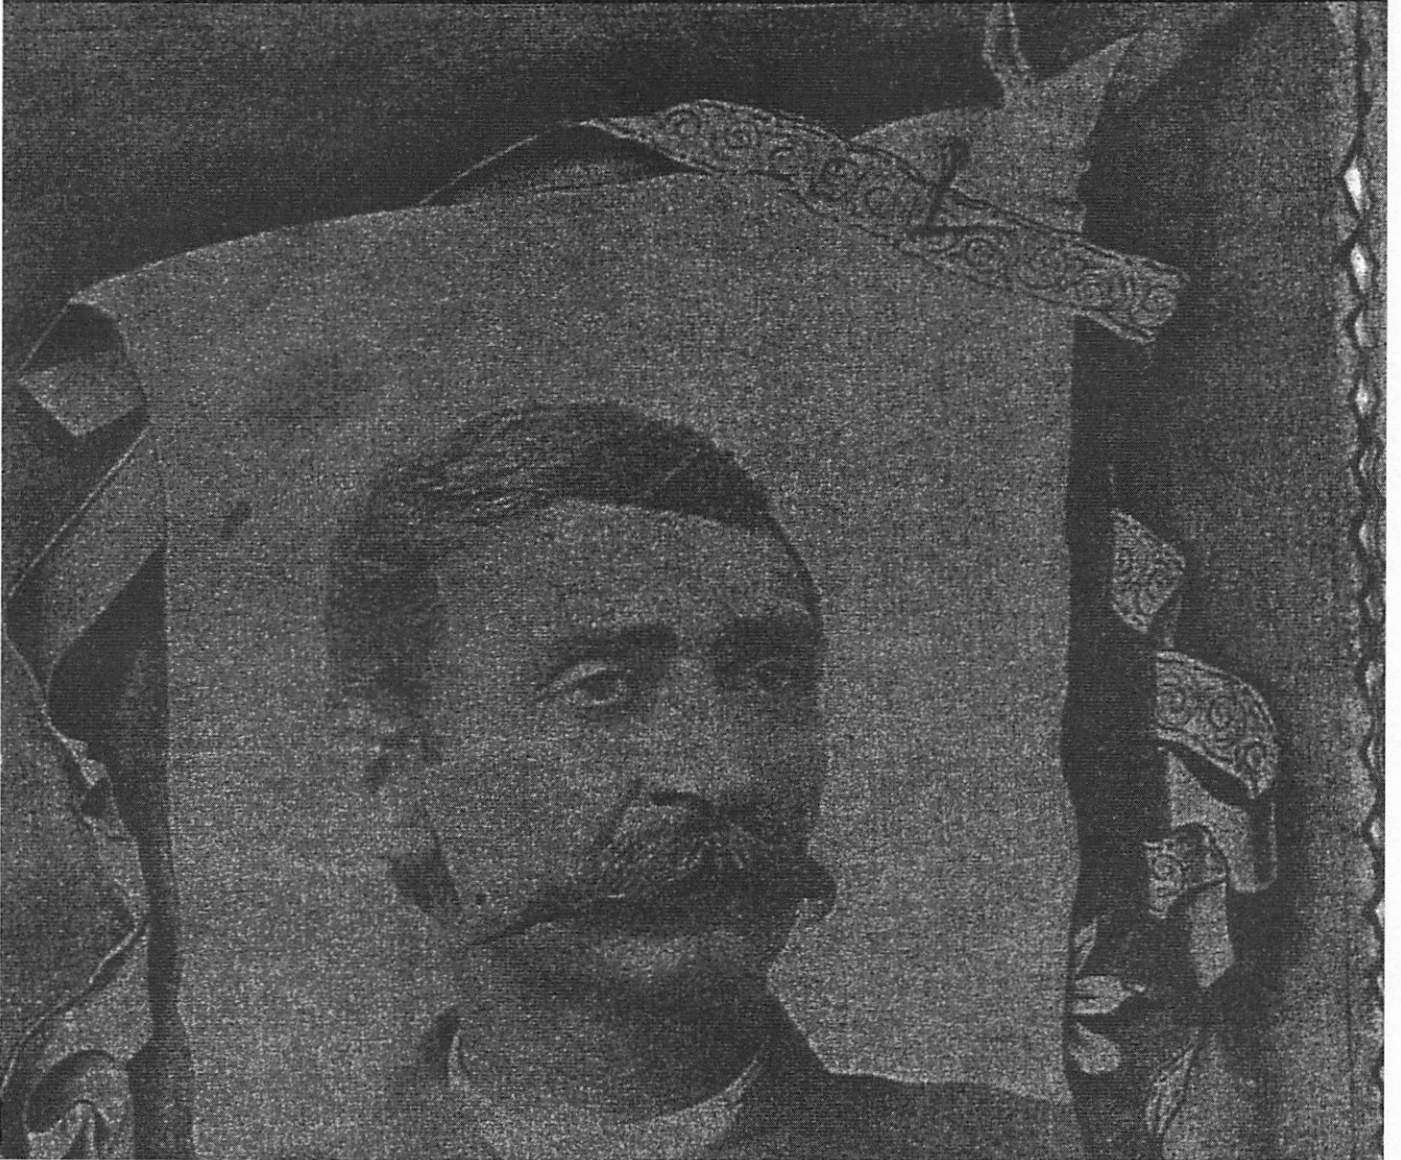

Elizabeth la...docx (17 KB)

Jedidiah Pannell.doc (25 KB) Sarah Emeli...ll.doc (29 KB) Victor Monr...l.doc (30 KB) victor.pannell.rtf (199 KB)

VICTOR Monroe Pannell
Tios Byne Verona, Mo

Cora Pannell Bloss

Eric Pannell <epannell@drury.edu>
To: Debby Van sant
Pannell photos

September 12, 2013 3:21 PM

If you have any photos of Pannell or Dove's please keep me in mind. I love learning about the family.

The more info you have the better. If you get time send me a complete list of the Pannell breakdown. Man, there were a ton in South Carolina but seems like some websites leave off some, for instance look at this one, no Jediah or Jedidiah listed.

<http://familytreemaker.genealogy.com/users/c/r/o/Evelyn-K-Crowe/GENE14-0001.html>

See, not Jediah listed or Jedidiah, always interesting to me why he is not there on many lists.

Here is another link, does this mean anything to you: <http://files.usgwarchives.net/va/culpeper/wills/pennell-wlm.txt> and <http://files.usgwarchives.net/va/culpeper/wills/panuill-wlm.txt>, spelled Pennell but in Culpepper, VA where Lucinda Dove is from.

Eric Pannell
Drury Sports Info.
417 576-5023

Another Rembrandt

LHS senior sees her drawing published in national magazine

By Kevin Burkhalter
For The Daily Record

The residents of Lebanon may not know it, but this may just be the home of another Rembrandt. This Lebanon High School student may not be another Rembrandt, but she is working hard to become an established artist.

LHS senior Angie Pannell, daughter of Lester and Charlene Pannell, is a published artist. She has never had art lessons, but already has had one drawing published.

Pannell's drawing is published in the November issue of Teen magazine. She worked hard to get her drawing published, and it paid off --$50 worth.

Pannell explained how her work was accepted. "I sent Teen magazine a portfolio of my work, and asked for a free lance assignment," she said. "They reviewed my portfolio (which consisted of a letter of recommendation from her art instructor, Alva Hazell, and 12 slides of her work). Within two weeks, I received my first free lance assignment."

Pannell would also like to draw for magazines such as Seventeen, Rolling Stone, Vogue and Glamour. She chose Vogue and Glamour magazines because she would like to work with a fashion magazine.

Pannell has won several contests and awards. In 1984, she won an alcohol and drug abuse poster contest, in which she placed first in the state and fourth in the nation. Pannell received about $175 for her effort in the contest.

She enjoys drawing people and birds. "They are more interesting

Angie Pannell

Pannell has been inspired by many artists, but three of them stand out. The most interesting, according to Pannell, are Patrick Nagel, Salvador Dali and Andy Warhol, an artist of the sixties.

The most influential people in Angie's art life, however, are her art instructors. They have encouraged and helped her. Of Diana Westfall, her junior high art instructor, Pannell said, "She gave a lot of time and encouragement to me."

Becky Rhodes and Alva Hazell have been helpful, too. "Mrs. Rhodes helped me in drawing contests during my junior year," Pannell said. "Mr. Hazell taught Pannell is involved in many school activities. She is a member of National Honor Society, and is president of Art Club and Photography Club. Pannell is also a member of the First Christian Church youth group.

Pannell enjoys reading and writing in her spare time. She has won an essay contest for her creative writing. The contest, sponsored by the local Optimist Club, was about "Freedom--Out Most Precious Heritage." She was also, just recently, named the DAR Good Citizen.

Pannell also enjoys listening to rock music. She specifically likes British pop music. Her favorite groups include Arcadia, Duran Duran and the Power Station.

She plans to attend either the Kansas City Art Institute or an art school in New York. She then hopes to move to New York, and start working for a graphics corporation.

She would also like to go into videos when she is older. She explained, "I may be interested in that area when I go to college, because there are classes offered in that medium. I think that I could do well working with visual concepts and film."

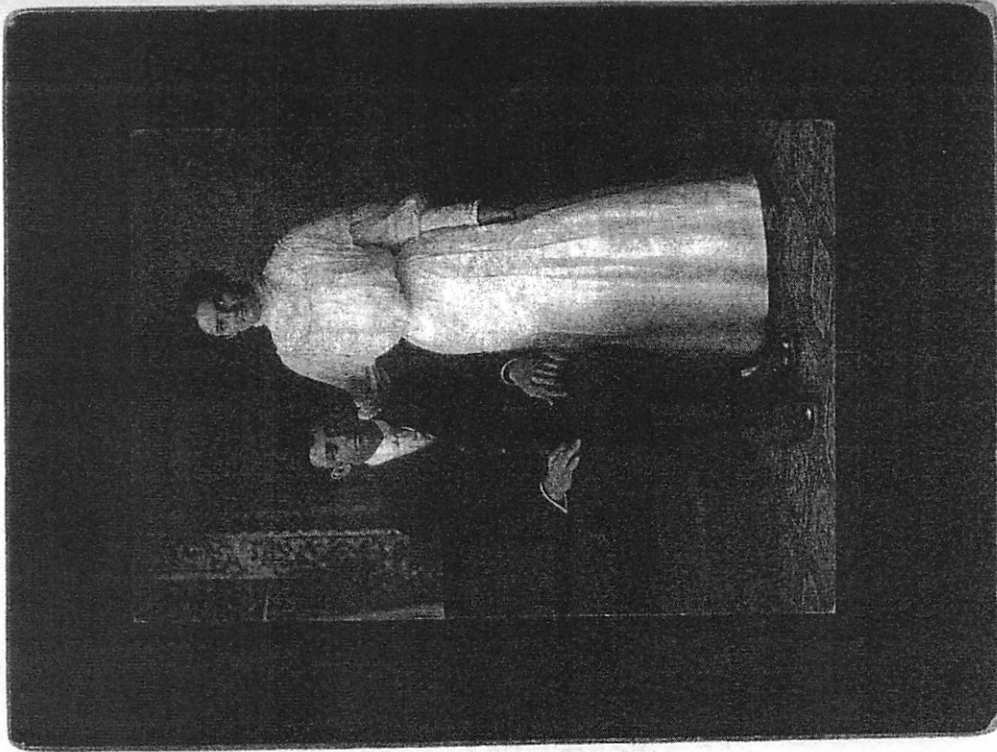

to draw. You can bring out a personality, whereas, with a tree, there is no real meaning."

me about portraiture and professionalism. His belief in my ability is the main reason I want to continue in art."

George, Carrie, Dave, Troy and Sarah

Thomas Jefferson and Grace Pannell

Eric Pannell <epannell@drury.edu>
To: "vansant@truvista.net" <vansant@truvista.net>
Pannell Info.

September 12, 2013 3:06 PM

7 Attachments, 8.4 MB

Just some photos

50th Wedding Anniversary of Milton and Tennessee Pannell

