

Doris Pearson

BLAIR - Doris Pearson, 61, died Friday, Feb. 11.

Services conducted by the Rev. Randolph Glover were held at Brown's Chapel Baptist on Tuesday, Feb. 15. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Zyron Pearson, Tyron Pete, Davis Pearson, Jr., Terence Pearson, Charles Pearson, and William White.

A native of the Dawkins community of Blair, she was born May 16, 1938, the daughter of Lizzie White Pearson and the late John Butler Pearson.

Ms. Pearson was a homemaker and was a member of Brown's Chapel.

Surviving are her mother, Lizzie Pearson of Blair; four sisters, Elise Anderson, Mammie Nesmith, and Connie Wilson, all of Columbia, and Betty Pete of Blair; and six brothers, David, Alonzo, and Alphonzo Pearson, all of Blair, Raymond Pearson of Winnsboro, and Gillie and Shealy Pearson, both of Philadelphia, PA.

Gibson's Funeral Service was in charge of the arrangements.