

Sammie J. Pearson

WINNSBORO - Sammie J. Pearson, 71, died Sunday, Oct. 13, 1996. 10/24/96

Services conducted by the Rev. Robert Boyd were held at St. Luke Baptist Church on Thursday, Oct. 17, 1996. Burial followed in church cemetery.

Pallbearers were John Craig, Allen Pearson, Ernest Weldon, Jerome Seibles, John Thompson and Ray Pickett.

A native of Greenbrier Community, he was born in June of 1925, Mr. Pearson was the son of the late Sammie and Lessie Harris Pearson.

He was an brick selector at Rictex Brick Co. and a member of St. Luke Baptist Church.

Survivors include, his wife, Maggie Anderson Pearson of the home; two sons, Odell Pearson of Charlotte, N.C. and Raymond Pearson of Lancaster, Penn.; one stepson, Allen Pearson of Winnsboro; five daughters, Elizabeth Barber, Loretta Weldon, Sally Craig and Darlene Pearson, all of Winnsboro and Jennel Ruthford of Lancaster, Penn.; two stepdaughters, Vernell Thompson and Barbara Pearson, both of Winnsboro; three brothers, Thomas Pearson of Columbia, Leroy Pearson of Rosedale, N.Y. and Eddie Stevenson of Winnsboro; seven sisters, Annie Fee, Margaret Johnson, Liza Young and Nellie Brewer, all of Winnsboro, Pearl Barber of Cambria Heights, N.Y., Thelma Wylie of Hartford, Conn., and Eunice McGuire of Jamacia, N.Y.; 15 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Gibson's Funeral Services was in charge of arrangements.