

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus F. Perry

Camack, Perry

10/8/98

LaToya M. Camack of Blair and Marcus F. Perry of Simpson were united in marriage Saturday, Sept. 12, 1998 at Zion Hopewell Baptist Church.

The Rev. Ronald McClurklin officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Ralph Camack.

Nicole Harper served as maid of honor. Letichia Cunningham served as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Kimberli Boyd, Sylvia Camack, Sandra Gladden, Tameka Hopkins, Latasha Martin, Latecia Pearson, Berlinda Robertson, and Crystal Trapp.

Junior bridesmaids were DiShundra Mathis and Brittany Samuel.

Flowergirls were Destiny Cunningham, A'Shayla Jackson and Tanisha Camack.

Carlos Robertson served as best man. Dewayne Samuel served as honorary best man.

Groomsmen were Anthony Belton, Gregory Belton, Darryl Camack, Kerry Camack, Charles Cunningham, James

Edgar, Demetrius Gilmore and Chris Glenn.

Junior groomsmen were Carlton Brown and Antwan Hewyard.

D'Marcus Perry served as Bible carrier.

Kerisha Camack and Cordera Pitts served as miniature bride and groom.

A reception was held following the wedding at the Old National Guard Armory.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Camack of Blair and the granddaughter of Jannie M. Camack of Blair.

She is a 1997 graduate of Midlands Technical College and is employed by the State of South Carolina as a family court reporter.

The groom is the son of Eloise Perry of Simpson and the late Sonnie Robertson Jr.

He is a 1994 graduate of Midlands Technical College and is employed by Stephryn Industries as an industrial maintenance supervisor.

Following a honeymoon to Orlando, Fla., the couple will reside in Winnsboro.

