

1/16/97

Mr. and Mrs. Perry

Jackson-Perry wed

Keisha Lashonne Jackson and Kelvin Art Perry were united in marriage on Dec. 21, 1996 in Clement Road Church of God in Columbia. The Rev. Jordan D. Smith, officiated the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Doris Young Jackson and the late Albert Jackson, Jr. II.

The bridegroom is the son of Leni, Sr and Thelma Perry.

The wedding music was presented by James Carter, Donna Smith, Tomeka Leaphant and Susan Fontenot, vocalists.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, wore a white, satin gown featuring a V-neck fitted bodice, cap sleeves and a full-length train. Pearls, lace and iridescent sequins accented the dress.

She carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses accented with white freesia.

JoAnn Madden was matron of honor and Shoronda Sutton was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Shanai Harris, Lynn Irby Jackson, Tracy Missouri, Ashante Rakes, Neda Young and Cassandra Young. Little Miss Rocquel Rakes was flower girl.

Kenneth Marcus Perry and Vincent Eugene Johnson were best men. The groomsmen were Anthony Lane Brown, Robert Hollis, Reginald Jackson, Bernard Jackson, Tonie Jackson and Travis Williams. Master Edward Young was ring bearer.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony at the Capital Senior Center.

The bride graduated from Columbia College with a major in Psychology.

The bridegroom graduated from the University of South Carolina with a major in accountancy.

A wedding trip is planned for Charleston, S.C, New Jersey, Atlantic City and New York.