

THE PERRY FAMILY

*Grows strong as the mighty Oak
Some straight, some crooked,
some leaning, some anew.*

However, through God's Grace the Oak stays strong.

*Rich in blessings, strength, endurance,
faith, compassion and love of family,
the Perry's continue to be a part of the Earth and Heavens.*

May God Bless Each and Everyone

James C. Perry

(1814 - Pre 1860)

James was married to Elizabeth and had five (5) children: John, William, Sarah, Henry and Susan.

He and his family lived in the St. Andrews Parish of the Charleston district during the 1850's. His occupation was listed as planter and owner of three hundred dollars ($300) worth of real estate, His sons John and Williams served in the Confederate Services from 1862 - 1864.

Many of James' family resided in the Collins Township of Colleton County, the St. Paul's Parish Township and the Bartholomews Township.

Prior family members were plantation owners in the Cheehaw area south of Walterboro and off County Line Road near Parkers Ferry on the Edisto River in present day Charleston County. It is also noted his family were caretakers for the Middleton family of Middleton Plantation located near the Ashley River on SC Hwy 61 in Charleston.

James C Perry's burial site is unknown.

Henry John Perry

(Sept. 14, 1847 - June 25, 1920)

Henry was first married to Mahaely Simmons. They had seven (7) children: William, Julia, Henry Burkley, John Pinckney, Flora, Ellen and Robert. He later married Melvina Pinckney Mizzell Moorer. Pinckney gave birth to his last two (2) children: Lawrence and Artha.

In 1880 he and his family lived in the Collins Township of Colleton County, SC. They also resided in the Adams Run Township of Colleton County during the early 1900's. Many of his family members still reside in this area of Adams Run, Parkers Ferry and surrounding communities (present day Charleston County).

Henry was a hard working farmer who was dedicated to his family and his church. He served in 1900 as the Hopewell Baptist Church Clerk. He also served on the church's Executive Board and Sunday School Superintendent from 1901 - 1904.

His burial site is located in the White Church Cemetery on SC Hwy 165 in Ravenel, SC. The tombstone reads Henry "L". Perry. It is believed the "J" was inverted accidentally.

PERRY FAMILY TREE

The Perry Family Tree was compiled by Judy S. Perry, wife of Ivy D. Perry.

Special thanks to Olah Perry, Vivian Perry Canaday, Mildred Perry Bowers, Bobby Garvin, Mary Jane Perry Ryder, Lillian Thompson and our typist, my daughter, Nancy M. Miller.

With love, Judy
