You might find it of interest that John Pickett was the father of Thomas Pickett and Micajah Pickett. He was married twice. Mary K. (I think she was Mary King but haven't been able to find any documentation)

Thomas K. Pickett (b. 1727 in Caroline Co, VA, d. 11/1783 in Caroline Co., VA) was the father of Nancy Pickett who married Muscoe Boulware. Thomas K. Pickett married Nancy King (b. 1731, d. 1785 in Caroline Co, VA). Children

Nancy, Micajah K, Thomas K. Jr., James K, Martha, Margaret, William, Sarah, Charles, Francis.

I believe this Francis Pickett was the one who served as a marine in the Virginia Navy in the Revolutionary war and was captured (with two other marines) and impressed into the British Navy. Francis Pickett was the only one to get home alive.

John Pickett by his first wife Mary May Mess was the father of Micajah Pickett. Micajah Pickett and Winnefred Beasley were the parents of Micajah Pickett (who was the father of John B. and Jephtha Pickett, who married daughters of Muscoe Boulware).

Jephtha Pickett was my ggggrandfather.

Just a little note to try to keep things clear.
