

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

I, John Henry Propst, of Fairfield County, in the State aforesaid, being of sound mind and memory, do this tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty seven. make, publish and declare the following as and for my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

FIRST: I direct that all of my just debts be paid.

SECOND: I give and bequeath all of my personal property of every kind and description unto my brother, David Coleman Propst. In the event my said brother should predecease me then, and in that event, I give and bequeath one-half of my personal property unto my nephew, Sam Propst Bolick, and his wife, Sarah Mason Bolick, or the survivor of them, and the remaining one-half of my personal property I give and bequeath unto my nephew, William Y. Propst, Jr.

THIRD: I give and devise all of my real estate unto my said brother, David Coleman Propst, for and during the term of his natural life.

FOURTH: At the death of my said brother, I give and devise unto my nephew, William Y. Propst, Jr., for and during the term of his natural life, my tract of land containing one hundred forty-two (142) acres, more or less, which was assigned to my mother, Druscilla Propst, in the partition of the lands of her father, William M. Young, which tract is bounded on the north by lands of J.C. Coleman, on the east by other lands of J.H. Propst, on the south by lands of W.Y. Propst and lands of J. C. Coleman, and on the west by lands now of Clowney.

At the death of my nephew, William Y. Propst, Jr., I give and devise my said tract of one hundred forty two acres of land unto my great nephew, Sammie Ray Bolick, the son of my nephew, Sam Propst Bolick.

FIFTH: At the death of my said brother I give and devise all thr rest and residue of my real estate unto my nephew, Sam Propst Bolick, and his wife, Sarah Masob Bolick, for and during the term of their joint lives, and at the death of either of them, unto the survivor of them, for and during the term of his or her natural life, and at the death of such survivor, unto such of the children of the said Sam Propst Bolick as may be living at the date of my death, for and during the term of their natural lives, and at their respective deaths unto the respective heirs of the body of said children as may be living at the time of his or her death, and in the event any child or children of the said Sam Propst Bolick should die without leaving heirs of the body living at the time of his or her death then and in that event, his or her share shall go to his or her brothers or sisters, the issue of a predeceased brother or sister to represent the parent and take the share the parent would have taken had he or she survived.

SIXTH: I nominate and appoint my brother, David Coleman Propst, as Executor of this my last Will and Testament and in the event he should predecease me, or, if for any reason he is unable to qualify, I nominate and appoint my nephew, Sam Propst Bolick and William Y. Propst, as such executors.

WITNESS my hand the day and year first hereinabove written.

John Henry Propst

Signed, published and declared by the testator as and for his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses.
