CHURCH HILL, Tenn. -- Lorena May Shell Eaker, 90, of Church Hill joined her husband in the arms of their Savior, Jesus Christ, on Saturday, Sept. 16, 2017, at the Wexford House in Kingsport, Tennessee.

Lorena Eaker

She was born May 31, 1927, in Hahn, Missouri, daughter of Vernon E. and Hallie Fisher Shell. She and the late Odis Cleo Eaker were married June 27, 1942. He died June 3, 1990.

Lorena was a member of Greenvale Baptist Church of Church Hill and the Daughters of the American Revolution (D.A.R.). She had a career as a bookkeeper working in various states.

She was a dedicated wife and loving mother.

She spent over 60 years of her life researching the genealogy of Bollinger County and its early settlers from North Carolina. She authored four books on genealogy, as well as a guide for caregivers of a loved one with Alzheimer's disease. Lorena's travels throughout North Carolina to Southeast Missouri endeared her to genealogy enthusiasts and members of the ever-widening "family tree" she and Odis discovered in their research.

Survivors include her daughter, Cheryl (Cliff) Stanley of Mount Carmel, Tennessee; brother, Rick (Donna) Shell of Marble Hill, Missouri; three grandchildren, Martin (Elana) Stanley of Tennessee, Trena (Jack) Hall of Utah and Melanie Stanley of Ohio; and three great-grandchildren, Sean Hall, Brianna Stanley and Caleb Stanley.

She was preceded in death by her husband and an infant; her parents; brothers, Dale Shell and an infant brother; an infant sister; and an infant grandson.

Visitation will be from 10 a.m. until noon Friday at Liley Funeral Home in Marble Hill.

The funeral service will begin at noon Friday at the funeral home, with the Rev. Gerald Huff officiating. Burial will follow the service at Bollinger County Memorial Cemetery.

Memorials in her honor are suggested to the following: the National Alzheimer's Association; the Lincoln County, North Carolina, Genealogical Society; and the Bollinger County Public Library.

German Speaking People West of the Catawba River in North Carolina 1750 - 1800 and Some Émigrés' Participation in the Early Settlement of Southeast Missouri

Introduction

This is a migrational history of more than six hundred immigrants (heads of household) who pioneered the settlement of the present-day North Carolina counties of Burke, Catawba, Cleveland, Gaston, Lincoln, and Rutherford.

Emphasis is upon time of arrival, spouses, children, children's marriages, and where families moved. Other information, where available, includes ships the settlers arrived on and points of departure from Virginia, Maryland, and Pennsylvania as they moved south.

Documentary evidence of origin in Alsace, Switzerland, the Netherlands and Germanic provinces of Europe, some as many as five generations prior to emigration, has been located on a surprising number of families. Sources are listed throughout the volume.

Many of these émigrés participated in the early settlement of southeast Missouri. By 1810 they were moving into northeast Arkansas, then westward. Many families are followed as many as four generations after arrival, tracing pioneer progeny south and westward, and as far north as southwest Virginia, Kentucky, southern Indiana, and Illinois to continue the repetition of names on land records and tombstones.

This is a culmination of forty-six years of research by the author; the generous contributions of many longtime associates, and the expertise in European research generously contributed by Miles Philbeck and other individuals. It is a one-of-a-kind guide to an important group of immigrants as they pioneered in the settlement of America.

Nicknames

These become a major problem, but anyone doing genealogy will soon learn to identify them on records. However, occasionally we happen upon a new one..

Marillis was one which plagued me for years. It was not until working with these records that I discovered it was short for Maria Elizabeth.

CGC, MO, Probate Record Box 15, Bundle 295: Letters of Administration granted to Conrad Statler 27 Nov. 1811 on the estate of John Propst.

19 Feb. 1823: Letters of Administration granted to Henry Propst (on the estate of John Propst) on the unadministered portion during the administration of Conrad Statler; on this document Henry acknowledges there were three sons and four daughters. However, only two sons and two daughters have receipts in files: Daniel and Henry Propst, Elizabeth Crites and Barbara Robinson.

Note: There are no division or guardian's records in the court minutes, just minute records of continuing administration through 1824. I do know there is a book that may contain the necessary records, but I do not know the name. I have excerpts on other families that have been sent to me from it.

This writer believes this to be John Propst, Jr., due to the fact that he was not the one who obtained the 640 arpents of land and ages of these children indicate they were born ca 1800 - 1810.

CGC, MO, DB F:493 - 26 Jul. 1824 Hiram Estes and Polly his wife deed 140 A to John Propst, Jr.

Note: I believe this to be actually John III and the one who m. Canzada Cheek.

CGC, MO, DB I:336 - 1838 - John Propst and wife Canzada sold 140 A to George Hartle, part of a tract ceded to John Propst, Sr., under the Spanish government.

JACOB PROPST, b. ca 1781 LC, NC, d. after 1850 CGC, MO; m. probably LC, NC Sarah _____, d. before 1840 CGC, MO.

Note: This writer believes he was either son or grandson of Frederick. Frederick's widow, Sophia Aschenbrenner Propst has 1 m. 16-26 in her household 1800 LC, NC, Census.

Neither John nor Jacob appears on 1800 LC, NC, Census. Sophia sold her lands in NC by 1804.

1790 LC, NC, Census: S. Propst 1 m. -16, 3 m. 16+; 1 f. This is apparently Sophia, but I have no idea what happened to these children.

Note: I could find no other mention of Mathias in any record in the Catawba area. However, I found the following which just might pertain to him. His relationship to the others is not known:
