Straight Fair

(By Tina Cannon)

Life may begin at 40 for some folks, but it begins each year at the South Carolina State Fair for 79-year-old Tom J. Douglas of near Winnsboro. For the septuagenarian has not missed one of the fairs in the past 64 years.

He was only 15 years old when he first began coming to the fair, and he remembers well when the exposition was held up almost in the middle of town on Elmwood avenue.

"Yes, sir, it sure has grown," the old man said, "and it keeps getting better all the time."

Mrs. C. B. Rabb Passes Wednesday

Funeral Services for Mother Of Fairfield Sheriff To Be Held Friday At Monticello.

Mrs. C. B. Rabb, 81, died Wednesday morning at the home of her son, Sheriff E. K. Rabb, in Winnsboro. She had been in declining health for more than a year.

Mrs. Rabb, the former Miss Margaret McMeekin, was born near Monticello November 6, 1863. She was the daughter of Captain Hayne McMeekin and Sarah Gibson McMeekin, a prominent and pioneer family of Fairfield county. In December, 1888, she was married to Calvin B. Rabb of Monticello, where she lived until a year ago, at which time she came to Winnsboro to make her home with her son.

Mrs. Rabb spent her long life in devoted service to her family, her church and her friends, and was a most beloved woman of her community. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Monticello Methodist church and was most faithful and active in church work until recently.

Predeceased by her husband in 1927, she is survived by the following children: Hayne Rabb of Orangeburg, Mrs. Earl Reynolds of Birmingham, Ala., Mrs. Ben Epting of Rion, Gus Rabb of Detroit, Mich., Thomas Rabb of Darlington, Mrs. Clarence Boling of Jacksonville, Fla., Donald E. Rabb of Monticello and E. K. Rabb of Winnsboro. Surviving also are two sisters, Mrs. Buford Jackson of Columbia and Mrs. William H. Gist of Union, twenty-three grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. R. L. Hall, pastor and the Rev. Toy F. Reid of Columbia, will be held from the Monticello Methodist church Friday afternoon at four o'clock. Serving as pall bearers will be her nephews: A. H. McMeekin, Charlie Lee McMeekin and Captain Marion Pope McMeekin of Monticello, Hayne McMeekin and Eddie McMeekin of Winnsboro, Marion Setzler and Rabb Setzler of Laurens, Carl Friday of Spartanburg, and Buford McGill of Columbia.

Missing In Action

Sgt. J. R. Bennett, engineer on a heavy bombardment crew, is reported missing in action over the European continent. He was stationed in England.

Sgt. Bennett is the son of Mrs. Alethia Bennett, 310 Congress St. Winnsboro, and a nephew of W. B. Porter. He attended Mt. Zion Institute and was later employed at Winnsboro Mills. Sgt. Bennett was shipped overseas only last February.
