Dear Haskell,

Well, we've finally settled into our temporary dwelling. The address is 221 Cypress Circle, Broomfield, CO 80020 and we should be here for about 6 weeks. It's nice enough but one gets the feeling of "early married". Our possessions include a bed (of course), 2 easy chairs, my computer & relevant files, books, etc., and a few pots, pans and dishes. At least there isn't much to dust and clean! It'll make for a nice change of pace between big moves. All the rest of our "personal possessions" are in storage.

I've had a chance to reread your last letter and to check my research materials. Awhile back I came upon a will of an Edward Wenman, Carpenter of Calvert County, MD and I did not note my source. It is as follows:

To wife (unnamed) life interest in estate, real & personal (100 acres)
To son John plantation at decease of mother, to pass to eldest daughters,
Elizabeth & Mary in event of death of son (without issue)

Appoints wife executrix

Signed: Edward Wenman (no seal)

Made: 6 Oct. 1700. Probated: 24 April 1702.

Before: Wm. Parks, Dep. Com. Cal. Co.

Source: Wills, Liber 11, ff. 214-215.

I also found in LDS records the disbursement of the estate of a John Wenman by Mary Wenman, executrix dated November 11, 1750.

Please note on the chart I sent you previously that William (II) had the following children:

William (III)

Thomas (III)

Henry (I)

John (I)

Rachel

William (III) m. Hannah Winman, ~~TRUE, but what Williams~~

Thomas (III) m. ?

Henry (I) m. ?

John (I) m. Elizabeth, question, was she a sister of John Wenman & FIRST wife of John Roden, died before 1713-1720 and Rachel m. John Pritchett.

I indicated on my chart that my thinking was that John and Elizabeth were the parents of the South Carolina Rodens William, Thomas, Jeremiah and John. After thinking about it further, could this possibly be our scenario in regards to the deposition of 1735 (and yes, I do have a copy of it):

John (son of Wm (II)) married Elizabeth Wenman daughter of Edward. Since Elizabeth was listed in Edward's will first, I am assuming she was older than Mary. John Winman died without issue and thus the property, etc went to Elizabeth who quite possibly had died too. Thus the property went to her ~~oldest son~~ William of ~~not the oldest~~ South Carolina. Sister Mary was still living and had not married and was the executrix of John's will but did not inherit because she had not married and could not produce issue. The only big problem I can see about this is that John (I) was born 1708 and Elizabeth would have been born prior to 1700 (Edward Wenman's will dated Oct 1700) and could be 10 or more years older than John(I). My understanding is that frequently females WERE older than their spouses. The Hannah Winman I have indicated as the wife of William (III) could be a sister of John Winman not listed in Edward's will but I feel that most likely she is a cousin of John Winman.

Let me know what you think of the above idea.

I received a response from the Maryland State Archives - copy enclosed. I do not need all the information they indicated so I will only order the items I have
