(Letter by Andrea)

Dear Mrs. Nicholson,

I had to read all possible papers to try to find the parents or reference to the parents of your MOSES HILL. I make abstracts of all as I went along.

I have some further work to do in Charleston and will add it as separate pages. I have also checked all RHODEN data as you asked but so far to no avail. I will send what I have on RODEN soon.

When your Hill line is established, I will type it out for you. I am merely sending this carbon for your convince in making a study of what is to be found in the S.C. Archives on Hill.

Your sincerely,
Leonardo Andrea

NOTE BY ROBERT R. HILL SR.: (In the following note, the figure that follows a name (viz Robert Hill 3/, shows that he belongs to the 3rd generation of that family). In Craven County S.C., later known as Camden District and located today in the general area of Fairfield County S.C., resided a man named Matthew Gibbs, along with his wife Milbry Hill 4/. They removed there from Halifax County N.C. by 1769. Milbry Hill 4/ was the daughter of Robert Hill 3/ (1678-1765) & his wife Tabitha. Robert Hill 3/, in turn was son of Sion Hill 2/ (1654-1705) of Isle of Wight & Surry County Virginia and his 2nd wife (widow) Mrs. John Spiltimber. Sion Hill 2/, was in turn the son of the immigrant & patriarch of the famous Hill family of Surry County Virginia, ROBERT HILL 1/ & wife Mary Webb. They immigrated into Va. ca. 1642.

127. HILL INDEX for books from 1680 to 1799 in Charleston Office of the Judge of Probate....No dates are given, however the first books are A up thru Z. the begin A thru 2Z, then begin 3A thru 3Z and on....15A thru 15Z takes one to 1800.....These books have been rebound and the original names are not on the book. More than half the time I was not able to find the items in INDEX, EXCEPT the wills, for the wills are kept in a separate set and have a master index.....However some of the wills were not found. I did not undertake to copy any of the data on HILL, in order to save time for you. I would have copied in full, in case I had found a MOSES HILL, which I did not find. Here follows all HILL (data) in an old master index made in 1799.

128. There are more than a hundred land deeds to Hill (Hills?) more from HILL...Since none had a MOSES HILL, I did not attempt to check any deeds. The deeds are in 400 books and each has a separate index, for some years a master index.

129. Samuel Quincy and his wife, Elizabeth Quincy, as executors of the last will and testament of Richard Hill, deceased and of Berkley County, a deed signed 21 June 1751 to themselves. /Wit. Robert Roper & John Guerrard. The deed to the heirs of Charles Hill estate (Heirs not named). SEE NOTE BELOW:

130. Jonathan Hill, of the Parish of St. John's, Berkley (County) on 5 June 1755, sells 13 slaves to Richard Richardson. /Wit. John Cantey, John Cantey Jr. before William Simpson J.P.

CHARLESTON DATA

131. Inventory of the Estate of Robert Hill, of Ashepool? 6 Mar. 1759, Administered by Robert Bolton. The inventory contained a list of more than 100 people who owed Robert Hill money. Some were: Alexander Eveleight, John Hunt, John Litte, Joseph Ladson, Primus Humphrey, Jacob Turner, William Webb, George Pope & James Talbot.

132. Sarah Hill, of Berkley County. A marriage contract with Benjamin Coachman of Craven County. Trustee was Charles Faucheraud and he to hold 19 slaves and lands in trust for Sarah Hill, soon to become wife of Benjamin Coachman. /Wit. Edward James & James Edwards. Dated 25 May 1758.

133. These Hill notes I did take down, perhaps your MOSES (HILL) might have shown up in some Hill administrations, I could not locate. Recall that there are hundreds of books and files in the Office of Probate. It would take me a week, to take down each book and examine it carefully. I knew that you did not want to run up so high a bill. All wills that could be found, are already in this paper on Hill. NONE HAD A MOSES HILL.

134. My suggestion to you would be to secure a Charleston genealogist and have records checked carefully. You may find what you want and then again you may not. The Court of Equity Records, I did not even attempt, nor did I go to the Charleston Historical Society Library. That library has a building of its own and has much published and typed data. Charleston is a Historic and antiquated city...the records are kept also in an antiquated method.

HILL DATA: (BY ANDREA) Hill Data; Chowan Co., N.C., Edgefield Co., S.C., Saint

This family originated in Augustine, Florida. From the Chowan County, N.C. and from files of Hugh B. Johnston there to Edgefield County, S.C., Jr., of Wilson, N.C. hence to St Augustine Florida.

Most of the data is taken from the Catholic Cathedral of St. Augustine Church Register in St. Augustine, Fla.

THEOPHILUS HILL (1742-1791), the son of Abraham & Nancy Hill, was married 3 Sept. 1762 to Theresa Thomas (1743-1826) of Edgecomb County, N.C., the daughter of Christena Roberts and the Rev. John Thomas, of Dobbs Co., N.C.

Note by R. Hill: Believe the mother of Theophilus Hill was named Judith Hunter, not Nancy.

LODOWICK HILL, born 1763, married Susan Grigsby and remained in Edgefield, S.C.

THE CHILDREN OF LODOWICK HILL

_____ Hill who is said to have married a DeWitt.

MARIA del CARMEN HILL, daughter, born 1770 in Edgefield County S.C. and married 28 Dec. 1787 in St. Augustine, Florida Cathedral to FRANCISCO XAVIER SANCHEZ. She died at St. Mary's in Camden Co., Ga. before 31 Aug. 1813.

CHRISTINA HILL, daughter, born Edgefield Co., S.C., was baptized in St. Augustine Cathedral 8 July 1787 and was married 4 Feb. 1799 to BERNARDINO SANCHEZ de ORTEGOSA.

ISABELL HILL, Daughter, born 1781 in S.C. and was baptized in St. Augustine Cathedral 8 July 1787 and was married 7 Feb. 1797 to JOSEPH BURNELL, son of John Burnell and wife Isabel Raven of Lynn, Norfolkshire.

(a twin) ANNA MARIA HILL, daughter, born in St. Augustine on 6 June 1787 and baptized in Cathedral on 8 July 1787 and died in St Augustine in June 1849. She married first to SAMUEL WILLIAMS and second to GEN. JOSE MARIANO HERNANDEZ on 25 Feb. 1814.

(a twin) THOMAS HILL, son, born in St. Augustine on 6 June 1787 and baptized 8 July 1787. No record of marriage.

Note by R. Hill: I suspect Mr. Andrea has made a mistake in naming the above as children of Lodowick Hill. Notice that he and Susan Grigsby did not even marry until 30th June 1785 and these above children were born before that date except for the twins, Anna Maria & Thomas Hill, which is still questioned. (See list below).

(St. Augustine?) Cathedral Register...Rev. Thomas Hassett, Rector. Baptized 11 Dec. 1790, Theresa Thomas, wife of Theophilus Hill of the Lutheran Religion & daughter of Juan & Christina Thomas.

Marriage contract 3 June 1792 for Donna Theresa Thomas Hill to Don Manuel Marchal.

Mr. Johnston also has a copy of the Lodowick Hill Bible data and see page 2.

Continuing Hill data from files of Hugh B. Johnston Jr.

LODOWICK HILL, born Edgecomb Co., N.C. on 2 Nov. 1763 and died in Edgefield Co., S.C. on 27 July 1822. He married Susannah Grigsby in St. Augustine Cathedral in Florida on 30 June 1785.

SUSANNAH GRIGSBY, the daughter of Enoch Grigsby & Mary Butler. Their children were all born in Edgefield County, S.C. (Marriage & death pages missing).

Mary Hill, daughter, born 3 Aug. 1786.
Theresa Hill, daughter, born 27 Sept. 1787
Theophilus Hill, son, born 10 Feb. 1790.
James Hill, son, born 21 May 1792.
Sarah Hill, daughter, 18 Feb. 1796.
Henry Hampton Hill, son, born 22 Mar. 1798.
Rhydon Hill, son, born 22 Mar. 1800.
Jonathan M. Hill, son, born 19 Nov. 1803.
William B. Hill, son, born 14 Nov. 1806.

I am sure that I can obtain from Mrs. Cleora Tompkins of Edgefield, S.C., the dates of Susannah Grigsby and also the names of whom each of these Hill children married and also perhaps the death dates....ANDREA.

Hills 4th wife Ann Lamb, was widow of Hugh Lamb, a passenger on the ship "Mary & John" who took the oath of allegiance on March 26, 1634.

Joseph Hills went from Malden to Newberry, Mass in 1657.

NOTE BY ROBERT R. HILL Sr: Again Mr. Andrea wrote out the following in long hand and both his writing and format is very difficult for me to follow: I suspect that the figures in front of Joseph Hill (2001) (and others) might be a paragraph or section number of a Volume of Books, or perhaps a section in a book, that relates to that person. I also believe that this information came out of the following book, but admit that I have no proof.

NOTE BY ROBERT R. HILL SR.: The following is a typed note of some sort. I do not believe it was typed by Andrea (different typewriter used) but wonder if it were not typed by Mrs. Nicholson, in response to Mr. Andrea's notes. I also wonder if perhaps Mrs. Nicholson was a genealogist, searching for MOSES HILL for a client in Memphis, Tenn. She may have hired Andrea to do her S.C. research. This suspicion is based solely on this note.

I mentioned this will below to you when here-it included in my clients data..

SURRY COUNTY, N.C.

Will of William Hill dated 1777, filed Feb. 1787.

Sons: 1. Daniel 6. Jesse
 2. Thomas 7. James
 3. Smithers 8. Joshua
 4. Robert 9. Joel
 5. Uel

no daughters sent to me. (Then in long hand was wrote by name of Joshua, "(d. Abbeville Co., SC on 20 June 1855, b. 26 May 1763)."

Also wrote at bottom of article was " Elizabeth married William Halbert (See #30) also will. I have certified copy."

In your Hill paper, you have wills for--

Item 51. Abbeville , UEL HILL, received 3 Nov. 1832. (In long hand here was wrote by Andrea "See Uel Above."

Item 83. Edgefield, JESSE HILL, pro. 4 Jan 1821. note he names a son JOEL, he should be son of above will. (ANDREA Wrote by her name in long hand " also daughter Susannah & son William)."

86. Edgefield, Joel Hill, dated 1848. Can as you say be son of Jesse above-or could be son of William of Surry...he seems to be youngest son -named last.

#47. James Hill will, he with 2 sets of children, note he names a son Jesse, could be?? also son of William Hill of Surry.

On your Jesse Hill will # 83, a Joshua Hill is a witness--son of William of Surry--possible?????

In Abbeville, you have a will for John Hill and wife Susannah--note deed my data-for their deed.

THIS APPARENTLY CONCLUDED THE PART OF MR. ANDREA'S SEARCH FOR MOSES HILL & READERS SHOULD VIEW THIS AS IF THEY WERE A CLIENT OF MR. ANDREA'S AND HE IS SENDING THEM HIS REPORT ON MOSES HILL (#1). THIS PART IS KNOWN AS HILL 1 IN THE ANDREA COLLECTION.

THE FOLLOWING ARE NOTES BY ROBERT R. HILL SR.: Over the years, I too have researched for information on MOSES HILL (#1) in Mr. Andrea's collection. Moses Hill was my 4th great grandfather, and as a result I am a member of the Tampa Chapter of the Florida Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. (Joined in Nov. 1985).

In my research, I have found additional information not included in Mr. Andrea's data, and therefore have added or made the entries. I have made NO CHANGES in Mr. Andrea's data. I also have come across information on several members of the Hill Families (not related to Moses) and for the sake of making it available to others, make those entries too.

In Clarke County Alabama, a Moses Hill is listed in the 1830 Census as aged 70-80 with a female aged 50-60 (wife?).

This Moses Hill died in 1832 and an Inventory of his Personal Property was taken on October 17th, 1832 by James Daniel, Abner Wislon & John Easley, Appraisers. Several notes were filed including one from Sterling Hill (son). on 31 Dec. 1830. (Reference "Alabama Records" by Gandrud, Vol 239, page 15 & 16).

In Surry County Virginia, on 21 January 1782, a Moses Hill made a will that was proven on 24 Sept. 1782, naming sons: Lewis Hill and Sterling Hill and children of a deceased son, Benjamin Hill.

Note the name of Sterling Hill as son of the Moses Hill of Clarke County, Alabama. It is said that the father of this Moses Hill was a S. Hill, who came to Georgia at age 17 or 18. It appears that this Moses Hill, of Alabama, may be related to the Moses Hill of Surry County Virginia as well as his son Lewis, Sterling & Benjamin (deceased son). The names are identical to those in Alabama.

REFERENCE # 20 of Andrea's Report, This Dorcas Hill was the widow of William Hill Jr., of Fairfield County S.C. He died ca. 1795 and her maiden name was Moberley (Moble): Children named in will were: Richard Hill (m. Mary Mabry); Samuel & Elijah Hill (minors); Elizabeth Hill; John Hill; Mary Hill (m. Matthew Hosch) & Abel Hill. IGI Index of LDS Church shows other children as Charles Hill, b. 1769; Robert Hill. b. 1770 & William Hill, b. 1772, all born near Monks Corner in Berkley County S.C. (If this is so, why were they not named in the will?) (Ref IGI Index of LDS Church).

REFERENCE # 77 of Andrea's report, Dannet Hill, the spelling is very similar to Dennett, and that name is found in a will of Thomas Hill, made in Cumberland Co., Va. on 6 Oct. 1770, proven 25 Oct. 1773. Thomas names his wife as Barchany and children as John, DENNETT, Mary, Thomas, William, Joseph, James & Ann. It was witnessed by John & Joseph Starky and John Spearman. It is known also that a Starky Hill lived in the area of Camden District S.C. and it therefore appears that Starky Hill and Dannet Hill of Edgefield County might be related to this Virginia Family. (Data furnished me by Mr. Jonathan Butcher, Genealogist, of N.C.)

REFERENCE # 88: This Abraham Hill (b. 23 April 1732, d. 4 Feb. 1792) married Christian Walton and was originally from Chowan Co., N.C. (Revolutionary Service). He is known as Abraham Hill Sr.

REFERENCE TO # 129. to Elizabeth Quincy. This was her second marriage. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Godfrey and she first married Charles Hill.

Charles Hill was a wealthy planter who lived in St. Andrews Parish, Berkley County, S.C. The Register of St. Andrews Parish (Published in S.C. Historical & Genealogical Magazine) shows that Charles Hill and Elizabeth Godfrey were married on 13 Jan. 1714/15. A later deed (RR:345) shows she was the daughter of Captain John Godfrey.

On 5 March 1728, Charles & Elizabeth Hill purchased a lot in Charleston from William Harvey. However Charles Hill Esquire was buried in St. Andrews Parish on 27 July 1734. An informative deed of 4 March 1757 (RR:350) shows that Charles left a will dated 12 April 1734.

Elizabeth (Godfrey) Hill, widow of Charles Hill secondly married Reverend Samuel Quincy and returned to England. She apparently left a will in England, according to the deed.

The record of St. Andrews Register is some what damaged but does show the following children of Charles & Elizabeth Hill:

- a. Elizabeth, baptized 19 Nov. 171- St Andrews Parish
- b. Charles Jr., baptized 13 Feb _____
- c. Jane, baptized 24 May 1718.
- d. John, born 21 Dec. 1719
- e. Sarah, born 17 Apr. 1721. In 1757 she was the wife of John Lining of Charleston.
- f. Mary, born 15 Jan. 1722/23.
- g. Robert, baptized 17 Apr. 1726, buried 16 May 1727.
- h. Judith, buried 25 May 1732.
- i. William Jeffries Hill, born 29 Jan. 1729/30 St. Phillips Parish, buried 5 April 1734 St. Andrews Parish.

In the deed of 1757 (RR:350) it is stated that when widow Elizabeth (Godfrey) (Hill) Quincy returned to England, she deeded her lot in Charleston to Jacob Motte, in trust for her daughter Sarah. This may tie in with a reference in the will of John Abraham Motte of Berkley Co., dated 24 Aug. 1710, who appointed as executor his brother in law, Charles Hill, "now of Jamaica, merchant."

It appears that Charles Hill was somehow related to Richard Hill of Charleston, and perhaps Jonathan Hill too (#130). On 2 September 1717, a deed for a lot in Charleston from John Kinard to Charles Hill, was witnessed by Richard Hill (A:10). "Mrs. Hill, ye wife of Mr. Richard Hill," was buried in St.

Phillips Parish on 21 July 1734. Richard Hill Esquire, of "Charles Town, Berkley County" made a will on 2 June 1746, proven 3 April 1747. This refers to a marriage settlement made with his late wife, Grace Farmer, for lands in Bear-forest, called Carrigane Shonennberg, in the Parish of Mallow, County Cork Ireland. Reference is made also to the land purchases of Robert Farmer Esq., and wife Grace, of the city of Cork. Richard appointed as his executors his son Charles Hill, John Guerard and JACOB MOTTE. Richard Hill left his property to his sons Charles, Robert & William Howell Hill and his nephew, Richard, son of brother in law John Guerard.

REFERENCE TO CHARLESTON INFORMATION: Additional information on Charleston shows that on 4 December 1751, a Littleton Hill was buried. He was apparently a British Naval Officer. P.W. Coldham's "English Estates of American Colonist," in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, 1700-1799, shows that in May 1752, administration on estate of Littleton Hill, widower, late Lt. on the H.M.S. Scorpion, who died in S.C., was granted to George Hill, uncle and guardian of the deceased only child, also a Littleton Hill. Unfortunately it is not clear from Coldham's abstract if the administrator was also a resident of S.C.

REFERENCE TO #130. Jonathan Hill was married to Margaret or Miriam Hall, daughter of George Hall of Berkley County, and Jonathan later moved into Craven County, Camden District.

In Berkley County S.C., will abstracts show a will of George Hall, dated 24 Dec. 1753, proven 15 April 1754. It names as heirs his wife Miriam, daughters Margaret & Miriam, and sons Joseph, George & Thomas. Executors were the testator's wife, his SON IN LAW JONATHAN HILL, & Dr. William Keith: Witnesses were John Cannar, RICHARD (X) HILL and David Lafons.

Probate records shows that Jonathan Hill died in Camden District. (Journal of the Court of Ordinary for 1771-75, page 72, by Holcomb, Probate Records for S.C., 2:47) we find a citation granted to Joseph Kershaw to administer the estate & effects of Jonathan Hill, late of Camden, as great creditor, to be read in said Parish church of St. Marks. Dated 10th Nov. 1772. (VERY IMPORTANT: Proof of this being the same Hill Family that later moved to Camden District, is found in a copy of the Bible Record that I have obtained, showing this to be the same Thomas Hill that is the son of Jonathan Hill). Thomas states he was born near Monks Corner, in Berkley County S.C. Church Records of the LDS Church show that Jonathan Hill had three sons: MOSES HILL, born 1749; THOMAS b. 11 Nov. 1750 & JOSEPH, born 1752. I have been unable to show a Moses Hill was a son of Jonathan Hill above: Thomas Hill stated on his application that he lived in Camden District S.C before, during and after the war. He stated that he later moved to Kentucky, where he applied for and received a pension (Number S-31131) for his Revolutionary War Service. I have a copy of the Family Bible of this Thomas Hill.

Reference to Thomas Hill, son of Jonathan and underlined

On his application though, Thomas Hill stated he was born near Monks Corner (Berkley County) S.C. on 6th March 1758 (not 11 Nov 1750 as the LDS Church Records shows). Thomas stated that he did indeed move to Camden District before the war, lived there until after the war, then removed to Kentucky.

Another thing of interest about the Will of George Hall, (father in law of Jonathan Hill) is that it shows a Richard Hill as a witness, proving that a Richard Hill was in the area of Berkley County in 1753 as well as Jonathan Hill. (Is this Richard Hill the one that later moved into Fairfield County of Camden District about 1760, and who was married Dorcas Mobley?)

LDS Church Records shows also that a William Hill & Dorcas Moberley (not the same as above) gave birth to a son, William Hill in 1772 in Berkley County S.C. Since it is known that they also later lived in Fairfield County (Camden District), it certainly adds support to the possibility that this could be the place or origins of several of the Hill Families of Fairfield County???
