

Frame 374 – 1852 #16 – Bill for Account, Injunction and Relief – Filed July 4, 1849

Nathaniel B. Holly

vs.

J. L. Vaughn, Daniel Scott and Mary E. Scott

William G. Holly-died on July 31, 1845

Mary A. Holly-widow-later married Daniel Scott

Nathaniel B. Holly-brother

Nathaniel Holly-father

Frame 415 – 1852 #17 – Bill – Filed September 1842

William Kennedy and others

vs.

Robert Cathcart

Nathaniel Thompson-died in 1836-left no wife or children

Elizabeth Thompson-widow-a dispute if she was a lawful wife or not-she was a Goff and married a Davis and lived with Nathaniel Thompson after her husband died

John Leadbetter-deceased

Frederick Leadbetter-son

Benjamin Leadbetter-son

John Leadbetter-son

John Leadbetter-son

James Leadbetter-son

Ephraim Leadbetter-son

John Leadbetter-son

Biddy Leadbetter-daughter-married a Deloach

Priscilla Leadbetter-daughter-married Joseph Tiller

James Tiller-son

Elizabeth Tiller-daughter-married Roger Parish

John Tiller-son

Unknown daughter-married a Thompson

Nathaniel Thompson-son-Will on Frame 441

Daniel Thompson-son-deceased-no heirs

Sarah Thompson-daughter-married Thomas Tiller

John Tiller-son-born in Sneysborough, North Carolina

James Tiller-son-died in Kershaw County-no heirs

Lydia Leadbetter-daughter-married Edward Parish

Nathaniel Thompson's father married a daughter of John Leadbetter and lived in North Carolina near the Virginia Line. He died when Nathaniel was young. Nathaniel served in the Revolutionary War. After the war he lived with a sister of his mother who married Rev. James Smart who lived in Beaufort District, South Carolina. He had a brother and sister who died without children.

Sarah Arledge at the death of Nathaniel Thompson was the widow of Samuel Arledge. She was Sarah Goff and was a daughter of Elizabeth Davis or Elizabeth Thompson before Elizabeth married the Davis. She was living with Nathaniel Thompson when he died. She married Lee D. Arick

Sarah Arledge-married Lee D. Arick on June 28, 1838

Lee D. Arick, Jr.-son

Ann W. Arick-daughter