Or

We the Executors of Benjamin Holt (Scott) do petition for liberty to sell all such Articles of Stock and other Articles intended by the Will to be sold - and whereas also sundry Articles were left in the Will of deceased to remain for the use of the Plantations viz: five head of Horns and Waggon; all the Household & Kitchen Furniture - eight Cows & Calves - four head of dry Cattle one half of Stock of Hogs & twelve Ewes & Lambs ^{Provisions & Poultry} with a proviso nevertheless should his wife & executables choose and fancy so to do
- And it appearing that the said Executables Holt prefers removing to another Plantation as it appears the Land or Plantation so left in his Will did not in fact belong to the deceased but to his six eldest Children by virtue of his first Marriage - under these Circumstances we request an Order to sell these Articles also upon such terms as may be deemed proper
