The following is from WS's research, interviews, reading, opinions, hunches, conclusions, etc. WS does not claim to be infallible, and recommends that others do their own research.

When WS asked Maggie Smith of Longtown, Fairfield County, SC (Joe B. Stewart's sister) where her Stewart ancestors came from, she answered "I-land". WS asked Maggie "What island?", but she did not know. Cousin Harvey Baxter STEWART told WS that a Stewart family tradition is that the STEWART and WHITE families were friends and neighbors before they left Ireland. A book on this same WHITE family of Chester, SC claims Whites came from near Broughshane (in the Braid valley, the region of Northern Ireland most Scottish in speech and custom), County Antrim. The passenger list of the "Earl of Donegal" names James STUART, age 26, and Rose (WHITE?), age 22, next to this large WHITE family. They sailed from Belfast on 10/2/1767 and arrived in Charleston, SC on December 22, 1767, where Protestants (SC has few Catholics) received Bounty land grants from King George III: James and Rose STEWART received 150 acres (surrounded by vacant land) now owned by WS and his cousin Robert Stormont BANKHEAD and located on Stover Creek on the Chester/Fairfield County line (See Chester Deeds 459-267), an area still inhabited mostly by Scotch-Irish Protestants. James was a soldier of the Revolution in the SC State Militia, for which service James' wife Rose (Rosannah) received James' pension after James died, at age 90 on 10/2/1829, according to his Scottish style tombstone in the old "Stewart" or "McDonald" cemetery, located a few hundred feet from Stover Creek in woods now or formerly owned by Edward H. MILLS of Whiteoak (See Fairfield Deeds EN-125). Some of the children of James (senior) and Rose STEWART (died 5/31/1832?) were Jane (1774-July 1852) who married a MARION, James (junior), Joseph (died 1835), and Robert "Robin" (1784-1865?). Some sons of Robert "Robin" STEWART and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?) were Joseph (11/4/1809-4/4/1900), Samuel Hugh (senior) born 1813 (his descendants still live in the area, near Great Falls, SC), John Marion (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb. 1910).

NOTE:

Jane's father James BANKHEAD (1748-Jan. 1801) sailed from Belfast 10/21/1767 and is listed on a stone monument to Revolutionary soldiers at Catholic PRESBYTERIAN Church (established about 1770 and located in Chester County a few miles north of STEWART family plantations in Fairfield). Many Stewarts and kin are mentioned in its earliest records and are buried in its cemetery. The "Catholic" name of this church means not Roman Catholic, but "universal" because various branches of the Presbyterian religion were included. Stewart kin are buried at Hebron Presbyterian Church, a mile east of the Stewart royal land grant. The last STEWARTs to live in this area were two bachelors, Will and Jim STEWART, whom cousin Robert S. BANKHEAD remembered "loved their fish and liquor", and drove their wagon to Blackstock for supplies. They were descendants of John Marion STEWART (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Catherine Reid, daughter of Frank REID who was hanged in England and escaped by jumping overboard into the Charleston harbor; the rounded half-quart-sized green water bottle Frank drank from on board the ship was shown to WS by Frank's descendant Rosa McELDUFF (now deceased), who said she was named after her grandmother Rose (if I recall correctly her grandmother was Rosannah Harvey daughter of Joseph Stewart, son of James and Rose Stewart), who was named after her grandmother Rose STEWART. One large branch of our

When Thomas B. STEWART and two of his sons left to fight the Federal armies that were threatening their families and property, Tom's son James E. STEWART "Big Jim" was not allowed to enlist because of his age, so Jim followed his pa and brothers on the road. It took two days for Jim's family to catch up with Jim to bring Jim back. Jim shot at Sherman's marauding Federal troops who travelled up the main highway north (now Highway 901) from Columbia past the Stewart plantations on Stover Creek (on the Chester and Fairfield County line); I was told the Yankee horsemen who chased Jim down let Jim live because of Jim's youth (about 17 years old).

In 1877, Thomas B. (Bankhead?) STEWART and family moved from Stover Creek to Longtown in Fairfield County. They wagoned about 20 miles to Aimwell Presbyterian Church until, on corners of their plantations, Tom and a neighbor built the beautiful Longtown Presbyterian Church, which also contains many records of the STEWART family. Tom and Sarah are buried in graves unmarked except by an iron Confederate Veteran marker in the closest row to the church, midway along the west side. A monument (erected beside the SC State House) to those in the Palmetto Regiment who died in the 1847 War with Mexico names Sarah's brother, David NOLAND. WS has a big granite millstone Tom used to grind corn, found on Tom's plantation in Longtown. Tom had many children, William, Tom, Joe, James E. (Big Jim), etc.

Some Longtown Negroes WS asked about STEWARTs said Big Jim could lift with one hand a 200 pound sack of fertilizer and set it on a wagon. Both Longtown racial communities venerated the Stewarts. Jim was father of eight: Maggie, Ida, Eunice, Joseph Beverly, Jim, John, Herbert, and Tom in.

Thomas Martin Stewart had only two children, both illegitimate mulattos named Robinson, who were outstanding students. Herbert Stewart had several children, all illegitimate mulattos named Belton. They lived near Longtown, and were a family "secret". In South Carolina, miscegenation is illegal. WS knows of no other Stewart relatives who have Negro genes.

Joseph Beverly STEWART (born 5/18/1878 in Longtown, Fairfield County, SC - died 3/18/1947) is buried near other kin at Antioch Methodist Church (a mile west of his son WJ Stewart's 230+ acre farm in Feasterville, Fairfield County). "Joe" was the son of James E. STEWART (1848-9/10/1918) and Mattie MARTIN (1852-1920); was the grandson of Confederate soldier Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb/1910) and "Sally" Sarah Ann NOLAND (1828-?) AND OF "Captain" James C. MARTIN (11/21/20-12/10/1893) and Martha; was the GREAT GRANDSON of Robert "Robin" STEWART (1784-1865?) and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?); was the GREAT GREAT GRANDSON of Revolutionary War militiaman James STEWART (senior) (1741-10/2/1829) and Rose (1745-5/31/1832?) AND OF James BANKHEAD (1748-Jan/1801) and Mary HATFIELD, daughter of William HATFIELD (died Jan/1801?). Joe was a farmer and known throughout Fairfield as "Captain" of the "Chain Gang" prisoners he used to build county roads. WS was told Joe might have been ordered had he not seen the shadow of, and caught with his hand, the pick being aimed at him from behind by a Negro prisoner, whom Joe whipped to death after work later that day. Joe became overweight; as a result of diabetes, Joe's leg was amputated at the knee, so he wore a wooden peg (later one with a joint).

From Stewart 10 July, 1999 to Cousin William Stewart DOVE

Dear Cousin William Stewart DOVE,

Congratulations on completing your family tree from James Stewart down to your grandchildren, and thank you:

- 1) for your kind e-mail dated 6 July 1999 expressing your gratitude for my contributions to your genealogical research;
- 2) for the excellent photograph of Samuel Stewart and wife Nancy REID, which I intend to scan and post on the Stewart Internet site;

I think your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart's wife Catherine was also a REID, the daughter of Frank REID, a very colorful character who was Shanghaied in England. I think I once read a long and interesting obituary about him in an old Chester newspaper. I think two of your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart's brothers married two of his wife Kate or Catherine Reid's sisters.

Might your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart have also had a son named Samuel Hugh Stewart (I may have seen his name on an early Chester County deed), and might you be descended from him instead?

I sent almost all the genealogical information I had about your Reid and Stewart ancestors to a Mrs. Regina Evans in California during the 1960s. It would be nice to hear from her again. I hope she is still alive and that you can help each other. Are some members of the Wrenn family descendants of James Stewart or Frank Reid?

- 3) for mailing me a copy of the will of your great great great great grandfather James Bankhead, whose daughter Jane was the mother of your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart and my ggggrandfather Thomas B(ankhead?) Stewart.

I checked for errors the information on the 1980 Stewart deed you mailed me, and am please to have found none.

- 4) for mailing me the list of descendants of Samuel Stewart and Nancy REID, which I intend to add to my Family Tree Maker files.

In the 1960s I think I found several families of descendants of Samuel Stewart in the Great Falls area. I think some were Brooms, a McKeown family, Minors, etc. It would be nice to add their names to our genealogy records too.

For mailing me copies of the information you received from the SC archives about the Stewarts who attempted to defend SC against the Federal invasion: I doubt I know anything about Samuel Hugh Stewart that you do not already know. I grieved over our losses as I searched through

TO THE ANCESTORS OF WILLIAM S. DOVE.

WHAT YOU HAVE JUST READ IS THE SEED OF YOUR ROOTS. I WILL APPRECIATE YOUR EFFORTS TO LEARN AND EDUCATE OTHERS ABOUT OUR KEE, STEWART AND DOVE FAMILY. THANKS TO ANCESTORS LIKE DR. MARCUS KEE, JANICE KEE, JULIA LANE AND OTHERS WHO HAVE LAID THE FOUNDATION WE ARE WELL ON OUR WAY TO PRESERVE OUR FAMILY HISTORY. THE TIME AND EFFORT THESE ANCESTORS TOOK IN SEARCHING CENSUS RECORD, GOING TO LIBRARIES, RECORD CENTERS, COURT HOUSES, CEMETERIES, ARCHIVES AND VISITING FAMILY MEMBERS MILES AWAY TOOK A HIGH DEGREE OF PERSEVERANCE. AS YOU READ THE FORTHCOMING HISTORY PROVIDED BY JANICE KEE YOU'LL SEE HOW NICE IT IS TO RELATE TO THESE ANCESTORS BY STORIES AND INFORMATION PERTAINING TO INDIVIDUAL LIVES NOT JUST BY A PICTURE. DURING MY LIFE I HAVE REGRETTED THAT I DID NOT ASK GRANDMA, GRANDPA, AUNT, UNCLE, FATHER OR MOTHER ABOUT THEIR LIVES. IT WOULD HAVE BEEN SO EASY TO PUT THESE NOTES WITH PICTURES IN A RING BINDER. BUT I WAS TOO BUSY TO TAKE THE TIME. DON'T MAKE THE SAME MISTAKE THAT I MADE. WITH YOUR HELP WE CAN PRESERVE OUR FAMILY HISTORY. PLEASE DON'T MAKE THIS SAME MISTAKE. YOUR CHILDREN AND YOUR CHILDREN'S CHILDREN WILL GREATLY APPRECIATE IT.

William,

We went to Pisgah United Methodist Church, one Pisgah Church Rd at State Park, S.C. on Hwy 21 from Winnabow, S.C. and got the births and deaths of Samuel Stewart's family. We are including a picture of Samuel and Nancy Stewart, and also one of Nancy Stewart, after a stroke, and just before her death. You can keep these pictures as we have another one.

A William Stewart from Blair, S.C., a few years back, came to see us. He had done a history of the Stewart family from the time they landed at Charleston, one man, a family member, jumped overboard & drowned just before they landed. We don't know if he still lives at Blair, S.C., or not. He really has a complete history of the Stewart family. The pictures are in the white envelope with your money.

I hope you can find Wm Stewart (over

Posted by Stewart about James Bankhead (1748-1821) of Chester SC on May 11, 1999 at <http://genforum.genealogy.com/cgi-genforum/forums/bankhead.cgi>

Dear Bankhead cousins,

I thank my Bankhead cousins for always being most noble and kind towards me, and generous with their information and time. This is my first visit to this forum (which I have not yet read).

I am a descendant of James BANKHEAD (1748-1821), who sailed from Belfast October 21, 1767 on board the snow (ship) BETTY GREGG. For about three weeks before his departure, advertisements for passengers were published in the Belfast Newspaper, which is still available on the delightful original paper in the main Belfast Library, and has occasional articles about South Carolina.

Under the "Bounty Act", King George III encouraged Protestant emigration to South Carolina by granting Protestant men 100 acres, plus 50 acres per dependant. Being unmarried and about nineteen years old, James Bankhead received a 100 acre royal land grant after landing in Charleston.

My ancestor may not be the same James Bankhead who is listed on a stone monument to Revolutionary soldiers who were members of Catholic PRESBYTERIAN Church, whose four or more huge volumes of very meticulously kept birth, etc. records I read.

Perhaps the Church would consider publishing these records if incidents of members being punished for singing, dancing, fighting, drinking alcohol, etc. were edited out to avoid embarrassing descendants.

Catholic PRESBYTERIAN Church was established about 1770 and is located in Chester County a few miles north of the 150 acre 1767/68 royal land grant to my tritavus (Latin and legal term meaning great great great great grandfather) James STEWART (born 1739 or 1742 and died October 2, 1829) and his wife Rose (1745-1832). That 150 acre royal grant is now bisected by the Fairfield/Chester, SC county line, about eight miles east of Great Falls, SC; parts of it are now owned by Robert Storment Bankhead and William Stewart.

Robert "Robin" Stewart (1784-1865?) was a son of Revolutionary War militiaman James and his wife Rosannah (WHITE?) Stewart. Robert "Robin" Stewart married James and Mary Hatfield Bankhead's daughter Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?). Some of their children were Joseph (11/4/1809-4/4/1900), Samuel Hugh (senior) born 1813 (his descendants still live in the area, near Great Falls, SC), John Marion (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and my great great grandfather Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb.

1910), who fought the savage Federal Invasion (more Fairfield men than were eligible did so).

Thomas B. (Bankhead?) Stewart married Sarah Ann NOLAND, sister of David Noland, whose name is on a monument on the grounds of the South Carolina State House to South Carolinians who died in the War with Mexico (c. 1847).

About 1870 Thomas B. (Bankhead?) Stewart moved to Longtown in Fairfield County. He built and is buried beside, the beautiful Longtown Presbyterian Church, on a corner of his plantation. About a generation ago, the Presbyterian Church bought Thomas B. (Bankhead?) Stewart's plantation and built "Camp Longridge" on it.

The aforesaid brothers of Thomas B. Stewart married three daughters of Frank REID, whose descendant Rosannah McElduff told me she was named after her grandmother Rosannah HARVEY, who was named after her grandmother Rosannah Stewart (about 30 years ago, when she was about 90 years old).

~~STAN~~ John married
Catherine

I think Rosannah Harvey and her sister Sarah Young were daughters of Joseph and Mary Stewart (who owned a slave after she became a widow?), and that there was some litigation over their small (40 acre?) farm, which later involved the Austin family (probably heirs). I believe Rosannah Stewart Harvey's husband was killed fighting the Federal Invasion.

not know of any descendant of James and Rose Stewart who owned a slave.

A generation or two ago outsiders (the Tate family bought it), and built a modern house where the large old Stewart house had been. Between the Hebron Church and cemetery, a dirt road runs back to the house from where Highway 901 intersects the Chester/Fairfield County line. I think this area is called "Mitford".

Signed, Sealed, Declared and Published by the above named John Bailey as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

The following is from WS's research, interviews, reading, opinions, hunches, conclusions, etc. WS does not claim to be infallible, and recommends that others do their own research.

When WS asked Maggie Smith of Longtown, Fairfield County, SC (Joe B. Stewart's sister) where her Stewart ancestors came from, she answered "I-land". WS asked Maggie "What island?", but she did not know. Cousin Harvey Baxter STEWART told WS that a Stewart family tradition is that the STEWART and WHITE families were friends and neighbors before they left Ireland. A book on this same WHITE family of Chester, SC claims Whites came from near Broughshane (in the Braid valley, the region of Northern Ireland most Scottish in speech and custom), County Antrim. The passenger list of the "Earl of Donegal" names James STUART, age 26, and Rose (WHITE?), age 22, next to this large WHITE family. They sailed from Belfast on 10/2/1767 and arrived in Charleston, SC on December 22, 1767, where Protestants (SC has few Catholics) received Bounty land grants from King George III: James and Rose STEWART received 150 acres (surrounded by vacant land) now owned by WS and his cousin Robert Stornment BANKHEAD and located on Stover Creek on the Stover/Fairfield County line (See Chester Deeds 459-267), an area still inhabited mostly by Scottish Protestants. James was a soldier of the Revolution in the SC State Militia, for which service James' wife Rose (Rosannah) received James' pension after James died, at age 90 on 10/2/1829, according to his Scottish style tombstone in the old "Stewart" or "McDonald" cemetery, located a few hundred feet from Stover Creek in woods now or formerly owned by Edward H. MILLS of Whiteoak (See Fairfield Deeds EN-125). Some of the children of James (senior) and Rose STEWART (died 5/31/1832?) were Jane (1774-July 1852) who married a MARION, James (junior), Joseph (died 1835), and Robert "Robin" (1784-1865?). Some sons of Robert "Robin" STEWART and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?) were Joseph (11/4/1809-4/4/1900), Samuel Hugh (senior) born 1813 (his descendants still live in the area, near Great Falls, SC), John Marion (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb. 1910).

my G.G. Grand Father

Jane's father James BANKHEAD (1748-Jan, 1801) sailed from Belfast 10/21/1767 and is listed on a stone monument to Revolutionary soldiers at Catholic PRESBYTERIAN Church (established about 1770 and located in Chester County a few miles north of STEWART family plantations in Fairfield). Many Stewarts and kin are mentioned in its earliest records and are buried in its cemetery. The "Catholic" name of this church means not Roman Catholic, but "universal" because various branches of the Presbyterian religion were included. Stewart kin are buried at Hebron Presbyterian Church, a mile east of the Stewart royal land grant. The last STEWARTs to live in this area were two bachelors, Will and Jim STEWART, whom cousin Robert S. BANKHEAD remembered "loved their fish and liquor", and drove their wagon to Blackstock for supplies. They were descendants of John Marion STEWART (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Catherine Reid, daughter of Frank REID who was shipwrecked in England and escaped by jumping overboard into the Charleston harbor; the rounded quart-sized green water bottle Frank drank from on board the ship was shown to WS by Frank's descendant Rosa McELDUFF (now deceased), who said she was named after her grandmother Rose (if I recall correctly her grandmother was Rosannah Harvey daughter of Joseph Stewart, son of James and Rose Stewart), who was named after her grandmother Rose STEWART. One large branch of our STEWART family left the Stover area about 1900 to settle in Corsicana, Texas, where STEWARTs own(ed?) a large General Motors car dealership.

Descendants of James Bankhead

Generation No. 1

1. JAMES<sup>1</sup> BANKHEAD was born 1748 in Belfast, County Antrim, Northern Ireland, and died January 1821. He married MARY HATFIELD, daughter of WILLIAM HATFIELD. She was born 1752 in South Carolina, and died January 1801.

Notes for JAMES BANKHEAD:

On October 21, 1767, James Bankhead sailed from Belfast, County Antrim (part of Northern Ireland since about 1922) for Charleston, South Carolina on board the snow (a type ship) "Betty Gregg".

The original passenger list of the Betty Gregg is in the SC State Council Journals at the State Archives Building in Columbia, SC.

James received a "Royal Land Grant" of 100 acres, which suggests he had no dependents when he debarked in Charleston, South Carolina about January 11, 1768. Under the Bounty Act, King George granted Protestants who settled in South Carolina 100 acres of land, plus 50 acres for each dependant.

The above James Bankhead married Mary Hatfield, daughter of William Hatfield, daughter of William Hatfield, and may not be the same James Bankhead who is listed on a stone monument to Revolutionary soldiers at Catholic Presbyterian Church in Chester County, South Carolina.

Man dies after crash

RICHBURG - A Richburg man who was going to his son's service station died Friday from injuries he suffered when his car was rammed by a pulpwood truck about 100 yards from the station, authorities said. William Cephus Kee, 76, of Route 1, Richburg, died at Chester County Hospital about three hours after his 1973 Oldsmobile was struck by a pulpwood truck at the intersection of S.C. 223 and S.C. 9, about 12 miles east of Chester, said State Highway Patrolman B.S. Willard.

Kee was travelling south on S.C. 223 and apparently failed to yield the right of way to the truck, said Willard. The truck was driven by Coit Wayne Davis of Route 2, Peachland. Kee pulled into the path of the oncoming truck, Willard said.

Willard said that Kee was apparently driving to a service station owned by his son, Bo.

Man dies after crash

RICHBURG - A Richburg man who was going to his son's service station died Friday from injuries he suffered when his car was rammed by a pulpwood truck about 100 yards from the station, authorities said. William Cephus Kee, 76, of Route 1, Richburg, died at Chester County Hospital about three hours after his 1973 Oldsmobile was struck by a pulpwood truck at the intersection of S.C. 223 and S.C. 9, about 12 miles east of Chester, said State Highway Patrolman B.S. Willard.

Kee was travelling south on S.C. 223 and apparently failed to yield the right of way to the truck, said Willard. The truck was driven by Coit Wayne Davis of Route 2, Peachland. Kee pulled into the path of the oncoming truck, Willard said.

Willard said that Kee was apparently driving to a service station owned by his son, Bo.

The following is from WS's research, interviews, reading, opinions, hunches, conclusions, etc. WS does not claim to be infallible, and recommends that others do their own research.

When WS asked Maggie Smith of Longtown, Fairfield County, SC (Joe B. Stewart's sister) where her Stewart ancestors came from, she answered "I-land". WS asked Maggie "What island?", but she did not know. Cousin Harvey Baxter STEWART told WS that a Stewart family tradition is that the STEWART and WHITE families were friends and neighbors before they left Ireland. A book on this same WHITE family of Chester, SC claims Whites came from near Broughshane (in the Braid valley, the region of Northern Ireland most Scottish in speech and custom), County Antrim. The passenger list of the "Earl of Donegal" names James STUART, age 26, and Rose (WHITE?), age 22, next to this large WHITE family. They sailed from Belfast on 10/2/1767 and arrived in Charleston, SC on December 22, 1767, where Protestants (SC has few Catholics) received Bounty land grants from King George III: James and Rose STEWART received 150 acres (surrounded by vacant land) now owned by WS and his cousin Robert Stoment BANKHEAD and located on Stover Creek on the Chester/Fairfield County line (See Chester Deeds 459-267), an area still inhabited mostly by Scottish Protestants. James was a soldier of the Revolution in the SC State Militia, for which service James' wife Rose (Rosannah) received James' pension after James died, at age 90 on 10/2/1829, according to his Scottish style tombstone in the old "Stewart" or "McDonald" cemetery, located a few hundred feet from Stover Creek in woods now or formerly owned by Edward H. MILLS of Whiteoak (See Fairfield Deeds EN-125). Some of the children of James (senior) and Rose STEWART (died 5/31/1832?) were Jane (1774-July 1852) who married a MARION, James (junior), Joseph (died 1835), and Robert "Robin" (1784-1865?). Some sons of Robert "Robin" STEWART and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?) were Joseph (11/4/1809-4/4/1900), Samuel Hugh (senior) born 1813 (his descendants still live in the area, near Great Falls, SC), John Marion (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb. 1910).

NOTE:

Jane's father James BANKHEAD (1748-Jan, 1801) sailed from Belfast 10/21/1767 and is listed on a stone monument to Revolutionary soldiers at Catholic PRESBYTERIAN Church (established about 1770 and located in Chester County a few miles north of STEWART family plantations in Fairfield). Many Stewarts and kin are mentioned in its earliest records and are buried in its cemetery. The "Catholic" name of this church means not Roman Catholic, but "universal" because various branches of the Presbyterian religion were included. Stewart kin are buried at Hebron Presbyterian Church, a mile east of the Stewart royal land grant. The last STEWARTs to live in this area were two bachelors, Will and Jim STEWART, whom cousin Robert S. BANKHEAD remembered "loved their fish and liquor", and drove their wagon to Blackstock for supplies. They were descendants of John Marion STEWART (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Catherine Reid, daughter of Frank REID who was hanged in England and escaped by jumping overboard into the Charleston harbor, the rounded half-quart-sized green water bottle Frank drank from on board the ship was shown to WS by Frank's descendant Rosa McELDUFF (now deceased), who said she was named after her grandmother Rose (if I recall correctly her grandmother was Rosannah Harvey daughter of Joseph Stewart, son of James and Rose Stewart), who was named after her grandmother Rose STEWART. One large branch of our

When Thomas B. STEWART and two of his sons left to fight the Federal armies that were threatening their families and property, Tom's son James E. STEWART "Big Jim" was not allowed to enlist because of his age, so Jim followed his pa and brothers on the road. It took two days for Jim's family to catch up with Jim to bring Jim back. Jim shot at Sherman's marauding Federal troops who travelled up the main highway north (now Highway 901) from Columbia past the Stewart plantations on Stover Creek (on the Chester and Fairfield County line); I was told the Yankee horsemen who chased Jim down let Jim live because of Jim's youth (about 17 years old).

In 1877, Thomas B. (Bankhead?) STEWART and family moved from Stover Creek to Longtown in Fairfield County. They wagoned about 20 miles to Aimwell Presbyterian Church until, on corners of their plantations, Tom and a neighbor built the beautiful Longtown Presbyterian Church, which also contains many records of the STEWART family. Tom and Sarah are buried in graves unmarked except by an iron Confederate Veteran marker in the closest row to the church, midway along the west side. A monument (erected beside the SC State House) to those in the Palmetto Regiment who died in the 1847 War with Mexico names Sarah's brother, David NOLAND. WS has a big granite millstone Tom used to grind corn, found on Tom's plantation in Longtown. Tom had many children, William, Tom, Joe, James E. (Big Jim), etc.

Some Longtown Negroes WS asked about STEWARTs said Big Jim could lift with one hand a 200 pound sack of fertilizer and set it on a wagon. Both Longtown racial communities venerated the parts. Jim was father of eight: Maggie, Ida, Eunice, Joseph Beverly, Jim, John, Herbert, and Tom in.

Thomas Martin Stewart had only two children, both illegitimate mulattos named Robinson, who were outstanding students. Herbert Stewart had several children, all illegitimate mulattos named Belton. They lived near Longtown, and were a family "secret". In South Carolina, miscegenation is illegal. WS knows of no other Stewart relatives who have Negro genes.

Joseph Beverly STEWART (born 5/18/1878 in Longtown, Fairfield County, SC - died 3/18/1947) is buried near other kin at Antioch Methodist Church (a mile west of his son WJ Stewart's 230+ acre farm in Feasterville, Fairfield County). "Joe" was the son of James E. STEWART (1848-9/10/1918) and Mattie MARTIN (1852-1920); was the grandson of Confederate soldier Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb/1910) and "Sally" Sarah Ann NOLAND (1828-?) AND OF "Captain" James C. MARTIN (11/21/20-12/10/1893) and Martha; was the GREAT GRANDSON of Robert "Robin" STEWART (1784-1865?) and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?); was the GREAT GREAT GRANDSON of Revolutionary War militiaman James STEWART (senior) (1741-10/2/1829) and Rose (1745-5/31/1832?) AND OF James BANKHEAD (1748-Jan/1801) and Mary HATFIELD, daughter of William HATFIELD (died Jan/1801?). Joe was a farmer and known throughout Fairfield as "Captain" of the "Chain Gang" prisoners he used to build county roads. WS was told Joe might have been murdered had he not seen the shadow of, and caught with his hand, the pick being aimed at him from and by a Negro prisoner, whom Joe whipped to death after work later that day. Joe became weight; as a result of diabetes, Joe's leg was amputated at the knee, so he wore a wooden peg (later one with a joint).

From Stewart 10 July, 1999 to Cousin William Stewart DOVE
<WDove61645@aol.com>

Dear Cousin William Stewart DOVE,

Congratulations on completing your family tree from James Stewart down to your grandchildren, and thank you:

- 1) for your kind e-mail dated 6 July 1999 expressing your gratitude for my contributions to your genealogical research;
- 2) for the excellent photograph of Samuel Stewart and wife Nancy REID, which I intend to scan and post on the Stewart Internet site;

I think your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart's wife Catherine was also a REID, the daughter of Frank REID, a very colorful character who was Shanghaied in England. I think I once read a long and interesting obituary about him in an old Chester newspaper. I think two of your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart's brothers married two of his wife Kate or Catherine Reid's sisters.

Might your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart have also had a son named Samuel Hugh Stewart (I may have seen his name on an early Chester County deed), and might you be descended from him instead?

I sent almost all the genealogical information I had about your Reid and Stewart ancestors to a Mrs. Regina Evans in California during the 1960s. It would be nice to hear from her again. I hope she is still alive and that you can help each other. Are some members of the Wrenn family descendants of James Stewart or Frank Reid?

- 3) for mailing me a copy of the will of your great great great great grandfather James Bankhead, whose daughter Jane was the mother of your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart and my gggrandfather Thomas B(ankhead?) Stewart.

I checked for errors the information on the 1980 Stewart deed you mailed me, and am please to have found none.

- 4) for mailing me the list of descendants of Samuel Stewart and Nancy REID, which I intend to add to my Family Tree Maker files.

In the 1960s I think I found several families of descendants of Samuel Stewart in the Great Falls area. I think some were Brooms, a McKeown family, Minors, etc. It would be nice to add their names to our genealogy records too.

For mailing me copies of the information you received from the SC archives about the Stewarts who attempted to defend SC against the Federal invasion: I doubt I know anything about Samuel Hugh Stewart that you do not already know. I grieved over our losses as I searched through

The following is from WS's research, interviews, reading, opinions, hunches, conclusions, etc. WS does not claim to be infallible, and recommends that others do their own research.

When WS asked Maggie Smith of Longtown, Fairfield County, SC (Joe B. Stewart's sister) where her Stewart ancestors came from, she answered "I-land". WS asked Maggie "What island?", but she did not know. Cousin Harvey Baxter STEWART told WS that a Stewart family tradition is that the STEWART and WHITE families were friends and neighbors before they left Ireland. A book on this same WHITE family of Chester, SC claims Whites came from near Broughshane (in the Braid valley, the region of Northern Ireland most Scottish in speech and custom), County Antrim. The passenger list of the "Earl of Donegal" names James STUART, age 26, and Rose (WHITE?), age 22, next to this large WHITE family. They sailed from Belfast on 10/2/1767 and arrived in Charleston, SC on December 22, 1767, where Protestants (SC has few Catholics) received Bounty land grants from King George III: James and Rose STEWART received 150 acres (surrounded by vacant land) now owned by WS and his cousin Robert Stormont BANKHEAD and located on Stover Creek on the Chester/Fairfield County line (See Chester Deeds 459-267), an area still inhabited mostly by Scotch-Irish Protestants. James was a soldier of the Revolution in the SC State Militia, for which service James' wife Rose (Rosannah) received James' pension after James died, at age 90 on 10/2/1829, according to his Scottish style tombstone in the old "Stewart" or "McDonald" cemetery, located a few hundred feet from Stover Creek in woods now or formerly owned by Edward H. MILLS of Whiteoak (See Fairfield Deeds EN-125). Some of the children of James (senior) and Rose STEWART (died 5/31/1832?) were Jane (1774-July 1852) who married a MARION, James (junior), Joseph (died 1835), and Robert "Robin" (1784-1865?). Some sons of Robert "Robin" STEWART and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?) were Joseph (11/4/1809-4/4/1900), Samuel Hugh (senior) born 1813 (his descendants still live in the area, near Great Falls, SC), John Marion (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb. 1910).

NOTE:

Jane's father James BANKHEAD (1748-Jan, 1801) sailed from Belfast 10/21/1767 and is listed on a stone monument to Revolutionary soldiers at Catholic PRESBYTERIAN Church (established about 1770 and located in Chester County a few miles north of STEWART family plantations in Fairfield). Many Stewarts and kin are mentioned in its earliest records and are buried in its cemetery. The "Catholic" name of this church means not Roman Catholic, but "universal" because various branches of the Presbyterian religion were included. Stewart kin are buried at Hebron Presbyterian Church, a mile east of the Stewart royal land grant. The last STEWARTs to live in this area were two bachelors, Will and Jim STEWART, whom cousin Robert S. BANKHEAD remembered "loved their fish and liquor", and drove their wagon to Blackstock for supplies. They were descendants of John Marion STEWART (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Catherine Reid, daughter of Frank REID who was hanged in England and escaped by jumping overboard into the Charleston harbor, the rounded half-quart-sized green water bottle Frank drank from on board the ship was shown to WS by Frank's descendant Rosa McELDUFF (now deceased), who said she was named after her grandmother Rose (if I recall correctly her grandmother was Rosannah Harvey daughter of Joseph Stewart, son of James and Rose Stewart), who was named after her grandmother Rose STEWART. One large branch of our

When Thomas B. STEWART and two of his sons left to fight the Federal armies that were threatening their families and property, Tom's son James E. STEWART "Big Jim" was not allowed to enlist because of his age, so Jim followed his pa and brothers on the road. It took two days for Jim's family to catch up with Jim to bring Jim back. Jim shot at Sherman's marauding Federal troops who travelled up the main highway north (now Highway 901) from Columbia past the Stewart plantations on Stover Creek (on the Chester and Fairfield County line); I was told the Yankee horsemen who chased Jim down let Jim live because of Jim's youth (about 17 years old).

In 1877, Thomas B. (Bankhead?) STEWART and family moved from Stover Creek to Longtown in Fairfield County. They wagoned about 20 miles to Aimwell Presbyterian Church until, on corners of their plantations, Tom and a neighbor built the beautiful Longtown Presbyterian Church, which also contains many records of the STEWART family. Tom and Sarah are buried in graves unmarked except by an iron Confederate Veteran marker in the closest row to the church, midway along the west side. A monument (erected beside the SC State House) to those in the Palmetto Regiment who died in the 1847 War with Mexico names Sarah's brother, David NOLAND. WS has a big granite millstone Tom used to grind corn, found on Tom's plantation in Longtown. Tom had many children, William, Tom, Joe, James E. (Big Jim), etc.

Some Longtown Negroes WS asked about STEWARTs said Big Jim could lift with one hand a 200 pound sack of fertilizer and set it on a wagon. Both Longtown racial communities venerated the parts. Jim was father of eight: Maggie, Ida, Eunice, Joseph Beverly, Jim, John, Herbert, and Tom in.

Thomas Martin Stewart had only two children, both illegitimate mulattos named Robinson, who were outstanding students. Herbert Stewart had several children, all illegitimate mulattos named Belton. They lived near Longtown, and were a family "secret". In South Carolina, miscegenation is illegal. WS knows of no other Stewart relatives who have Negro genes.

Joseph Beverly STEWART (born 5/18/1878 in Longtown, Fairfield County, SC - died 3/18/1947) is buried near other kin at Antioch Methodist Church (a mile west of his son WJ Stewart's 230+ acre farm in Feasterville, Fairfield County). "Joe" was the son of James E. STEWART (1848-9/10/1918) and Mattie MARTIN (1852-1920); was the grandson of Confederate soldier Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb/1910) and "Sally" Sarah Ann NOLAND (1828-?) AND OF "Captain" James C. MARTIN (11/21/20-12/10/1893) and Martha; was the GREAT GRANDSON of Robert "Robin" STEWART (1784-1865?) and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?); was the GREAT GREAT GRANDSON of Revolutionary War militiaman James STEWART (senior) (1741-10/2/1829) and Rose (1745-5/31/1832?) AND OF James BANKHEAD (1748-Jan/1801) and Mary HATFIELD, daughter of William HATFIELD (died Jan/1801?). Joe was a farmer and known throughout Fairfield as "Captain" of the "Chain Gang" prisoners he used to build county roads. WS was told Joe might have been ordered had he not seen the shadow of, and caught with his hand, the pick being aimed at him from and by a Negro prisoner, whom Joe whipped to death after work later that day. Joe became weight; as a result of diabetes, Joe's leg was amputated at the knee, so he wore a wooden peg (later one with a joint).

Posted by Stewart about James Bankhead (1748-1821) of Chester SC on May 11, 1999 at <http://genforum.genealogy.com/cgi-gcnforum/forums/bankhead.cgi>

Dear Bankhead cousins,

I thank my Bankhead cousins for always being most noble and kind towards me, and generous with their information and time. This is my first visit to this forum (which I have not yet read).

I am a descendant of James BANKHEAD (1748-1821), who sailed from Belfast October 21, 1767 on board the snow (ship) BETTY GREGG. For about three weeks before his departure, advertisements for passengers were published in the Belfast Newspaper, which is still available on the delightful original paper in the main Belfast Library, and has occasional articles about South Carolina.

For the "Bounty Act", King George III encouraged Protestant emigration to South Carolina by granting Protestant men 100 acres, plus 50 acres per dependant. Being unmarried and about nineteen years old, James Bankhead received a 100 acre royal land grant after landing in Charleston.

Does anyone know exactly where James Bankhead's 100 acre royal land grant is, and who now owns it?

about them more easily than you and I.

==STEWART==> Genealogy seems infinite, so when I began my research I concentrated on my own ancestors. If cousins never married each other, anyone who traced all his ancestors twenty one generations back would find one million different individuals. A person who lived 21 generations ago might have millions of descendants.

==STEWART==> I am starting to gather information about my cousins because I hope to save people like you the time and expense that I had to go through to learn the little that I know. We are fortunate to have computers and genealogical societies which preserve and disseminate such information. I doubt anyone will value my paper records enough to stop them from being trashed after I die, no matter how much money and time I have spent on genealogical research.

==DOVE==> I sincerely appreciate the information about the Stewarts, especially the name of my great great grandfather Samuel Hughes Stewart.

==STEWART==> Correction: I believe your great great grandfather's name was Samuel Hugh Stewart, and that his wife was a Reid. I think I was told that three Reid sisters married three Stewart brothers, one of these marriages being between Catherine Reid and her husband John Marion Stewart, who are buried at Catholic Presbyterian Church. My great great grand father Thomas B. Stewart married was the son of Robert "Robin" Stewart and Jane Bankhead and was the brother of John Marion Stewart and Samuel Hugh Stewart. I think Robin Stewart died about 1865. The Federal army spent a lot of time in his neighborhood wrecking havoc.

==STEWART==> So you are a Bankhead descendant too.

==STEWART==> Some of the children of James (senior) and Rose STEWART (died 5/31/1832?) were Jane (1774-July 1852) who married a MARION, James (junior), Joseph (died 1835), and Robert "Robin" (1784-1865?). Some sons of Robert "Robin" STEWART and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?) were Joseph (11/4/1809-4/4/1900), Samuel Hugh (senior) born 1813 (his descendants still live in the area, near Great Falls, SC), John Marion (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb. 1910).

==STEWART==> Years ago I sent hundreds of pages of genealogical information to a Reid descendant named Regina? Evans in California about this family. I think she told me Catherine Reid's father was named Frank Reid, and that her mother father was named Thomas Hughes.

==STEWART==> This information is not about my own ancestors and since no one seemed interested until you wrote me, it takes a while for me to remember it.

==STEWART==> I wonder if the "Hugh" in Samuel Hugh Stewart came from a man named Hugh McDonald, whose land was almost adjacent to the Stewart plantations, and who was probably the first to settle in what is now the Mitford community, I think about 1745. I think he was an Indian trader at one time. I think Jane or Janet Stewart, a daughter of James and Rose Stewart, married a McDonald, so Samuel Hugh Stewart might have been named after his McDonald uncle.

==STEWART==> Please let me know everything you find out about your gggrandfather Samuel Hugh Stewart. He may have been killed in the Civil War. I remember wondering what happened to him, since I could not find his name in the later census records of the Stover area. I do remember

From Stewart to Cousin William "Bill" Stewart DOVE
<wdovebird@hotmail.com> 4/18/99 about Stewart genealogy.

Dear Cousin,

Thank you for your 4/8/99 and 4/14/99 e-mail (which I just received due to my scarcity of time, etc.), and for your efforts to learn, and educate others, about our Stewart family, which descends from Revolutionary War "Continental" militiaman James STEWART (1739 - 1828) and his wife Rose "Rosannah" (1745 - 1832), who received her husband's Revolutionary War pension from the State of SC and may have been the daughter of the John WHITE with whom they left Ireland.

Catholics burnt the Belfast Court House in 1922, so I doubt James Stewart's descendants will ever know who his parents were.

You (but not I) are also a descendant of Frank Reid, who was shanghaied in England and swam ashore after jumping ship in Charleston, SC. Frank Reid used to celebrate the 4th of July by shooting a canon. I once read an article about him in an old Chester newspaper. I think his wife was named Mary Hughes and that your great great grandfather Samuel Hughes Stewart (father of your great grandfather Samuel Stewart) was named after his Hughes relatives (Samuel is an unusual name for members of my Stewart family).

I doubt you will be able to find any eligible male ancestor from Chester and Fairfield County who did NOT fight in the Civil War, since many more volunteered than were of fighting age. The same is probably true of the Revolutionary War.

Any family which has a member who is still as energetic, talented and capable as you seem to be is blessed. You must have great genes and a wife who takes excellent care of you.

I think our Stewart family is fortunate that you are now so enthusiastic and interested in learning about and preserving for future generations our genealogy and history.

Working together we may achieve as much as the Kee and other families (even Negro) have.

I want to help preserve family history and genealogy while being as respectful of individual privacy as possible, so prefer that private information about my ancestors' living descendants be shared only with their own kinfolks.

At present I am trying to obtain the names, dates and places of birth, marriage, death and burial, etc., and short biographies (like the information you kindly e-mailed me) of my closest relatives.

I hope other branches of my Stewart family will do the same, so we can combine our data and have a record of as many descendants of James and Rose Stewart as possible.

Are any of your descendants able to help record genealogical information?

We might even have a great nation wide family reunion one day (like the descendants of some of my other ancestors, such as Colonel Frederick Hambricht, who led the American forces which defeated King George's troops at the battle of Kings Mountain.

I would like to have as much information about the children of your parents, and your own children and grandchildren, as you are willing to provide me with.

Every generation and year that passes makes our task more difficult.

I like using my desktop computer to type the information my relatives give me during local telephone conversations. A laptop might be useful for recording information collected during visits.

Capitol letters are more difficult for me to read, so I to use them only for EMPHASIS. Holding the shift key down while typing a letter can change it from a small to a capital letter. The CAPS LOCK key also determines the case of the letters.

ase tell me about your computer. Do you use Windows 95? Do you have a ROM? If you use Hotmail, your computer must be connected to Internet. Which ISP do you use (AOL, etc.)?

You can avoid tying up your telephone line by composing your messages with Notepad, and then using the Edit Copy/Paste command to send them via Hotmail.

Juno e-mail is free and easier to manage off-line, so I use it instead of other free e-mail services (like Hotmail, etc.), even though I have full Internet access via another ISP.

Juno <www.juno.com> software is needed to use Juno's free e-mail (or Juno's full Internet access, which costs about $20/month).

If you are interested in trying Juno, telephone technical support at 1 888 860 5866, or customer service 1 800 586 6889, 8a - 2a M-F and 10a -12 a S & Su EST and ask them to send you their software (Juno will send you a CD or diskettes free of charge).

Juno software can also be downloaded from <<http://www.juno.com/getit.html>>, but I prefer to use Juno's CD.

../getmsg?disk=209.185.130.51_d1201&login=wdovebird&f=33793&curmbox=ACTIVE&_lan 4/19/99

Juno offers the first month of full Internet access free. Even if you cancel at the end of the first month, you can continue using your Juno e-mail account, without ever having to pay for another ISP again.

If you mention my e-mail address when you order Juno, and decide to keep Juno for three months, Juno will send me a check for $20, but that is not why I am telling you about Juno.

If Juno sends me a check because you decide to try Juno, I will just forward the check to you in NC, so you can get three months full Internet access for $20.00 if you please.

I produce all my food, etc. and rarely need any money for my personal use. I want to serve my relatives, seek no credit, and think I spend most of what I have trying to help others.

Last names are so significant to me that I rarely call anyone by any other name, and prefer others to use my last name only, as in the military.

Sincerely,

H. Stewart

==DOVE==>location,

==STEWART==>1011 Walnut Street, Columbia, SC, 29205-1016

==DOVE==>first name

==STEWART==>William

==DOVE==>and family background

==STEWART==> I have mostly lived alone since I was 17, after which I wasted about 10 years in schools, and ten or fifteen years travelling around about 70 countries. I earned what little money I have investing in real estate and now live very frugally in my own home. I need to spend more time in my garden, but have been wasting it at my computer instead.

==DOVE==>but in respect for your privacy I'll just except you as a link to my roots. As courious as I am I'll have to learn to live with this disappointment.

==STEWART==> Sorry to disappoint you. Might your disappointment diminish our ability to share genealogical information and collaborate?

==STEWART==> I treat every one honestly and with respect, but do not talk about my, or anyone else's, personal life much, unless I understand how ing so might benefit others.

==STEWART==> I enjoyed reading what you volunteered about your own life, which I think is an admirable role model worthy of others' attention. I appreciate and understand your interest in my own.

==STEWART==> I am also happy that you are interested in our Stewart

==STEWART==> Please consider the information I have given you to be clues only, which may help guide you in your research. Having the clues I have given you may make things easier for you, but proving to be true what I have told you is more difficult. People who have done no original source research obtain a lot of information (or misinformation) the easy way, thanks to Internet.

==DOVE==>If I could get the name of his wife and the names of their children I would have achieved a great step in filling in the roots up until now.

==DOVE==>Your reply to Mrs. Bankhead was found on the Fairfield county roots web at <http://eqi.rootsweb.com/~qnbbs/qenbbs.eqi/USA/SC/Fairfield?read=582>.

==STEWART==> You mistyped the above URL, but I was able to find it anyway.

==STEWART==> I read what I posted to Mrs. Bankhead and discovered I had already given you almost everything I know about Samuel Hugh Stewart (his parents, date of birth, etc.). I had forgotten that Samuel Hugh Stewart was a son of Robert Stewart and Jane Bankhead, and do not know how I came to that conclusion, which should be confirmed by doing your own research.

==STEWART==> My memory is getting bad and I had forgotten exactly who Samuel Hugh Stewart was and how much I knew about him. It was coming back to me slowly.

==STEWART==> I remember having a lot of unanswered questions about him, and hope you will find out more about him than I have, and let me know if you do.

==DOVE==>You made reference to a W.S'S in your reply. who is WS's and is he or she located on the internet.

==STEWART==> Sorry I did not write more clearly. WS is me. I used my initials (WS) to save space. I try to avoid using pronouns because they are sometimes confusing.

==DOVE==>I have great news!!!!!! my cousin located a Brice Wrenn >in columbia s.c. who is the grandson of samuel stewart my great >great grandfather.

==STEWART==> I remember being kin to a Brice Wrenn family. Please send me your cousin's, and Brice Wrenn's, e-mail addresses and/or telephone numbers.

==DOVE==>to my surprise he has pictures of he and his wife!!!

==STEWART==> Congratulations: if they will let me scan them, you can copy them off Internet.

==DOVE==>she will make a trip to columbia soon to get copies!!!! I'm excited!!!! now all I need is birth and death dates of samuel hugh and his wife and I'll be on my way to filling in the gaps. I can not remember his wife's first name but I think she was a REID.

==STEWART==> I think Samuel Hugh (senior) was born in 1813 - I probably got that date from a Fairfield census. Unfortunately I lost all my census information. If you get better information from someone else, please let ==DOVE==> By the way, i do have juno but discontinued using it due to the fact i was only allowed one message per day!!!

==STEWART==> I know other people who use Juno and no one else has ever told me that. I have received over one hundred messages at a time via Juno. If you call one of the numbers I gave you can ask Juno to explain.

==DOVE==>in regards to your question concerning my computer i have windows 98 and do have a cd-rom. i am connected to mindspring.

==STEWART==> Thank you for letting me know.

I wonder how I received your 12 May 1999 e-mail, since it was

HSAPIENS@JUNO.COM
H.SAPIENS@JUNO.COM is my correct e-mail address.

In the future, please e-mail me at ANCESTRY@JUNO.COM

Thank you for your last e-mail message containing information which supports my suspicion (based on his age and my understanding of the spirit of our Stewart ancestors, whom I doubt would abandon their families otherwise, etc.) that my great grandfather's uncle Samuel Hugh Stewart was killed fighting against Federal occupation.

Does the strong affect this tragedy had on his family and descendants help explain your interest "in the Stewarts who served in the civil war".

Confederate men gave better than they received against four times their numbers and vastly superior weapons, etc.

How proud we can be that your great great grandfather fought for our families, property (no Stewart descendant I know of owned slaves) and freedom (which are as vital to our survival today as ever) as a Lieutenant with a very intelligent, bold and gallant gentleman of strong character like Hampton, whose nobility neither defeat nor death could tarnish.

May those who collect, treasure, preserve and disseminate such genealogical information help to inspire future generations of our race (and lingering but still great Civilization) with the pride and identity it needs to survive.

How could Samuel Hugh Stewart's descendants neglect to teach their family's history to his descendants?

I sharply mourn the deaths of my many kinsmen who throughout history have died in frequent fratricidal wars.

Is our fratricide relished by the members of the militant, well organized and savage minority which have governed us (currently first and second generation aliens like Albright, Cohen, Reich, Rubin, Kissinger, Greenspan, etc.)? Two thirds of "Clinton's" top administration appointees are of the same ilk.

Their own ethnic nation is protected by fallout shelters built abroad with our taxes in the name of "foreign aid".

Is the Federal government intervening in a Serbian Civil War in order to provoke and justify on a grander (nuclear) scale the continuation of the holocaust of our Indo-Hittite (Germanic/Anglo, Celtic/Scot, Slavic, etc.)
race, begun in the name of God according to Deuteronomy 7, etc.?

I am forwarding to you the following 10 May 1999 e-mail I received via STEWART-L@rootsweb.com from Betty Jane Stewart <BStewart@erols.com>:

I replied:

uel and Robert are also names associated with my Stewart family, which said to have come from near Broughshane, County Antrim, Northern Ireland in 1767.

Some of the children of my ancestor James (senior) (born 1739 or 1741 - died October 2, 1929) and Rose STEWART (1742 - died 5/31/1832?) were Jane (1774-July 1852) who married a MARTON, James (junior), Joseph (died 1835), and Robert "Robin" (1784-1865?). Some sons of Robert "Robin" STEWART and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?) were Joseph (11/4/1809-4/4/1900), Samuel Hugh (senior) born 1813 (his descendants still live in the area, near Great Falls, SC), John Marion (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb. 1910).

Have you checked the 1820, 1830, 1840, 1950, and 1860 census records for information about Samuel Hugh Stewart (1813 - June, 1862)?

About 30 years ago I copied onto paper all the information about any family that might be kin to me that I found when I read the census records of Fairfield and Chester Counties, but lost it along with my best records.

If you do the same, and e-mail your notes to me, my memory about many things may be refreshed.

Samuel Hugh Stewart (1813 - June, 1862) may be buried on the battlefield.

Have you searched for deeds or estate settlements?

You may also find his name or obituary in a Chester or Fairfield County newspaper of the period,

Your great grandmother Nancy Reid may have been a double first cousin of her husband, whose grandfathers were Frank Reid and Robert "Robin" Stewart.

Information I send you may not be based on vague memories and correct, particularly about Samuel Hugh Stewart (1813 - June, 1862), about whom I remember being very puzzled also.

If you ever visit, I live in Columbia, SC, where I can be reached by telephone if told when you will call.

Sorry, it is 6 a.m. and I need some sleep.

Sincerely,
Stewart

==STEWART==> Genealogy seems infinite, so when I began my research I concentrated on my own ancestors. If cousins never married each other, anyone who traced all his ancestors twenty one generations back would find one million different individuals. A person who lived 21 generations might have millions of descendants.

==STEWART==> I am starting to gather information about my cousins because I hope to save people like you the time and expense that I had to go through to learn the little that I know. We are fortunate to have computers and genealogical societies which preserve and disseminate such information. I doubt anyone will value my paper records enough to stop them from being trashed after I die, no matter how much money and time I have spent on genealogical research.

==DOVE==> I sincerely appreciate the information about the Stewarts, especially the name of my great great grandfather Samuel Hughes Stewart.

==STEWART==> Correction: I believe your great great grandfather's name was Samuel Hugh Stewart, and that his wife was a Reid. I think I was told that three Reid sisters married three Stewart brothers, one of these marriages being between Catherine Reid and her husband John Marion Stewart, who are buried at Catholic Presbyterian Church. My great great grand father Thomas B. Stewart married was the son of Robert "Robin" Stewart and Jane Bankhead and was the brother of John Marion Stewart and Samuel Hugh Stewart. I think Robin Stewart died about 1865. The Federal army spent a lot of time in his neighborhood wrecking havoc.

==STEWART==> So you are a Bankhead descendant too.

==STEWART==> Some of the children of James (senior) and Rose STEWART (died 5/31/1832?) were Jane (1774-July 1852) who married a MARION, James (junior), Joseph (died 1835), and Robert "Robin" (1784-1865?). Some sons of Robert "Robin" STEWART and Jane BANKHEAD (1784-?) were Joseph (11/4/1809-4/4/1900), Samuel Hugh (senior) born 1813 (his descendants still live in the area, near Great Falls, SC), John Marion (5/27/1820-10/15/1902) and Thomas B. STEWART (1827-Feb. 1910).

==STEWART==> Years ago I sent hundreds of pages of genealogical information to a Reid descendant named Regina? Evans in California about this family. I think she told me Catherine Reid's father was named Frank Reid, and that her mother father was named Thomas Hughes.

==STEWART==> This information is not about my own ancestors and since no one seemed interested until you wrote me, it takes a while for me to remember it.

==STEWART==> I wonder if the "Hugh" in Samuel Hugh Stewart came from a man named Hugh McDonald, whose land was almost adjacent to the Stewart plantations, and who was probably the first to settle in what is now the Ford community, I think about 1745. I think he was an Indian trader at that time. I think Jane or Janet Stewart, a daughter of James and Rose Stewart, married a McDonald, so Samuel Hugh Stewart might have been named after his McDonald uncle.

==STEWART==> Please let me know everything you find out about your gggrandfather Samuel Hugh Stewart. He may have been killed in the Civil War. I remember wondering what happened to him, since I could not find

Unit History - 3rd Infantry Regiment, State Troops

There were evidently two regiments formed known as the 3rd Infantry Regiment, State Troops.

The first regiment was organized for six months in state service to date from August 1, 1863. One company mustered out on January 31, 1864 and the other disbanded on February 1, 1864. Sifakis states that there were 4 companies organized.

==STEWART==> I think Samuel Hugh (senior) was born in 1813 - I probably got that date from a Fairfield census. Unfortunately I lost all my census information. If you get better information from someone else, please let me know.

Unit History - 3rd Infantry Regiment, State Troops

There were evidently two regiments formed known as the 3rd Infantry Regiment, State Troops.

The first regiment was organized for six months in state service to date from August 1, 1863. One company mustered out on January 31, 1864 and the other disbanded on February 1, 1864. Sifakis states that there were 4 companies organized.

Please tell me who those relatives are.

ABOUT SIX MONTHS AGO I DECIDED TO RESEARCH MY FAMILY TREE ON THE STEWART SIDE.

I am glad someone else wants to do so.

How long have you been interested in genealogy, what other families have you researched, where did they live, where were you born, where do you live? And please tell me anything else about yourself you care to let me know, eg. where you go to school, what kind of work you do. your age, whether you have children, etc.

CEMETARIES.

How many days were you in SC?

I FOUND TOMBSTONES WITH THE NAMES S. J. STEWART, WILLIAM H , DANIEL, DAVID, JOHN S, J. MARION AND SAMUEL STEWART, BORN 1880, DIED 1944.

In which cemeteries did you find the other above named tombstones, and what dates were on them? I have heard that there are books on the cemeteries of Fairfield and Chester Counties.

I think William H. Stewart is buried at Hebron Church in what I think is called Mitford or Stover. I was told a German shell cut him in half during World War I.

THESE NAMES WERE FOUND AT CHURCHES AT THE CHESTER AND FAIRFIELD COUNTY LINES.

HOW THEY FIT IN MY TREE I HAVE NO IDEA. MY MAIN PROBLEM IS TRYING TO LOCATE MY MOTHERS GRANDFATHER SAMUEL STEWART WHO MARRIED NANCY REID.

THESE WERE THE PARENTS OF MY MOTHERS MOTHER WHO WAS MAMIE STEWART KEE FROM RICHBURG S.C. SAMUEL STEWART AND WIFE NANCY LEFT RICHBURG AND MOVED TO COLUMBIA WHERE THEY BOTH DIED. I NEED TO KNOW THE NAMES OF SAMUELS FATHER AND MOTHER AND THEIR CHILDREN.

I think we can figure all this out. It has been a long time since I researched my Stewart ancestry. My memory is getting fuzzy, and time is short. I have a lot of records stored away. The more dates you can add to the names the better I can piece things together. I have interesting stories and information about the Reid family too.

HOW DO I GO ABOUT THIS.

The records are there, but it may take years of digging to find them.

YOUR HELP WILL BE GREATLY APPRECIATED.

I am thankful to have met a Stewart relative who is interested in our genealogy enough to spend some time researching it, and will help you all I can.

Sincerely,

W H Stewart

that she said Frank Reid had on him when he swam to shore in Charleston after being shanghied in England. I read an article in old Chester county newspapers about Frank Reid, who celebrated the Fourth of July by firing a cannon (I guess from the Revolutionary War).

I think Frank Reid married Mary, the daughter of Thomas Hughes. About thirty years I sent all the information I had about the descendants of Frank Reid to a lady in California named Regina EVANS.

Marion Stewart and his wife Catherine "Kate" Reid are buried in the Old Catholic Presbyterian Church cemetery.

I think Mr. William "Bill" Stewart DOVE (who emailed me requesting information about his Stewart ancestors) is also a descendant of Jane Bankhead, through her son Samuel Hugh Stewart.

Most of the above was written from my failing memory, which is still usually proven right, but don't depend on it.

Dear Cousin William Stewart DOVE,

Congratulations on completing your family tree from James Stewart down to your grandchildren, and thank you:

- 1) for your kind e-mail dated 6 July 1999 expressing your gratitude for my contributions to your genealogical research;
- 2) for the excellent photograph of Samuel Stewart and wife Nancy REID, which I intend to scan and post on the Stewart Internet site;

I think your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart's wife Catherine was also a REID, the daughter of Frank REID, a very colorful character who was Shanghaied in England. I think I once read a long and interesting obituary about him in an old Chester newspaper. I think two of your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart's brothers married two of his wife Kate or Catherine Reid's sisters.

Might your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart have also had a brother named Samuel Hugh Stewart (I may have seen his name on an early Chester County deed), and might you be descended from him instead?

I almost all the genealogical information I had about your Reid and Stewart ancestors to a Mrs. Regina Evans in California during the 1960s. It would be nice to hear from her again. I hope she is still alive and that you can help each other. Are some members of the Wrenn family descendants of James Stewart or Frank Reid?

- 3) for mailing me a copy of the will of your great great great great grandfather James Bankhead, whose daughter Jane was the mother of your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart and my ggggrandfather Thomas B(ankhead?) Stewart.

I checked for errors the information on the 1980 Stewart deed you mailed me, and am please to have found none.

- 4) for mailing me the list of descendants of Samuel Stewart and Nancy REID, which I intend to add to my Family Tree Maker files.

In the 1960s I think I found several families of descendants of Samuel Stewart in the Great Falls area. I think some were Brooms, a McKeown family, Minors, etc. It would be nice to add their names to our genealogy records too.

- 5) for mailing me copies of the information you received from the SC Archives about the Stewarts who attempted to defend SC against the British invasion: I doubt I know anything about Samuel Hugh Stewart that you do not already know. I grieved over our losses as I searched through

I think I once read a long and interesting obituary about him in an old Chester newspaper. I think two of your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart's brothers married two of his wife Kate or Catherine Reid's sisters.

Might your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart have also had a brother named Samuel Hugh Stewart (I may have seen his name on an early Chester County deed), and might you be descended from him instead?

I sent almost all the genealogical information I had about your Reid and Stewart ancestors to a Mrs. Regina Evans in California during the 1960s. It would be nice to hear from her again. I hope she is still alive and that you can help each other. Are some members of the Wrenn family descendants of James Stewart or Frank Reid?

3) for mailing me a copy of the will of your great great great great grandfather James Bankhead, whose daughter Jane was the mother of your great great grandfather John Marion Stewart and my gggrandfather Thomas B(ankhead?) Stewart.

I checked for errors the information on the 1980 Stewart deed you mailed me, and am please to have found none.

4) for mailing me the list of descendants of Samuel Stewart and Nancy REID, which I intend to add to my Family Tree Maker files.

In the 1960s I think I found several families of descendants of Samuel Stewart in the Great Falls area. I think some were Brooms, a McKeown family, Minors, etc. It would be nice to add their names to our genealogy records too.

5) for mailing me copies of the information you received from the SC Archives about the Stewarts who attempted to defend SC against the Federal invasion: I doubt I know anything about Samuel Hugh Stewart that you do not already know. I grieved over our losses as I searched through

STEWART GENEALOGY - SOUTH CAROLINA

Much of the genealogy above was recorded in Fairfield County Deeds EN on page 125; in Richland County Deeds 733 on page 745, and in Richland County Mortgages 1076 on page 590.

Benefit future generations by storing relevant, true and useful facts about your own family safely and cheaply for centuries by recording it with your deeds, wills, etc., wherever you live.

==DOVE==> By the way, i do have juno but i continued using it due to the fact i was only allowed one message per day!!!

==STEWART==> I know other people who use Juno and no one else has ever told me that. I have received over one hundred messages at a time via Juno. If you call one of the numbers I gave you can ask Juno to explain.

==DOVE==>in regards to your question concerning my computer i have windows 98 and do have a cd-rom. i am connected to mindspring.

==STEWART==> Thank you for letting me know.

==DOVE==>my knowledge of computers is limited. on a scale of 1-10 I'm a (2).

==STEWART==> On a scale of 1 to a 1000, I may be a 2.

==STEWART==> When on 08 Apr 1999 you wrote me: "I'VE JUST LEARNED SOMETHING NEW ON THIS COMPUTER.....YOU'ER LIMITED TO THE AMOUNT OF SPACE YOU CAN USE.", I wondered what kind of computer you had, I could not believe you used all of your memory to write one short letter.

==STEWART==> I recommended Juno because it seemed that you have to stop using your computer whenever someone makes a phone call. Juno allows you to compose e-mail off-line. Juno also sends and receives hundreds of messages in a few minutes, so does not tie up your telephone line very ng. I think Juno is much better than Hotmail.

==STEWART==> What kind of computer do you have? a 300 MHz IBM compatible with a 10 gig hard drive? How much RAM do you have?

==STEWART==> My 160 MHz with a 2.5 gig hard drive and 40 MB of RAM seems to be more than I need.

Sincerely,

Stewarty

==STEWART==> Please consider the information I have given you to be clues only, which may help guide you in your research. Having the clues I have given you may make things easier for you, but proving to be true what I have told you is more difficult. People who have done no original source research obtain a lot of information (or misinformation) the easy way, thanks to Internet.

==DOVE==>If I could get the name of his wife and the names of their children I would have achieved a great step in filling in the roots up until now.

==DOVE==>Your reply to Mrs. Bankhead was found on the Fairfield county roots web at <http://egi.rootsweb.com/~gnbbs/genbbs.egi/USA/SC/Fairfield?read=582>.

==STEWART==> You mistyped the above URL, but I was able to find it anyway.

==STEWART==> I read what I posted to Mrs. Bankhead and discovered I had already given you almost everything I know about Samuel Hugh Stewart (his parents, date of birth, etc.). I had forgotten that Samuel Hugh Stewart was a son of Robert Stewart and Jane Bankhead, and do not know how I came to that conclusion, which should be confirmed by doing your own research.

==STEWART==> My memory is getting bad and I had forgotten exactly who Samuel Hugh Stewart was and how much I knew about him. It was coming back to me slowly.

==STEWART==> I remember having a lot of unanswered questions about him, and hope you will find out more about him than I have, and let me know if you do.

==DOVE==>You made reference to a W.S'S in your reply. who is WS's and is he or she located on the internet.

==STEWART==> Sorry I did not write more clearly. WS is me. I used my initials (WS) to save space. I try to avoid using pronouns because they are sometimes confusing.

==DOVE==>I have great news!!!!!! my cousin located a Brice Wrenn >in columbia s.c. who is the grandson of samuel stewart my great >great grandfather.

==STEWART==> I remember being kin to a Brice Wrenn family. Please send me your cousin's, and Brice Wrenn's, e-mail addresses and/or telephone numbers.

==DOVE==>to my surprise he has pictures of he and his wife!!!

==STEWART==> Congratulations: if they will let me scan them, you can copy them off Internet.

==DOVE==>she will make a trip to columbia soon to get copies!!!! I'm excited!!!! now all I need is birth and death dates of samuel hugh and his wife and I'll be on my way to filling in the gaps. I can not remember his wife's first name but I think she was a REID.

==STEWART==> I think Samuel Hugh (senior) was born in 1813 - I probably got that date from a Fairfield census. Unfortunately I lost all my census information. If you get better information from someone else, please let

There were evidently two regiments formed known as the 3rd Infantry Regiment, State Troops.

The first regiment was organized for six months in state service to date from August 1, 1863. One company mustered out on January 31, 1864 and the other disbanded on February 1, 1864. Sitakis states that there were 4 companies organized.
