

MR. AND MRS. WARREN THRUSH
To Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Thrush, of 2351 E. Harding, will be honored at a reception June 20 on their 50th wedding anniversary.

The two were married June 20, 1914, in Little Rock, Ark., less than a month after they had met. It was the second marriage for both.

Mrs. Thrush has a daughter by her first marriage, Mabel Pereira of Campo Seco. The couple have two other daughters, Alberta Salmina of Stockton and Mildred Womack of Manteca. They also have five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

After living in the Midwest several years, the couple moved to California in 1928. Thrush worked on Pardee Dam in Calaveras County as a foreman for four years. He also was a mail carrier between Campo Seco and Valley Springs four years, and ranched for several years near Hogan Dam.

They moved to Stockton during World War II, and Thrush worked as a foreman at the Port of Stockton and at a salvage yard.

The reception June 20 will be at the home of a granddaughter, Ramona Pereira, at Linden Rt. 1, Box 120, Jack Tone Road.

IN MEMORIAM

Elizabeth Tidwell Somers

"Aunt Bob" Somers was born at Newport, Ark., Feb. 20, 1854; and died June 27, 1934, at the home of her son at Tuckerman, Ark. Burial was in the family lot at Newport, Ark.

About sixty years ago she married John Tidwell of Butler county and has lived in Oak Ridge community almost all of the remaining years of her life. Of this union ~~nine~~ children were born, seven of whom survive the parents. Mr. Tidwell preceded her in death forty-two years ago.

By a later marriage she became the mother of Henry and Daniel Somers of Arkansas and David Somers of Oklahoma. She professed faith in Christ Jesus at an early age and joined the Baptist church at Newport, Ark., where she lived a faithful Christian.

Of recent years Mrs. Somers had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Willis Dickerson, and was on a visit to the home of her son when she passed away. Her surviving family are the daughters, Mrs. Dora Jones of Arkansas, Mrs. Georgia Dickerson of Poplar Bluff, Mrs. Minnie Mills of St. Louis and Mandy Tidwell of California; her sons, Edward, James and Perry Tidwell, and Henry, Daniel and David Somers. All these with a host of friends, who were drawn in close friendship by her genial, happy disposition are left to mourn their loss.
