

Scholarship winner

Beatrix L. Trapp (left) of Winnsboro, a rising sophomore at Winthrop University, was presented a scholarship from the Bank of America Scholars Program at Winthrop's Academic Awards ceremony recently. The award is presented to upperclassmen in the College of Business Administration who have outstanding academic records. Presenting the award is Gay Randolph, assistant professor in the College of Business Administration.

HERALD INDEPENDENT 05-24-2001