

Beatrix Trapp selected FCHS Outstanding Student of Year

Beatrix Trapp was selected as the 1999-2000 Outstanding Student of the Year at Fairfield Central High School at the Principal's Awards Banquet in May.

Trapp, the daughter of Augretha Irby Trapp and Joe Ree Trapp, both of Winnsboro, was recognized for her academic achievements, as well as her involvement in extra-curricular activities.

She was a member of the Student Government Association, the National Beta Club, varsity basketball team, and was president of the marching band.

Trapp, an Honor Graduate, was recognized at graduation as a Star Diploma and Life Scholarship recipient.
