

TURNER FAMILY HISTORY

The 1st member of the Turner Family to come to the new world, was John Turner, who immigrated from the north of Ireland, prior to the Revolutionary War. He was of Scotch parents and settled in South Carolina. John Turner took an active part in the Revolutionary War and distinguished himself as a valiant soldier, a devoted patriot, and a true friend of his adopted country. A devoted Christian, he was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and attached himself to its doctrine and simple form of faith. The people of Captain John Turner's district, as proof of his personal worth, elected him to a seat in the South Carolina State Legislature for 14 years in succession. John Turner was born in 1750 and was married to Margaret Adger in 1773. Margaret was born in 1755, and was only eighteen at the time of her marriage.

In 1807 when John Turner made his will, Margaret Adger Turner was already dead. His second wife was named Jean. At this time John Turner was a man of considerable wealth. He owned many tracts of land, a number of slaves, a grist mill, cotton machine, carriages, stocks of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs. He and his 1st wife are buried at the Mt. Olivet Cemetery.
