The Petition of John Wallace
Humbly sheweth

That your Petitioner returned an account against this State for Services done as an Officer in General Pickens's Brigade, to Col. Anderson who was Auditor for the Brigade aforesaid Amounting to £116<sup>2</sup>/<sub>10</sub> Old Currency, the amount of which except £90 was paid into an Indent and by the Treasurer delivered to a man, who personated the name of your Petitioner, by which your Petitioner has been deprived of getting his Indent or any Compensation for the same.
Your Petitioner therefore Humbly prays that your Honorable House will take his very hard
