

Nannie Tidd is the daughter my great great-grandmother Mary E Winn Walton is my connection to her. William H Gaines is my great great-grandfather on my mother's father's side. I think my grandfather is a nephew to Nannie Tidd. Nannie also married a man who uncle was same last name who was in the union army a sergeant died from fever during the battle of Roanoke Island 1862 in North Carolina. Here are the diaries by them to help with research. I also have photos of my cousin and great-great cousin who where in the civil war with my great great-grandfather Anthony Walton who served with General Price army of 50,000 men. Let me know how it goes from there to John David Winn. I like to see a family tree of it. I also have information of John David Winn history. David Boggs is a great-great cousin.
