

translation of Gen. R. Winn's order to muster after war

File
Rich. Winn
People

Sir

Winn's borough 4th May 1787

You will please to order a General Muster of your Regiments at Bever Creek on Wednesday the 30th of this month. ^{Thought} if you can make it convenient I had much rather the rendezvous wou^d be at Granby.

The Governor and myself will be at the Review.

I shant go into particulars [.] you being an old officer.

Only beg leave to mention that it will be necessary for your officers and men to appear [.] in the best manner, if the officers have not side arms [.] let them take guns. you will direct your Capt [ains] to make you accurate returns of their ~~comp~~ companies on the day of reviews

As it is possible your Regiments may not be fully officered I have herewith sent you ten Blanke Commissions, which you will pledge to have will please to have fill'd up & delivered ↓ fill'd filled or filled out and delivered to such gentlemen as may be appointed, observing

to Such Gentlemen as may be Appointed, Observing to commission no person but such that will
to Commission no person but such that will have a true sense of their appointments.

You will also receive ten —? Copies of
You will also receive Ten Copies of Militia Law's which you will distribute Militia Law's which you will distribute to your officers. I shall leave all other [s?]
to your Officers, I shall leave All Others matters to your good judgement.

I beg leave to subscribe myself
I beg leave to subscribe myself with due consideration.
with due consideration

Sirs
your most obedient ser[vant]
Your Most Obedient
Richard Winn

Richard Winn