

Information sent to me by Mary Alice Seyle of Greenville.

REPORT RECEIVED FROM CORRESPONDENT ON MICROFILM OF WILLIAM WINN FAMILY

"Fairfield County was mentioned by name, but information on a Colonel Winn did not appear at all. However, there was a William Winn mentioned, and though his birth date was lacking, some of his activities were dated in the latter half of the eighteenth century. And it was said of him that he married a Rose Hampton, and so I have assumed that it is the same man!"

"The following selections are reproduced from the microfilm:

"William Winn was living in Craven Co. in 1775 when he gave his son-in-law, Matthew Smith, of Fauquier Co., Va., power of attorney. He does not figure so actively in land transactions in South Carolina as did his brothers. Three grants from the State covering 'land on Enoree' are mentioned in official records. William and M. Winn are witnesses for Nathaniel Smith, Sept. 6, 1794 (Bk. 1, p. 186, Fairfield Co.)

"In 1789, William Winn appoints Minor Winn of Fauquier Co. his power of att'y to receive his share of estate of his father, Minor Winn, of Va. 'He is buried in Winnsboro beside our grandmother,' states the author of an old letter.

"William Winn and his wife, Rose Hampton, had a younger son, Minor Winn, who married Matilda Bedford, Bedford Co., Tennessee.

"Minor Winn and Matilda Bedford Winn had a son, Zedrick Winn, married -- Burkaut."

Taken from MS. NO. 1319, FITZ HUGH McMASTER (1867-1950) - genealogical material on the WINN Family, housed in the South Caroliniana Library, University of South Carolina, Columbia, S.C. (subject to restrictions)