

HUSBAND

Name: John Woodward Note
Born: Abt 1755 at Anvil Rock Plantation, Fairfield County, South Carolina
Married: 2 Jun 1772 at South Carolina
Died: May 1817 at Fairfield County, South Carolina

Father: Thomas Woodward
Mother: Jemima Collins

WIFE

Name: Hester \(Esther\) Mcdonald

Born: 1 Feb 1758 at Lancaster District, South Carolina
Died: May 1818 at Fairfield County, South Carolina
Father: Daniel Mcdonald
Mother: Rebecca Middleton

CHILDREN

Name: John Woodward

Born: Abt 1776
Died: 11 Mar 1823 at Fairfield District, South Carolina
Wife: Pattie Axum

Name: William T. Woodward

Born: Abt 1778
Died: 15 Aug 1842 at Fairfield County, South Carolina
Wife: Eliza Johnston

Name: Osmund Woodward Dr.

Born: Abt 1779
Died: Abt 1850
Wife: Martha Williamson

Name: Sallie Woodward

Born: Abt 1780
Died:
Husband: William Strother General

Name: Cynthia Woodward

Born: Abt 1781
Died:
Husband: ??? Durham

Name: Mary Ann Collins Woodward

Born: Abt 1783
Died: 1855
Husband: Thomas Lyles Major

NOTES

1). Esther McDonald and her husband John Woodward resided on Anvil Rock Plantation, where it is said they are buried. John Woodward was 21 at the time of the Regulation, and died owning over 7000 acres of land and 55 slaves. He is referred to as John Woodward, South Carolina Regulator, Cedar Creek of Broad River, 7389 acres 55 slaves in Richard Maxwe ll Brown s The South Carolina Regulators , p.114, 118, & 119.