

Kadena Robinson Woodard

Kadena born in Fairfield County and was raised in the Blair area. She attended church at Hassion Hill and Gethsemane Baptist churches. Kadena attended McCrorey Liston School in Fairfield County and York Technical College in Rock Hill. She married Danny Woodard and has two sons and seven grandchildren living in the Fairfield County. She worked as a dental assistance.

Kadena started working on the cemetery books in 2003. The books consist of 15 Volumes with obituaries listed alphabetically and the church cemeteries listed separately. Her new updated book is projected to be completed over the next few months. New volumes will cover obituaries from June 2007.