

The Rawls, Powell, Woodward and May Families on Little Cedar Creek

JOSEPH A WOODWARD, the son of the Rev. William and Nancy Barrett

Woodward, was married to Melinda R. Woodward. She was born on November 6, 1807, and died on November 14, 1839. She is buried in the Presbyterian cemetery in Winstboro and "her New-born babe lies on her left side".

103

Joseph A. Woodward represented Fairfield District in the South Carolina

House of Representatives in 1834-36 and 1840-42. He moved to Alabama in his later years and his son William Woodward of Sumter County, Alabama, served in the Alabama Legislature.

104

Joseph A. Woodward, and his wife Melinda, sold John Maloney 43.4 acres of land on Waterree Creek for $200 on January 22, 1836.

105

Phillip Edward Pearson of Talladega County, Alabama, through his agent

106

Dr Bratton of Winstboro, sold Joseph A. Woodward two lots on Walnut Street, Winstboro, for $400 on October 9, 1840.

THOMAS WOODWARD, eldest son of the Regulator Thomas Woodward by his second wife, Elizabeth Stokes Mays Woodward, inherited 1244 acres of land from his father and made up out of these several tracts of land:

1 - 150 acres of land originally granted to James Andrews.

2 - 100 acres of land granted William Watts.

3 - 794 acres of land granted Isaac Forcher.

4 - 200 acres of land granted James Andrews.

103-Gravemarkers, Presbyterian cemetery, Winstboro.

104-Woodward, Reminiscences, P-145; McMaster, Fairfield County, P-117.

105 - F. D. B., Bk. MM, P-299, 1836.

106-IP1D, Bk. NN, P-350, 1840.