

The Rawls, Powell, Woodward and May Families on Little Cedar Creek

North of the Broad River

108 - Woodward, Reminiscences, multiple references.

109 - F.W.B., Vol. I, BK. 4, P-34. F.P.C., Apt. 33, File 527, 1803.

110 - F.D.B., BK.A, P-453, 1786; BK.Z, P-383, 1802.

sold this land to John Woodward on September 3, 1802, for 35 pounds, sterling.

This land was part of 522 acres of land granted Joseph Kirkland. Henry Woodward sold Henry Woodward 300 acres of land on Little River for 100 pounds, sterling..

On January 7, 1786, Joseph Kirkland, Esq., Wainsborough, Fairfax County, executors.

109

early childhood. Joseph H. Woodward and William Morris Sr. were named his General Watson, Thomas Simpson Woodward, and Joseph H. Woodward who died in Thomas in Milledgeville, Georgia. These children were Elizabeth who married property to his wife, Elizabeth, and to the children of his deceased brother wife was named Elizabeth, but there was no mention of children. He left his 1803. William Woodward, John May and Joseph Gibson witnessed the will, His Woodward, made his will on November 25, 1802, and it was proven on January 13,

HENRY WOODWARD, son of Regulator Thomas and Elizabeth Stokes May of his life in Winn Parish, Louisiana.

108

and claims to have been the founder of that town. He spent the last years years in Alabama and claims to have selected the site for Tuskegee, Alabama, know and love them more than any man in his lifetime. He spent twenty of these

His Indian blood permitted a close kinship with the Indians, and he came to Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, with enough adventure for several lifetimes.

life. He spent all of these active years on the frontiers of Georgia, Florida, he was concerned with the military. He married but little is known of his family

The Rawls, Powell, Woodward and May Families on Little Cedar Creek

North of the Broad River