

The Rawls, Powell, Woodward and May Families on Little Cedar Creek

ELIZABETH WOODWARD, widow of George Woodward, died intestate in Fairfield District in 1830. Charles Bell and Nathaniel Woodward were named administrators of her estate. Thomas Lauderdale, Robert Bankhead, and Richard C.

Woodward appraised her goods on December 28, 1830. The administration bond for $1000 was signed on December 19, 1830, by Charles Bell, Nathaniel Woodward, and James Rogers, The division of the estate was carried out on January 1, 1833, and $7,106 went to each of the following heirs: Nathaniel Woodward, Charnal James and wife Margaret, James Morgan and wife Jane, Isaac Woodward, Nancy Woodward, and George Woodward. Her coffin cost $5.00; George Brown was paid $40 for her tombstone; the freight on the tombstone from Columbia was $5.00; Dr. J.M. Brackett was paid $6.50 and Dr. David H. Means was paid $6.00 for medical services.

138

On April 19, 1831, Charles Bell, Robert Bell, and Hugh L. Barkley signed a guardianship bond for Nancy and George Woodward who were minors. Nathaniel Woodward was made the guardian of George Woodward, and William McMillan co-signed his guardianship bond for $1000 on January 18, 1832. Nancy Woodward had died sometime prior to January 18, 1832. Dr. J.P. Pearson was paid $70 for attending her; her funeral dress and articles cost $39.90. Each of her heirs received $22.19, and were Nathaniel Woodward, Isaac Woodward, James Morgan and wife Jane, Charnal James and wife Margaret.

139

From the receding, the following children of George and Elizabeth Woodward can be named: Nathaniel, Isaac, Nancy, George, Jane, and Margaret.

138 - F.P.C., Apt. 69, file 1052, 1830.

139 - Ibid, Apt. 69, file 1055, 1832.