The Life of Evangelist Katie V. Wright

The final chapter in the life of Evangelist Katie V. Wright was written on May 1, 2007 at Chester Regional Nursing Center. She joined hands with the Master and departed this earthly life. Born in Chester County on May 17, 1923, she was the daughter of the late Golden Thompson and Fannie Verdia Feaster Thompson.

Evangelist Wright confessed Christ at an early age and became a member of St. Paul Baptist Church where she served as member of the Hymn Choir, and former Sunday School Secretary. While residing in New Jersey, she attended New Zion Baptist Church in Elizabeth, New Jersey, Abysenia Baptist Church in Newark, New Jersey and Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. She attended St. Paul School and Finley High School in Chester County and Charles Harrison Mason Bible College in Baltimore, Maryland. She moved back to South Carolina and re-united with her home Church, St. Paul and became an Evangelist and spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ. She worked many years in the Health Care System.

To know Evangelist Wright was to love her. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends and all those who knew and loved her.

Evangelist Wright was first united in marriage to the late Lawrence Coleman and to this union they were blessed with two sons. She was later united in marriage to the late Rev. John W. Wright.

Evangelist Wright was preceded in death by a son, Golden Lee Coleman, a stepdaughter, Bernadine Wright, and one brother, Melton Thompson.

Evangelist Wright leaves to cherish loving memories, one son, Rehum Adolemiu-Bey of Chester, SC; one brother, Golden L. (Dorothy) Thompson of Whiting, New Jersey; two sisters, Arleather Young of Linden, New Jersey; and Bernice (Thomas) Burris of Elizabeth, New Jersey; three grandchildren and three great grandchildren, godson, Harold (Cleo) Owens of Chester, SC; daughter-in-law, Thelma Coleman of Georgia, sister-in-law, Lucy Thompson of South Plainfield, New Jersey; a special niece, Darlene Spikes, a special cousin, Fannie Garvin of Carlisle, SC; four nieces, eight nephews, seven great nieces, six great nephews, cousins, other relatives, many dear friends and Pastor and Mrs. John Heath and the St. Paul Halseville Baptist Church Family.

Acknowledgement

Words are inadequate to express our sincere appreciation for your prayers, love, and presence during our bereavement. Every card, gift, and other expressions of sympathy touched our hearts.

We saw all of these as God's love expressed through you. Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you very much. May god Bless You!

The Family

Going Home

*God sent this world a flower in the year nineteen hundred and twenty three
She walked the world with grace as she traveled the hands of time.*

*Sister Katie was with love in her heart, She was a lady who loved her family
She was a fine mother and Christian, As God's servant, she worked constantly.*

*She traveled her journey and through many ups and downs in her life
She remained a loving mother and grandmother, A loving Aunt, a loving sister, a loving wife.
My friends God knew that her suffering was hard to bear so he sent his Angel of mercy to Katie
And said, "We have a place for you here."*

*Katie didn't want to leave her family and friends, but she knew we had no question of her love
So she grabbed the hand of the Angel
And moved on to her new home in heaven above.*

*Though we will miss you dear Katie we know that God always knows best
So after your lengthy journey on this earth for all eternity you now can have rest.*

Sorrowfully but lovingly submitted by the Family

*I am not dead ... I did not die, I only passed from earth to sky.
From dark to light, my soul took flight;
It is beautiful here, a wondrous sight.
The face of Jesus, I can see,
Happy I'll be when you are with me, the grief you feel will soon subside,
And in its place, in you abide, relief that I am free of pain
And, joy that I am well again.
Humbly Submitted,
The Family*
