President's Report - Coy F. Stroud

We have come a long way since our first Bulletin a year ago which contained only four pages and was mailed to less than 40 members. This, our first Bulletin of 1979 with 16 or 17 pages will go to more than 150 members and with your continued help could reach 250 or more by year's end. If you will send us names of friends or relatives who have roots in South Carolina when our next Bulletin goes to press we'll send them a complimentary copy and invite them to join us.

Our library of genealogical material has likewise grown and we are very proud of the contributions so many members have made. Since Jan. 1 Mrs. Louise Crowder of Chester has given us a copy of "Roster and Ancestral Roll of South Carolina's Daughters of the American Revolution"; Mr. William Buford Worthy - "The South Carolina Compatriots of the Sons of the American Revolution from 1889 to 1978"; Col. Vincent Brown McFadden - "Some Antecedents and Decendants of Nathan Tims of South Carolina"; Mrs. Carl Gibson, Great Falls, S. C. - "Tombstone Records of Chester County, S. C." by Louise Crowder; Mrs. S. Lewis (Lucia) Bell of Chester - 1 - "The Gaston Family History" compiled by Mrs. Eula W. Bell, 2 - "Biographical Sketch of Rev. William Martin", 3 - "History of the Old Brick Church" in Fairfield County, 4 - A copy of severely wounded Rev. Soldier Joseph Gaston's 4 page handwritten petition to Congress requesting in his old age (70) a pension, 5 - A copy of Judge A. L. Gaston's address on Sept. 3, 1928 at the "Dedication of Fish Dam Battlefield Monument"; Mrs. Barbara Reid Burns of Winston Salem, N. C. - 1 - "Descendants of James Edward Wilson of Chester County", 2 - "Burns Genealogy of Chester County", 3 - "Descendants of William W. Stroud of Chester County"; and Mrs. Gladys E. Belk Smith, 1284 Admiral Dewey Rd. 105, Virginia Beach, Va. 23454 sent us copies of 2 of her books, - 1 - "The Watters Family of Maryland and Virginia", and 2 - A review copy of her book "Brown and Related Families". Mrs. Smith advised these 2 books are available from her for $8 and $6.50 respectively.

We appreciate these genealogical aids very much which when added to what we have gives us an excellent start towards building a very useful library. We invite all members to visit and review the materials we have; however, no item may be taken out and appointments to review or copy any item should be made by contacting Mrs. Agee 789-5592 or Mrs. Nichols 789-5664 Richburg. Out of town members may inquire about any library material we have and for a small zeroxing fee the sections, pages, or parts requested will be mailed.

In an early future Bulletin or newsletter we plan to list the family surnames our members have completed or are working on. This will help members to contact directly other members who are working on the same or related lines. We ask every member - in or out of Chester County - to send us his or her list of surnames you have or are working on so we may include your names along with others when we publish the entire list. Help us to help you and others by sending your list within the next couple of weeks.

The Chester County Historical Society, P. O. Box 808, Chester, S.C. 29706, has a few copies of their book "Revolutionary Soldiers of Old Catholic Church" printed in 1977 from manuscripts researched and recorded by Mrs. Mary Strange and Mrs. DeKalb Wylie over the 20 year period of 1927 to 1947 which contains the names, the lives, and the families of Old Catholics 60 Revolutionary heroes, its list of ministers, and in all over 900 names from whom so many can trace the beginning of their family tree in America. The price in the mail $10. The Historical Society also has a 119 page book "Historic Sites Survey of Chester County" with 92 pictures of many anti-bellum homes, churches and other historic sites which should be of interest to any one with roots in Chester County. Price $5.50 in the mail. Also available from the Historical Society - a 156 page official South Carolina Historical Directory that fits in a car's glove compartment. It contains over 500 official Historical Markers across the state erected by historical organizations and societies, church congregations, and civic organizations for $3.50 in the mail.

Our Genealogical Society has a few copies of the 32 page, including index, cemetery inscriptions in "Old Catholic's" Presbyterian Church cemetery. This manuscript also includes a list of the 76 officers and men known as the "Pickens Guard" sent out from the Old Catholic area to serve in the War Between the States as well as a list of the 60 Old Catholic soldiers who served in the Revolutionary War - price in the mail $3.50. Send order to Box 29, Richburg, S.C. 29729. We try also to print enough Bulletins to have some left over after each mailing. We have a few of the 4 1978 Bulletins on hand which are available at $2 each in the mail. Order from our address above.

In January Mrs. Dorothy Mayes, 130 Woodland Dr., Chester, S.C. 29706, a native of Scotland, held a workshop for the benefit of our local members. She demonstrated how one can use land grants to gain genealogical information often times not available from other sources. Her demonstration was so impressive we persuaded her to write the following article which beautifully demonstrates how one of our local families was able to establish its line back to Scotland and into the 17 hundreds. (Mrs. Mayes, because of her many activities, is not a member of our Society. She is available for this type of research and to those who might wish to use her service we recommend her and assure those interested her rates will be fair and reasonable.)

A NAME - IS IT IMPORTANT?

Entering the town of Kelso Roxbuaglshire Scotland from the southwest on Jedburgh Road, one sweeps down a hill which gives one a lovely view of this sleepy, stately stone built town. Just before crossing the river there is a road on the left which leads to the ruins of Roxburgh Castle where James II of Scotland was killed by the bursting of a cannon in 1460. The confluence of the rivers Teviot and Tweed occurs at Kelso bringing together the two major rivers of the border country. The river Tweed then flows on to enter the North Sea at Berwick-on-Tweed. One crosses the river on the stately "Rennie" bridge built in 1814, a replica of the old Waterloo Bridge in London, and in fact the lamp posts from that bridge were removed when it was demolished and they now adorn the Kelso bridge. To the right after crossing the bridge is the Kelso Abbey founded in 1128 by David I and destroyed by the Earl of Hertford in 1545. All that remains is the west facade and transept, part of the tower, and two of the wave bays. Sir Walter Scott as a boy lived for a time in Kelso and went to school in the Abbey. Continuing down the street after leaving the abbey one arrives in the town square, a lovely cobble stoned expanse, with a large hotel on the north side and on the east the Town House built in 1816. The town has some quaint narrow winding streets, and by the river quite a few lovely early nineteenth century houses. It is a town which you would be proud to claim if your name was also Kelso.

The graveyard at Fishing Creek Church, Chester County, South Carolina, has many old headstones, two of them are inscribed as follows: - John Kelso died September 15, 1776 aged 15 years. Susannah Kelso his mother died September 12, 1804 aged 83 years. Samuel Kelso died August 16, 1796 aged 76. Jannet Kelso his sister died July 30, 1776 aged 66 years. Who were those Kelsos? Do they have descendants? A search of the Chester County telephone directory revealed no Kelsos.

On Friday September 4, 1767, The News Letter and General Advertiser of Belfast Ireland contained the following notice: "The Ship Earl of Donegall, Duncan Ferguson commander, is now arrived in this harbour from Norway. The owners request the passengers that have agreed to go to Charleston in said ship will be in Belfast to perfect their agreement and to go on board on the 25th of this month as she will positively sail immediately after that day wind and weather permitting of which all concerned are desired to take notice and not disappoint themselves by coming in too late and to prevent further application, they have agreed with as many passengers as they intend taking". The Council Journal #33 page 311 of December 1767 revealed that Samuel Kelso 45, Susan Kelso 44, Jannet Kelso 16, Elizabeth Kelso 13, Isabel Kelso 12, Samuel Kelso 10, Margaret Kelso 8, John Kelso 6, and George Kelso 17 arrived in Charleston, S.C. that month with others on the "Earl of Donegal" out of Belfast and ordered that the secretary do prepare warrants of survey on the bounty for eligible passengers on board the ship. Colonial plats, Vol. 17 pages 413, 415, and 416 reveal that Samuel Kelso received 400 acres certified 19th May 1768, Jannet 100 acres certified Feb. 13, 1768 and George Kelso 100 acres certified May 19, 1768.

In 1795 Samuel Kelso according to book E page 40 York County Deeds South Carolina transferred his 400 acres to his son Samuel Kelso Jr. The deed shortened as follows: "Samuel Kelso Sr. State of S. C., planter to Samuel Kelso Jr. of the State and County aforesaid planter 400 acres --- grant Sept. 12, 1768 (should be 19th May 1768). The above suggests that although Samuel Kelso Jr. was living in York County but Samuel Kelso Sr. was not. The name Kelso was still being used. However in 1819 when Samuel Kelso Jr. transferred the land to Dewitt Allen, he now referred to himself as Samuel Kelsey Jr. and, again a shortened version - "Samuel Kelsey Jr. to Dewitt Allen 400 acres more or less--- originally to Samuel Kelso by grant bearing the date the 12th day of September 1768 and by Samuel Kelsey senr. conveyed to his son Samuel Kelsey by deed bearing the date 3rd day of September 1795." Samuel Kelsey Jr. died at Clifton, Wayne Cty., Tenn. around 1819 and his descendents use the surname Kelsey.

What of the other family members listed as being aboard the "Earl of Donegal"? Jannet Kelso 1751-1796 married Captain Alexander _____, and became a widow when he was killed at the "Battle of Fishing Creek in August 1780. Census records 1790 revealed that with her family she lived close to her father Samuel Kelso. Elizabeth Kelso - 1754 to 1824 married Robert Gill who died at Camden in 1780 when a prisoner of the British. The 1790 census revealed that she too lived with her family near her father Samuel Kelso. Isabel Kelso (1755-1825) married William Wylie and died in Perry County, Alabama. Margaret Kelso (1759 - ?) married David Morrow and died near Oxford Mississippi. John Kelso never married.

There is one other family member whose descendents could bear the name Kelso and that is George Kelso aged 17 in 1767. In May 1773 a land grant was given to a George Kelsey and described as follows: "--- a tract of land situate in Craven County and on the west side of Fishing Creek beginning on a hickory on Charles Strong's line ---". Charles Strong was living in 1780 close to Fishing Creek Church. His son was killed by Huck's men and is mentioned in Mrs. Ellet's "Women of the Revolution". Charles Strong's property was an original land grant to John Boyd by North Carolina September 25, 1766. George Kelsey sold his May 1773 grant in 1797. Chester Deed Book F, page 256 dated Feb. 6, 1797 states: "George Kelsey to Thoms Grey 56 acres Craven County (now Chester County)---excepting out of said sale 2½ acres, young Chris Strong's line, including a meeting house, burial ground, and retiring house granted unto George Kelsey 17th Day 1774 (should read May 1773). Young Chris Strong was the son and heir of Charles Strong mentioned in the original grant. Mrs. Ellet stated that the Kelso family lived close to and north of the Fishing Creek Meeting House, she also stated that the Kelsos lived a few hundred yards from the Strongs.

Elizabeth Kelsey, the widow of George, in her will in the Probate Office in Chester refers to her father David Car. David Car (a name which could be spelled Kerr) is listed in the minutes of Fishing Creek Church as an elder in 1797. Who was this George Kelsey? Could he be the George Kelso of whom we seek? What happened to the land grant - the 100 acres which George Kelso received on his arrival in Charleston, S. C. in 1767? The land grant was described as follows: "A tract of land containing 100 acres situate lying joining of the Indian land bound northeast by lands surveyed for Catawba Indians of in all other sides vacant land May 19, 1768." There was no indication either in York or Chester County that this land was ever sold. When George Kelsey died in 1803 his widow Elizabeth and sons Samuel and Thomas were appointed administrators (York County records 1803) Residuary Elizabeth Kelsey et al. Would George Kelso's land grant appear as part of George Kelsey's estate?

In 1816 Elizabeth Kelsey bought 22 acres from Thomas Reid York County Deed Book H-178 - "Thos Reid to Elizabeth Kelsey S 38 E 9 Banks of Cane Run down meandor on land surveyed for George Kelsey, then with Kelsey line W 51 W 38.50 Kelsey corner S 38 W 37.80 Post Oak Chester County line N 38 W 1.40 N 25 E 26.10 to the beginning". All of this expressed in chains and links. This plat when drawn out sat snugly around the north side of George Kelso's 1768 land grant. There was also a position now on the Chester/York County border near the Indian line.

When Elizabeth Kelsey died in 1824, she left to her sons John, Samuel, Thomas, and Robert Kelsey one third of 103 acres formerly owned by her beloved husband George Kelsey supposed to be 134 acres and "-- one other tract granted to myself 138 acres surveyed for myself also 22 acres I purchased of Thomas Reid". The Elizabeth Kelsey land grant of 27 January 1814 read as follows: "Elizabeth Kelsey 138 acres situate Chester Cane Branch, waters of Fishing Creek N.W. William Clinton and Joseph Cook on the S.E. Indian land on all other sides Elizabeth Kelsey, a description of the land was given. Drawing it out, it too fitted snugly around the Geo. Kelso land grant of 1768--this time on the south side all surrounding properties described also fitted into place. Taking the plats it was simple to put them in their place on a Chester County aerial survey map situating them quite close to Edgemoor on the Chester County York County line. A search of the George Kelsey estate in the Book of Common Pleas Chester County Courthouse book G page 255 also described amongst properties left by him the land grant to George Kelso - "April 20, 1820 land granted to George Kelso 19 May 1768 100 acres now contains 113 acres, 46.2 acres York district 66.8 acres Chester district about to be assigned to Elizabeth Kelsey". So the George Kelso land grant was part of the Geo. Kelsey estate and was inherited by Geo. Kelsey's widow and family. George Kelsy was formerly George Kelso. His descendants in Chester County still use the surname Kelsey. It would appear that all the descendants of the family of Samuel Kelso who arrived with him on the "Earl of Donegal" fail to use the name Kelso.

Why did the name change? In the south of Scotland the town of Kelso is by many is pronounced as it is spelled Kelso, but users of the regions dialect are more likely to pronounce the name as "Kelsae". This pronunciation or a similar one by the early Kelsos in Chester County must have been responsible for the change. I would think that the present day Kelsey descendants of the Kelsos are well satisfied with the change of name and prefer it that way. Samuel Kelso lying in the Fishing Creek Church graveyard, I am sure, is sorry that his male heirs do not use his surname - and - I still think of that ancient burgh of Kelso in Scotland described by Sir Walter Scott as "the most beautiful, if not the most romantic village in Scotland". The Encyclopedia Britannica described Kelso as a town in Scotland and described Kelsey as a "so called Japanese Plum".

To conclude -- A name. Is it important? It all depends upon one's point of you.

(Note: Kelsey Maps are located at the back of this Bulletin.)

The Camden Archives, 1314 Broad St., Camden, S. C. 29020 will conduct a basic genealogy workshop, on Saturday April 7, with registration at 9 A.M. and concluded at 4 P.M. The fee is $12.50 per person which includes material; a light lunch; instructional fees and a coffee break. Make checks payable to Camden Archives, at above address. The meeting will be held on the 2nd floor of Camden City Hall.

Mrs. Mary B. Warren will conduct the workshop. Mrs. Warren is the editor of Family Puzzler and Authority on migrations in this area. This should make the workshop a very worth while experience for those of us interested in genealogy.

A CHURCHING WE WILL GO
By Mary Kell Wade

Union Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church has a history dating back to the late 1790's. The Rev. John Hemphill was installed as pastor in 1796. Located in Richburg, it is still one of the leading churches in eastern Chester County.

Dr. Robert Lathan in a history of the church recorded that the first house of worship was built in the latter part of 1794 or in 1795 shortly after the visit of the Rev. John Hemphill to the congregation. It stood very near the site of the present church. It was about forty feet long and thirty feet wide. This first house, made of logs, was later remodeled and enlarged. It continued in use until 1848 when the present church was erected.

The following people are thought to be the elders during the pastorate of Dr. Hemphill: William Armour, Ebenezer Elliott, James Ferguson, John Lynn, Sr., Edward McFadden, John Millen, John Wylie, and William Wylie.

It is probable that William Armour went to Tennessee in the early 1800's. Land transactions are recorded in Chester County Deed books for two William Armours.

On 4 April 1788, William Armour sold a tract of land on Sandy River, Chester County to John Herron. It was originally granted to William Armour 3 July 1786. The deed was signed by his mark and the mark of Mary, his wife. Witnesses were Robert Collins and Robert Collins, Jr.

The same William Armour of the State of S. C. and the County of Chester for divers reasons me hereunto moving do appoint my friend Thomas Jinkins of the county and state aforesaid to have power of attorney -- 23 April 1795--witnesses: William Chiller and Edward Hallsell.

Since these transactions took place before the Rev. John Hemphill was pastor at Union, it is more probable that the William Armour who lived on Rocky Creek was the elder at Union. This William Armour sold to Daniel McMillan, merchant, 60 acres on Rocky Creek--being the remainder of 330 acres granted to John Armour, my father, from him conveyed to me 9 July 1822--bounded by Francis McCully and Widow Findley, the wife of Jn. Findley. Signed William H. Armour, 18 Nov. 1828. Isabella Armour relinquished her dower. Witnesses were John Brown and David McWilliams.

Ebenezer Elliott was the fifth son of Daniel Elliott, Sr., a Patriot who was killed by the Tories near his own door steps, and Elizabeth Ferguson Elliott. Born 26 March 1771 in Chester County on Fishing Creek, he was nine or ten years old when his father was killed. Before he was thirty years old, he had become a man of importance in the community. He was serving as Justice of the Peace and as an elder in Union Church.

He was married 25 September 1794 to Esther Gaston (29 March 1770 - 31 July 1814). She was the daughter of Joseph Gaston and Martha Gaston and the granddaughter on her maternal side of Justice John Gaston. The children of this marriage were: James m. Sarah Boyd; Joseph Gaston; Jennet m. (1) Ebenezer Douglas (2) William Hood; William m. Sarah Hearn; John m. Mary (Polly) Latta (2) Margaret McMillan; Ebenezer Newton m. Ann J. Willis (widow); Hugh m. (1) Henrietta Brower (2) Elizabeth A. Robertson; Isaac m. Isabella Davidson.

In 1815 he married Margaret Mitchell Gillespie, a widow. By this marriage was David Mitchell Elliott who died unmarried at age 23. After the death of his second wife in 1825, he married Nancy Henry Boyd.

Mr. Elliott and his first wife moved to Preble County, Ohio. He is buried there at Hopewell Church--tombstone dates, March 26, 1771-Aug. 26, 1849.

When he left South Carolina he took the following character letter with him: "State of South Carolina, Chester District--We whose names re hereunto subscribed do certify that we have been acquainted with the Bearer, Ebenezer Elliott, that he has resided in this district since Infancy and has always supported a good moral character and shown himself a friend to Religion and Virtue and Enemy to Vice and has for several years acted in office of Justice of the Peace in which he has acquainted himself with honor and integrity; and, being about to remove himself from this country, we recommend him as a man of that character to all good men wherever Providence may cast his lot. Given under our hands this 8th Day of October, 1806." Signed by: Hezekiah Donal, J. P.; Leonard Strait; Geo. Gill, J. P.; Alex Roseborough, M. D.; James Crawford, C-P; Leach Thompson, Capt.; Clement A. Thompson, L.; Joseph Gaston, J. P.; Robert Robinson; John B. Davis, V. M. D.; John McCreary, c. o't; J. Roseborough, Capt.; Capt. John Cherry; John McKown, Maj.; Andrew Wherry, Capt.; John Culp, Lt.; Pleasant Ferguson; William Chestnut; Jas. Harbison, J. P.

James Ferguson, wife unknown, was the third James in his family. His grandparents were James Ferguson, Sr. and Agnes Ferguson. (Deed Chester County). A deed in Chester County also proves that James was the son of James Ferguson, Jr. and his wife Mary. Their estate was administered in Kershaw County, Camden, S. C. His brothers were Pleasant William Ferguson (wife Mary), and Abraham Ferguson, Jr. (wife Frances).

James Ferguson went to Tennessee in 1816.

John Lynn, Sr. was probably one of the first elders in Union. He was born in County Antrim, Ireland, and probably came over with the Rev. William Martin in 1772. He was a member of the Reformed Presbyterian Church and a relative of the Rev. Matthew Lynn. John Lynn had three sons and five daughters.

The oldest son, John, married a McCulloch whose mother was a Simonton. He died 10 July 1851 in the 71st year of his life. Matthew Simonton Lynn was the son of John Lynn, Jr.

The second son, Henry, married Elinor McGarrah, daughter of the Rev. James McGarrah. He moved to Illinois.

The other son, Matthew, married but left no descendants.

John Lynn, Sr. died in 1820 and is buried at Paul's graveyard.

Edward McFadden brought his family to Chester District possibly in the fall of 1772, since his son James was born in County Antrim, Ireland 23 Feb. 1772. He settled about one-half mile from Union Church. Edward McFadden assisted in the building of the house of worship erected at Union.

According to Dr. Lathan, Edward McFadden emigrated to Macon County, Tennessee in 1816. He is buried near Williamsburg at a church called Union.

John Millen, Sr. was born in 1776 and died in 1844. He married the only sister of William Moffatt. There were five sons and three daughters by this marriage. John and Robert were elders at Union; David and Eli went to Xenia, Ohio; Samuel died young. Eliza married a son of Robert Hemphill, brother of Dr. John Hemphill. Peggy married a son of Denny McMillan, and Barbara married the Rev. McCoy.

John Millen, Sr. is buried at Fishing Creek Church in Chester County. Tombstone dates--D. July 31, 1844, age 68 years. On the same lot is Martha d. Feb. 2, 1837, age 60.

William Millen was a brother of John. His son was the Rev. S. C. Millen, D. D. William Millen's family moved to Bloomington, Indiana.

John Wylie, Sr. was a member of Union from his youth, and for many years was a ruling elder. He died 5 July 1851 in the 86th year of his life.

John Wylie has many descendants in the congregations of Union and Neely's Creek A. R. P. Churches. John Simpson married one of his daughters and his descendants are numerous in this area. William Wylie was a brother of John.

Several of the elders already mentioned served during the pastorate not only of Dr. Hemphill; but also with Rev. Flenniken and Rev. McDonald. There were until 1888 when Dr. Lathan wrote his history of Union, twenty-seven other men had served as elders.

They are listed here in alphabetical order, not in the order in which they served: John S. Agnew, John Wilson Baird, John Cherry, David H. Duncan, Robert Fee, William Fee, John B. Fennel, Smith Kitchens, Taylor Marion, John Millen, Robert Millen, John A. Millen, John Calvin Moffatt, Jonathan McFadden, John Simpson, William Simpson, T. Elihu Simpson, William B. Simpson, Thomas Torbit, David P. Waters, William Westbrook, Joseph Wylie. In 1888, the elders were: John Alexander Marion, William B. Simpson, Smith Kitchens, John Lyle and J. Taylor Marion, Clerk of Session.

John S. Agnew was received by certificate from Pleasant Grove Presbyterian Church on 7 Oct. 1870. He had been an elder in that church, and was elected and installed an elder in Union. He died December 10, 1872.

John Wilson Baird was born in Tipton County, Tennessee, but his parents were natives of Chester County, South Carolina. He was graduated from Erskine College in Due West, South Carolina, in August, 1855. He first taught school in the West and later in Chester. On 11 August 1860, he was ordained an elder at Union along with John Calvin Moffatt, John B. Fenel, and J. A. Millen. He volunteered for service in the Confederate Army, shortly after the beginning of the war, and fell in Virginia.

John Cherry, a son of Col. John Cherry, was an elder in Union during the pastorate of Rev. McDonald. He died April 10, 1860, age 55 years, 4 months, and 22 days. (Tombstone inscription, Union Cemetery). Ann Cherry, wife of John Cherry, Aug. 17, 1810-Dec. 19, 1866, is also buried there.

Col. John Cherry was the son of Robert Cherry, born in County Antrim, Ireland, and his first wife, Mary Riley. (Roots of the Cherry Tree, p. 134). Robert Cherry had four children by his first marriage: George, John, Mary, and Robert, Jr.

He and his second wife, Leticia Leach, came to Chester County about 1785. Robert Cherry, Jr. was left in Ireland with his grandparents. The children by his second marriage were: William Cherry (born in Ireland) m. Jane Fee; Sarah Cherry; Jamison Cherry m. Deborah Bigham; Gregg Cherry m. Mary C. Hyatt; Janet Cherry m. Mr. Adams.

Robert Cherry was a member of the first church erected at Union. A pine communion table made by him is still in the possession of the church. A monument in Union Cemetery reads: Robert Cherry, d. July 1798; Leticia Leach, wife of Robert Cherry, d. May 10, 1833.

Some of the Cherry's had come to Chester County as early as 1772. The Rev. William Martin's second wife was Jenny Cherry.

Families of Union will be continued in the next issue.

Last year Chester County had a visitor from Brazil who was here to trace her ancestors. She was Mrs. Betty Antunes de Oliveira and her great grandparents, the Fergusons and Thomas', migrated to South America in 1867, along with a great number of Chester County people. Some later returned to South Carolina, but others established homes there and were buried there. Mrs. de Oliveira has published a book, Tombstone Records of the "Campo" Cemetery. The "Campo" Cemetery, or "Cemetery of the Americans", is situated in Santa Barbara County, Sao Paulo State, Brazil and is the burying place of the Americans that immigrated to Brazil after the Civil War.

In the next few issues, we will include a list of the graves along with an article on some of the families. The following article was sent to us by William Cloud Hicklin of Arden, N. C. The subjects mentioned here were related to his late wife, Ann Carson Hicklin.

Mrs. Anna Miller Bookwalter, or Mrs. Leroy King Bookwalter Sr. of Villa American, Brazil, South America, was born in the Fishing Creek community of Chester County, S. C. on July 10, 1857, the daughter of Capt. James Williamson and Sarah Boyd Magill Miller. Both the Miller and the Magill families were outstanding, well-to-do families, highly educated, and leaders in the religious and social life of the community in which they lived. Mrs. Bookwalter's maternal grandfather, Squire James Boyd Magill was a graduate of Oxford College, England, and a great-great-grandson of Sir Robert Magill a Scotchman, who was granted land in the north of Ireland. Squire Magill established an Academy for young ladies and gentlemen of the community. Mrs. Bookwalter's mother, Sarah Boyd Magill Miller, attended Old Salem Academy in Salem, N. C. Mrs. Bookwalter's father, James Williamson Miller, bought a plantation adjoining that of his father, Robert Hudson, and later inherited his father's plantation. Robert H. Miller, Ruling Elder of Fishing Creek Pres. Church for over thirty years, was a brother-in-law of the well-known Pres. Minister, Rev. John Baird Davies, through Mrs. Miller, who was Jane Davies. On her paternal side, Mrs. Anna Bookwalter is a great-great granddaughter of Major John Barkley, one of the founders of old Waxhaw Pres. Church. It is said that there have been over 120 ministers and Ruling Elders in this Miller family.

When Anna Bookwalter Miller was a small child, a party of Southerners, dissatisfied with the government and the thought of losing their slaves, decided to move to South America. Later, a Chester County member of this party, a Mr. Cousar, returned and told of the beautiful country of Brazil, South America, and Capt. James W. Miller listening to the wonderful experiences of this friend, immediately decided he would like to live in that country. Then he sold his lands at a sacrifice to his brother Leroy Miller, and began making preparations to move to Brazil. His brother-in-law, William P. McFadden, husband of his sister, Sarah Miller, also decided to go. After several weeks of sewing by all the relatives of the family, the Millers and McFaddens left Smith's Turnout for New York, where they chartered a small steamer for Santos, Brazil, going from there by mule back and oxcart to the interior.

Capt. Miller bought the old Col. Oliver plantation, which his daughter, Mrs. Anna Bookwalter, later inherited from her father, and he and his family reared and educated a large family, giving each child a college education, and a visit to the States, if he desired. There were 8 children, as follows:

Esther Jane, died at the age of five.

Robert Davies mar. Theresa Miller Coulter, no children.

James Magill died in infancy.

Mary Elizabeth mar. Charles M. Hall, of a prominent Cedartown Georgia family, and had five daughters to marry Presbyterian Missionaries, among them Dr. Alva Hardie and Dr. James Porter Smith, deceased.

Anna Lucina married Leroy King Bookwalter, who had recently come to Brazil, Sao Paulo, from Ohio, to publish a newspaper. Mr. Bookwalter died early in life, leaving his wife with a large family of small children to rear and educate. Undaunted by this responsibility placed on her, she secured a Mr. Vaughan to oversee her plantation and engaged Brazilians to work it. This brought in a comfortable living and educated all her children. Mrs. Bookwalter was considered a strikingly handsome young lady of her day, and was talented and well-educated. She and her sisters, Elizabeth and Eugenia, all attended the young ladies finishing school, Collegio Paulestan and Collegio Inter-Nacinal in Sao Paulo. Eugenia Miller also taught English at Collegio Paulestano.

Another child of Captain and Mrs. Miller, William Baskin, who never married, and Eugenia Miller each made visits to the States.

Margaret Eugenia Miller, the youngest daughter, met and married Joseph Sidney Drakeford while visiting in the home of an uncle, Thomas Rodgers Magill in Charlotte. Mr. Drakeford first edited a paper in Fort Mill, later buying the Yorkville Yeoman, Yorkville, S. C.

The other child of Capt. Miller was John Thomas, who never married. He was the Consul General from the States of Rio de Janeiro and was made Consul but died during an epidemic of yellow fever before taking office and was buried before his family two hundred miles away even knew he was ill.

Capt. Miller and his family lived the easy, happy lives of the Southern planters of the States, and although Mrs. Miller was never satisfied at being separated from her family in the States, she and her husband had a Pres. Church erected on their plantation and brought their children up in comfortable, Christian surroundings. Capt. Miller was well satisfied with the new home. He prospered and at his death left his family both spiritually and financially well off.

The Missionaries from the States were always welcomed on the plantation, as they still are on the Bookwalter plantation. There are quite a number of Miller descendants still in Brazil, but they did not intermarry with the Brazilians, as did so many descendants of other families from the States.

There are a few distant relatives of this Miller family still in Chester and neighboring counties.

The foregoing notes are given you by one who still calls Brazil home, the only living sister of Mrs. Anna Miller Bookwalter.

BITS AND PIECES

Book BB-

Excerpt from will of John Stormant-21 July 1795-wife Elizabeth Stormant. My four sons: James, Samuel, Thomas and John. No daughters mentioned. David Stormant and David Roddey were to be executors. Found Probate Court Book A-page 278-Apt. #63 pkg. 968. David Stormant Apt. 63 pkg. 975-made Feb. 21, 1810. Does not name children but gives wife's name as Agnes.

From Clerk of Court's Office Book B.B. #90--John Stormant and Moly Peggy Stormant and William Grafton and Esther Grafton and John McClure and Elonor McClure and Andrew Younge and Ann Younge and James Brown and Martha Brown do sell to Samuel Stormant a tract of 91 acres of land. I presume that these are probably the heirs of the above John. The deed made 1 March 1817.

The following copied from the Chester News. This is a clipping and I have no date. The column is labelled Ancient Local History. The following is from the diary of an elder of Catholic Presbyterian church-

Jane Lynn was married to Thomas Gillespie on 6th Feb. 1855. John J. Anderson was married by Rev. William Banks to Mary J. Robinson 26th Feb. 1857. Mrs. Nancy Ferguson died June 24th, 1857. Mrs. Fanny Wall died 4th Nov. 1857. June 1858 Emily Stinson died 3rd. Robert Caldwell married Martha Heath 3rd of August. Burr Ragsdale died 2nd Sept. 1859.

South Carolina did not require marriage licenses until recently; however one has been found in the Probate office of Chester County - I quote - State of South Carolina, County of Chester. By the Honorable the Judges of Chester County Court. To any lawful minister of the Gospel, Greetings; Whereas Dr. William Harper and Rachel Ramsey, of the county, have applied to us for license to enter into the matrimonial state according to God's Ordinance. These are therefore to authorize and empower you to join the said William A. Harper and Racheal Ramsey in the Holy bonds of Matrimony, no lawful impediment preventing same, nor any good cause to the contrary being shown. Witness Samuel Lacey, Clerk of our said Court, this ninth day of Nov. 1799.

Chester County has been at various times in N. C. And in S. C. many of the land grants of the area were issued by the governor of N. C. The official separation was ordered in 1729 but was not effective until 1732. The line was not run until 1735. In 1763 the King ordered a re-survey. The land gained by this resurvey was called "The New Acquisition". Book B-page 61 Clerk of Court's Office, Chester County Courthouse has a deed from George Kelsey to William Whitesides. The description reads "a certain grant bearing the date 29th of April 1768 under the hand and seal, of his excellency William Tryon, Captain General and Governor in Chief over the province of N. C. did give and grant unto James Smith, a plantation or tract of land containing 200 acres-at the time thought to be in Mecklenburg County, N. C.

President's Report - Coy F. Stroud

Since our March Bulletin membership has increased from 150 to about 180 and so has contributions of genealogical materials to our library. Mrs. B. J. Frink, 1611 Doncaster Dr. N. E., Atlanta, Ga. 30309 has given us "Abstracts of Early Anson County, N. C. Records"; Mrs. Mattie Plyler, 308 W. Meeting St., Lancaster, S. C. 29720 a copy of the Fee Bible and a copy of "The History of the Fee Family"; Mrs. Plyler has also presented us with a picture of Justice John Gaston's home; Mr. Richard McDonald, 4809 Windsor Rd., Champaign, Ill. 61820, an article on "The Congregations of South Carolina - Rev. William Martin - and the Covenanters on Rocky Creek"; and Mr. Drury M. Nixon, Drawer A, Lyman, S. C. 29365 a copy of his late sister's application for membership in DAR which takes the Nixon family back to George Nixon (b) Aug. 11, 1719 in Waterford, Ireland.

We appreciate these valuable contributions very much and hope as time goes on all members will help us build a library of helpful genealogical materials that will not only be of help to us but those who will follow us.

In our last Bulletin, we promised we would include in this Bulletin or a newsletter a list of surnames our members are working on or have completed which they would be willing through direct correspondence to exchange information with others.

We have decided to issue a special newsletter by early August in which ALL members with their addresses will be listed and opposite those who have submitted their list of surnames we will show the surnames submitted. We have been pleasantly surprised by the number who have responded and hope those who have not will do so within the next 15 days so we can keep our promise to publish by early August. This is a splendid way "to meet" those who have a kindred interest with you so please let us have your list soon.

We have had inquiries as to where Mrs. Betty Antunes do Oliveira's book "Tombstone Records of the "Campo" Cemetery" discussed in our March Bulletin could be purchased. It may be ordered from Leonard McCown, 217 W. 14th St., Irving, Texas 75060, cost $12.50. Mrs. de Oliveira is a descendant of the Ferguson and Thomas families of Chester County.

In 1871 on the occasion of the 101st anniversary of Old Catholic Presbyterian Church, Rev. William Banks delivered a "Historical Discourse on Old Catholic Church". We have a small number of the 22 page pamphlets that contain his speech verbatim which are available in the mail for $2 each. You will find this now 108 year old discourse most interesting.

A few members have reported they did not receive a copy of our March Bulletin. For postal savings the March issue was our first mailing under U. S. Postal Bulk mailing privileges. Our time table calls for the mailing of each quarterly Bulletin a few days before the end of each quarter. If your Bulletin is not received by the 10th of the following month please notify us and a duplicate will be forwarded by 1st class mail.

We are frequently asked for a list of the 60 Revolutionary soldiers whose families lived in the area of Old Catholic Presbyterian Church. The Chester County Historical Society, Box 808, Chester, S. C. 29706 published sketches and transcriptions of documents from many sources relating to the families of these 60 brave men entitled "Revolutionary Soldiers of Old Catholic Presbyterian Church" which is available for $10 per book from their address above.

These soldiers are: William Anderson, Robert Archer; John Bailey; James and John Bankhead; James and Joseph Barber; Hugh Boyd; John Brown; John Caskey; George Cherry; Alexander and Samuel Chesnut; John Corder; George Crawford; Thomas Garrett; David Graham; James, Patrick and William Harbison; Robert Harper; Andrew Hemphill; Arthur and William Hicklin; John Johnston; John King; Hugh, James and William Knox; Benjamin and John Land; John Lee; Rev. William Martin; David and Thomas McCalla; John, Thomas, and Mathew McClurkin; Hugh and William McDonald; William McGarity; Alexander, Moses, James and John McKeown; John McWaters; William Nesbit; John Nixon; James Peden; David Robinson; Thomas Stanford; John and Thomas Steel; Andrew Stevenson; William Stinson; William, William Jr., Thomas, and Hampton Stroud; and Thomas Thorn.

Dr. Alma Freeland, professor emeritus University of Texas, speaking to the East Texas Genealogical Society recently had this to say, "---- I have developed some very special "feelings" about my research and believe that genealogy in an overall sense means to ---enjoy---share---preserve records--pass on to descendants--grow in appreciation of our ancestors and of the past----enrich and give depth to ones own life----inspire one to want to "live up" to his heritage----and most importantly, to write one's own story. Everybody's life is a story."

Just think how much of our own life's story will be lost forever to posterity because we have not taken a few moments each year to record the experiences, the impressions made upon us, our reactions, and the high and low spots of the year--such as, our earliest recollections, our first day at school, the family's first car, our religious training, high school days, college, marriage, etc., etc. It isn't too late for us "to write our own story" so those we love and those who come after them will know more about us than just the dates when we were born, married, died and buried. "Everybody's life is a story"--if recorded. Otherwise it's just a statistic, - (b) - (m) - (d).

Ethel Williams in her book "Know Your Ancestors" tell the story of a lady who wrote Abraham Lincoln asking for a bit of advise and his signature for a keepsake. He replied, "When asking strangers for a favor, it is customary to send postage--there is your advice and here is my signature" --- signed A. Lincoln. Let's take his advice and always send a S.A.S.E. when asking favors!

A CHURCHING WE WILL GO
By Mary Kell Wade

In this issue we shall continue with genealogical notes on some families who were on roll in the membership of Union ARP Church in Richburg between the years 1830-1860.

Dr. Lathan's History of Union ARP Church states that John Simpson was chosen an elder near the close of Dr. Hemphill's pastorate or the beginning of the pastorate of Mr. Flenniken. That would have been the early 1830's. He served until 1855.

John Simpson was born 9 Feb. 1803 and died 12 July 1884. He is buried in Union Cemetery. Beside him is Sallie Simpson, died May 15, 1866, age 63 years. A History of Union ARP Church by Jane Gaston Kitchens states that John Simpson's wife was Sarah Wylie. Dr. Lathan says that one of John Wylie, Sr.'s daughters married John Simpson.

John Simpson's sons were also an important part of Union. The Rev. John Hemphill Simpson, born in 1834, was ordained by the First Presbytery, October 24, 1867. According to Dr. Lathan he was of the Virginia Presbytery.

Two of John Simpson's sons served as Elders in Union. Thomas Elihu was ordained in 1853 and served until his death in 1874. His tombstone in Union Cemetery reads- Thomas Elihu Simpson- March 2, 1824- Sept. 21, 1874. Margaret J., wife of Thomas Elihu Simpson, Jan. 12, 1831- June 28, 1913- is buried beside him. William B. Simpson became an Elder on 20 May 1870. He and his wife are also buried in Union Cemetery. William B. Simpson- July 9, 1831- Jan. 5, 1901. Margarett, wife of William B. Simpson- July 26, 1837- Oct. 3, 1901.

Another son, Isaiah, born 21 Oct. 1838- died 14 Dec. 1911. His wife was Sarah Patton- born 2 March 1838- died 5 Nov. 1921. He became a dentist.

A history of the Simpson family, August 24, 1968, compiled for the Simpson Family Reunion at Union, give the following information about the children of John Simpson, born in County Antrim, Ireland 9 March 1770 and died in Chester County, S. C. 23 April 1834. He is buried at Union Cemetery. His estate was settled in Chester County in May 1834 by John Simpson, Jr.

John Simpson was first married to a Miss Miller, but there is no record of children. His second marriage was to Mary Jane Adams. By this marriage were: Mary, John, Jr., Thomas (died in youth), Jennie. By the third marriage to Sarah Stone there were six children: William Stone m. Elizabeth McCammon; Eliza m. Dr. John Bell Fennell; Hugh m. Jeannette Lyle; Stephen and Sallie twins; Solomon m. Rebecca Wylie.

The estate sale of John Simpson, 1834, shows the following buyers: William Simpson, Solomon Simpson, John Simpson, and Hugh Simpson. Dr. William Rowland received payment for his services. On 21 March 1836, the petition of William Simpson "sheweth that he is a minor above the age of fourteen and under the age of twenty-one and that his father John Simpson and his brother Stephen K. Simpson both died intestate leaving real estate and he is desirous that a guardian be appointed to attend to his interests in said estates and that he is desirous that his brother John Simpson be appointed".

Robert Fee was an Elder during the pastorate of Mr. Flenniken. The following is an excerpt from the Robert Fee Family by Nancy Monica McGee. "Robert Fee, Jr., the oldest son of Robert and Rachel Scott Fee, was born in County Antrim, Ireland, December 5, 1785, and came to America with his parents at the age of six years. He remained on the farm with his parents in Chester County until his marriage with Miss Agnes Nisbett, daughter of Col. William Nesbett, an officer in the Revolutionary War, which occurred at the home of her parents in Lancaster County. They settled on a farm next to his father's where they remained until his death March 8, 1852".

Robert Fee, Jr.'s father, Robert Fee, was born in County Antrim, Ireland, in 1750. He was the son of Captain William Fee and Elizabeth Dawson Fee. In the year 1780, he married Rachel Scott, daughter of Robert and Margaret Dempster Scott. After the birth of several children, they came to America in 1791 and settled in Chester County, west of the Catawba River and east of Fishing Creek.

Rachel Scott Fee died in 1795 and is buried at Burnt Meeting House Graveyard on Fishing Creek. Out of five children, four survived her: Margaret Fee m. William Tate d. 4 Aug. 1857 at Centralia, Ill.; Robert Fee, Jr. m. Agnes Nisbett d. Mar. 8, 1852; William Fee, b. May 1, 1787 m. Elizabeth Ferguson Orr, d. 1876 in Bloomington, Indiana; Jane Fee, b. June 21, 1789, m. William Cherry, d. 1846 at Landsford; Mary b. about 1791, d. Sept. 7, 1795, buried at Burnt Meeting House.

Robert Fee then married Nancy Allen who died in 1815 leaving no children.

His third wife was Isabella Hayes. There were two sons by this marriage: Matthew H. Fee b. Feb. 7, 1817 d. May 17, 1852 m. Sarah Davidson who died Mar. 23, 1897 at Bloomington, Ind.; and Joseph D. Fee b. Nov. 8, 1818.

In 1830 Robert Fee, Sr. went to Bloomington, Indiana, with the families of his son William and his son-in-law William Tate. He died there July 21, 1841.

Robert Fee, Jr. (Elder at Union) and Agnes (Nancy) Nisbet were married Aug. 13, 1811.

Their Children

William Nisbet Fee b. Aug. 1, 1812, m. Ellen Knox in June 1839. He served as an Elder at Union 1853-1854 when he went to Drew Co., Ark.

Sarah Fee, b. April 22, 1814, m. James Knox on Jan. 24, 1838, d. Aug. 3, 1858.

Eliza Fee, b. July 25, 1816, m. Henry Killian on Feb. 11, 1840. Some of their children went to Arkansas and on to Texas.

Agnes Lavinia Fee, b. Dec. 11, 1818, m. Benjamin Culp Hyatt on May 25, 1837, d. Aug. 11, 1886. They went to Miss. and Drew Co., Ark.

Harvey Scott Fee, b. Dec. 14, 1820 m. (1) Nancy Davis on Nov. 23, 1843, (2) Mary G. Hudspeth on Nov. 11, 1852 in Drew Co., Ark. He was lost in the army Sept. 1864.

George Dawson Fee, b. Oct. 12, 1822, m. Fannie Murrell in Memphis, Tenn. in 1845 (2) Bettie Reynolds in Oxford, Miss. on July 21, 1859. He died in Oxford, Mar. 4, 1869.

Martha Jane Fee, b. Oct. 16, 1824, m. James Morgan on Oct. 19, 1849. She died May 5, 1850 and is buried at Union Cemetery.

Mary Isabelle Fee, b. Jan. 24, 1827, m. John F. Steadman on Dec. 13, 1852. They went to Drew Co., Ark.

Margaret Monica Fee, b. June 16, 1830, m. Abram Henry Culp on May 1, 1852. She died Aug. 17, 1863 and is buried at Union.

Agnes Nesbit Fee, widow of Robert Fee, Jr. is buried in Rough and Ready Cemetery near Monticello, Ark. The inscription on her tombstone is: "Agnes N. Fee/mother of Isabelle I. Steadman/born Dec. 6, 1788/died Dec. 22, 1867." Attached to the tombstone is a NSDAR bronze plaque.

Sarah Nisbet Davis, sister of Agnes Fee, is buried in the same cemetery.

In 1806 Dr. Hemphill reported that 43 families were on the roll at Union Church. J. T. Marion, Clerk of the Session, reported on September 10, 1887 the roll of members from 1839-1858. This roll was reported to have been taken from a little book which was kept by John Simpson, the father of Rev. John Simpson and Dr. Isaah Simpson. The number of members on roll at this time were 161.

According to Dr. Lathan, more than thirty names became extinct from the congregation between 1843-1888. Many had gone to Ohio and other northwestern states in the early 1800's. About the middle of the century, families moved to Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Mississippi, and Tennessee. He found only two names that appeared continuously on the treasurer's list for the period of 1843-1883 -- Jamison Cherry and John Knox.

The following people joined the roll of membership in Union between 1839-1860 either by profession of faith or by letter from another church. They are listed alphabetically and not by the year they joined.

Martha J. Adams, Adams, Jr., Elizabeth Adams, William Adams.

John B. Bell, Thomas Boyd, Mrs. Margaret Boyd, Jane Boyd, D. Mary Briel, William A. Burns.

Mary Campbell, Miss Campbell, Elonor Carson, Mrs. Nancy Crook, Jane Crook, Milton Combs, Robert M. Cherry, Robert Cherry, Margaret Cherry, Margaret Cherry, Sarah Cherry, Harvey Cherry, Nancy Cherry, Eliza Cherry, William Cherry, Elizabeth Cherry, Mary E. Cherry, Mary J. Cherry, Elizabeth J. Cherry, Eleanor Cherry, John Cherry, Mrs. Elizabeth Cherry.

David Duncan, Mary Fee, Martha Fee, Margaret Fee, William Fee, Nancy K. Fennel, Margaret Fennel, Martha Fennel, James Ferguson, Mrs. Rachel Fudge, Sara Jane Fudge.

Mrs. William Gill, Thomas Gillespie, Mrs. Thomas Gillespie, Jane Gillespie, Mary Gillespie, Joseph Gillespie, Sarah J. Guthrie, Catherine Guthrie, Martha M. Guthrie, James Guthrie.

Sarah Hamilton, Mary Ann Hamilton, James Hamilton, James H. Hamilton, Mrs. James H. Hamilton, Elizabeth Hamilton, James Hindman, Jackson, Hindman, Hugh Hicklin.

This list will be completed in the next issue.

Mr. Max Perry, 2000 Harvard St., Midland, Texas 79701 - Descendant of Rev. John Simpson has kindly copied and sent us a list of visitations and instructions in catechism recorded by Rev. John Simpson. Beginning Dec. 12, 1774, while he was pastor of Fishing Creek Presbyterian Church, Chester County, South Carolina. These notes were in the hand writing of Rev. Simpson and hold much valuable information for all of us. Many thanks Mr. Perry for your gift to the Genealogical Society.

CAPTAIN HARDIN'S CHESTER GUARDS

Captain Hardin came from a large family. William Hardin and his wife, Elizabeth Cornwall Hardin, had thirteen children, and they have many descendants living in Chester County as well as in many other states. Captain Hardin is buried in Brushy Fork Cemetery.

The company known as the Chester Guards, under Captain Obadiah Hardin, came from the western section of Chester County. This company consisted of Carters, Cornwells, Hardins, Estes, Hudsons, Brakefields, Sanders, and divers others.

They went out in 1851 with thirty-eight men. Of that number twenty-four lost their lives in the Confederate War. Captain Hardin, himself, was one of the twenty-four. Of the fourteen, who survived, one went through life with an empty sleeve and another hobbled through on one leg. This company was organized near New Hope Methodist Church at what was known as "Carters Field".

Captain Hardin's brother, George Hardin and George Brakefield were killed on the battlefield. After the gallant captain's death, Lieutenant W. H. Sanders was promoted to Captain and John Wesly Wilks was First Lieutenant.

Roll of Company E, Sixth Regiment, S. C. Volunteers:

Capt. Obadiah Hardin, wounded Dec. 20, 1861 and died on 28th of the same month.

1. Lieut. G. W. Sanders
2. Lieut. E. C. Wilks, resigned
3. Lieut. J. W. Wilks

1. Sgt. Andrew P. Sanders, elected Lieutenant, died at Orange County Court House, Virginia.

2. Sgt. J. B. Hancosk
3. Sgt. Richard Land, died at Charlottesville, Va. 1861
4. Sgt. G. Williams, elected Lieutenant, 30 Dec. 1861
5. William Mayfield

OLD CEMETERIES IN WESTERN CHESTER COUNTY

Old Irish Graveyard

This old graveyard is located on Broad River and south of where Love's Ford was located. At present there is no Love's Ford, it having disappeared years ago. As is generally known, fords were the old means of crossing rivers and there were several across both the Broad and Catawba Rivers. They were usually named for people living close by or owners of adjoining land. Landsford in the eastern part of the county was named for a man in that area as no doubt was Love's Ford.

There were a number of Loves in west Chester more than 150 years ago. Robert Love's will is dated Sept. 30, 1793, and mentions his wife, Jean, and sons, James and John Gaston Love. He had a daughter, Elizabeth, and brother-in-law, William Gaston. Elizabeth inherited 300 acres of land which Robert, her father, bought from Hugh McCluer. The land he left his sons was on both sides of Turkey Creek.

Thomas Akins, who is buried in the old Irish graveyard, died on Dec. 8, 1814, and his will is dated July 11, 1814. His wife's name was Elizabeth, and he mentions a daughter, Martha, and sons, Thomas, Alexander, and Robert. Two married daughters, Margaret Johnsey and Jane Conn (Coln) were also mentioned. Thomas Akins' wife, Alexander Akins, and Moses Cowley were the executors of his will.

Some other names found on stones in the graveyard are: Martha Gaston, Robert Alexander Gaston, Moses J. Cowley, Wiley Duncan Cowley, Robert Cowley, James Love, Benjamin Love, Mary Jamieson, Jean Anderson, G. S. Crocker, Benjamin Moore, John Moore, Mary Harrison Moore, James Kirkpatrick, John Cunningham, Ann Cunningham, John and Mary Caldwell.

Simpson Graveyard

These few graves are located on the property formerly owned by Langdon Wise near Welch's Fork of the Castles Creek in the southwest section of Chester County: Jesse Simpson/b. 2 May 1802/d. 14 March 1872; Mary Wagner/wife of Jesse Simpson/b. 30 January 1804/d. 11 April 1884; M. D. Wise/son - Levi S. and Margaret N. Wise/b. 18 June 1870/d. 31 August 1873.

There is a connection between the Simpson, Wise, and Tims families. Margaret Tims Wise, wife of Levi S. Wise was a daughter of Joseph Thompson Tims (1813-1871) and Winnifred Tims. The first son of Levi and Margaret Tims Wise was named Joseph Simpson Wise.

Regular Meetings

3:00 P. M.

Second Sunday

Richburg, S. C.

In our Bulletin articles references are often made to various locations, streams, churches, rivers, mills, cemeteries, historic homes, battlefields, etc. in Chester County which are not shown on the highway maps available today. We are happy to include in this Bulletin, as an extra, a copy of The Chester District as it existed in 1818 which we trust will be interesting to those with ancestors who at one time lived in our environs. We realize the lettering is small but with the aid of a magnifying glass can be seen plainly. We have a limited number of Wall type size (20"x30") suitable for framing from which the enclosed one was reduced that are available for $3.00 postage paid for those desiring the larger size. (The above mentioned map can be found at the back of the Bulletin.)

We are most grateful to the following members for their contributions to our library since our last Bulletin:

1-Mrs. Luther Greene, Jr., 1026 Robinwood St. S.W., Camden, Ark. 71701: The Will of Jane McClure, The Dale Family of Arkansas, The Dale Family of Mississippi, The Dale Family of South Carolina, and The Boyd Family of South Carolina.

2-Mrs. Bessie Mae Stover Frink, 1611 Doncaster Dr. N.E., Atlanta, GA 30309: "The Protestant Immigrants to South Carolina 1763-1773".

3-Mrs. H. DeWitt Plyler, 308 W. Meeting St., Lancaster, SC 29720: Directory of Ebenezer Presbyterian Church Cemetery, York County by Miss Mabel Jackson, Mt. Olivet Presbyterian Cemetery in Fairfield Co., Hammond Cemetery, Beaver Creek Baptist Church Cemetery both in Heath Springs, SC, Old Beaver Creek Baptist Church Cemetery at Stonesboro near Heath Springs, Summerville Cemetery Liberty Hill, SC, White Bluff Baptist Church Cemetery Kershaw, SC, Cemetery Inscriptions from Chester, Lancaster, and York Cos., SC, the following cemetery inscriptions all located in Lancaster Co., SC: Shiloh A.R.P. Church, Oak Ridge A.R.P. Church, Bethel Baptist Church, McManus Cemetery in Taxahaw, Byrd Cemetery Taxahaw, Gregory Cemetery Taxahaw, Massey Cemetery Taxahaw, and Pleasant Hill Baptist Church Cemetery, Pleasant Hill.

We are proud of the library we are building and encourage all members to share with us anything they might have of genealogical interest so that our present members and those who will follow us may benefit from our thoughtfulness.

We are reminded occasionally of "errors" in some of the items we report in the Bulletin. We try to be as careful as possible in anything we research and publish. Many of our items or articles are copied from contributed material or records we find which we think may be of interest to a number of members. Obviously we have no way to check the accuracy of every contributed or discovered article but we do the best we can and do appreciate any "disagreement" or error being reported to us which, if serious and justified, we will correct in a future Bulletin.

And, sometimes - we receive a few compliments which we appreciate. We'd like to share with you the last paragraph of Mrs. L. K. Patton, Rt. 7, Martindale Estates, Johnson City, Tenn. 37601 letter of August 22 - "May I take this opportunity to tell you and the other officers that I think the Bulletin is excellent. You have brought your readers interesting and valueable historical and genealogical data and I marvel that you have been able to organize so quickly".

It is encouragement like this that keeps our all volunteer staff determined to try to make each Bulletin more interesting and helpful than the last one.

Mrs. Ima Gene Boyd, 370 E. Archwood Ave., Akron, Ohio 44301 advises "The Guthery Family of Cullman Ala." published in 1969 has been revised and brought up to date. It is primarily the record of the descendents of William Guthery and Martha B. Speegle who were born in the 1840's. The revised book has information about related families of Cranford, Crone, Shook, Speegle, and Wilkes. The 15 children of William Guthery married into the following families: Bradley, Harris, Holloway, Jones, Lett, McKoy, Persall, Still, Tucker, Vickery, Sinyard, Williamson, and Young.

This revised and updated book of 170 pages plus 15 picture pages is available from Mrs. Boyd fro $10.

We have had several new members join since our surname list was compiled and mailed in July. We would like to carry a list of surnames in future Bulletins as space will permit of all new members plus any of our regular members who did not get their list to us in time for inclusion in our list published in July.

When we publish your list of surnames, you are "asking" our other 225 members who may be interested in the same lines to contact you. It is an excellent way to give and to receive help and we encourage you to let your Bulletin work for you in this way, however, please limit your list to no more than 8 surnames per issue.

Have you finished your Christmas shopping?--If not, why not consider the following items for any of your "kith and kin" or friends with roots in Chester County: 1-Survey of Historical Sites in Chester County $5.50; 2-Revolutionary Soldiers of Ole Catholic Presbyterian Church $10; 3-Rev. William Bank's sermon preached 108 years ago on the occasion of Ole Catholic's 101st anniversary $2; 4-Cemetery inscriptions in Ole Catholic's cemetery $3.50; 5-List, location, and inscription of All Historical Markers on South Carolina highways $3.50.

All are in stock and available for mailing with postage included in above prices. Orders may be sent to Mrs. B. F. Nichols, Box 64, Richburg, SC 29729.

Have you noticed the new cover on this issue of the Bulletin? Mrs. Wm. Miller, Jr., Tulsa, Okla. sent several appropriate and beautiful drawings to select from which made it difficult to choose THE one most suitable. We wonder how Mrs. Miller knew our supply of former covers was about exhausted? We doubly appreciate the effort she put forth to give us so many to choose from.

A Bit of Humor contributed by W. W. (Bill) Stokes of Chester -
"A letter from Mama Buchheit to son in the Army:

Dear Son,

Just a few lines to let you know that I'm still alive. I'm writing this letter slowly because I know that you cannot read fast. You won't know the house when you come home . . . we've moved. . . .

About your father . . . he has a lovely new job. He has 500 men under him. He is cutting the grass at the cemetery

There was a washing machine in the new house when we moved in, but it isn't working too good. Last week I put 7 shirts into it, pulled the chain, and I haven't seen the shirts since

Your sister, Mary, had a baby this morning. I haven't found out whether it is a boy or girl, so I don't know whether you're an Aunt or Uncle

Your father didn't have much to drink at Christmas. I put a bottle of castor oil in his quart of beer. It kept him going 'til

New Year's day. I went to the doctor on Thursday and your father came with me. The doctor put a tube into my mouth and told me not to open it for ten minutes. Your father offered to buy it from him

It only rained twice last week. First for three days, and then for four days. Monday it was so windy that one of our chickens laid the same egg four times

We had a letter yesterday from the undertaker. He said if the last installment wasn't paid on your grandmother within seven days, up she comes

Your loving mother,

Mamm Buchheit

P. S. I was going to send you $10.00, but I had already sealed the envelope."

A CHURCHING WE WILL GO
By Mary Kell Wade

Two more of the families who were in the congregation of Union A.R.P. Church before 1860, and who still have descendents in this area are the Marions and the Martins.

John Alexander Marion was ordained an Elder in Union Church in the summer of 1853. His grandfather, James William Marion was born in Rochelle, France in 1730 and moved to County Antrim, Ireland, where he died in 1778. Two of his sons came to Fairfield County, South Carolina.

William Marion, b. 1752 or 1753 in Ireland, d. in Fairfield County Dec. 19, 1834. He is buried in the cemetery at Catholic Presbyterian Church. His wife was Jeanne Stewart. Their children were: James Marion m. ? King; Robert Marion, unmarried; William Marion m. Harriet Elliott, moved to Mississippi; Nellie Marion m. John Harvey, moved to Mississippi; Rosannah Marion m. John Caskey, went to Mississippi; Martha Marion m. John Torbit, moved to Mississippi.

Patrick Marion, b. in Ireland in August 1772, d. September 22, 1854, m. in 1794 Jane McNeely, b. 1778 in Ireland, d. June 2, 1841. She was the daughter of James McNeely. They came to Fairfield County about 1821 after all their children were born. Both are buried at New Hope A.R.P. Church Cemetery in Fairfield County.

John Alexander Marion was the eighth and youngest child of Patrick and Jane McNeely Marion. He was born June 21, 1819 and d. November 13, 1897. On September 30, 1841 he married Margaret Jane Sterling, b. May 14, 1824, d. February 23, 1910. Both are buried in Union Church Cemetery.

His other brothers and sisters were: Mary Marion, b. 1796, m. George Reed, d. 1865, Winston Co., Miss.; James Marion, b. 1800 m. Sarah Bankhead, d. 1880, Chickasaw Co., Miss.; William Marion, b. 1804, m. Miss McConnell, d. about 1846, Chickasaw Co., Miss.; Agnes Marion, b. 1807, m. John Boyd, d. 1832, Fairfield Co., S. C.; Jane Marion, b. 1810, m. John Aiken, d. about 1854, Fairfield Co., S. C.; Elleanor Marion, b. 1813, m. Henry McDowell, d. 1880, Chickasaw Co., Miss.; David Taylor Marion, b. 1816, m. Miss Bankhead, d. 1900, Chickasaw Co., Miss.

John Alexander and Margaret Jane Sterling Marion had eleven children:

Samuel McNeely Marion, b. November 22, 1842, d. April 28, 1843, buried at Hopewell A.R.P. Church.

James Taylor Marion, b. July 19, 1845, d. April 19, 1911, m. Jane Hardin, b. August 24, 1853, d. June 20, 1916. Both are buried at Union A.R.P.

Infant daughter, b. November 11, 1846 - Hopewell Cemetery.

J. Preston Marion, Presbyterian minister, b. December 29, 1847, d. October 31, 1907, m. Emma Castles, b. May 19, 1847, d. January 21, 1917 - Union Cemetery.

Samuel Blaine Marion, b. February 12, 1851, d. April 30, 1866 - Hopewell A.R.P. Cemetery.

Thomas David Marion, M. D., b. January 8, 1854, d. September 26, 1893, m. (1) Julia Moffatt, b. August 8, 1859, d. October 7, 1875, (2) Ella Hardin, b. December 11, 1858, d. April 7, 1942--Union Cemetery.

William Francis Marion, b. September 1, 1855, d. December 12, 1925, m. Laura Jeanette Simonton Douglas, b. October 17, 1857, d. November 4, 1929--Evergreen Cemetery, Chester, SC.

Margaret Marion, b. May 20, 1858, d. September 19, 1944, m. David M. Garrett--buried at Fountain Inn, S. C.

Alexander Boyce Marion, noted surgeon in New York City, b. June 6, 1861, d. unmarried February 17, 1938--Union A.R.P. Cemetery.

Eugenia Marion, b. July 10, 1863, d. 1872--Hopewell A.R.P. Cem.

Christopher Lafayette Stirling Marion, b. October 22, 1865, d. 1872--Hopewell Cemetery.

Of the above, James Taylor Marion became an Elder in Union Church in 1875.

According to his tombstone in Union Cemetery, James Martin was born in County Derry, Ireland, Parish of Drumauil. He died May 14, 1844, age 83 years. His wife Mary Martin was born in County Armagh, Ireland. She died November 24, 1842 in her 74th year.

James Martin's will was probated in Chester County in May, 1844 and recorded in book C, page 31. He names his daughters as: Elizabeth Knox, Sarah Wylie, Jenny Ann McDaniel, Nancy Agnew, Polly Nelson, who was deceased at that time but proper ty was left to her children. One son, Samuel Martin, was named. It may be that the Joseph Martin who was interred in Union Cemetery February 23, 1811, age 16 was also a son. The grand-children were: James Knox, Martin Knox, James Wylie, Martin Wylie, Rebecca Ann Martin, James Henry Martin, Joseph Martin, George Nelson, Jannet Nelson, James Martin McDaniel, Jackson McDaniel, Mary I. Agnew, James C. Agnew, and Martin C. Little.

James Martin's son Samuel b. January 15, 1805 d. July 4, 1851. His will was probated in August 1851 and recorded in Book A, page 93 in Chester County. His wife was Melinda. The children named were: Rebecca Ann, Mary Jane, James Henry, Martha, Margaret, Joseph, William, Samuel, and John.

Melinda (Wylie) Martin, wife of Samuel Martin was born October 5, 1807 and died September 29, 1895.

Four of Samuel and Melinda Martin's sons served in the Confederate Army. Two of them lost their lives in service. Their tombstones in Union Cemetery read: Samuel Martin b. May 2, 1843, d. April 7, 1865; John Martin b. July 16, 1846, d. October 8, 1864. Joseph Martin b. February 13, 1839, d. November 27, 1921 married Barbara Nunnery b. December 25, 1839 d. October 2, 1912. Both are buried at Union Cem. William Martin b. July 1840 married Elizabeth Ferguson Thomas b. June 22, 1856 d. 1943. They lived in York County, SC and are buried at Neely's Creek A.R.P. Cemetery. Descendents of both William and Joseph Martin are living in Chester and York Counties.

There is a will for another William Martin in the Chester County Courthouse. Whether or not there is any connection between him and the James Martin who attended Union is not certain. The will made in October 1787 was probated in January 1796 and recorded in Book A, page 21. It names wife, Mary; daughters Margaret and Mary; and sons James, Archibald, and Alexander.

In the last issue of the Bulletin we listed alphabetically the names of members who joined Union Church before 1860. This continues the list.

William Neely Jack, Smith Kitchens, Mary Ann Kitchens, Mary Keenan, Mrs. Martha G. Knox, Mrs. Martin Knox, Martin Knox, W. Franklin.

This couple had sons: Matthew, who married Jane Jamison; John, who married Sarah Fullerton and is supposed to have gone to Pickens Co., SC; Robert, who married Elizabeth Fullerton.

We have for several issues been giving the list of names of people buried in the "Campo" Cemetery, Sao Paulo State, Brazil. Not all the people who have dead in this cemetery are as lucky as Mrs. Betty Antunes de Oliveira, who could come to the United States to look for her ancestors. If you have kin who went with this colony to South America, please send her information about them, particularly their forebears. The address is Mrs. Betty Antunes de Oliveira, Raa Homen de Melo, 86 Apto 1303 20510. Tijuca, Rio de Janeiro, R.J. - Brazil, South America.

Regular Meetings
3:00 P. M.

Second Sunday
Richburg, S.C.

On November 11, in accordance with our by-laws, the Chester County Genealogical Society held it's annual business meeting at which time the four officers shown on the back of the cover page who served in 1979 were re-elected to the same office for the 1980 year. In addition, the by-laws were amended to create a board of 9 directors, four of whom shall be the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer. The following 5 members were elected at large to complete the board for 1980: Mrs. DeWitt Plyler of Lancaster, Mrs. Marion Bankhead of Lowrys, Mrs. S. Lewis Bell, Miss Dorothy Smith, and Mr. Conway Carter of Chester.

Our second year has been a very successful and satisfying one in many ways. Our membership has more than doubled to 275, our library of contributed materials is rapidly expanding, participation by members here and away has been most encouraging, and financially we have been able to build a small surplus which will be used to purchase needed equipment, appropriate genealogical material, and hopefully for some research expense. Perhaps most heartening, we will not have to ask for an increase in 1980 dues!

All memberships are on a calendar year basis so as we go into 1980 may we remind you to use the enclosed form attached to your check to renew your membership now since we are not equipped to send and cannot afford the expense of sending reminder notices. Individual dues will continue at $6 per person or in the case of husband and wife, $10 per year.

On the enclosed renewal notice we have provided space for a maximum of 8 surnames which we hope you will give us now. About the first of July we will again publish our complete membership list with names and addresses and the list of surnames you send us now will be used as your surname list at that time. Again, please limit your list to no more than 8 surnames.

We promise a Bulletin each quarter in 1980 chock-full of genealogical information and queries as well as the surname list. With your help, suggestions, contributions of articles of interest and our determination, 1980 can be our greatest year and membership in the Chester County Genealogical Society the biggest bargain in the genealogical field!

In 1980 let's try harder to secure the maximum response to the queries published and may we encourage more of you to participate in using and answering this excellent opportunity to communicate with others who are interested in the same family lines you are.

Long wordy queries containing too many questions and involving more than one or two surnames seldom receive the response they should. The real--and perhaps only--purpose of a query is to put you in touch with others who are interested in the same line or lines you are so that much information can be exchanged and discussed between the two of you as you work together towards a common goal. The kind of queries that seek who, what, where, and when spot answers with an offer "to refund postage" do not develop the kind of relationship that should and must exist between two people interested in the same common goal.

As our membership increases we have a space problem since only a certain percentage of our Bulletin can be allocated to queries but so does ones chances increase of receiving replies. In 1980 we want to stay current in our query section and not have long carryovers from one Bulletin to the next. We would like to establish the following guidelines which we ask all members to abide by: 1- No limit to the number of queries that may be submitted. 2- Limit each query to no more than 60 words. 3- Use abbreviations where possible. 4- Write each query on a separate card or sheet of paper. Do not include the query in the body of a letter. 5- Do your own editing as you know best what you want to say. If we follow the above suggestions and stay within these guidelines our queries can and will be more productive.

LIBRARY CONTRIBUTIONS: Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Coogler of Chester, representing the eleven nieces and nephews of the late Mr. Arthur Cornwall have given to our library approximately 30 different collections of Mr. Cornwall's which we are extremely happy to receive. These will be available to members to review when visiting the library and from time to time we shall include in future Bulletins portions of Mr. Cornwall's collections that we believe will be helpful to our members. Here are samples of the kind of materials given to us: Book listing those who fought in the battle of Kings Mountain, Confederate soldiers from Chester County, papers on Elam-Phillips-Glover, Simpson-Tims Bible records. The Egger family, the Elliott family, Dyer papers, notes on Bennett-Loving families, notebook containing copies of items from the Chester Reporter May 13, 1875 to September 16, 1897, etc., etc.

Our library contributions since our last Bulletin also include "History of Steele Creek Presbyterian Church" in Mecklenburg County, N. C. from member Conway Carter of Chester, Index to N. C. Wills 1663-1900 Vol. II in Bertie, Brunswick, Buncombe, and Burke counties given by member Mrs. Donna McDonald in Germany, Soldiers of the N. C. Continental Line through the H's given by Mr. Hiram Humphrey of Ft. Worth, Texas. We also want to thank Mr. Joe E. Hart, Jr. and Mr. T. J. Caldwell for sharing their copy of the members of the Dunlap family buried in Old Waxhaw Presbyterian cemetery.

Mrs. Helen Batlenberg, 13 Circle Drive, Decater, Ill. 26521 has prepared an index of the four 1978 Bulletins we published which is most appreciated. This index consists of 16 pages and should any member desire a copy we will zerox it for $4 plus $1 postage.

Miss Eloise Craig, Rt. 1, Box 56, Lancaster, S. C. 29720 has recently published "Cemetery Inscriptions of Shiloh Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church" which was organized in 1802. Family names buried there include Adams, Belk, Cousar, Craig, Draffin, Faulkner, Harper, Hood, Huey, Lathan, McAteer, McDow, McMurray, Nelson, Robinson, Sistare, Steele, Taylor, and many others. It is available direct from Miss Craig for $4 postpaid.

Three of our far away members paid us a visit recently. They were former Governor Coleman of Mississippi, Mr. Chester Shaw of Sheridan, Arkansas and Mr. Paul McGarity of Pine Bluff, Arkansas. We are always happy to have our members come and we hope, where possible, these visits can be scheduled around our regular meeting times in order that a larger number of our local members may have an opportunity to visit and share with our visitors.

For the benefit of new members who have joined our Society since the last Bulletin in September, we are listing below publications in our inventory. All prices include postage, and orders should be sent to Mrs. B. F. Nichols, Box 64, Richburg, S. C. 29729.

Calvary Baptist Church

Mr. John W. Bramblett, Sr. has done extensive research in the history of Calvary Baptist Church and has submitted his information for the first part of this article.

The first church was called Reverend William Fowler's Meeting House. It was situated about 500 yards from the west bank of Rocky Branch and about one and a quarter miles southeast of the present Calvary. The first church may have also been known as Sandy River Church or Upper Sandy River Church. The South Carolina Baptist Historical Society records show that the church was organized in 1776 and joined the Congaree Baptist Association soon thereafter, and joined the Bethel Baptist Association in 1791. Some estate citations were read at Fowler's Meeting House in the early 1790's and at the site is a graveyard with stone markers. Sandy River Baptist Church ceased to appear in the records of the South Carolina Baptist Historical Society in 1826. At the annual meetings of Bethel Association the church was represented by CHURCHILL CARTER, JOHN RODEN, and WILLIAM EMBRY.

According to the records of the South Carolina Baptist Historical Association of 1805, Starnes Creek Baptist Church was organized and joined the Bethel Association that year. From 1805 to 1822, the church was represented at the Bethel Association meetings by RICHARD WILKES, REUBEN WILKES, FRANCIS WILKES, and WILLIAM EMBRY. WILLIAM EMBRY represented Sandy River Baptist Church at association meetings before being a representative from Starnes Creek Church. This helps confirm the fact that Starnes was formed out of Sandy River and EMBRY was one who probably made the transfer. Starnes Creek Church was located near Starnes Creek and about one mile west of the site of Fowler's Meeting House. Starnes Creek Church was dissolved in 1828. There was a graveyard at the site but the stones were removed many years ago and the cemetery destroyed. There are a few gravestones at this site today. Starnes Creek Church was followed by Sanders Meeting House, but ceased to exist in the early 1830's. The meetings were held in an old crudely built house according to the papers of Mrs. Hafner Cornwell. This house was later used for Baton Rouge School for several years.

Calvary Baptist Church was located on land owned by JOHN P. RODEN, who later sold part of the tract to JOHN CORNWELL and another part to WALTER E. WATERS, the dividing line ran through the church site and parties signed on 5 January 1839 quit claim deeds to the church site in favor of Calvary. The present Calvary Baptist Church having been formed 1833. MRS. ALICE RODEN WILKES deeded one acre adjoining this land 19 July 1855, nine days before her death.

The present church building was erected in 1856 by MARION KILLIAN, THEOPHILUS McNINCH, LEVI and ALEXANDER WISE, and PINCKNEY BRIDGES.

The conclusion of the history of Calvary Baptist Church was submitted by MRS. HAFNER CORNWELL.

The REV. GEORGE PICKETT taught and preached at Calvary Baptist Church from 1864 to 1866. Later, BENJAMIN CRANFORD taught there. The REV. JOHN NEWLAND and the REV. SAMUEL NICHOLSON taught and preached there. REV. NICHOLSON died at Baton Rouge.

Some of Calvary's other early ministers were: REV. EPHRIAM FANT and REV. JOHN KENDRICK who each preached for a long number of years. REV. WOODRUFF supplied for a short time. Other pastors who have served are the REVS. T. CHARNER SCAIFE, L. C. HINTON, G. W. GARDNER, J. D. HUGGINS, F. O. S. CURTIS, J. H. YARBOROUGH, J. E. McMANAWAY, JOSEPH CROSBY, J. H. GARRET, DANIEL G. SINDLER, C. W. SALTER, J. H. PEARCY, REV. LOUDERMILK, DR. W. G. MOORE, EDGAR W. DAVIS, L. C. NORMAN, G. P. LANIER, J. IRA MCGILL, JOHN THOMAS DABNEY, HOWARD LEWIS GORDAN and FURMAN O. KELLY.

These names appear on the record as deacons: JESSE HARDEN, HENRY HARDEN, JOHN SMITH, FRANCIS BLUETTE WORTHY, HIRAM H. SHANNON, T. O. ESTES, SR., WILLIAM R. LIPFORD, CAPT. THOMAS MABRY SANDERS, WILLIAM HENRY WISE, WILSON HOPE WISE, RAY WISE, MAJOR J. W. WILKES, JAMES CLARENCE CORNWELL, WILLIAM PRESTON ESTES, SR., JOHN CORNELIUS WILKES, FRED WILKES, B. HOWE GREGORY, SR., and JOSEPH YARBOROUGH.

Calvary Church has had a Woman's Missionary Society since 1896 when it was organized by MRS. LOUISE McFADDEN BEATY. Some of the ladies who have served in different capacities have been MRS. MYRA SMITH GREGORY, MRS. SUSIE NEWBOLD, MRS. RILLA CARTER, MRS. LULA WILKES, MRS. NELLIE WISE, MRS. MARGARET WILKS, MRS. JANIE WILKS, and MRS. CLARA SAXON. MRS. ESTELLE C. ESTES, served longer than any other as WMS Secretary. Many of the ladies have been involved in leading the youth organizations. The Woman's Missionary Union has two large groups now in addition to the youth organizations. The men have a Brotherhood organization.

Over the years, Calvary Baptist Church has sent many fine young men to fight for this country. Some of these men made the supreme sacrifice.

Calvary Baptist Church is in the Baton Rouge section of Chester County about 10 miles from the town. The church sits on a knoll, the cemetery just behind it.

The following are some of the families who have lived in the Baton Rouge section for years and were connected with Calvary Church: Anderson, Bass, Banks, Cornwall, Carter, Parks, Wise, Wilkes, Land, Estes, Sanders, Gregory, Kirkpatrick, McCollum, Rhoaden, Randell, Smith, Mayfield, Ham, Lipford, Darby, Gore, Bridges, Waters, Humphries, Harland, Hamilton, Harden, and Wallis.

Vincent Brown McFadden was kind enough to share this bit of information with us to use in our publication. It is taken from The Tenmile Country and Its Pioneer Families by Howard L. Leckey.

WILLIAM BROWN FAMILY

Brown's Run, now known as "Toll Gate Run" or "Bloody Run" was named for William Brown, who settled at this location next to the land of Thomas Slater about 1771. Evans and Waychoff tell an interesting story of the tragic ending of William Brown, when he and Simon Rinehart had planned to exchange their lands, but both were killed in the process of moving to their new sites. A witness of this event tells a slightly different story, while a third narrator expands on both stories. Harrod Newland, a Frontier Ranger living near Jefferson, was one of the men called out to follow the band of marauding Indians that committed the act, and in his pension application from Indianapolis, July 17, 1833, says that the time of the incident was April of 1781, and that William

Brown, William English, John Owens, and another man were killed at their sugar camp as they were removing their kettles to go home. William Harrod, Jr., tells almost the same story, adding the name of Simon Rinehart, saying they were removing goods on sleds when the Indians killed them, but sets the date as April 1782. Since we know that John Owens' estate was probated April 6, 1781, we must accept the Newland record as the more accurate. This transfer of land by William Brown and Simon Rinehart being so tragically ended, it was not revived by the heirs of William Brown. Then on March 29, 1785, William Brown and Vincent Brown, sons of the dead man, conveyed a part of the tract to James Seals, who on May 30, 1791, added to his tract by purchase from Thomas Kent and wife, Ann, a part of the tract warranted to Thomas Kent under the title "Fogaronian" December 17, 1784. Prior to that on February 12, 1791, Thomas Kent and wife, Ann, had conveyed a part of their tract to Mary Brown, widow of the slain William Brown, though she was in the tax lists for 1784 through 1788. It was on this land that Captain James Seals built his stone house in the year 1792, after buying our Vincent and William Brown, sons of the deceased William Brown. (Washington County Deed Book 1-B pp. 61-62 and Deed Book 1-I-533.) The widow, Mary Brown, with some of her children, sold out a part of "Fogaronian" to Thomas Mitchell on September 11, 1805. (Greene County Deed Book 2. pp. 124.)

Children of William and Mary Brown

1. Mathew Brown, a lad of 17 years of age when his father was killed. He escaped being killed by a remarkable leap over an embankment as told by Waychoff. He joined his mother in the deed September 11, 1805.

2. Vincent Brown, who escaped to Fort Jackson and gave the alarm when his father was killed. He made a deed to James Seals, March 27, 1785, for his share of the property. He is listed in the tax list of Franklin Township in 1788, but is missing in the 1790 Census. George Fee released land to him January 20, 1790.

3. William Brown, Jr., sold out his interest to James Seals on March 29, 1785, and disappeared from the record.

4. Sarah Brown, had married Captain James Seals in July 1784, while still a very young girl. Her eldest son, William Seals, stated that she was the mother of three children before she reached her 20th birthday. He was born in 1785.

(See Captain James Seals' Records)

5. John Brown, he and wife, Jane _____, joined the deed of September 11, 1805.

6. Catherine Brown, married Asa McClelland, who died about 1854. Asa McClelland and wife, Catherine, sold a lot in Waynesburg, in 1810, but his wife named in his will is listed as Elizabeth _____. His first wife seems to have died before 1843 when he made deeds in which no wife joined. His will is in Greene County Will Book 3 pp. 171, and was probated October 19, 1854.

Children of Asa McClelland

1. Nancy McClelland, wife of _____?_____ McFann.

2. Elizabeth McClelland, wife of _____?_____ Porter.

3. Mary McClelland.

4. Mariah, wife of Levi Rinehart.

5. Dawson McClelland, died before his father. His wife was Sarah Hughes.

6. Asa McClelland, Jr.

WHERE WAS BARBARA McKINNEY SCALPED?

The annals of Chester County are replete with examples of heroic acts and tragic incidents, not the least of which was that of Barbara McKinney who endured unspeakable suffering at the hands of a band of savages.

Barbara was a daughter of Casper Culp (-1770) who in 1754 patented 1,805 acres between the Catawba River and Fishing Creek. It was granted by North Carolina before the boundary between the two provinces was settled. She married William McKinney and they took up residence on Fishing Creek just west of its confluence with Tinker's Fork.

During the summer of 1761 a party of Cherokee Indians camped near the McKinney cabin for the purpose of hunting and fishing. While William and his brother James were on a trip to Camden, the savages came and took Barbara captive while she was alone milking her cows and scalped her. Most victims of this kind of atrocity did not survive, but Barbara did, and lived many years afterward and bore a number of children. The details of this awful attack by the savages on this helpless woman and her family and friends can be found in Elizabeth F. Ellet's "The Women of the Revolution" (1850), Vol. 3, pages 88-86.

Although William McKinney did not receive grant and full title of ownership to his land until 1763, this tragedy no doubt occurred on his 200-acre tract. The accompanying map (located at back of this Bulletin) delineating this and adjoining lands, also shows path to Fishing Creek (Lower Richardson's) Meeting House.

The church known as Burnt Meeting House, Richardson's, or Lower Fishing Creek was established before the Revolutionary War. Although the exact year is not known, it has been determined that the church and cemetery was started before 1766.

The Rev. William Richardson of the Waxhaw Church also served both Upper and Lower Fishing Creek churches, often with services on week days. Burnt Meeting House was first given the name of Richardson in honor of the Rev. Richardson. When the church burned, the congregation built a church on the eastern side of Tinker's Creek, but continued to use the cemetery. This church was built on eleven acres of land donated by Benjamin Culp. The Culp's were Dutch Presbyterians who came to Chester Co. from Pennsylvania before the Revolutionary War.

After Rev. Richardson's tragic death in 1771, the church was without a pastor for over two years. In 1773, Rev. John Simpson from New Jersey arrived to pastor these churches. Later, in 1799 Rev. John B. Davies became pastor of Upper and Lower Fishing Creek. Elders of Richardson Church in 1810 were David Patten, Thomas Nesbit, and Abram Walker. In 1820, the elders elected were Alexander Crawford, Isaac McFadden, Jr., and Robert White. In 1825, Fishing Creek and Richardson together had 202 communicants.

Some names found on tombstones in the old cemetery are: Blanks, Culp, Dunlap, Ferguson, Fudge, Gaston, Hefley, McClure, McCreary, McCully, McFadden, Nunnery and White.

1.- Home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Andrews- 2.5 miles southeast of Lowrys on Hwy. 909 - built ca. 1900 by Samuel Hall Harden, Sr. (grandfather of Mrs. Andrews nee Margaret Harden) on land deeded to him by his father, William Holmes Harden, Sr. who bought the land from W. T. Sealey who had purchased a tract of 219 acres from the heirs of Isaac Smith (deceased) - being part of the land granted to John Owen March 1, 1790 - (Refer to Book W.W. Page 448 - Chester Co. Clerk of Court Office). After the death of Samuel Hall Harden, Sr. his son Samuel Hall Harden, Jr. and his wife Hattie Yarborough Harden (she was Judge of Probate of Chester) lived in the home. Upon their deaths their daughter Margaret Andrews now owns this lovely home.

2.- Home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Cassels Guy, Jr. - 1.8 miles southeast of Lowrys on Hwy. 909 - built by James Lindsay Guy, Sr. (grandfather of the present owner) in 1875 on land that he bought at public auction at Chester Court House Jan. 4, 1875 (Book W.W. page 448) being part of the land of Isaac Smith (deceased) which passed from James Lindsay Guy, Sr. to his son Reuben Cassels Guy, Sr. who remodeled the back part of the house but the front part is original. The home has now passed to Reuben Cassels, Jr. and he has a son Reuben Cassels III, so there is a good chance of this home continuing in Guy ownership for some time.

3.- The house on Hwy. 909 1.1 miles southeast of Lowrys built by John Allison Hope ca. 1885 on land that was owned by Rev. James Lowry and sold to Robert S. Hope (father of John Allison Hope) in 1853 (Book HH p. 447). This house has been occupied by many families since the deaths of the Hopes. It and the surrounding farmland is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Castles. They have built a new home near the old house and the Hope house is occupied by rental tenants.

4.- To see a house that has withstood the elements and everything that could happen to a house you should see this one. On Hwy. 909 southeast of Lowrys, turn left on first paved road and go 1.5 miles to the farm of Mr. E. T. Anderson (of Lowrys) which is on your left. The old house can be seen from the road. William Newton Guy, Sr. built his home there ca. 1820. He bought his first land there in 1813 (Book G p. 483) and 1866 (H. 271). His first child was born in 1822. His wife, Eliza Lindsay, died in 1841 and he died in 1863. Mr. Anderson's mother, Florence Guy Jenkins, inherited this property from her husband who was the father of Mr. Anderson. It was purchased from the Guy estate by Mrs. Hattie Anderson in 1894. The house still shows signs of bygone elegance of early country living---wide stairs to the attic are still solid---chair rail and plaster ceiling decoration in living room and evidence of glass panes in the windows.

5.- Home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Erwin Abell - Hwy. 909 .9 mile southeast of Lowrys, originally the home of Rev. James Lowry (for whom the Town of Lowrys was named). This beautiful home was originally built in two parts--the rear section is of log construction and could have been built ca. 1800--the front part was probably built ca. 1820. Rev. Lowry was born in 1780, entered the first class of S. C. College in 1805, graduated in 1808, took his ministerial training in New York and received his license to preach in 1818 (Centennial History of the A.R.P. Church published 1905). So it is evident that Rev. Lowry built the front part of the house and that the rear section was there when he came. It is possible that the early construction was by another brother of Rev. Lowry. Mrs. Lowry died 1851. In 1853 he sold 1069 A. to Robert S. Hope (HH 447) reserving the right to occupy the home and surrounding buildings for the remainder of his life. He lived only three months after doing that as he died in May 1853. Francis J. Erwin bought 732 A. from Robert S. Hope and J. D. Williamson in 1856 (JJ 257). Francis J. Erwin (grandfather of the present owner) died in 1878 and his widow owned the home until her death in 1896 when it became the property of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abell (Martha L. Erwin). The present owner is their grandson.

6.- Located on Hwy. 909 .9 mile southeast of Lowrys, originally the home of Adam Hardin and his wife Eliza Guy Hardin, probably built for them by her father, William Newton Guy, Jr., ca. 1870 as their first child was born in 1872. Mr. Thomas Jefferson Pressley bought this home from the heirs of the Adam Hardins. It later became the property of Thomas Ira Pressley, son of Thomas Jefferson Pressley, and is now owned by a daughter of Thomas Ira Pressley and is now rental property.

7.- Home of Charles Boyd Abell on Hwy. 909 $\frac{1}{2}$ mile from the center of the Town of Lowrys - built in 1875 by his father, Joshua Leland Abell who married Sophia Erwin. It is in a good state of preservation and presents a good example of the architecture of that period.

8.- The original home of James Garvin Lowry located .2 miles from the center of the town on Hwy. 78 northeast of Lowrys. He was better known as Major Lowry - reared by his uncle, Rev. James Lowry (the founder of Lowrys) born in 1828, went to Due West College and married Elizabeth Brownlee - third child was born in Lowrys in 1853 - house probably built at that time. His wife died in 1884 - later he married Elizabeth Anderson and went to live in her home across Sandy River. James Simpson Darby and wife Jane Guy were the next owners of the home. Now it is owned and occupied by Mrs. Earl Lewis.

9.- Home of Mrs. Charlie Steele - the first building on this site was a store built on Sandy River Road (in town) by Major Lowry and Robert S. Hope 1852. Dr. Augustus Frazier Anderson moved to Lowrys and made the store into a two story house where he lived and had his office for the practice of Medicine. Plat of land bought by James Lindsay Guy (SS 14) in 1869 shows Dr. Anderson's house at this corner location. The Andersons - son and grandson lived there until their deaths. The Walker Hardin family occupied the house later. When Mr. Steele bought the house he tore off the second story and changed much of the rest of the house.

10.- This house on the right side of Sandy River Road southwest of Lowrys is the first two story one after leaving the center of the town - was built by J. Samuel Guy after the Confederate War. He married Margaret Hardee whose family migrated to this area toward the end of the war. Their first child was born in 1868 so the house was built about that time. After the death of J. Sam Guy in 1906, his son William Alva Guy occupied the home - later he moved to Charlotte, N. C. After that time there were many families occupying the house which is now owned and occupied by Mrs. Edith Atkinson Hall.

11.- Home of Mr. and Mrs. William Alvin Byars is on the right hand corner as you enter the avenue leading to Zion Church in the center of the town - built by Mr. and Mrs. Rufus T. Sandifer in the early 1900's. The O. K. Pressleys bought this home from the Sandifer heirs and later sold to the Byars.

12.- The home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Ferrell located on Hwy. 909 .2 miles from the center of the town - built by Samuel Walker Guy ca. 1887 - Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lewis were owners before the Ferrells.

13.- The home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Wilson is located north of Lowrys off of Hwy. 321 on the left side of the highway. Their home was built ca. 1884 by Ephriam Henry Abell for his daughter Theodosia who married Joseph H. Wilson (grandparents of the present owner). Joseph H. Wilson died in 1905 and the home passed to his son Ephriam Henry Wilson (died in 1927) and now the home is in ownership as above mentioned.

14.- The home of Mr. Brenton Pressley on Hwy. 321 north of Lowrys about 1 mile on the right of the road - built ca. 1880 by William A. Anderson (son of Dr. A. F. Anderson). Mr. Joseph J. Lee purchased the home at some time after the deaths of the Andersons. Then it was bought by J. Brenton Pressley (now deceased).

15.- The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fougrouse Jr. just a short distance south of the center of the Town of Lowrys on the left side of the road to Chester - built by Abraham Hardee on land deeded to his wife, Fannie Guy Hardee, by her father William Newton Guy, Jr. in 1876. It is not known just when the house was actually built but after living there several years the Hardees moved to Chester and the house was bought by Mr. and Mrs. George J. Steele. In 1930 after Mr. Steele's death the house was bought by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Guy. The Fougrouses bought it after Mr. Guy's death in 1971.

Lowryville Library of Chester County, S. C.

This Library was donated by Dr. Delano Fitzgerald of Baltimore, Md. He visited the Joe Wilson family to hunt in the winter. The Library was built on a plot of ground on the avenue to Zion Presbyterian Church, deeded to the trustees of the library (99-718) in 1904 with the agreement that if it ever ceased to function as a library it was to revert to Zion Church. This came to pass in August 1955 (384-210). The Thursday Afternoon Club-Lowrys is now in the process of restoring it - not as a functioning library but as an historical sight.

CHURCHES OF THE LOWRYS AREA

The Lowrys Baptist Church was organized in 1904 (according to account written by Mrs. Fernie Darby) and held services in the schoolhouse. The first pastor was Rev. Salter and he lived in the house now occupied by Ainsley Darby on Sandy River Road. In 1906 a frame building was built on land bought from A. M. Titman just off Hwy. 909 north of Lowrys. In 1921 this building was replaced by a handsome brick church on the same site with a new pastorium nearby.

Zion Presbyterian Church was first located where the cemetery is now located 2 miles northeast of Lowrys on Hwy. 78 at the intersection of Hwy. 103. A frame church was built in 1855 on an acre plot of ground given by James G. Lowry (account in Minutes of Church). Minister supplied by Bethesda Church with services once a month. In 1880 they asked Presbytery for a minister of their own. Then James G. Lowry sold the Elders 6 acres for a cemetery and parsonage (55-579) (Chester Co. Clerk of Court). In 1890 the church was moved to Lowrys and the present church "on the Avenue" was built on land from J. Sam Guy (71-70). The old manse near the old Church was used at first but they soon built a manse on the new church property.

QUERIES

EDWARDS - GREGORY - SULLIVANT - BAILEY - JENKINS - MURRY - CARPENTER -- Mrs. A. B. Jenkins, 4231 S. Lake Cherryvale, Sumter, SC 29150 - My ggfather George Columbus Edwards b. N.C.? moved to Union Co., SC. Left SC ca. 1850 with his uncle Dr. James (?) Gregory for Louisville, Miss. where Lum Edwards entered the War then on to Kosciusko, Miss. Dr. Gregory received his medical training in Philadelphia. Need name of G. C. Edwards' father who d. ca 1842-1847. Any info will be appreciated. Also any ancestral charts. Another ggfather John Beverly Sullivant, of Dutch ancestry, b. SC, 1818 on to Giles Co., Tenn. shortly after. Entered Civil War from that state, m. Margaret Shular - moved to Attale Co., Miss. with another ggfather Bailey. My husband's ggfather George Washington Jenkins also went to Attala Co. One ggmother Caroline Murry, b. Ireland came to Va. for schooling m. Horace Willis Carpenter. After 1st son was b. moved to Starkville, Miss. My gfather was Henry W. Carpenter, d. (when his 5 children were young) near Water Valley, Miss. His wife was Lummie Edwards - seems she married again to a cousin of hers - another Gregory. Henry and a brother were road and levee contractors in Ga. and contracted to build the Miss. R. levee from Greenville to Memphis just prior to Henry's death.

SIMPSON - WYLIE - WALKER - BURNS - WRIGHT -- Mrs. Lester Campbell, R.R. 2, Box 138, Coulterville, IL 62237 - Wishes info as to family connection of Simpson-Wylie-Walker families: 1. James Walker m. Elizabeth Wylie (whose f. believed to be Adam), 2. Jane Walker m. Wm. McMillan, 3. Jn. McMillan b. 1789 m. Eliza (Wright?), 4. Hannah McMillan m. Jn. Stewart Burns (son of Stewart Burns and gson of Sam'l). Can anyone help to a possible connection to find any info here on the desc. of Archibald b. Mar. 1791, Janet b. June 1795 nor Elizabeth b. Nov. 1798. Mrs. Campbell says she has extensive early history of Wylie family. Needs info on Wright family. From gfather's info inclined to believe that his gmother McMillan b. 1794 S. C. must have been a Wright.

GRUBBS - HENDERSON -- Reva Mayo White, Rt. 1, Box 73, Fountain Hill, Ark. 71642 - Searching for parents or any family connections of Elias Champion Grubbs, b. 1800, S. C. his wife Mary A. (Henderson) Grubbs, b. 1801, S. C. They were m. 1818 and in 1820 moved to Talbot Co., Ga. Don't know what S. C. Co. they were from but in 1850 census Grubbs were living in Chester Co.

O'NEILL/O'NEIL -- Reva Mayo White, Rt. 1, Box 73, Fountain Hill, Ark. 71642 - O'Neill fam. is from Charleston, SC. John O'Neill, formerly Lord John O'Neill, Duke of Tirone of Ireland m. Nancy Moore 1790 in Charleston, SC. Their oldest son, John b. 4 July 1792. Also interested in names of other children born to John and Nancy Moore O'Neill. Descendants of the son John, now live in Bradley Co., Ark. Another fam. of O'Neills are desc. of Theophiles O'Neal, b. ca 1795. This family used several spellings of the surname. Only record I have on Theophiles is in 1850 census of GA. One of his dau. named Nancy. Would like to tie these 2 families if possible.

YARBOROUGH -- Howard Ferguson, 3102 Beverly Rd., Austin, Tex. 78703 - Interested in learning more about the Yarboroughs, who he thinks lived in either Chester or Fairfield Cos. His ggmother was Martha Yarborough, b. 5 Feb. 1789, SC, d. 7 June 1852 near Hartselle, Morgan Co., AL 19 Nov. 1811, Martha m. one of the numerous James Fergusons - this one b. SC, 30 Sept. 1785, d. Morgan Co., AL, 1 Aug. 1839. Although not everyone agrees, but Mr. Ferguson thinks he was the son of Adam Ferguson of Chester Co., SC. Martha and James moved to Morgan Co. in the early 1820's. A son b. 18 Nov. 1816 named John Yarborough Ferguson, apparently in honor of her father. This is the only clue Mr. Ferguson has to Martha's father's name. Inclined to believe that Martha's father was the John Yarborough listed in 1790 census in Fairfield. The John Yarborough in Chester listed no children in that census which was taken when Martha was one year old. Apparently these are the only John Yarboroughs who were heads of families in SC in 1790.

McANULTY -- Suzanne Abbott, 4317-41st St., Lubbock, TX 79413 - Seeking info on parents of Nathan Ray McAnulty who lived in Chester Co. in 1840. Joseph McAnulty was grandfather?

KARR/KERR - HIGHTOWER -- Donna Pasierb, 110 Willowood Lane, Noblesville, Ind. 46060 - Would appreciate hearing from anyone with info on the William B. Karr family, came from KY in the late 1780's from VA. Also the John Hightower family, came from NC to KY early 1800's. Will pay postage on any correspondence.

JOHNSEY - LOVE - WYLIE - ROLAND/ROLIN -- Robert W. Johnsey, 10663 Royal Springs, Dallas 75229 - Says an article in the Chester News of May 14, 1953 is the following* Mr. Jess Johnsey, gfather of the late Mrs. Ellis Love of the Mt. Pleasant section, a close relative of Mrs. Mamie Walsh Wylie of Chester and ggrandfather of Mrs. Mattie Love of the Mt. Pleasant Community, gave ten acres of land upon which a Methodist Church was to be built---* Page 3 or the Grant Family, states regarding the Armenia Church "The land was given by Jesse Johnsey and his wife, Mary", etc. Are Jess and Jesse the same person? Jesse and Mary were my ggrandparents also. What is the connection of the foregoing ladies to Jesse Johnsey? Our family records show a dau. Nancy Jane who was probably the 1st or end child to have married a Thomas Roland or Rolin. No record of her going with the other family members to Miss. Could this possible be the connection and if so, how? As far as we know all other children of Jesse and Mary can be accounted for. Sarah Robinson, Rock Hill, SC, can you help here?

CROOKS - Still seeking descendants of John C. Crooks, Sr. of Newberry, SC so adds Mr. Cheek.

MCCORMICK - FONTAINE -- Mrs. John Coyne, 5601 Bethel Pike, Apt. 535, Muncie, Ind. 47302 - Seeking parentage and birthplace of John McCormick, who was married & documented in Colleton Co., SC by 1794, b. ca. 1765, d. Jasper Co., MS 1840. Had one or more Fontaine wives, Nancy, Ann, Martha. Is he linked to any of the McCormick's of Camden Dist., SC or Anson Co., NC?

CHAMPION -- Mrs. Mary B. Smith, 604 W. Church, Greenwood, MS 38930 - Needs proof of parentage of Wm. J. Champion, b. 1823, SC - Lancaster Co.? Rumor has it that Claiborne Champion could be Wm. J's father because Wm's oldest child was Wm. Claiborne Champion. History of this family, Jacob and Anne Martin Champion, has been documented but nothing on Claiborne except the fact that he joined his brothers in AL ca. 1833, Lowndes Co. Claiborne died before 1850. Any help will be appreciated. Postage will be refunded.

BAKER -- Martha Jane Hawkins, UAM Box 1144, Monticello, Ark. 71655 - Who were parents of Jemima Baker, 1st w. of Wm. Nisbet (1753-1831), bu. Tirzah Cem.? Was she related to Aaron and Samuel Baker who m. Davis sisters, Jennett and Rebecca? Their bro., Israel Pickens Davis m. Sarah Nisbet, dau. of Wm. and Jemima. Was Wm. Nisbet's 2nd w. a Freeling as shown by DAR, or a Gillen?

CRAIG -- Martha Jane Hawkins, UAM Box 1144, Monticello, Ark. 71655 - Who is William Pressley Craig who m. Martha, dau. of Kathrine (Pickens) Davis? One Wm. Craig, son of John Craig and Elizabeth (Galloway) Craig, both b. 1727 and bur. Shiloh Cem., Lancaster, SC, m. Martha Davis, dau. of James Davis, Bapt. Tinkling Springs Presby. Church, VA 1748. This Martha sis. to Israel Pickens Davis, above. These two couples are confused. Need help with this.

BROWN - DUNN -- William C. Cuthbertson, 108 W. Buffalo, Girard, Kans. 66743 - Says the book "Revolutionary Soldiers of Catholic Presbyterian Church", page 27, mentioned the will of one John Brown, and he had a dau. Molly Dunn. Mr. C. says he had an ancestor named Mary Dunn, who must have been about the right age. He wonders if Mrs. Smith's book "Brown and Related Families" mentions this John Brown fam. and specifically Molly Dunn? The 3 sons of his Molly Dunn, whose husband was Andrew Dunn, were David, William, and James Dunn. He would be very happy to pay for Xerox copy, or probably would want to buy a book.

Thank you, Mr. Cuthbertson, for the booklet on church history that you sent to us. It will be placed in our library.

LINDSAY - STALLINGS -- Mrs. Rex A. Pointer, 1208 Cherrywood, Richardson, TX 75080 - Matthew Lindsay, b. 1830, Chester District, SC. Believe his parents were James Lindsay b. ca. 1795, SC, d. after 1860, LA, Mary Lindsay b. ca 1800 SC, d. after 1860, LA. Matthew m. Albina Lavonia Stallings somewhere between SC & LA. Both Stallings and Lindsay fam. in LA when Civil War started. After war and after Matthew was killed, his widow and 5 children went to TX with her father, Jephtha Stallings, her step-mother and some of her brothers and sisters. In Camden District, York Cty. 1790 census, James Stallings; in 1783, Kershaw Co. will of John Stallings; in 1778, Fairfield Co. - George Stallings. Believe James Stallings was Jephtha's father and Albina's g/father and was born SC. Am directly descended from Matthew Lindsay and A. L. Stallings on my father's side.

NEAL - BELTON -- Mrs. Janet Scott, 117 S. Grand, Rt. 1, Maryville, MO 64468 - Dr. John M. Neal, b. 1785 SC m. 1808 Rebecca Belton, b. 1791 SC. Would like to correspond with anyone working on these lines.

TIMS -- B. D. & Janet Scott, 117 So. Grand, RFD 1, Maryville, MO 64468 In 1830, Marengo Co., AL census lists the following Tims families: Benjamin, John, John, and William. These appear to be a John, Sr. (60-70), and 4 sons (one living with Sr.). By 1840 they are listed as John, Jack, John, Jr., Benjamin, and William, and the county name has changed to Sumter. Then in 1850 only John Jr. is still on the homeplace, which is now in Choctaw Co., Benjamin has moved across the river to Lauderdale Co., MS. Both claim to have been born in SC, Benjamin ca. 1797, John ca. 1814. Would like to know if these are descendants of the Chester Co. Tims family?

CRIMM -- Opal Lewis, 1707 18th Street, Tuscaloosa AL - Does anyone have any info on Thomas Crimm, Sr. w. Martha Jane Nettles. Thomas was from Kershaw Dist. moved to Miss. and then to Pickens Co, AL 1837. He was 76 years old in 1850 Census.

WYLIE -- Darrell S. Keith, 144 Coleman St., Carrollton, GA 30117 - Searching for info on Samuel B. Wylie, in Cobb Co., GA ca. 1850, w. Jeannette (G)? He was a Presbyterian minister, b. SC ca 1800. Parents b. Ireland according to 1880 census. Would appreciate any help or additional info on Samuel B. Wylie.

GRIGG - WHITE - MOSS -- Mrs. H. W. Dippel, Box 417, Ada, OK 74820 - My gfather William Nelson Grigg (1844-1906) b. York Dist., SC probably near Blacksburg. After serving with N. C. troops during Civil War went to Texas where he died. His mother was Sally Ellen White of York Dist. and her mother was a "Moss". William Nelson Grigg's father may have been William Nelson Grigg also, however, was listed as "Wilson" (maybe Nelson) 1840 census York Dist. He d. prior to 1850 census. Recently noticed 1850 census index S. C. that there were Grigg's in Chester Co. Could my ggfather - the father of my William Nelson Grigg have come from Chester Co.? Will appreciate any help or suggestions.

The Society would like to take this space to thank Mrs. Dippel for her generous contribution.

RODGERS -- Louise Pettus, 708 Harrell St., Rock Hill, SC 29730 - Would like to correspond with anyone who has any info on Collins Rodgers and Jesse Rodgers listed in 1820 Chester Census. Were they brothers? Was either the father of John R. Rodgers, b. 1814 Chester Co.?

CHAPPELL - HARPER - MALOTT -- Mrs. Wendell R. Wiggs, P. O. Box 7, Oakland City, IN 47660 - Needs info on James Elias Chappell and Nancy Jane Harper - William Chappell and Cassandra Malatt. According to Census, William b. 1806 m. Louisville, KY 1833, d. Pike Co., Ind. Jan. 1865. There is a belief they were Quakers. PLEASE HELP!

HICKS - ELMORE - WILLIAMS - WHITE -- Alyne Peck Miller, 2231 E. 18th, Tulsa, OK 74104 - Needs info on Jesse Nelson Hicks, s. of Reubin & Mariah Hicks, b. 30 Sept. 1811 N.C. Where? 1820 Reubin Hicks in Laurens Co., GA. Where in 1830? d. Texas Co., MO. George Elmore, s. of Jesse & Joana Elmore b. 1817/18, NC. Where? 1820 Jesse Elmore in Tennessee. Where? Thomas Williams b. 8 Mar. 1830, NC. Where? Son of? m. Mary White, dau. of Joseph and Temperance White of Surry Co., NC.

SANDERS - HOLIDAY - KIRKPATRICK - SEELY -- George A. Sanders, Jr., P. O. Box 183, Goodwater, AL 35072 - Desires info concerning his ggpaprents Andrew P. Sanders, w. Sarah Jane Holiday. George W. Kirkpatrick w. Sarah Ann Seely. Mr. Sanders says his grandfather was John Davis Sanders w. Annie Kirkpatrick, all of Chester Co. Any info will be appreciated.

SPROUL - SPROUSE - BAILEY - WALKER -- Miss Beryl Bailey, P. O. Box 518, Tryon, NC 28782 - Needs info on these names, Union & Chester Cos. including: William Sproul 1790 Chester Co. and the following Union Co.: Vincent and Lemeul O. Sprouse 1800, Joel Sprouse m. (1812) Sarah Bailey, William Sprouse m. Mathilda Bailey (1820's), Jane Bailey m. (1820's) Robert Walker and Edward Bailey b. ca 1823. Will appreciate any response and will exchange.

SPROUSE -- Mrs. Kathryn G. White, 145 Pinckney St., Chester, SC 29706 - Says in 1757 there was in Virginia a Village?-known as Sprouse's Corner, near Willis Mtn. This place is in what is now Buckingham Co. Does this Sprouse's Corner & Willis Mtn. still exist? Of what nationality is Sprouse? 1800 census Union Co., Camden Dist., SC, 2 Vincent Sprouse families found. Would like to correspond with Sprouse or family connections. My husband's gmother was a Sprouse.

RUFF -- Miss Beryl Bailey, P. O. Box 518, Tryon, NC 28782 - Newberry & Fairfield Cos.: 1790's households Newberry Co. of Christian, George, Godsend and John Ruff. One line moved to NC 1820's. Will appreciate contact with anyone doing research of any descendants

VAUGHAN -- Mrs. Anne L. Patrick, Rt. 5, Lockhart Rd., Union, SC 29379 - Seeking parents of: Christopher Lemuel Vaughan, b. ca 1786-7, place unknown, m. Ginsey Smith, dau. of Samuel Smith (Rev. Sol.), d. 1862-3 went to Marengo Co., AL. Ginsey states in declaration for pension that her husband died in Union Co., served in War of 1812, joining in 1814, discharged 1815. Children were: William m. Pamela Hughes; Christopher Columbus m. 1. Eliz. Nunnery, 2. Marg. Coon; Isaac Smith m. Eliz. Goss; Ebenezer Franklin m. 1. Martha Ann Bentley, 2. Catherine Hughes, 3. Eliz. Hughes; Giles N. m. Eliz. Gabin, 2. Eleanor Hinson; Lemuel B. m. 1. Eliz. Stegall, 2. L. W. Walthall; Julian m. Robert Lawson; Unicy m. William Bailey; Eliza. m. Richard Ivey. 1790 Census Chester Co., lists an Eliz. Vaughan and a George Vaughan. There was granted unto an Eliz. Vaughan, 26 A on waters of Broad River Camden Dist. bounded by lands of George Vaughan, Thomas Hughes and David Hopkins. Letter in Rev. Militia duty papers for a Christopher Vaughan states "deliver to ? Biggerstaff such indents that are due to Christy Vaughan, deceased" dated 27 Mar. 1787 signed by Elizabeth (X) Vaughan. Assume this Christopher and Eliz. are ones in 1790 census and could possibly be the parents of the Christopher Vaughan in question. Does anyone have any info concerning these Vaughans? Any help will be appreciated.

McKEITHAN - CLARK - TILLEY - BACOT -- A. K. McKeithan, Jr., 150 Briewood Dr., Palestine, TX 75801 - Researching McKeithan family, Bladen Co., NC ca 1750. Believe there was a McKeithan fam. or my line received land grant Craven Co., SC 1732 - moved to NC - in Bladen Co. 1750. My gmother Elizabeth Bacot Clark b. 1843 probably dau. of Neill & Mary M. Clark. Mary M. (probably dau. of William M. & Martha Tilley) b. ca 1804 SC believe Martha Tilley was Martha Bacot. 1850 Census New Hanover Co., NC lists Neill Clark w. Mary M., b. SC and 3 children-one an Elizabeth of correct age to be my gmother. Some deeds from same Co., lists 4 girls (3 married-1 single) & 2 boys probably children of Wm. M. and Martha Tilley who bought land Wilmington, NC - Stipulation Wm. & Martha use property lifetime then to be divided between boys and slaves and furniture to be divided between girls. Deed does not say these are children of Wm. and Martha but an old newspaper lists one of the girls at her marriage as being dau. of Wm. Tilley. Suspect Martha's maiden name to be BACOT because of my grandmother's name and there were a number of Bacots in northeast SC late 1700's. Wish to correspond with anyone researching Tilley or Bacot.

SPRAGGINS/SPRAGINS - PIPKINS -- Mrs. Stephen Wegmet, 803 Washington, Jacksonville, TX 75766 - say her ggg gfather d. Ark. w. Mary - she buried Bardley Co. Hope to locate them in 1850 census. Later census lists a Daniel T. Spraggins par. b. SC "T" could be for Thomas for Daniel named his first son W. (William?) Thomas. Will of Thomas of Edgefield Dist., SC written 1806 names w. Patty Wills Spragins, sons Matthew and Thomas, Ex. Wm. Spragins - No relationship shown. Believe there were other children-perhaps minors. Will of Wm. of Abbeville Dist., SC probated Jan. 1827 names w. Martha, sons Wm. (Now in AL), Thomas, Tabitha, Adkinson, Sarah Meek. (Mrs. Wegmet says her copy was typed and believes the comma between Tabitha & Adkinson was in error) Ex. John Meek and Thomas Spragins. A cousin in ARK said he could remember his uncle James Pipkins m. a Sarah Spraggins of Bradley Co. ca 1850. Did Daniel have a sister Sarah? b. AL. Could Daniel & Sarah be children of son Wm. in the afore mentioned will of Wm. Spraggins? One thing Mrs. Wegmet says that bothers her - Will of Wm. although not probated until 1827, was written 1821.

(To be Continued in next Bulletin)

The following information was copied from the Kennedy Bible by Mr. Arthur Cornwell. This Bible belonged to ROBERT KENNEDY and his wife ELIZABETH ROSS KENNEDY*-(1) JOHN KENNEDY b. 4 Jan. 1767 (2) JULIANA KENNEDY b. 6 Oct. 1783 (3) ROBERT KENNEDY b. 6 Nov. 1797 (4) NANCY KENNEDY b. 8 Nov. 1787 (5) MARGARET KENNEDY b. 24 June 1827 (6) CATHERINE BOYD KENNEDY b. 30 Jan. 1802.

Also from papers of Mr. Cornwell the following which he copied from a family book - THOMAS BENNETT and JOSEPH BENNETT came to the U.S. prior to 1790. THOMAS BENNETT married MARY LOVING and they had the following children: (1) JORDAN BENNETT (2) JOHN BENNETT (3) THOMAS BENNETT (4) FRANCES BENNETT, who married WILLIAM D. CORNWELL (5) POLLY BENNETT. JOHN BENNETT the second son married CYNTHIA HARDIN (daughter of WILLIAM HARDIN and ELIZABETH CORNWELL) their children were: ELIZABETH BENNETT, FRANCES BENNETT, ELVIRA BENNETT, AND JANIE BENNETT.
